A Soldier's Secret will lead off."

By Captain CHARLES KING, U. S. A.

[Copyright, 1802, by J. B. Lippincott company, and published by special arrangement with them.]

-SYNOPSIS.-

"HATTER 1--Nita Guthrie, a St. Lonis girl, Is visiling the family of Surgeon Holden, in the camp of the Tweith cavalry, in Arizona the camp of the Tweith cavalry, in Arizona in the second of the Tweith, are press and is rejected. An old love atlair is in he way. Nina swoons over some mysterion house. II--After Nita issvers camp Dr. Hol-don tries to unearth the mystery of her swoon re suspects that Sergenint Effis, a recent re-cult, and a man with a history, had some on the set of her departure for how with Windfred Berrien, the daughter of Major Berrien. Captain Rolfe lights upon ovidence that another woman claims firew-pristic devolues. IV. The society of the for-tion a nearby town, makes a seen with Brew-ingstight and Mrs. Knowles, a married fire form a nearby town, makes a seen with Brew-ingstight and innignant. CHAFTER 1-Nita Guthrie, a St. Louis girl, fighting.

CHAPTER V.

It is Mr. Thomas Hughes who asks in "Tom Brown at Oxford," "Which is the trembles before a woman or he before whom a woman trembles?" There are men who covid have found it no difficult matter to flatly decline to serve even as temporary escort to a woman so evidently bent on mischief-who could have rebuked then and there the assumption of intimacy and proprietorship which if unchallenged might mean disnster. Brewster did neither. She read him well enough to see that, though he was too indignant to permit himself to speak, he was also too much of a gentleman to snub her. Bravely therefore she bore her part, keeping up an animated flow of meaningless words until fairly ent of the hoproom, then promptly shifting to that feminine coigne of vantage wherein lies woman's greatest strength much to add reproaches, accusations, angry words; that would have given him something to answer, something to overthrow. It is only when a woman weeps, silently, desolately, showing no anger, making no charge, that she has man at her mercy. Utterly false as was the position in which she had placed Brewster before the garrison world at this moment, he actually did not know but that he might be blamable for allthat he might be much less sinned against than sinning. He was no fool, only so much of one as the strongest of his kind sometimes become in the hands of the softer sex. Samson had his Delilah; Hercules, Omphale; Belisarius, poor devil, had both Antonia and Theolow, brief orders of the sergeants as they went flitting from door to door. Then It was bad enough to have her shrink half suppressed exclamations, an occato the opposite side of the carriage the sional smothered yell of excitement or instant he had assisted her in and there delight from some enthusiastic Paddy give way to apparently uncontrollable ever ready for a frolic or a fight. Then weeping; it was had enough to have to a gradually swelling murmur of voices, stand there for a moment or two until the rapid scurry of booted feet, a clatthe lady's long suffering spouse should tering up and down the stairways, the be hunted up (he had been having a slamming and banging of barrack doors, cigar with one or two of the elders in the dragging forth of heavy chests and the sanctity of the little smoking room): boxes, the clank of a dropped saber, and but what made matters simply intolerthen people at the hoproom, strolling out able was that just at the foot of the on the broad veranda for fresh air or stairs, under the broad gallery, just flirtation, became aware of the unusual where the lantern on the big pillar illumination over across the parade, and would shine full upon himself and his listening heard the sounds of, bustle and lachrymose partner, stood Major Berrien preparation. And then lights began in earnest conversation with Captain to pop up among the windows of the Rolfe, and both looked up, glanced second battalion, where the news had quickly but searchingly at him and at rapidly spread, and where dozens of her, raising their forage caps in silent troopers tumbled out of their blankets salutation, and turned away. Poor and into their boots forthwith and went Curly! As in duty bound, he leaned charging en masse upon their own serinto the carriage, not too ardently beggeants to know what it meant that ging the weeping dame to say what had "them fellers in the first battalion had so distressed her, but she would not rehad orders to be up and getting and none ply other to tonow in ten nonrs-just as soon | when the Indians saw the great array of cavalry and infantry they caved at once. as cars can be provided. Berrien, you Never had to fire a shot, madam. And that's the proper way to handle this For a moment not a word from any-matter. That's what this means. The body; then the major spoke: Sioux will be so dishcartened they won't "How much time have we, sir?" dare resist even if orders are given to "I cannot tell. You load up, the moment the railway company can get a disarm them-God forgive me the lie!" train here. They have plenty of engines he muttered under his breath. "Of and cars at the junction and ought to | course it's exasperating to think of the be able to furnish what we need by day- Twelfth being sent so far away at such break. Meantime you will have to rouse a time, but better now, believe me, than your men, pack up everything that is later, after those misguided wretches not to be taken, cook three days' rations had had a chance to jump." But Mrs. Berrien had lived, heaven and be ready to get the horses aboard. Go at it as quietly as possible. I want only knows how, through many a simnobody at the hop to know of the orders. | ilar experience. She had seen time and again her husband's command hurried Let the dance go on. Your men must take all their blankets and the heaviest forth on the trail or across the path of savage foe. Never yet had they returned clothing they have. No one knows what unscathed, never yet without serious may be in store for us either in furs or loss of officers and men. She could only Again dead silence, broken only by bow her head the lower while her lips the rapid clicking of the telegraph in- moved in silent prayer. Just as they strument in the adjoining room and the reached the gate a tall form came springsoft, melodious strains borne on the ing after them through the darkness, wings of the whispering night wind. and Brewster's voice was heard: "I hurried back to the hoproom, Miss Another waltz, and one which she had promised him he should have the latter Winifred, only to find you gone. I had half of, thought Brewster. Even now he expected to escort you home. You have listened yearningly to recognize the heard the news? You know our orders strain. Aye, he might have known it! have come?" He glared at Ridgeway, as much as to say, "Leave, man; you her favorite of all, "Love's Dreamland." But the colonel was speaking again: are one too many, as you ought to see." Of course you will do well to weed out But the junior lieutenant stoutly held any sick or ineffectives you may have. his ground, nor did Winifred withdraw It is going to be a bitter campaign, and her hand from his arm.

after our summer and fall under south-"I have heard; yes, it seems very sudern suns will be all the tougher. Holden den," was all she could or would say, will go with your command, Berrien, and the dark eyes were shrouded from and I have sent for him. Here are your his longing gaze. "We'll be off by daybreak, I fear. 1 four troop commanders; so you may as well give your instructions at once and cannot hope to see you again before we let them get to work." have to go," he went on desperately. "You have heard the colonel's orders, "Won't you come in, Mr. Brewster?" gentlemen; I do not know of anything I called Mrs. Berrien from the steps. have to add. Start out your first ser-"You and Mr. Ridgeway can spare a geants and the cooks at once, and let moment, can you not? Oh, Dick, here the men pack without unnecessary you are!" she cried, as with quick, enernoise. I will give all further details as getic step the major sprang across the soon as Colonel Farquhar and I have road and appeared under the dim light of the garrison lamp, and back to the

had a few moments' conference," gate she sped to meet him and to twine Again the telegraph operator with a her arm in his, lispatch.

"I'll say good night, ladies," said Ken-"I thought so," said Farquhar. "Murray, the division superintendent, was with us in the Shenandoah and at Five if I can be of any service. Now I must Forks. He wires that the train will be trot over and help Holden to pack." here at five o'clock at the latest-two And, unrestrained, he went. engines, twenty freight or cattle cars, "Brewster, Ridgeway, I won't ask you true-aye, and the brave-man, he who two baggage cars, four passenger day in now. You have much to attend to cars and a Pullman. It is eleven now. and but little time. Run in, Winifred,' If anything is wanted you'll find me said the major. "I'll be with you at the barracks in a few moments, gentlemen." bere. Back again into the chill night air. Slowly but obediently Winifred stepunder the shining, starry vault, Berrien ped forward. "Good night, Mr. Ridgeway," she and his four troop leaders paused for a murmured, holding out her little hand. moment on the gravel walk.

"Hazlett, I suppose you will need to "Thank you very much." see Mrs. Hazlett home, and you, Thorpe. Better go and rouse volr sergeants first, as though to see her safely through. then come back to the hoproom; but, With trembling lips Brewster spoke as mind you, not a word there. Rolfe, you he sprang to her side. and Brewster are among the blessed tonight; you have no wives to break the news to. I will give your subalterns the clinging to it one miserable moment tip to report to you just as soon as we with both his own. break up.

Three hands went to the cap visor in salute, three officers turned away, War-.-- a gush of silent tears. She knew too ren, the adjutant, came hurrying out. "Oh, major, Colonel Farquhar begs thrust her through the gate. that you will step in a moment."

"You had something to say, Brewster?" asked the major coldly. ly forgetting her own misery for the "Yes, sir, I-I hope to hurry back in moment in the contemplation of the woe time to escort Miss Berrien home." in his face. Then they hurried within "No, don't trouble yourself. I'll atdoors, Winifred drooping before them, tend to that. You have other matters and then the door closed and Brewster to occupy you." And if ever a faand Ridgeway stood there confronting ther's tone signified that dismissal was each other under the light. For a mointended, and that further attentions ment neither spoke. were forbidden, Berrien's did as he ab-"Have you lost your crossed sabers?" ruptly turned, leaving Brewster stunned said Brewster finally, noting that the and silent at the edge of the parade. handsome cap badge of solid gold which In ten minutes lights were dancing Ridgeway ordinarily wore upon the like will-o'-the-wisps about the galleries front of his forage cap was now missing. of the men's quarters. Quick, bound-"No; 1 took it off to pin Miss Berrien's ing footsteps could be heard, and the young, matrons and maids, quit their heard of the excitement we had here. Bring that candle, will you? I'll take frame and stood glaring at it. "By Jove! look here!"

"What's the matter?" asked Kenyon. "Don't you see?" was the answer, as began when I was up here, and where is it now?"

> (Continued Nex: Week.) A Cautious Man.

"It's a good thing to be cautious when among strangers," said the precise-looking man to a tall, angular old fellow to whom he was talking on the deck of a Hudson river steamboat.

most always tell who you're talking to out with the heat." when you don't know, and strangers thrown together as we are mighty likely to make mistakes if they don't watch out."

"That's what I think about it," said the precise one. "There are several people around that I'd like to know who they are, but I feel a delicacy in asking." "Who, for instance?" asked the tall party, letting his eyes wander about the deck. "Well, there's a lady standing there by that door talking to a young fellow who looks as if he might be her son." "That far door?" inquired the tall "I'll call in in the morning to see party, stretching his neck around.

> "Yes." "I see three or four there." "It's the one to the other side." "She looks as if she might blte a nail in two?" "Yes." "Got a jaw on her like a vise!"

"Yes." "Keeps it going all the time, as if there wasn't any such thing as an eight hour labor law?" "Yes."

"Got a bonnet on that looks as if it might be a sign for a vegetable gard-"Goodby. Don't forget," was all he ener?!! could murmur as he seized her hand, "Yes." "Got a complexion like a slab of tanbark?"

"Goodby," she said, in low, tremu-"Yes." lous tone, but withdrawing her hand, "Looks as if her temper would sour withholding her glance. The major threw his arm about her and almost milk just from the cow?" "Yes." "It is good night only, not goodby, "Got clothes on that look like they'd troubles.

look before committing himself.

" said Mrs. Berrien een made out of last year's circ posters," sat down again.

"Yes. Who is she?"

you over and introduce you,"

The Latest Charade.

Must give and keep my whole;

The life of many a soul;

If you will take my whole.

A Midnight Journey.

maternal love of the feline species

Tho' ages o'er us roll;

Two Lives Saved.

the lamp." Up the stairs they went-up Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction to the landing where Nita Guthrie had City, Ill., was told by her doctors she her mysterious fright and fall. The had consumption and that there was door of the room she occupied was open. no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. All was darkness within. Holden, fol-King's New Discovery completely lowed by Kenyon, entered, and they set | cured her and she says it saved her their lights upon a table. The side win- life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. dow was shut and barred, the south win-San Francisco, suffered from a dreaddows as firmly closed. Everything looked neat and undisturbed, but cold and deserted. No sign of an intruder tried without result everything else for a moment to the eyes of either man. then bought one bottle of Dr. King's Then of a sudden Holden made a spring New Discovery and in two weeks was for the toilet table, seized a small silver | eured. He is naturally thankful. it is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. the doctor held the face of the frame Free trial bottles at J. N. Snyder's toward him, empty and gaping. "Nita drug store, Somerset, Pa., or at Bral-Guthrie's photograph was in this frame lier's drug store, Berlin, Pa. Regular and on that table just before the hop size 50c, and $1.00.

Little Sue and her mother were efforts of a clever Cincinnati lawyer watching some broad flashes of light- named G. C. Wallis, the person accused ning in the sky, when her mother of morder and sentenced to be hanged remarked that it was sheet-lightning. was set at liberty, the circumstantial

"Yes," said Sue, "and the great piles | evidence on which he was convicted of clouds are the feather beds they are being entirely exploded by a witnessed demonstration as to how the accident spreading it on." really occurred.

A little powdered borax in baby's bath water prevents the skin from "Yes," was the response, "you can't chafing, and it is less liable to "break june, page 607, on which a full account

Old People.

Bitters. This medicine does not stimu- cousin of a man of the name of Avery, late and contans no whiskey nor other was killed in his room while laying on intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and a lounge, about three o'clock in the alterative. It acts mildly on the stom- afternoon. The weapon which caused ach and bowels, ad ling strength and the death was a small rifle, sending a giving tone to the organs, thereby 32-calibre ball through Ensley's brain.

aiding Nature in the performance of No one was in the house at the time the functions. Electric Bitters is an but Easley, excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 Easley, and by his death profited to the second to a secon per bottel at J. N. Snyder's drug store, the amount of $100,000. Avery was Somerset, Pa., or at Brallier's drug tried, pleaded not guilty, but was convieted of murder in the first degree, store, Berlin, Pa.

Do not slice apples for ples; quarter, core and cut each quarter in two pieces.

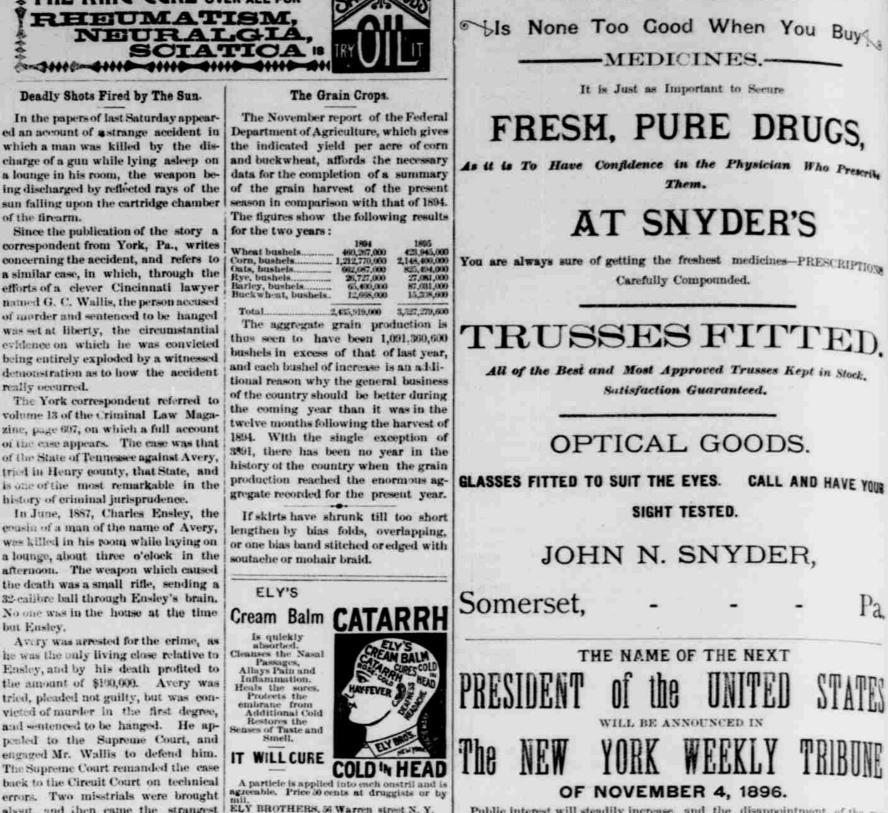

Catarrh starts in the nasal passages, about, and then came the strangest effecting eyes, cars and threat, and is part of the story. The brilliant Wallis in fact, the great enemy of the mucous struck the keynote of the mystery. In CONDENSED TIME TABLES. membrane. Neglected colds in the August, 1801, he had the rifle loaded head almost invariably precede catarris, and hung on the wall. A white sheet causing an excessive flow of mucus, with the form of a man marked on it and if the mucous discharge becomes | was placed in exactly the position ocinterrupted the disagreeable results of oupled by Ensley when lying asleep, Somerset eatarth will follow, such as bad breath, and a heavy cut glass pitcher of water severe pain across forehead and about like the one found in the room was fensive discharge. Ely's Cream Bahn stude, on of the hottest days in the Ichustown Mail Express.-Rockwood 10:50 a. the acknowledged cure for these year. Wha picelest acted as a sun giass, and Northernorthe Accommodation - Rockwood 555 tion in the a shining throagh e a.B, Johnstown 7;50. The white of an egg stirred up what the water were reflected directly on the *Daily to the women and young people of the household. cartridge chamber of the rifle. SOUTHWARD. Eight witnesses were in the room, Mail. --Johnstown 4:30 a. m., Honversville 7:11, Stoyestown 7:25, Somerset 7:55, Rockwood 8:30. and a few minutes after three o'clock a paff and a report occurred, and the Express. – Johnstown 2:30 p. m., Hooversville all, Stoycatown 3:25, Somerset 3:55, Rock-wood 4:25. The combined forces of the weath r ball struck the outlined form back of during the winter season are exerted to the ear in the exact location where destroy health. Coughs and Colds Ensley was shot, and the theory of Rockwood 10:25. attack us, which, if neglected, result in erroumstantial evidence went to pleces. "Oh, she's my wife. Let me take Pneumonia and Consumption; these The incident, being witnessed and diseases usually result seriously. Send sworn to, readily explained itself to the DENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD. for Pan-Tina, the great Cough and jury.-Covinnati Inquirer. Address all orders to Consumption Care, and save deetor "If taken into the head by the CASTERN STANDARD TIME nostrils two or three times a week, Thomas' Eclectric Oil will positively IN EFFECT MAY 20, 1895. relieve the most offensive case of Weekly Tribune will be malled to you. season rub them over first with a catarrh." Rev. E. F. Crane, Dunkirk, CONDENSED SCHEDULE. Trains arrive and depart from the station at Johnstown as follows: Rules for Bicycling. WESTWARD A surgeon gives, in an English magazine, some rules for bicycle rid-Ing: Western Express. Johnstown Accommod 4:53 a. m - 6:57 -- 9:10 ing: 1. Never ride within an hour of a meal, which means either before or Mail Fast Line Accommodation. . 9:30 p. down Accommodation. 2. Wheel the machine up any hill the mounting of which on the hill EASTWARD. causes any real effort. 3. See that the clothing around the The best thing to loosen up salt or Altoona Acc stomach, neck and chest is loose. Day Express Main Line Express 4. Have the handle bar sufficiently Main Line EA Main Line EA Main Line EA Main Line EA raised to prevent stooping. Johnstown Accommodation Philadelphia Express Fast Line 5. Be as sparing as possible of taking fluids during a long ride. Rinsing the fluids during a long ride. Trusting the mouth thoroughly, as well as gargling with cold water, will quench the thirst as well as, if not better than, fluids in-as well as, if not better than, fluids into the stomach in large quantities. 6. Except the wind, roads, etc., be YOUR EYE! favorable, never ride more than ten Louther's miles an hour, except for very short distances. We want to catch It! 7. Never smoke while riding. Attention to these points will tend to relieve the pressure on the right of EVERY FARMER in Somerset County the heart, breathlessness will largely who has a cord of Hemlock Bark or a Hide to dispose of will find that the CONbe prevented, and even persons with FLUENCE TANNERY Co., will pay the certain forms of heart disease may ride highest cash prices for the same. Write with safety. for quotations to WINSLOW S. COBB & CO., Confluence, Pa. But Few Know How She Suffered-Fifteen Years With Mrs. James GOOD LIQUORS! Orr, of Greensburg. Fifteen years is a long time to carry a burden. Just think of it ! year in and and Cheap Liquors year out for nearly a decade with a back that aches, a weak back, a lame back, a then a day it would lighten; a plaster ap-Store. SOMERSET plied would bring relief until their strength was gone, but a plastered back is not a No. 309 Main St., and 106 Clinton St., indeed. Plasters are pain relievers, but not pain curers. Relief can be found for Johnstown, Pa., all inds of the choicest liquors in marthere are many more that have found how ket can be had. To my old customthe burden can be relieved for good. They ers this is a well-knowd fact, and to A Greensburg lady, Mrs. Jos. Orr, has all others convincing proof will be Poplar, Oak. Sidings, Siven. Don't forget that I keep on Walnut, Yellow Pine, Flooring,

THE BEST

Public interest will steadily increase, and the disappointment of the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election, with the results under the al-ministration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

The New York Weekly Tribune.

the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless to party affiliations

Also general news in attractive form, foreign correspondence covering the news of SORTHWARD. the world, an agricultural department second to none in the country, market reperathe eyes, a roaring and buzzing sound placed on the shelf above. The tem-in the ear and offentimes a very of per fure was placed either in the spectrum was placed in the spectrum was ures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The New York Weekly Tribung is an Ukent fundle ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly public issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being ma in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more inter-A SPECIAL CONTRACT enables us to offer this splendid journal and The .:. Somerset .:. Herald ONE YEAR FOR ONLY $2.00. CASH IN ADVANCE. SUBSCRIPTIONS MAY BEGIN AT ANY TIME. THE HERALD. Write your name and address on a postal card, send it to Geo. W. Best, Room 2 Tribune Building, New York City, and sample copy of The New York Store. Louther's Drug Main Street, Somerset, Pa. This Model Drug Store is Rapidly Becoming a Great Favorite with People in Search of FRESH . AND . PURE . DRUGS, Medicines, Dye Stuffs, Sponges, Truses, Supporters, Toilet Articles, Perfumes, &c. THE DOCTOR GIVES PERSONAL ATTENTION TO THE COMPOUNDING OF GREAT CARE REING TAKEN TO USE ONLY FRESH AND PURE ARTICLES. SPECTACLES, EYE-GLASSES, large assortment all can be suited. THE FINEST BRANDS OF CIGARS to intending purchasers, whether they buy from us or elsewhere. J. M. LOUTHER M. D. MAIN STREET - - - SOMERSET, PA YARD LUMBER ELIAS CUNNINGHAM, MANUFACTURER AND DEALER AND WHOLSBALE AND RETAILER OF Lumber and Building Materials. Hard and Soft Woods Mouldings Pickets, Star Bails, Sash.

THE KING CURE OVER ALL FOR RHEUMATISM.

Since the publication of the story a | for the two years :

Deadly Shots Fired by The Sun.

of the firearm.

In the papers of last Saturday appear-correspondent from York, Pa., writes concerning the accident, and refers to a similar case, in which, through the

The York correspondent referred to volume 13 of the Criminal Law Magaof the case appears. The case was that

NEURALGIA,

SCIATICA 8

Total

The Grain Crops.

cals the sores, Protects the Additional Cold Restores the Senses of Taste and IT WILLCURE COLD IN HEAD soutache or mohair braid.

ELY'S

A particle is applied into each onstril and is agreeable. Price 50 cents at druggists or by ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren street N. Y.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

and Cambria Branch

lengthen by bias folds, overlapping, or one bias band stitched or edged with

Possibly she thought he might yet be induced to clamber in after her, and there in the dark interior tenderly beseech her to speak; but he was all eagerness to hasten back to the hoproom If he could but have speech with Mrs. Berrien a moment, he might make her understand the situation; she had always been cordial and sympathetic. But it was three or four minutes, perhaps, before Knowles came, thanked him for his attention to his wife, stepped in, and-how her tears were explained to her liege lord nobody knows. Somebody who knew her, however, was mean enough to suggest that they were of the theatrical and controllable order, and, as Randolph expressed it, "she braced up and grinned as soon as Curly was left behind."

Brewster turned and sped up the stairs. At the very top he met the colonel coming hastily down, a brown telegraph envelope in his hand, the soldier operator, with a look of repressed excitement on his face, close at his heels.

"Come, Brewster," called Hazlett wrap about her throat.' A moment more Brewster stood as though he would ask another question, then abruptly turned and plunged into the darkness. . My first if he would fain succeed, Meantime Major Kenyon had trudged up the row toward Holden's quarters. My second's remedies have saved Already the lights were beginning to gleam from the various houses around My third is what my whole will be, the big quadrangle of the parade, where a dozen of the cavalry officers were nov My fourth my first won't need to fill busily engaged in preparation for the sudden move. Over at the hospital, too, the lamps were being lighted in the steward's room and the dispensary, Holden's hall door stood wide open. The hall itself was dark, but a lamp was alight in the sitting room, and that door, too, was wide open. A tall form passed across the illumined space as Kenyor drew near. He stopped for a moment at the gate, listening to the sound of bustle, the whistling and singing of the it gives satisfaction to all who try it. meh at the barracks. "Hardship, hunger, privation, suffering ahead of them.

Berrien stood impatiently at the gate,

even if they don't have hard fighting." he muttered to himself. "In thirty-six hours they'll be freezing, poor devils, had come for us." In less time than it takes to tell it for not a man in the battalion has a win ter kit; and just hear them laugh and the tidings spread from porch to hall sing, as though the world had no joy that "something was up," and other like soldiering! God guard them-and people, men and women, old officers and these poor wives and sweethcarts here. He took them home one night in a big Why isn't it my lot to go instead of Berrien's? Who the devil would shed a tear for me?" He shook himself together and tramped heavily into the gate and up

"Oh, Doc!"

No answer. The house was silent. "Oh, Holden! Where are you?" Still no reply. "Odd," said Kenyon; "I thought I saw him in here. Who could horse," that have been?" With the confidence of army intimacy he tramped through the sitting room on the left of the hall, then into the dining room beyond. No one there. Then across the hall again and into Holden's own sleeping room at the rear of the house. The kerosene lamp was burning on the dressing table The bed had been occupied. Evidently Holden had turned in early, only to be routed out by the orders of the colonel. The floor creaked somewhere overhead Then he was sure he heard a quick, light footfall on the stair. "Oh. Doc Here I am. It's Kenyon," he cried. But no answer came. Once more re-

Animal Friends.

"All right. Kathleen will get us some coffee after a while. Bring in some of a little sugar and water is good for a "Exactly. She's the one. Who is child with an irritable stomach. The tall party got up to get a better

A Hard Fight.

"She's a jay from Jay's Cross Roads, ain't she?" he said with a laugh as he But the cautious man declined and nanaged to lose himself in the crowd as quickly as possible .- New York Sun. bills. Bottles of Pan-Tina at G. W. Benford's drug store. If you store away flat irons for a > little sweet oil to keep them from N.Y. rusting. Don't Quarrel

With people for groaning when they The answer is one of the best remesuffer with Rheumatism or Neuralgia; dies for female troubles ever known. the pain is simply terrible; no ancient For periodical pains, excessive flowing, torture was more painful; but people prolapsus, bearing down, inflammation, ought to be blamed if having Rheunervous headaches, and all diseases matism or Neuralgia and won't use resulting from "female weakness." Red Flag Oil; it has cared hundreds of There is nothing so good as Dr. sufferers and costs only 25 cents at Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The G. W. Benford's drug store. only remedy so certain in results that sugar which has become hard packed in a barrel is a carpenter's 'scratchawl." I never saw the domesticity and

"The Common People,"

better proved than in the case of an As Abraham Lincoln called them, do old tortoise-shell cat, owned by my not care to argue about their ailments. Aunt Sallie. This old cat and her What they want is a medicine that three kittens were given to a grandson. will cure them. The simple, honest statement, "I know that Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me," is the best argu-

Sir W. Fowler tells the story of Huxsnake was in Sydney harbor, the offi cers were invited to a ball, and young Huxley among the number. There for the first time he met his future wife, whose parents resided at Sydney. A she returned direct to England.

was in a position to claim his bride and

Not Entirely.

