

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS. Election. Tuesday, Nov. 5th.

For State Treasurer. BENJAMIN J. HAYWOOD, of Mercer county. For Judges of the Superior Court. JAMES A. BEAVER, of Centre county. JOHN JERVIS WICKHAM of Beaver county. EDWARD NEWALL WILLIARD. of Lackawanna county.

CHARLES E. RICE, of Luzerne county. GEORGE B. ORLADY, of Huntingdon county. HOWARD J. REEDER. of Northampton county.

For District Attorney. ANDREW J. COLBORN, of Somerset Borough. For Poor Director. HARRISON GOHN. of Somerset Township.

EVERY Republican voter should a tend the election on November 5th.

EVERY member of the Republican county committee should use his best efforts to see that every Republican List of Nominations as Certified by the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and by the Commissioners of Somerset County, and to be voted for in the several Election Districts of said County at the ensuvote in his precinct is polled on November 5th.

CAMPBELL, the Democratic candithe thinks he is going to be elected. It A Cross (X) marked in the square at the right of the Name of Each Candidate inside the line enclosing the column Indicates a Vote for Each Candidate Thus Marked. is an old dodge of his party to claim everything in sight.

THE Republican county ticket contains but few names, but the material is exceptionally good. It should receive the carnest support of every Republican voter in the county.

THE unspeakable "Willie" Breekenridge has taken the stump in Kentucky for the Democratic party. Poor Democracy! will nothing remove from its shoulders this unsavory old monster.

AFTER four months of idleness, spent principally in fishing, Mr. Cleveland has returned to Washington. In a couple of months he "will have Congress on his hands" and he will need all his renewed strength and vigor to wrestle with it.

ANEXT the oft repeated assertion of our Democratic contemporaries that the Wilson tariff law is approved by a large majority of the people, is the fact that in the House that passed that bill there were 217 Democrats and there will be 107 Democrats in the House that meets in December next. Why is this thus?

THE Washington Post is trying to find out what are Cleveland's chance for a third term.

So far thirteen Democratic Congressmen say they "see no objection to a third term," and twenty-five say "no, never." If this average keeps up throughout the list, the jig is up for Bre'r Cleveland, and a new candidate must be hunted up.

THERE is a lovely political mix in the city of New York, and the bal ot when printed will be larger than onehalf of this journal and with all the tickets on it will resemble a crazy quilt. There are four different kinds of Democrats and three different kinds of Republicans in New York City, and the Tammany Tiger has a fair chance to make off with the spoils.

THE Supreme Court has decided that the voter at the coming election can vote for but six candidates for the Superior Court. This settles the question and will prevent trouble, as it was contended by some able lawyers that the entire seven could be voted for by each
