

The Somerset Herald.

EDWARD SCULL, Editor and Proprietor. WEDNESDAY, November 6, 1896. NOV 6 1896. Did you hear anything dry?

The great Democratic victories predicted during the past few weeks, are now facts. Watch the returns, and prepare your "rally sticks." Long ones will not be necessary.

COMMISSIONER LOCHREN recommends that provision be made for the maintenance of clerks in the Pension office who have become practically disabled by long service. In other words, he favors a civil pension list, while doing all he can to cut down the military one.

WHEN the present tariff bill was before Congress Secretary Carlisle and Chairman Wilson both over and over asserted that "it would raise enough revenue to pay the expenses of the government." They only missed by $80,000,000 to $70,000,000. Almost anybody could have guessed that near.

PRESIDENT HARRISON during the first two years of his administration paid out over $200,000,000 of the public debt. Grover Cleveland during his first two years increased it $164,000,000, and gave English gold bugs $9,000,000 and gave to watch the treasury and keep its gold surplus from vanishing.

THE fact that 277 murders have been committed in the Indian Territory since the adjournment of Congress is a startling argument in favor of drastic legislation for the adjustment of affairs between the Republic and the Indians in that part of the country. There is certainly nothing to be said for the present system of government, which puts the Territory at the mercy of the criminal classes.

IT is only two years since that the Democratic journals and the papers of that party throughout the land were denouncing and ridiculing the idea of manufacturing tin in this country. Just now these same journals and papers are claiming to have introduced the manufacture of tin in the United States. Truly, times change and men change with them.

DOWN in Texas they have queer notions of the sacredness of law and justice. To prevent the violation of the law against prize-fighting, the Legislature was convened in extra session and $20,000 was expended. Within a few days afterward a mob burned a negro at the stake, and we hear of no legal measures being taken to punish this damnable breach of law and justice.

THERE are free-trade Republicans, just as there are free Democrats, and just now these are very fearful about "the McKinley tariff again being an issue." It won't be McKinley tariff, because conditions change. But just so certain as there is a Republican party, "protection" in its full meaning will be the leading issue. Those who don't like it will have to hunt for some other place.—Lester Coates.

WE fear that many sanguine people are "counting without their host" when they anticipate the passage of a law at the coming session of Congress increasing the tariff duties sufficiently to meet the expenses of the government. Such a bill will undoubtedly pass here in House, but it must be remembered that President Cleveland refused to sign the present tariff law because it had too much protection and not enough of free trade in it, and it is therefore not likely that he would sign a bill in favor of increased duties, or in fact any bill that could pass a Republican Congress.

THERE is a big row in the South Carolina Constitutional Convention. Tillman wants to disfranchise all those who cannot read a portion of the Constitution and explain it, while Iry, the Senator, wants that proposition defeated on the ground that it will disfranchise thousands of poor whites who can neither read or write, and who could not, even if it were read to them, analyze a section of the Constitution. If the disfranchisement were to be applied only to negroes Iry would very likely agree to it, but the Tillman proposition is to apply it to all—both black and white, and they are having the liveliest kind of a circus over it. It is more than likely that Tillman will gain his point, but no white man will be deprived of his vote. The South Carolina Democratic election officer will have some kind of a plan by which he will be enabled to evade the law when an illiterate white man wants to vote, and enforce it when the colored man comes up to the polls.

SENATOR VEST says the Republicans ought to organize in the Senate, so as to be responsible for legislation. He says the Republicans have a plurality in that body and thus have a better claim than the Democrats to control it, but they are anxious to assert the claim. They are one or two short of a majority, and as they will enter into no deal with the Populists there is some uncertainty in the minds of the Democrats as to how they will get control. It is more than likely that Tillman will gain his point, but no white man will be deprived of his vote. The South Carolina Democratic election officer will have some kind of a plan by which he will be enabled to evade the law when an illiterate white man wants to vote, and enforce it when the colored man comes up to the polls.

THE fight centered in the sheriff's office, and it is not likely that McCormick, Democratic candidate for sheriff, can overcome the Republican stronghold as yet to hear from. In Columbus, the home of McCormick, a Republican gain over has been made in the Sixth ward, which gave McCormick 23 majority. McCormick carried three of the four wards by a majority of 22. There is considerable talk of contesting the vote in the Fourth ward. At Conestoga, where McCormick expected 250 majority, he only received 6. There was a big slip in some of the precincts.

Big Republican Majority in Westmoreland. GREENSBORO, Nov. 6.—The indications are that the entire Republican ticket in Westmoreland county is elected by large margins. Chairman Lyon estimates that Judge McConnell has defeated Gathier, by from 1,500 to 2,500 votes. Senator Foran has apparently reversed his position, and is now leading by about 2,000 to 2,500 votes. The Democrats concede the election of the Republican candidates by from 2,000 to 2,500.

The Republican State ticket will follow close to the heels of McConnell, James Moorhead, Democrat, for Superior Judge, ran ahead of his ticket, probably 800.

My Maryland Flaps. BALTIMORE, Nov. 6.—Maryland went Republican to-day by a plurality of about 5,000. The ticket elected is Governor, Lloyd Lowmire, Comptroller, Robert P. Graham; Attorney General, Harry M. Clabough.

The returns thus far indicate that the Republican tidal wave, which set in one year ago, when the Republicans were elected Judge of the Supreme Court, has this year become strong as to completely swamp the Democratic and State ticket.

The city precincts show in every case a Republican gain over has been made. The Republican candidate for judge, who was the only Republican elected a year ago, the Republican ticket in this county will be nearly 10,000.

LATEST.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 6, 2:20 p. m. HERALD, SOMERSET, Pa.—The game well set republicanism! The Republicans carry Pennsylvania by about 100,000; Ohio by about 100,000; Maryland by 20,000, with both branches of the legislature Republican; New York state, 50,000, and it looks as if we had carried both Kentucky and New Jersey. Returns are too incomplete to tell which of the Democratic candidates for the superior court will win, but it seems to be between Magee and Yerkes. The eyes of the Tammany tiger shine through the gloom of Democratic defeat.

E. B. S. Elections Fall of Surprises. SUFFICIENT returns have been received to indicate that the Republicans have swept the State by over 150,000 majority. Through the western part of the state it is evident that Orady has been seriously cut, while Wickham has been given an extra vote to meet a supposed cutting of the latter in the east. Haywood's majority will be larger than that of Jackson two years ago.

Ohio has rolled up a surprisingly large Republican majority, probably greater than that for McKinley two years ago and Campbell is buried in the same political grave with Brice. The majority may be from 80,000 to 100,000.

Maryland is conceded to have broken from its Democratic moorings and the great of Gorman at the same time, and has given Lowmire about 20,000 majority. Kentucky promises to follow Maryland into the Republican ranks and has certainly elected many Republicans to local offices. With Delaware these two States make a broad gap in the Solid South.

In the West, Populism is visibly weaker and Republicanism stronger, as shown by Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas, while Massachusetts in the East passes the tidal wave of last year in returning Greenhalge for Governor. New York City has fallen back into the arms of Tammany on the personal-liberty-optional-liquor-exercise issue. The Tammany majority is materially below the old-time standard, however, which gives hope for the future.

The notable feature of the elections is the tremendous vote polled, Ohio, Kentucky and Maryland reporting the largest votes in their history. In Pennsylvania, outside the great cities, the vote is reported very heavy, exceeding off-year standards, and even in the cities shows more activity than was expected.

UNOFFICIAL VOTE OF SOMERSET COUNTY. Republican Majority 2388—Good Enough for an "Off-Year." Below we give the unofficial vote of the county at yesterday's election. The only vote will vary very little, if any, from the figures we give. While the vote polled was not a heavy one the Republican majority, 2388, is a splendid one for an off-year. It can be increased at least 1000 by the vote of McKinley or Reid for a standard-leaver.

Republican Sheriff in Fayette. UNIONTOWN, Nov. 6.—The Republicans made a clean sweep in this county. In 34 precincts out of 61 Chaffin, Republican candidate for sheriff, has a majority of 97, the largest majority in the Fourth ward.

At Conestoga, where McCormick expected 250 majority, he only received 6. There was a big slip in some of the precincts.

HE CARRIES THE STATE BY AN IMMENSE VOTE.

REPUBLICAN JUDGES ELECTED. Indications Are That Judge Magee Has Been Elected to the Seventh Place on the Superior Court Bench. The Returns From Various Counties.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Returns received up to midnight indicate that Benjamin Haywood, Republican, has been elected state treasurer by about 150,000 plurality, a Republican gain over 1893, which was also an off-year of about 5,000. This state also elects seven judges of the new superior court. Of these six Republicans nominated are elected, as follows: James A. Beaver, Edward N. Willard, John J. Wickham, Charles K. Rice, Howard J. Bessler, George B. Orady. The seventh man on the ticket is in doubt. The Democrats have six men on the ticket, and returns indicate that the choice apparently lies between Magee of Allegheny county, and Leachman, Magee and Erke, Bucks, with chances favoring the former.

In this city the Republican ticket is elected by an overwhelming majority. The ticket elected is as follows: Judge court of common pleas, Craig Graham; district attorney, George S. Rice; recorder of deeds, William W. Geary; city comptroller, John M. Walton; coroner, Samuel S. Leachman; quarter sessions, William B. Ahern.

William W. Geary, who is regarded as David Martin's regular opponent, has been elected to the extent, but as much as had been expected. Complete returns from 18 out of 37 precincts show a Republican majority of 31,450. If this ratio is kept up, the plurality in this city will be fully 60,000.

LEBANON, Nov. 6.—Lebanon county gives 2,000 majority for the Republican party.

CASTLETON, Nov. 6.—Republicans carry the county by 1,500.

NOBLESBURG, Nov. 6.—Montgomery county went 1,100 Republican.

Elections Yesterday Will Cause Some Changes. The Student-Friend Who Murdered Two Girls.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Great interest is manifested here in the legislative elections throughout the country, as they will materially affect the control of the United States senate. Up to election day last standing in the senate was as follows: Republicans, 42; Democrats, 33; Populists, 6; vacant (Delaware), 1. Total, 82.

As the result of the elections, the Democrats will lose and the Republicans will gain a senator from Maryland and from Ohio, respectively. The other legislative elections do not appear to affect the standing of the senate, as Kentucky and Mississippi remain Democratic, the latter certainly and the former probably, while Iowa continues Republican. Utah chooses two United States senators for the first time, but the complexion of the legislature is not yet certain. The Utah senators take their seats in the senate shortly after congress assembles. The changes in Ohio mentioned in connection with the election of the new senators are as follows: The Republican majority in the senate will be 47 to 35, with the Democrats 25 to 13, and the Populists 6 to 6.

In Maryland the election of a Republican senator is expected. The election of a Republican senator is expected. The election of a Republican senator is expected.

In Kentucky incomplete returns indicate a Democratic legislature, while in Mississippi the returns are not yet in. The returns of a Democratic legislature in Mississippi has been a foregone conclusion. It will elect a successor to Senator George. The returns from New York and New Jersey indicate the Republican gain.
