"Unfortunately, perhaps, I am regarded as a leader of the sound money movement in the Democratic party, and a good many people, whether wisely or not attach importance to my utterance. When it is alleged that I yield New York to the silver people, they regard the situation of sound money as perilous. Knowing this to be the effect of what such a statement from me would be, the bear element, which has been raiding stocks for a long time, and which wants some new argument to further depress, has most unwarrantably seized upon my name, and rascally attributed this declaration to me. It is false, wholly false.

"Give up the State of New York on an issue which means repudiation? Never! There is nothing, absolutely nothing, to justify honest men in yielding an inch of their ground. On the contrary, it is my firm conviction that Mr. McKinley will carry this State by fully 200,000 majority, and in that majority you will find men of sanshin in an issue of this kind. I have no hesitation in expressing this belief. It comes from what I have seen, what I have heard, what I have investigated, and what I know. Cabbage Growing on Vines.

LAKE PARK, Ia., Aug. 10 .- S. R. Buffman, a market gardener near here, has a great bargains in every department remarkable vegetable freak. It was planted as a cabbage, but instead of making a head in cabbage fashion, assumed the form of a vine. At the axis of the leaves heads of about two pounds weight Parker & ormed to the number of 13. In the fall the plant went to seed, an unusual thing for cabbage, which ordinarily requires to be set out the second year for seed. The seed was planted this year. It grew well, and many of the plants assumed the vinelike habit of the parent, although a majority returned to the natlong before a vine variety of the cabbage plant will be established. By picking the heads when they attain a weight o one or two pounds, the vine forms ne

so weak; why they get tired so easily; why they start at every slight but sudden sound; why they do not sleep naturally; why they have frequent headaches, indigestion and Palpitation of the Heart

The explanation is simple. It is found in that impure blood which is continually feeding the nerves upon refuse instead of the elements of strength and vigor. In such condition opiate and nerve compounds simply deaden and do not cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla feeds the nerves pure, rich, red blood; gives natural sleep, perfect digestion, self-control, vigorous health, and is the true remedy for all nervous troubles.
