ATTURNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset, Penn'a. odness entrusted to his care will be at-

HAY & WALKER, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, and NOTARY PUBLIC,

ER B. SCULL, ATTOMNEY AT-LAW, No. 79 Fourth St., Pittsburg, Pa. A BERKEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

HARVEY M. BERKLEY,

A. C. HOLBERT, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TEORGE R. SCULL,

PEED, W. BIESECKER, Somerset, Pa. in Printing Bouse Row, opposite Court

I R SCOTT, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, I L KOUSER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

J. G. OGLE CONTZ & OGLE, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa.

neir enre in Somerset and adjoint thee in Print House Row, opposi ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, balerin Real Estate. Will attend to DHY H. UHL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, El peoply attend to all business en main mm. Money advanced on ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Somerset, Pa ped to all business entrusted to his

L. C. COLBORN MEBORN & COLBORN. ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa. less entrusted to our care will be

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, WEROTH, W. H. RUPPEL, FROTH & RUPPEL.

W. CAROTHERS, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON from Patriot Street, near R. R. Station

R. P. F. SHAFFER,

FIM LOUTHER, a Waln street, near of Drug store.

RHS KIMMELL, der his professional services to the citi-d'Sancaci and vicinity. Unless pro-mits conget be can be found at his of-a Kill St., East of Durmond.

our L. H. Davis & Co's store

249 Patriot St.

J. F. Beachy. Real Estate and Collecting Agency.

le Refining Co., Pittsburg Depart-labors, Pa., makes a specialty of distrating for the Tomostic Underthe finest brands of Saphtha & Gasoline, and le made from Petroleum. We chall epompurison with every known

Product of Petroleum I yes wish the most uniformly

Patisfactory Oils -IN THE-American Market,

The Somerset Herald.

ESTABLISHED 1827.

VOL. XLIII. NO. 52.

SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1895.

WHOLE NO. 2289.

know."-Chicago Post.

-THE-

Somerset, Penn'a. Capital, $50,000. Surpius, $18,000.

DEPOSITS RECEIVED IN LARGE AND SMALL AMOUNTS, PAYABLE ON DEMAND. ACCOUNTS OF MERCHANTS, FARMERS, STOCK DEALERS, AND OTHERS SOLIGITED | Velous." W. R. Young, Potter's Mills, Pa. -DISCOUNTS DAILY. -

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. LARUE M. HICKS, GEO. R. SCULL, JAMES L. PUGH, W. H. MILLER, JOHN R. SCOTT, ROBT. S. SCULL, FRED W. BIESECKER. EDWARD SCULL, : : PRESIDENT, VALENTINE HAY, : VICE PRESIDENT.

HARVEY M. BERKLEY, . CASHIER.

The funds and securities of this bank are seurely protected in a celebrated Contras Bun-GLAR PROOF SAFE. The only safe made absoutely burglar-proof.

The Somerset County National

OF SOMERSET PA.

Established, 1877. Organized as a National, 1890 | the price named.

--- 0.--

CAPITAL, SURPLUS AND UN-DIVIDED PROFITS $16,000.

-- :0: ---Chas. I. Harrison, Pres't.

Wm. H. Koontz, Vice Pres't.

Milton J. Pritts, Cashier. ---:0:---

DIRECTORS: SAMUEL SNYDER, WM. ENDSLEY, JOSIAH SPECHT. JONAS M. COOK. JOHN STUFFT. JOHN H. SNYDER.

yand faithfully attended to. Collec-dias Somerset, Bedford and adjoin-dias Surveying and conveyancing becombile terms.

Customers of this bank will receive the most beral treatment consistent with safe banking. Parties wishing to send money east or west an be accommodated by draft for any mount.

Money and valuables secured by one of Dieold's celebrated safes, with most improved time lock.
Collections made in all parts of the United tates. Charges moderate.
Accounts and deposits solicited.

Wild & Anderson. Iron & Brass Founders, Engineers and Machinists and Engin

Bailders. -Manufacturers of-

COAL CAR WHEELS and AXLES.

New and second-hand Machinery, Shafting, Hangers and Pulleys, Injectors, Lubricators, Oil

ERECTING OF MACHINERY A SPECIALTY

Strictly First-Class Work Guaranteed.

Shop on Broad St., near B. & O. Depot

Johnstown, - - Pa.

THE ART AMATEUR. Somerset. -Best and Largest Practical Art

Magazine. (The only Art Periodical awarded a Medal at the Invaluable to all who wish to make their living by art FOR 10c. we will send to ray one 4 0 c mentioning this publication a spent men copy, with superb color plates (for copying of framing and 8 supple mentary pages of designs (regular price Sec) (for copying of framing and 8 supple mentary pages of designs (regular price Sec) (for copying of framing)

FOR 25c. We will rend also "Painting for Beginners" (20 peges). MONTAGUE MARKS, 23 Union Square,

New York.

minating & Lubricating Oils ARTISTIC JOB PRINTING

A SPECIALTY.

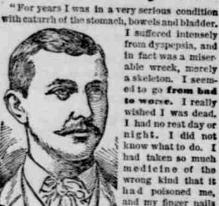

HARRY M. BENSHOFF, MANUFACTURING STATIONER

BLANK BOOK MAKER

HANNAM BLOCK,

Hood's Saved

My Life

from dyspepsia, and in fact was a miserable wreck, merely a skeleton. I seem ed to go from bad to wome. I really wished I was dead. I had no rest day or night. I did not know what to do. I had taken so much wrong kind that it had poisoned me, and my finger nails

Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had faith in the medicine and it did more for me than all prescriptions. I have gradually regained perfect health, am pain in my back. My recovery is simply mar-

Campbell AND

Do you read our advertise ments in all the Pittsburgh Daily Papers? If not, do so. It will pay you, and the inducements offered will persuade you either to visit ment, or order by mail. the goods just as advertised and at our Great Dry Goods Establish-

We have 69 DEPARTMENTS $50,000 all up to date in style, and containing goods at lower prices than you

Departments:

Carpets, Curtains Linen Goods, Domestics, Cloaks, Millinery, Silks,

ings,

Lace Goods.

Art Goods.

Crockery,

ings,

Toilet Goods.

when the master of the house entered. a series of articles for the Weekly Gazette-that I put your letter aside and forgot to tell my people you were com-

way," I began. Linings, Infant's Wear,

"No, no; not at all," he hastily interrupted; "only I am sorry you had to some from the station by yourself. Would you like a little refreshment now, or will you wait till dinner time? We dine in half an hour."

"I should prefer waiting," I replied. "Then come up to my room at once. Your own shall be gotten ready while you are at dinner."

Thus speaking, my host led me to his chamber, an apartment of ample dimensions, but cramed with books, pamphlets and periodicals.

Telling me to make use of whatever I might require, he begged me to excuse him, as he had still a few paragraphs to add to an article he wished dispatched by that night's post. "If I am not back by the time you have finished your toilet you are pretty certain to find my sister in the drawing room," he added as he left me. I made the best of myself that was possible under the circumstances, and as I brushed my hair was even able to smile at Robert Elliet's short memory and the surprise which my coming must have been to his sister. He did not return, so I ventured downstairs unaccompanied. An open door showing an interior of softly-tintblue prevading the furniture, guided she was the weinored woman of the

It was empty, however, but as I gazed around at the many signs of taste a middle-aged spinster in spectacles and recognized her husband in the frail, wiry ringlets, who ruled her brother emaciated frame before me. and his household with impartial severity, and who attired herself in sadelry of all descriptions, as Cheap about this room somehow, a homelike en snow. industry, a gold thimble set in a rim of precious stones, gilded seissors, and a SPECIALTY. relieved my mind of the fear lest I of pain and sickness so bright with her special horrors - a strong-minded, straight-backed female, delighting in Dorcas meeting, coarse calico and flannel petticoats. lured me onward from path to path.

face to face with my "Queen of Beauty" my "Star of Light," her clasped hands resting on the moss-grown stone, her customary for me to spend a couple of eyes dreamy and downcast, the rich hours every evening in their apartblood mantling in her cheeks, and the | ments. pale cream hue of her dress suiting admirably the magnificent coloring of conversation had but one subject. skin and hair.

Screened from view by a clump of ments, and on this theme I was ever evergreens, I stared on spellbound. I an attentive listener.

never before had I beheld so perfect a "It has frequently occurred to me, face, so perfect a figure.

southern type of beauty, might still be ness," might be the happy prince who should appears to be happy.".

sion on his face.

straction, the dusky, luminous eyes her dearly." er's creeting.

"Elliot, is Mr. Vernon a relative of retiring to rest.

will be, I suppose." "How? What do you mean?" narried next month."

Right by the old sun dial I saw her against a stone. How dark it is to- more than I ever have been or could first; about her was a blaze of sunshine; night." blood-red and virgin white roses bent their beauteous heads beside her. A remarking how brightly the stars were hundred sweet scents mingled with the warm odor of ripening fruit, and the "Had you? But sucely Mr. Vernon is a great deal older than your sister." "Yes certainly. He is nearly sixty

You will find we always have lows once upon a time, and when, after be forbidden. They are horribly wiek- London at once. years of separation, we encountered and ed and wrong. How can you allow it, "Well, you see, the circumstances crisis was favorably passed the south are rather peculiar. Vernon has been of France was ordered.

"What an awful difference.

apprised him of the day and hour of fond of her from a child. Many years I was making the necessary arrangesome sort of a conveyance awaiting me when he died, eighteen mouths ago, the news came to me that Margaret love for that dauguler so many, very gations was exacted to the utmost indivisible half-dollar, the continent of two courtess had not practically a

"And what are her feelings? Does she like him?"

"I think so. She seems quite reconciled and happy. For my part I think her a very lucky girl. Vernon, is immensely rich. Besides his estate here he has a house in town and a shooting bow in Scotland. Then he comes of a good old family, and will spoil and in- her babies. So the following day at dulge her to her heart's content."

"Oh! well, I shall turn in now. Good night." Six weeks later in my studio, at Kensington, I read the announcement of the marriage of "William Gale Vernon and Margaret Alice Elliot."

The sun was sinking down from the blue vault of a cloudless sky. The sea lay rippling and glistening each little wavelet reflecting a separate sparkle. I had been on the beach all morning sketching in a desultory sore of way, and was now returning to the hotel in search of some solid refreshment. Brighton was unusually full-that is to say, Brighton can ever be unusually full-the King's road was thronged with a fashionable crowd. I was in an extremely lazy mood and even with the hotel in sight sat myself down on a seat facing the road, and fell to idly scrutinizing the folks as they went by. All at once my attention was engaged by a group of three. They had passed beyond me before I had observed them; but I could perceive that the occupant of the bath chair, drawn by a man in livery, was a gentleman, and that the lady who walked by his side was young was evident by the carriage of her shoulders and the contour of her form, while from the poise of her head I further concluded that she was good looking. Some subtle attraction impelled me to rise and follow them; with languor and fatigue forgotten, I set out in pur-I slackened my speed as I came up to them, and turned slightly so as to catch a view of the lady's face. "Mrs. Vernon !" The color in her cheeks deepened by ever so faint a tinge, and for one brief ed harmony of books and pletures and second there was a flicker of something flowers, with lace drapery fluttering in in her eye that sent an odd tremor the gentle breeze, and a delicate tone of through me. But the next moment world again, as she smiled and extended her hand. From her I turned to the occupant of and refinement scattered about, my the bath chair, and my emotion was preconceived notion of Miss Elliot, as simply one of shocking surprise as I

When I saw him two years before he was hale and hearty, with hair scarcecolored garments, began to waver and ly touched by the frost of time; but now his limbs were feeble and shak-There was a youthful appearance ing, and his scanty locks white as driv-gether with the open workcase, fitted come the quiet remark, as though in Mr. Vernon looked up quickly.

"Yes, but I have no cause to complain, for my dear wife makes my hours happiness in ill-health than during my long life of healtn and vigor." That chance meeting led to many others, and I was speedily on terms of The smooth, green lawns, the sur- friendly intimacy with them. They rounding beds dazzling in pomp of pur- were living very unobstrusively, the ple and gold, scarlet and blue, tempted doctor having enjoined strict seclusion me through the open window, and the and quietude as necessary to the recovquaintness of the floral arrangements ery of his patient, who but a short time previously had been smitten by a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Vernon always accorded me a cordial welcome, and it soon became

> When we were alone together his Margaret's goodness and accomplishing an artist I was acquainted with the usual direction. There had been every style of beauty, the classical, the silence between us for a while, when piquant, the stately and the placid, but my companion broke it stablenly; and more persistently during my ill-Of what was she thinking? Of whom ness, that I ought never to have allowwas she dreaming? Was she "wrapt ed Margaret to consider herself bound in maiden meditation fancy free?" As by her promise to her dying father. I I watched her I almost prayed that the ought to have known that such dis-

she appears to be happy, but she cauwell and strong there was too much of Mrs. Sactor's may have hapt sile it; merely practicing." At the sound of his hasty approach May and December about the union ed, the fair face aroused from its ab- My only excuse is that-that I loved

Margaret Elliot returned the newcom- solation, for words fitting to the occa-

don world not come. After a short pause he spoke again. "Lying awate, as I often do, I please yours ?" I acruptly asked, as we smok- myself by thicking what would be best ed an ante-noctural cigar and chatted for my darling's impoiness. I know i over old school days on the lawn before cannot live long. Nay, nay," (for I was about to utter an impetuous ob-"Well, not at present, but he soon jection) "the doctors have spoken plainly to me, and have told me that my span of earthly days is nearly over; "Why, Margaret and he are to be and so," he went on brave'y, "I plan out that by-and-by, when-when she "The deuce! I beg pardon, but I shall have mourned for me a little-she gave my pet-corn a most unkind knock | will meet some one who will be to her

"If you please, sir, you are wanted

For days and weeks I watched by her bedside, and when at length the my arrival, I certainly expected to find back he did my father great service, so ments for our sojourn abroad, when by himself and community with his on ou impyerative commands to put in an appearance to morrow evening. Dinner at 7 sharp. Thine. TED FOREMAN.

Furthmore, she bids me say that a bed shall be at your disposal. Ted Foreman was one of the best fellows that ever stepped, and his wife-the A.S. Louis Special. dearest little woman that ever spoiled precisely 10 minutes past 7 p. m., my rat-tat sounded through No. 19, Pembroke Gardens, W. "That's right, old fellow !" called out immerged from the dinning room, "Come and meet your doom like a man

"What's up now?" I inquired unbottoning my overcoat. "What's up? Why, your fate awaits you in the drawing-room. My little woman has settled it all completely to my boy, if I hadn't been tied up pretty tight in my matrimonial noose I'd have gone in for myself-aye, and cut you out too. She's no end of a fine girl; but come along, and judge for your-

Ted threw open the drawing-room door, and Mrs. Foreman rose to wel-"Mr. Frazer, permit me. Mr. Fra-

I have the pleasure of a previous acquaintance with Mr. Frazier." I had been commissioned by Mrs. Foreman to choose some music for her, arm was hastening to lay before her "Are the ladies in?" I inquired of the servant who answered my knock.

room, I believe, "Thank you-you need not announce The warm perfumed air of the cosy apartment struck pleasantly comforiable after a chill blast outside. As I closed the door a slender figure moved ret and I were alone. I had taken her by surprise, and she commonplace remark. A quick, sudden hope sprang up withtongue was loosened in passionate ve- he stood by an open window and When at last I ceased, she stood mo- high; he searched low. No bill. gers closely entwined.

my love, my queen." "What would you have me say?"

she murmured. that you will try to like me more." With a sobbing catch in her breath torn the nest apart that he discovered she stretched out her hands; "Like you a little! Oh, Jack, I love the one he had lost a couple of weeks

Making Steady Progress. "Yes, sir," said the long haired boarder, "I am fully satisfied in my own mind that woman should be vest "I don't see why she shouldn't be vested," chipped in the cheerful idiot. "She has been coated the same as man, renheit the temperature on the coat place. and if this bieyele business keeps on is 71.2 degrees; that between the coat The dinner bell rang, and in the mad | tween waistcoat and shirt, 75.9 degrees; rush ensuing the rest of the cheerful between shirt and undershirt, 77.4 de-

Indianapolis Journal. The breath of winter may be cold, Before marriage she believes everything he says; after mariage she wants but it is not half so cold as the glance fixed things so that his wife has taken wedding gift. It means on its face

Getting Ready to Vote.

Grant as Father.

The rams red engagement of Nellie "Will you loan me your leafe, Al-Grant Sartoris to Gen. Kyd Douglas Fred?" she asked as he settled down in did not speck. I throught this rather recalls to the public raind the beauti- his easy clustrand picked up his even- firm, in its way; except for his munitafully tender attachment which Gen. leg paper. Grant manifested for his daughter. He took his knife from his pecket, help, there was neching to offen! The The union with factoris was opposed opened it and handed it to her without taste; and his handedle allener was to the limit by the young lady's pas a word. passionate nature, which must of a crepancy in age was too great and unsurety be combined with such tropical natural ever to be productive of happi- too clearly that the old folk's estimate seat at her dainty little writing desk thing, for when I can in the presente of Sartoris character had been correct. and drew a sheet of paper from one of of want, or exact the appearance of Sarioris was a drankard, and there is the drawers. Then the effence was want, there is symplified that agests probably no language adequate to pur- broken by a steady scraping as the edge | me, "Give to luin what he askerb," tray the misery and the humiliation to of the kulfe blade was moved back and I have to give, or else go away which he subjected his wife. To add forth over the paper. It was annoying with a bad conscience a thing I hate. to the wratehedness of her life, the and her husband finally looked up Of course I do not give neach, for I the white jeweled fingers were unclasp- for it ever to be a well-assorted one, cd her from telling her parents of the limitation of a sawmill?" to Long Bettien to visit with the the straight ticket. We have agreed either of those voters is satisfied with Grants. He was fold that the General on that among ourselves, you know. me. I may not even satisfied with mywas siming on the rocks everlooking. We think it shows too much party soff; but I am better satisfied than if I the sea, and savely enough he present-dictation when any one votes the gave nothing. That was the selfish ly discovered Grapt perelied on a reck straight fields, and we propose to show reason I now had for deciding to yield and guzing in neoticate between over our independence." the waters. Hanlings male softly up and put his hands over Grant's eyes, this knife exercise." sying: "Now, guess who it is!"

almost immediately; they were wet scratened ticket?" with teres; Grant was weeping. "Certainly," he replied. Hastings was too surptimed to any magnifus, Grant looked up.

demanded Ha tings. immediately," he said addressing me. I left the room to find awaiting men down, but by a herole effect he pulled Day and olght the soldiers in the convenience of the willing to remark a small act of in-I left the room to find awaiting me a himself together. "We get lead news querored Venetian lands wrought with either heal not the courage to messenger, bearing the tidings of my from England," said he, "Nellie is > greatest trouble of my life!" ble, to face; a more behindfully po- Piedmont, and garrioned with 200 men. there picture than that of this force It was generally understood that war most num of his time stealing away might break out at any moment, quarter, but there was nothing in my many leagues away. It appeals more fariling. As a single illustration of of two quarters, but not practically a ty that a thousand Vielsburgs, a

"The way to win a woman" is ent lovers thou unit of meetin many this snumer, on the contrary, he kept Thursday n the at Wombwell's Train- is therefore likely that he had in hand anything. For a moment 1 did not Ted's hearty voice, and Ted himself ed Animal Show, at B animay and Hickory's cet, Ha y Liscop, a cowboy foun Galvesion, Tex., and Mile.

flors' care. It will be a releasing Contage. sight for e usiv bachelors. Justice Zingmeturin has been enung consented on the condition that he be years. She joi tel the American divi- thing that any part of so precious a when I entered the restaurant I saw no ion of Wombwell's show at New Or- night had been lost in sleep. The star- one there but a young man quite at the leans last winter, and there Bishop light was so full that I distinctly saw end of a long room; and when he had met her. He has belowed the show not only the bay with its multitude of exmeall the way forward to find what and pressed his suit vigorously. Course glittering bergs, but most of the lower I wanted, I was ashamed to ask him but Bishop is a good-looking fellow, spiritlike amid the huge silent mount tended that I wanted a package of and his sweethead told him he could tains. The nearest glader in particus Sweet Caporal eigareties, which I did circus costume and Mr. Bishop will How strong I felt after my exhiberat- inn charity too. On the way over to His Missing Ten-Dollar Bill. A $19 bill, which had mysteriously disappeared, says the Classounti Enquirer, was recovered by Assistant Coin Teller Phil Turpin, of the Sabflushed and trembled strangely, and Treasury, in a peculiar manner. He > near the Little Miami River. One balmy afternoon recently Mr.

but it was not until he had carefully ft to be a $10 bill. It was apparently you with all my heart."-San Francis- ago, a bird having flown into the room and snatched up the money. The bill was in pretty bad condition, and he redeemed it at the Treasury yesterday.

How Hot Our Clothes Are.

How hot our clothes are has just been determined by a Dr. Von Bebber, a German meteorologist. When the outside temperature is 50 degrees Fahand the waistcoat, 73.6 degrees; begrees, and between the woolen undershirt and the skin 90.9 degrees.

of the man you strike for a half dollar. the job off his hands.

A Cheerful Giver.

Mr. W. D. Howells has written for the Century two papersentitled "Tribulations of a Cheerful Giver," giving his experiences with the begging fraternity. The following is taken from the first paper, published in the June Cen-

Some grouths ago, as I was passing brough a down-town streeton my way to the elevated station, I saw a man sitting on the steps of a house. He seemed to be resting his elliows on his tuces, and holding out both his hands, As I came nearer I perceived that he had no hands, but only stumps, where the flagers had been cut off close tothe palms, and that it was these stroups he was holding out in the usate appeal which was his form of begging. Otherwise he did not sak charity. When I approached him by did not look up, and when I stope of in front of him he that voice which I cannot disoby her women'ty poids probably present. "For what?" he asked. "For an wrong, and when I have to unbuiton directival mistance also had made. End, "Oh, dear, no?" she said in surprise, pockets before I can reach the small runsers of her misery come from over "You see, it's this way, Alfred: All coin I mean to give in compliance with the en and they consel General Grant the ladies of our sewing circle have that imperative voice, I certainly feel registered and we have all agreed to it to be wrong. So I compromise, and One time Herh Hastiens went down vote. But none of us is going to vote I am never able to make sure that to my-henter anistre, and to shry the "But what has that got to do with voice which bade me "Give to him that askethe" for as I said, I hafe a buil "Why, Alfred," she exclaimed in conscience, and of two lad consciences But Hastings drew his hand back surprise, "didn't you ever hear of a Laboury choose the least, which, in a case like this, is the one that incensed political economy given me.

"Well, I'm learning to seratch a I put my hard into my hip-pocket ticket without taking too much time where I keep my silver, and found "Hallo, Hughy," sold Grant, kind- over it. We all agreed to do that you nothing there but half a delifar. This at ones changed the whole current of Napoleon's Booty in One Campaign. that represent my noble rage, but chill The season was as busy on the mill- affluence. It was manifestly wrong to Great come pretty near breaking tary as it lend been on the political side. give half a deliar to a man who had no was in perfect order as a base of milliabout it thinking about it all the tary eparations. Not a single strategie fifty cents; and I felt whom I was bidtime! I am in trouble, Hugay, the point there or elswhere was overleaded, dea "Give to him that asketh," I was Even the little island of St. Peter in | never meant to give so much as a half-It were difficult, perhaps impossibles the Mediterranean was taken from duting but a cost, or a half-dime, or at the most a consist. I wished I had a the French dealing, Jewels and gems quarter. I would have asked anybody estimated by the Pope as worth ten in sight to change it for me, but there was no one passing; it was a quiet millions of frames were accepted by the French experts at a valuation of five. street of brownstone dwellings, and not a througed thoroughfare at any Within the previous twelve months Bonaparte had sent to Paris 7,000,000 time. At that have of the late afterfrance, of which he destined 2,000,000 moon it was descried, except for the for the outfit of a fleet. It was but a begger and myself and I am not stre malery of what he had raised. During upward of 20,000,000 frames in cash and knowquite wind to de. To be sure, I commissivy stores to the extent of sev- was not bound to the man in any way. eral millions more. - Prof. W. M. He had not ushed one for charity, and Panifue Decede will be managed in the Slowne's Life of Napoleon in the June I had barely paised before him, I could go on, and ignore the incident. I thought of doing that, but then I thought of the had conscience I should Glaciers Seen to Glow in the Night. After sleeping a few hours, I stole on, I glonced neross the street, and facon, making the climbing difficult away, and I ran seros to get my halfsinge is Planka, is a native of Provide, over the key bay, sparkling beneath I was now quite resolved to give him ing to elegas phrascology, for eight cachanting. It seemed then a said thing was geiting to be a bore. But ing is a lame positine to a lion queen, portions of the glaciers, lying pale and to change my balf-follar; and I prehave I ever found any difficulty in them and encourage commerce than to Mile Devere says she can keep the swing large glaciers; but on this mount give the half-dollar and encourage beghole. Mile. Devere will be wed in tween two skies of equal brightness. steps, and secure myself with Christwear evening dress and a sea-ed look. Ing scramble, and how glad I was that him, however, I decided that I would The lions will get their share of the my good angel had called me before not give him a quarter, and I ended

> "Our little gld had discribes in a very bad form. We tried everything wa could think of but without effect uatil we got Dr. Fowler's Ext. of Wild La., has a pairs of pet wasps that she Strawberry, which helped her right > is the palm of her hand. They will tent of being able to conduct an ar-every young man! How many rula their health and fature happiness through pernicious practices contracted the rising generation than to place in their hands the information and warnings contained in a little book carefully prepared by an Association of medical gentlemen, who have had vast experience in dealing with the grave A sharp old coon is never treed. But maladies here binted at, and who feel that they owe it to hammity to warn the young of the land against certain destructive habits which are far more prevalent than any layman can possibly imagine, and which, if persisted An anti-monopolist is one who would in, gradually undermine the constituike to put himself in a millionaire's tion and health and destroy the future happiness of the victim. Cut out this notice, and enclose it with ten cents in constantly surrounded by perils seen stamps (to pay postage) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St. Buffirlo, N. Y., and the book will be sent, secure from observation in a plain scaled cuvelope.

net and adjoining counties, with said adenty. Office on Main Cross or tellouth's Grocery Store. DES L. PUGH, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, fan Mammoth Block, up stairs. En m m Main Cross street. Collections m entes ettled, titles examined, and all

I L BAER, Somerset, Pa. notice in Somerset and adjoining Dishes entrusted to their care will be expand panetually attended to. Office an Cres street, opposite Mammoth Somerset, Pa.

AL SMCMILLEN. ecial attention to the preservation

AL COFFROTH. Funeral Director. 2006 Main Cross St. Residence,

Trade for Somerset and vicini-ty supplied by

COOK & BEFRITS and FREASE & KOOSER,

-AND-

Johnstown.

Man began to turn

I began to take entirely free from catarrh of the bowels, and

To where the best long mirror hung In parlor, where we could not stay (Except on some high holiday). He laughed as hearty as the rest: Then with a teardrop in his eye He said: "My cap I humbly doff To those who wiser are than L." We never shall forget that time;

can find them elsewhere.

Wash Goods, ed me into the dining-room. I had not been there many minutes

Ladies' Under-Dress Goods, wear, Gents' Furnish-Ladies' Hose, Trimmings, Small Wares, Neckwear, Umbrellas, House Furnish- Parasols, Shoes.

Our NEW TRUNK DEPART-MENT is a great Success. Why?

Corsets.

FIFTH AVENUE, Between Wood & Smithfield Streets. PITTSBURG, PA.

Jacob D. Swank.

Watchmaker and Jeweler,

Next Door West of Lutheran Church,

as the Cheapest.

I Am Now prepared to supply the public with Clocks, Watches, and Jew-

REPAIRING A All work guaranteed. Look at my stock before making your purchases.

J. D. SWANK. A. H. HUSTON, Undertaker and Embalmer.

A GOOD HEARSE,

Pa. SOMERSET .

drowsy hum of a solitary bee was the only sound that disturbed the summer and she is twenty." I had met her brother a month before in London. We had been school-fel-sider such unequal marriages ought to I made a hasty adieu and started for recognized each other, he gave mean Robert?" invitation to come and see him. Having accepted his invitation and

JUST FOR FUN.

When be and grandma both were fair.

We racked our brains to think which one

Would be the simplest and the best

At last we thought 'twould be such fun

And soon the cap was made and on;

Asleep, our dear old grandpa sat

Before the fire in his armehair

So long as he asleep did stay,

On bim a little joke to play.

If he were in a fool's-cap drest,

Then with a zest we went to work,

Than pointed cap was never worn.

Till from his nap he should awake,

Secuing to wonder why 'twus still:

"O grandpa! you must! you will!

The dear old man was pulled away

Come look! don't wait, come right along

We felt like sinking through the floor;

Though full of sport we'd been before,

For round a life that's well-nigh done

MARGARETS LOVE.

A heavenly light doth seem to shine;

For play no more cared we that day

Old age is sacred, little friends;

Reflection 'tis of setting sun.

So anxious were we, that we thought

A nap so long he ne'er did take.

But soon was heard on every side:

At last he opened wide his eyes,

Surely by wiser fool, methinks.

Preaming perhaps of other days,

Of what he dreamed we did not care

For we were planning, just for fun, solitary porter's assistance, I engaged a fly to convey me to my destination. When we stopped before a pretty, low-storied house, whose white walls were nearly covered with ivv and other creeping plants a neatmaid servant opened the door. The expression of astonishment which the sight of my luggage for a brief instant called forth was quickly suppressed as she bade the driver deposit it in the ball and usher-

"My dear fellow," he began almost before he had opened the door, "I don't know how to express my regret. I have been so busy lately-I am writing

"Pray, don't apologize, if I am in the me to the drawing-room.

up with very fragile-looking tokens of answer to my pitying astonishment. very fairy's web of dainty embroidery, might be domiciled with one of my care and attention that I found more

And so walking slowly along I came

Pa had seen many handsome women. Be- One evening our discourse had tak slumbering unwakened, and that I "But," I remonstrated, "Mrs Vegon summon it to life; that mine might be "Yes," he said, sadly, his face rethe kiss that should call it forth; that | fleeting the glow of the sunset skys, There was a noise of swift footsteps not be so in reality. See what I am; declined to receive the young wife or in "I hope you will get that rubbed out good Christian; and as soon as I obey the property of the property display. I erushing the gravel of a neighboring what a shattered remount of hemanity; path, and ere I had time to move from what a crippled wheek of a man, and my place of espial a gentleman came think of her youto, her beauty and her as the daughter of Clemenal Grant, she "I'm not trying to rub anything hear another voice representing hurrying forward, glad joyous express perfect health, and even when I was bad been accustomed and was callified. out," she exclaimed pleasantly. "I,m for encouraging street leaguery. I have were lifted, and with a crimson smile I aftempted neutre response nor con-

"Do you think so? I had just been There was a tap at the door, and Bennet, Mr. Vernon's personal attendant, has imposeed? What is the matter?

DEAR JACK :- The wee wife lays no-

and a Briton."

er-Mrs. Vernon. A white, ringless hand was extended and a musical voice said:

and with her roll of pieces under my the fruits of my selection. "Yes, sir. They are in the drawing from behind a curtin, and for the first time since her husband's death Marga-co Bulletin.

ed with all the privileges of man," she will be trous"idiot's speech hit the empty air .-

thousand Cortoiles, a thousand Appo-

Will Wed in a Lion's Den-

her satisfaction; and I'll tell you what on the outside. Mr. Zimmanna is quictly out of camp, and climbed the near the corner I saw a decemi-looking willing to a good the supplet by upper, mountain that stands guard between restaurant; and "Wai a minute," I said but not to faroish an integral part the two glaciers. The ground was to the man, as if he were likely to go Mile, Devere, whose mame on the in the steepest places; but the views dollar changed at the restaurant, She has been a "Ron queen," in cold- the glorious effulgence of the sky, were a quarter, and be done with it; the > well her if he would many her in the lar was so distinct that it seemed to be not want, and which it was a pare den with her floor. Bishop took her glowing with light that came from waste for me to buy, since I do not at her word, and the Reense was pro- within itself. Not even in dark nights smoke; doubtiess it was better to buy big line quiet ducing the commony, tain-top, smild so much ice, in the gary. At any rate, I instinctively felt but is not so sure of the linners, who is beart of so clear and frosty a night, that I had political economy on my a selky beast and has left the marks of every thing was luminous, and I seem- side in the transaction, and I made her claws many times on her mistress' ed to be poised in a vast hollow be- haste to go back to the man on the > wedding supper before the ceremony. the glorious night succeeding so glori- by poising fifteen cents on one of his ous a morning had been spent!-["The outstretched stumps. Discovery of Glacier Bay," by John > > Mair in the Century for June.

Pet Wasps That Dance.

A young lady living near Monroe, her voice faltered as she essayed some has a beautiful farm out on Cliff Creek, has trained to do various tricks required away." Mrs. Ann Borgman, Verban, ing remarkable intelligence. Among Sanifac Co., Mich. other things she has taught them to in me; my whole soul was filled with Turpin dressed for a journey. In drink water from a thimble and to perirrepressible longing, and like a tor- changing trousers he took out some form the "skirt dance," as she calls it, doctrinal controvertialist, is said to rent that could not be stayed my money and placed it on a table. Then by fluttering their wings as they rest have known to languages to the exhement pleading. I dot not remember shaved. Then having fixed his tie, he sing at her blotting, making a faint, gument in any one to almost any what I said, only that in burning words | picked up his money -all except a $10 | almost includible cheep, and seem to be | length. of eager entreaty my story was told, bill. This was missing. He searched passionally food of amsic. The young lady is a musician and when she plays tionless, with drooping head and fin- Day before yesterday the severe wind on the plane the wasps take up their storm blew a robin's nest out of a 'ree positions on the music mek and never "Give me one word of encourage- near the front porch. Mr. Turpin badge till the performance is over. ment," I urged; only one little word picked the aest up, and was about to Tas wasps seen to have a good deal east it away when he noticed what of vanity, and nothing delights them seemed to be a piece of paper of peeal- more than to be allowed to walk about in ignorance, and repented of when too iar color. He examined it, and found and inspect themselves on a little hand late. Parents, guardians and ha-"That you like me a little; that- it to be currency of some denomination, mirror, which is kept for their exclu-

> you only have the dust. sometimes he is T. Reed.

Short and Sweet.

You can easily fill the public eyes if Hardly a week passes but we are

Know Thyself. How important this injunction to

"Our parrot is dead," wrote a little girl, "and a poli seems to have settled over the family."

Many a man whom yacht costs $10,-000 a year is too poor to rent a pew in

Man was made to mourn, but he has A clock is always an appropriate