NEW YORK CITY MERCHANT.

HOW HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

(From the New York City Catholic News.)

No one would think to look at Richard B. Brown, a commission merchant, of No. 396 Washington street, New York City, that for six weeks he had suffered in agony in his bed and the physicians had said it was impossible for him to regain his health.

But now he is back in his office, vigorous and hearty. He regards Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, as the savior of his life. Mr. Brown's story is remarkable.

"For several years," said Mr. Brown to a reporter the other day, "I suffered from inflammation and ulceration of the bladder, a most stubborn disease. My family physician was unable to relieve me. At the advice of friends I consulted specialists, and they all failed to do me any good. All this time I was growing worse, and at last I was compelled to take my bed.

"My mother-in-law had heard of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and she asked me to give it a trial. I had been confined to my bed for five weeks and I admit that I didn't think there was much chance of getting out of it. Well, I tried Favorite Remedy. There seemed to be a change that surprised me. In a week I was able to get out of bed and go around the house, and in a short time I recovered completely. To-day I'm as well as ever and what's better yet I feel that I am permanently cured. I can work sixteen hours a day now, and not be broken up a bit. To Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is all the credit due."

Favorite Remedy ranks, with the medical profession, as the most perfect of all blood and nerve medicines. It restores the liver to a healthy condition, and cures the worst cases of constipation. It is a certain cure for all diseases peculiar to females, and affords great protection from attacks that originate in change of life. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, rheumatism, dyspepsia, all kidney, bladder and urinary diseases, gravel, diabetes and Bright's disease.

In this last disease it has cured where all else has failed. Any druggist can supply it.

Milligan—"If I be aither leaving security equal ter what I take away, will yez thrust me till nixt wake?" Sands the grocer—"Certainly!" "Well, then, sell me two of thim loans, an' kape wan of thim till I come agin."—Judge.

"My husband," said Mrs. Sharp, "is one of the most cheerful of optimists"—

"Indeed!"

"Oh, yes; he never doubts his own judgment."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Watterson on Lincoln.

In his great tribute to Abraham Lincoln at Chicago on Tuesday, on the occasion of the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of the murdered president, Hon. Henry Watterson said:

"I am not here for controversy. But when we are dead and gone the private memorabilia of those who really knew what terms were offered the Confederacy —within ninety days of its total collapse—will show that in the individual judgment of all of them the wisdom of the situation said accept! And why were they not accepted? It was the will of God that there should be, as God's own prophet had promised, a new birth of freedom, and this could only be reached by the complete obliteration and extinction of the very idea of slavery. God struck Lincoln down in the moment of his triumph to attain it; God blighted the South to obtain it. But he did attain it, and here we are this night to attest it. God's will be done on earth as it is in heaven!"

"But let no Southern man point his finger at me because I canonize Abraham Lincoln, for he was the only friend we had when friends were most in need, he was the one man who wanted to preserve us intact, to save us from the wolves of mere passion and plunder that stood at our doors; and so as that God of whom it has been said 'Whom He loveth He chasteneth,' meant that we should be chastened, Lincoln was put out of the way by the bullet of an assassin, having neither lot nor parcel, North or South, but a winged emissary of fate, coming from the shadows of the mystic-world, which Aeschylus and Shakespeare consecrated to tragedy."

Colonel Watterson paid a high compliment to Lincoln's powers in debate, his wonderful acumen and his skill at composition:

"I gather that he was not a civil service reformer of the school of Grover Cleveland," he continued, "because I find among his papers a note to Stanton, in which, with not the faintest anticipation of such apostles of culture as the Hon. Carl Schurz and Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, he bluntly says: 'I personally wish Jacob Freeze, of New Jersey, to be appointed colonel of a colored regiment, regardless of whether he can tell the exact color of Julius Cæsar's hair.'"

He concluded with an eloquent tribute to the dead hero's virtues, accompanied by an argument that he was inspired by heaven to his life work, ending with these words:

"Where did Shakespeare get his genius? Where did Mozart get the music? Whose hand smote the lyre of the Scotch plowman, and stayed the life of the German priest? God, God and God alone; and as those were raised up by God, inspired by God was Abraham Lincoln; and a thousand years hence no story, no tragedy, no epic poem will be filled with greater wonder, or be followed by mankind with deeper feeling than that which tells of his life and death."

100 OPERATIONS FOR CURE OF CATARACT.

Only Three Failures to See to Read.

After tabulating his last 100 cases of operation for cataract blindness, Dr. Sadler reports the above results. To measure the relative skill exhibited with that of other leading operators of this and other countries, a comparison can be made with several lists as published in leading ophthalmic journals. One gives "25 cases, one failure;" another "204 cases, 37 unable to read;" a 3d 142 cases, 8 failures;" a 4th "200 cases, 12 unable to read, 5 lost;" one list of "273 cases, 175 successes, 94 moderate results, 3 bad results, and one total failure." In only one—the list from Zurich—is the result a fraction better.

It is therefore the utmost interest to everyone who has cataract to consult Dr. Sadler, 804, Penn Ave., Pittsburg, Pa., before submitting to an operation. Send for illustrated pamphlet on cataract, with references. A personal examination is necessary to decide the condition and time for operation. All diseases, defects and deformities of Eye, Nose and Throat, Ear, specialties.

It's Grand Success.

The fact has been demonstrated by the thousands of testimonials the Mayers Drug Company of Oakland, Md., has received since it has sent its famous Mayers Magnetic Catarrh Cure out to the sufferers of catarrh. No medicine has received such an endorsement from the people in so short a time as it did. The makers sell the medicine on business principles, and a patent is not required to buy the medicine by the dozen to get a cure. The Mayers' Magnetic Catarrh Cure sells for $1 per bottle, one bottle to last for a three month's treatment. 3 bottles is the highest record ever required to complete a cure. General catarrh one bottle is guaranteed. No cure no pay.

This is an unequaled offer and if you are a sufferer from catarrh get a bottle from your druggist, if no benefit derived coste you nothing. A prominent railroad conductor speaks.

CUMBERLAND, MD., April 29th, 1893.

To The Mayers Drug Co.,

Gentlemen:—Yours to hand in reply will say that I have the highest regard for your Catarrh Remedy, my trouble is in a chronic form and expect to use more than one bottle, I used one bottle which removed the trouble from my head in good shape and am on the second bottle for throat trouble, if I should succeed with the latter as I did with the former I shall write you again in the near future. Hoping it will do for the suffering humanity what it did for me, I remain

Yours truly,
G. J. SCHMUTZ.

I was afflicted with catarrh last autumn. During the month of October I could neither taste or smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus Geo. Shautz, Rahway, N. J.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill. Cream Balm is agreeable.

Kissing.

From the Philadelphia Record.

The bill introduced in the Legislature by Representative Fow to do away with "kissing the Book" as part of the formula of making oath to tell the truth, and the whole truth, in legal proceedings, has been approved by both Houses, and goes to the Governor. The man who swears with his hand on the Bible gives as full surety and sanctity to his attestation as does the man who touches the sacred volume with his lips. The man who swears with uplifted hand, or simply affirms his truthfulness, is equally perjured if he lie, and runs the same chances of perdition as the oath-taker who kisses or touches the Book. It is a matter of form; and because it is a matter of form, the form may be properly so regulated as to secure sanitary safety.

A good beginning in the reform of the kissing habit will have been accomplished when the Governor approves this act. Happily, it may lead to a further reformation. Where one person in the course of legal procedure kisses the Book, probably ten thousand persons do promiscuous kissing. Among women, friends kiss friends, and even acquaintances kiss acquaintances. Babies and older children are the innocent victims upon whom kissers, male and female, bestow unremitting, unsolicited, unspeakable mouthing. Lovers occasionally kiss each other. Their infatuation is probably incurable; but consider the consequences. Consider the foul breath of some of the kissing fraternity, the decayed teeth, the danger of contagion. The lips are the gateway to the very life. If it be considered dangerous to kiss a contaminated book, how much more dangerous must it be to touch with the lips the source of contamination! The kissing habit is pernicious. If men and women must kiss, they should go as charily and as carefully about it as if they were walking on eggs. Medical science has demonstrated that the mouths of human beings are ready breeding places of infection. Babies, who cannot help themselves, should be protected against indiscriminate kissing by parents and care-takers. The Legislature, of course, cannot put a stop to the kissing habit; but every man and woman of sound mind can legislate for himself or herself in this particular.

Running of the Ear and Deafness Cured.

For the last 8 years my little daughter, Bertha, has had a severe case of running of the Ears, the odor was fearful, she became pale, thin and generally complained, but after a course of treatment with Dr. Salm, she is healthy and hearty, all running of the Ear has stopped, and her hearing, before being very bad, is good again. We recommend the Dr.

Felt Life Dying Rather than to Stand the Agony Much Longer, but was Cured by Dr. Salm.

For 5 years I have had kidney, stomach and liver trouble. The fearful pains in my back and bladder I had during that time made me often wish for death. I could hardly work, sleep or rest, and had to go out regularly every night four or five times to void urin; could hardly eat and when I tried a little of something it made me ill, and after 4 of our best physicians had failed to cure me, I thought it about time to die. Some of my friends, however, advised me to go to Dr. Salm, who had performed so many wonderful cures in this part of the country. After I had taken his treatment 4 days, I found it did me some good. I have taken his treatment now for six months, and I can enjoy life once more, and I would advise all my friends to go to this eminent Dr. to get cured after other physicians fail.

Yours respectfully
ELIAS ZERFOSS,
Somerset, Pa.

We Extended our Boy Cheerfully to his Care.

Our little boy has been cross-eyed for some years and was gradually getting worse. We knew of some of the splendid work of Dr. Salm's in Ohio, so we entrusted him cheerfully to his care. The operation was done within one minute's time and without pain, and now his eyes are straight.

Tumor Removed from Drum of the Ear.

I have had a tumor growing in the ear almost attached to the drum. Dr. Salm removed the same four weeks ago without any pain, and I can hear now with splendid results. He is a great Physician.

A Blind Eye Made to See by Dr. Salm Making a Wonderful Operation.

For over 10 years I have been badly cross-eyed. Dr. Salm operated upon me without giving me chloroform, nor causing pain or loss of blood. My eyes are straight once more, and the eye that heretofore was almost totally blind, I can again see splendidly with.

Mary E. Long,
Somerset, Pa.

Made to See Again by Dr. Salm.

For 10 years my wife Susan had something growing over her eyes, making her almost blind. Dr. Salm performed an operation and made a perfect success, as she can now again thread the finest needle, and read the finest print, and her eyes don't give her the least trouble. It was a fine piece of work.

Cancer Cured by Dr. Salm.

For some time I have suffered from an ugly looking cancerous growth on the chest. Doctors here pronounced it Cancer, and said they could not do me any good. Dr. Salm has cured me in short order without using the knife or caustics, and only an insignificant sore is all that is left of the heretofore ugly and painful growth.

Somerset, Pa.
