

The Somerset Herald.

EDWARD SCHELL, Editor and Proprietor.

WEDNESDAY, May 1, 1895.

It is hard to get the ring of the "pure metal" out of a "copperhead" party.

It is becoming harder every day for any intelligent and self-respecting man to remain in the Democratic party.

The best Democratic nowadays is the one who looks with most favor upon the idea of voting the Republican ticket next year.

The great drawback to Secretary Morton's public usefulness lies in the fact that he has no sense about the time to cut a watermelon.

The principal use of Democratic Conventions this year will be to show how badly the party is everywhere divided on the silver question.

The income tax is not going to yield as much revenue as was anticipated, but it is going to come fully up to the highest expectations in the way of making Republican votes.

The Democratic party, after all, has the satisfaction of certain knowledge, that times cannot be made worse than they now are, and therefore any change, must be for the better.

The city of New York has a reported population of 2,600,000, and yet only a bare 25,000 more returns of taxable income than all of which goes to show what a fare the law is, and how it is evaded by the unscrupulous possessors of wealth in that city.

England's conduct in the Nicaragua matter is arrogant and cowardly but it is characteristic. It is the course she has always taken in dealing with small nations. She is a swaggerer and a bully except when the other party is a country of her own size.

It is not generally known, however, in diplomatic circles that both Japan and England are trying strong endeavors to persuade the American Government to become the third member of an informal alliance which will resist any attempt to interfere with the terms of peace agreed upon by the belligerents.

The protocol of the continental powers is now almost ready against England, and it becomes of great significance and importance that the United States, under the circumstances, is almost certain to resist interference, and it is now generally believed that any favorable meddling would promptly bring England to the active support of the Mitthoff's government.

A well informed diplomatic authority vouches for the statement that Japan's wonderful shrewd plan has from the outset included the need of a stronger force to induce the United States to give her at least moral support in securing reasonable fruits of her victory over China.

Japan believes that backed by English and American support she could defy all her other critics, even such a strong combination as Russia, Germany and France. It is well understood that Germany's policy is to support the French and that she intends to pursue the matter further than she has already gone.

Russia, of course, is the power most directly concerned in the proposed coalition of the continental powers. She is not likely to undertake to say how far she will carry her expression of disapproval. If she resorts to any form of demonstration against the coalition, it will instantly become one of the gravest dangers to the peace of the world.

DEMOCRATS all over the country are asserting and trying to make themselves believe that the "protection" issue will play but little part in the next Presidential campaign. Just wait and see. The millions of working people throughout the country have had too little taste of Democratic "tariff reform" to forget it very soon.

JAPAN and China having agreed upon a settlement that is satisfactory to themselves, it is hard to understand by what right, Russia or any other continental power can interfere with it. It looks as if a pretext was being sought by the greater powers to bully the Japs because they have proved themselves such gallant fighters and dangerous foes.

MR. CLEVELAND has insisted, in spite of all protests, on removing the widowed sister of Abraham Lincoln from the little Kentucky postoffice which was her sole support, and has given it to a Democratic politician of the neighborhood. If this is not the very smallest and meanest bit of nepotism which a Democratic President was ever guilty of, it is a very near it. Boston Journal Rep.

THE world do move! A few days since a Kentucky "gentleman" was actually sentenced to pay a fine of $50, and undergo an imprisonment of ten days, for polluting a pond on another. So great was the management throughout the State that the Governor announced that he will remit the imprisonment part of the penalty.

It would never do such to send a Kentucky "gentleman" to a common jail.

ABRAHAM S. HEWITT says that the Democratic party does not need reorganization so much as it needs a new birth. No amount of organizing can make the present Democratic clean or honest or capable of upholding American interests. The party needs to change the character of its leading elements, to cease to rely on ignorance and class prejudice as the main prop of its strength, to throw overboard its false and dishonest principles and to learn the meaning of patriotism.

THE haze is the estimated revenue from the income tax, and the small amount received from duties on imported goods, makes it certain that there will be a deficit of not less than $50,000,000 for the current fiscal year, and the probabilities are that a further issue of bonds will have to be resorted to.

It is considered probable that, notwithstanding the President's reluctance to call an extra session of Congress, that he will be constrained to do so for the purpose of dealing with the revenue problem.

THE war in Cuba is still progressing, but with what results is something that "no fellow can find out." One day we hear that the Cuban insurgents have been badly defeated and their leaders captured or killed. The next day we are informed that the Spanish troops have been routed and the insurgents are increasing so rapidly that many troops have been called for from Spain. There is evidently something of a double-dealing here furnishing Cuban news. We can only say, as did the showman, when asked by the children which was the lion and which the elephant. "My little dear, you paid your money, and you can take your choice."

The Secret of High Beef.

It is interesting to note the developments thus far made in the investigation of the best question have about convinced Secretary Morton that a combination has been formed for the purpose of putting up the price of beef. The Secretary early in the history of the recent rise was inclined to attribute it to the natural scarcity of cattle. Notwithstanding the unusual advances in dressed meat, cattle increase in value, even less than it would seem natural to expect in view of the small receipts by comparison with a year ago.

Figures received at the Agricultural Department show that the estimated receipts of cattle at the Chicago yards for the week ending April 19 were 34,000 head, as compared with the previous week of 27,527, while the corresponding week of 1894 brought in 40,355 head. A similar decrease is manifest in the supply of beef. The week ending April 19, for instance, the estimate for the week previous was 57,257, while the corresponding week of 1894 brought in 65,355 head. A similar decrease is manifest in the supply of beef. The week ending April 19, for instance, the estimate for the week previous was 57,257, while the corresponding week of 1894 brought in 65,355 head.

These figures ought to indicate very much larger prices to the raisers of cattle. The price of the week ending April 19, for instance, the estimate for the week previous was 57,257, while the corresponding week of 1894 brought in 65,355 head.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

Harrisburg Letter.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 27, 1895. Both Houses got down to business on Monday evening, and a great many bills were disposed of. There is yet much work ahead, and if the session is to close by May 24, debate and dilatory motions must be cut out. The order for two days on Fridays was rescinded by the House—once session from 10 to 2 o'clock, being the latest for that day. Yesterday's session after special orders, was the consideration of Senate bills, of which were 117 on the calendar, and although it was agreed to go through the whole of it before adjournment, but 42 were disposed of. All 2 o'clock adjournment took place, with much discussion of the bill of the rule against smoking. And they smoked.

The bill for the erection of fish basins and oyster sheds in the Delaware river, which in the year was defeated in the House, and a motion to reconsider was not agreed to.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

The bill to prohibit changes in school books often has one in ten years was defeated in the House on final passage, having but 51 votes in its favor; reconsidered and postponed for the present.

Items of Interest.

A drop of castor oil in the eye to remove a foreign body is as efficacious and often more manageable than the frequently recommended leeches.

They say Mr. Armour has made $900,000 in three days by the rise in wheat. Meanwhile, the price of beef keeps up, and the chances are that the King of Packers isn't losing anything on that end of his trading.

The great Boyer dyke of the Episcopal district of the Voeges, France, burst at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. A great rush of waters, and much loss of life and property followed. It is estimated that 75 people were killed.

A. J. Blackwell, the rich and erratic Indian, who owns Blackwell and David City, in the Indian Territory, announced Sunday that he would build a temple at the mouth of the Red River, and erect a monument to the perpetration of Indian religions.

The notorious "Bill" Cook, train robber and desperado, arrived at Albany from the West Thursday, to serve a sentence of 45 years in the Albany penitentiary for a large robbery. The prisoner did not come alone, but had 29 companions.

Returns of the votes on the selection of a State floral emblem have been received from all the schools in the State of Delaware resulting in favor of the peach blossom by a large majority, and a bill will now be presented to the Legislature legalizing the selection.

A letter received at Haverhill, Mass., on Monday, announces that Frank Howard, who is at present serving sentence for forgery at the Massachusetts reformatory, at Concord, is heir to about $100,000 through the death of Frank Howard, a Nevada mineowner, for whom poor was named.

A suit is pending in a Camden, N. J., court, involving $40,000, a chunk of which two hundred years old was the chief evidence. Hannah W. Cresson brought suit against the Security Trust Company for the loss of a $40,000 note.

It is claimed that under the bark of the old tree are surveyor's marks.

Farmers in the vicinity of Reading section are now asking eight and ten cents more a bushel for their wheat than two months ago, and consequently farmers millers have advanced the price of new flour from thirty to fifty cents a barrel. Millers are now paying farmers sixty-five cents per bushel for a superior grade of wheat.

There is said to be an enterprising party in Cambria county who induced forty-nine people, whose salaries ranged from $1,000 upward, to make affidavit that their incomes were not big enough to warrant the payment of the income tax. The party has $100,000 which says that the income tax is a success.

Mrs. J. M. Heisel, whose mind had been unbalanced for several weeks, committed suicide at her home in Alvirton, Pennsylvania, Friday morning, by sending a bullet into her right temple with a thirty-two-caliber revolver, which she had surreptitiously taken from a locked trunk. She was about forty years of age and leaves a husband and four children.

Chief Justice Fuller announced Tuesday that the consideration of the two petitions for rehearing of the income tax cases were reserved until Monday, May 7, when the court is expected to meet. This does not mean that a rehearing of the case has been granted, but that on May 6 the supreme court will hear counsel upon the question whether or not a rehearing should be granted.

The Reading Star says: "At the Royal Amphitheatre, nothing so enjoyable as Mr. Huntling's Humane exhibitions."

Tramps Sell a Train.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 25.—The western train bandits' methods were enacted on a modified scale in the Juniata Valley today. Late this afternoon a gang of 25 tramps assumed control of a west-bound freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad. Several of them were armed with revolvers, which they did not hesitate to use against the train and trackmen, who endeavored to stop them off.

The train bandits were virtually powerless, and a telegram was sent to the Chief of Police here for assistance. A large posse of citizens, headed by the police, met the train on the east side of this city, and after a desperate fight, in which many shots were fired on both sides without effect, five of the train bandits were captured and brought to jail here.

It is believed that a cooperative train bandit is responsible for the numerous recent robberies that have occurred in the Juniata Valley.

The Cook Advertiser says: "At the Circus we saw and heard an Irish-American clown, Bob Huntling. He makes one's sides ache, but his wit is a tonic."

As Large as Hen's Eggs.

St. Louis, Mo., April 25.—A special to the Chronicle from San Antonio, Texas, says that meagre particulars have reached here of a terrible hail storm that swept through adjoining counties last evening. A courier arrived this morning from the town of Lytle, twelve miles south of San Antonio, and reports that town and a strip of country five miles wide, extending through Wilson, Boxer, and Medina counties, completely devastated by the storm.

The damage to corn and cotton crops alone is estimated at $500,000, while the damage to buildings will amount to not less than $100,000. The hail stones were as large as hen's eggs and the International and Great Northern railroad was blocked with them. Section hands had to tear up track ties, and would have run over that part of the line. There was no loss of life so far as reported, although many persons were injured.

Myersdale Normal School, April 30 to July 3, 1895.

Prof. D. E. Boyer and M. J. Phillips, assistants in the faculty's department, Mrs. George M. Phillips, Mrs. George M. Phillips, and Mrs. George M. Phillips, teachers of instrumental music, voice culture and painting and drawing, respectively.

Myersdale, Pa., J. C. Szczerka, Principal, April 10, 1895.

SEED : : : POTATOES, : : I am now prepared to furnish, at reasonable prices, the best SEED POTATOES and SWEET CORN that the market can produce. I bought last year the highest priced and best potatoes in the market, and tested them. They did all well, with the exception of a few that could not stand the terrible drought, which I will not put on the market. My crop was numerous last year. From 20 to 25 bushels of 45 bushels of one variety, an average of 45 bushels from 1 bushel. I can furnish the following kinds, all pure varieties: Maggie Murphy; Early Pringle; Keystone Favorite; American Wonder; Late King; Early Portland; Walter; Snow; Early Shamrock; Early Perfect; Irish Daisy; Rose of Erie; Dakota; Red; Plummer's Hero; Heibel's Favorite; Six-Weeks' Potato.

All orders will be promptly filled by mail or express. Address all communications to THEO. HEIPLE, Cooper, Pa.

I also sell the Gail and Engine and the best of the Miller and also, agent for the Monumental Bronze Co., Bridgeport, Conn.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

By virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias, and Lovell Farias, based out of the Court of the Sheriff of the County of Allegheny, do hereby give notice that he will execute and sell to the highest bidder, at the Court House, in Somerset, Pa., on Friday, May 24th, '95, at 11 O'CLOCK P. M., the following described real estate to wit:

All the right, title, interest, claim and demand of Elizabeth Overmyer, of and in and to a certain lot of ground situated in the village of Fair Hope, Fair Hope township, Somerset county, Pa., containing 25 acres, about 12 acres more or less, being the same as described in a deed from John H. Werner, of and to the said Elizabeth Overmyer, at the suit of Elizabeth Overmyer, at the suit of Edward Hoover, Sheriff, May 1st, 1895.

SPECIAL SPRING SALE

of 250 Horses, at the station of the Allegheny River Station, Ltd., Limited, office No. 32 Second Avenue, Pittsburgh, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6. A grand array of Wagon, Trucks, Kentucky Saddles, Roadsters, Canned Cakes, High Sippers, Carriage Harness and Pumps & Water Apparatus. Auction sales every Wednesday.

DANIEL ANHEIM, Secy & Treas.

All the right, title, interest, claim and demand of Emma Fleckinger, of and in and to a certain lot of ground situated in the village of Fair Hope, Fair Hope township, Somerset county, Pa., containing 25 acres, about 12 acres more or less, being the same as described in a deed from John H. Werner, of and to the said Emma Fleckinger, at the suit of Emma Fleckinger, at the suit of Edward Hoover, Sheriff, May 1st, 1895.

All the right, title, interest, claim and demand of John F. Hays, of and in and to a certain lot of ground situated in the village of Fair Hope, Fair Hope township, Somerset county, Pa., containing 25 acres, about 12 acres more or less, being the same as described in a deed from John H. Werner, of and to the said John F. Hays, at the suit of John F. Hays, at the suit of Edward Hoover, Sheriff, May 1st, 1895.

All the right, title, interest, claim and demand of John F. Hays, of and in and to a certain lot of ground situated in the village of Fair Hope, Fair Hope township, Somerset county, Pa., containing 25 acres, about 12 acres more or less, being the same as described in a deed from John H. Werner, of and to the said John F. Hays, at the suit of John F. Hays, at the suit of Edward Hoover, Sheriff, May 1st, 1895.

All the right, title, interest, claim and demand of John F. Hays, of and in and to a certain lot of ground situated in the village of Fair Hope, Fair Hope township, Somerset county, Pa., containing 25 acres, about 12 acres more or less, being the same as described in a deed from John H. Werner, of and to the said John F. Hays, at the suit of John