IM & WALKER, ATTURNEYS ATLAW, and NOTARY PUBLIC, Court House.

A BERREY, ATTAM, Somerset Pa.

C. HOLBERT, Somerset, Pa. ch a Beerits Block, up stairs

MED W. BIESECKER, ATTUBART AT-LAW,

F. A KOOSER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa.

ZOUNIZ & OGLE, ATTORNEYS AT-LAW.

VALENTINE HAY, Also leader in Real Estate. Will artend to wal premptly attend to all business en

JOHN O. KIMMEL, AITORNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa.

Will attend to all business entrusted to h TAMES L. PUGH, ATTUKNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa.

office in Mammoth Block, up stairs. En-nier or Main Cross street. Collectious act, estate settled, titles examined, and all prisonness attended to with promptness A. J. COLBORN. COLBORN & COLBORN, ATTORNEYS AT-LAW,

All business entrested to our care will be

H. L. BAER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

A. H. OUFFROTH. W. H. RUPPEL

COFFROTH & RUPPEL, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

I W. CAROTHERS, M. D., Somerset, Pa. Office on Patriot Street, opposite U. B

DR P. F. SHAFFER,

DR J. M. LOUTHER, Office on Main street, rear of Drug store.

TRU SMCMHLLEN.

Stylle alleution to the preservation

C. B. COFFROTH. Funeral Director. REPAIRING A Office is a blain Cross St. Residence,

SPECIALTY. 340 Patriot St. All work guaranteed. Look at my stock before making your FRANK B. FLUCK.

purchases, J. D. SWANK.

as the Cheapest.

Oils! Oils! On ALWAYS Hand.

I Am Now

The attactic Renaing Co., Pittsburg Department, Pittsburg, Pa., makes a specialty of material content of the Bonestic basic the finest brands of

Numinating & Lubricating Oils

Nphtha & Gasoline,

Product of Petroleum

If you wish the most uniformly

Satisfactory Oils

American Market. ly supplied by:

The Somerset Herald.

ESTABLISHED 1827.

VOL. XLV. NO. 13.

SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1896.

WHOLE NO. 2354.

VORY SOAP IT FLOATS

At all grocery stores two sizes of Ivory Soap are sold; one that costs five cents a cake, and a larger size. The larger cake is the more convenient and economical for laundry and general household use. If your Grocer is out of it, insist on his getting it for you. THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO., CIN'TH.

First National Bank Mrs.A.E.Uhl.

---OF---Somerset, Penn'a. ---0----

Capital, $50.000. Surplus, $24,000.

DEPOSITS RECEIVED IN LARGE AND SMALL AMOUNTS, PAYABLE ON DEMAND. ACCOUNTS OF MERCHANTS, FARMERS, STOCK DEALERS, AND OTHERS SOLICITED

-DISCOUNTS DAILY .-BOARD OF DIRECTORS. LARUE M. HICKS, GEO. R. SCULL,

JAMES L. PUGH,

JOHN R. SCOTT.

W. H. MILLER,

ROBT. S. SCULL,

EDWARD SCULL, : : PRESIDENT. VALENTINE HAY, : VICE PRESIDENT. HARVEY M. BERKLEY, . CASHIER.

FRED W. BIESECKER.

The funds and securities of this bank are securely protected in a celebrated Conliss Bur-GLAR PROOF SAFE. The only safe made abso-

The Somerset County National

OF SOMERSET PA. --- 0:--

BANK

Established, 1877. Organized as a National, 1890 ----

$50,000 CAPITAL. SURPLUS AND UN-DIVIDED PROFITS $23,000 --:0:---

Chas. J. Har risen. President. Wm. H. Koontz, - Vice President Milton J. Pritts, - - Cashier. L. C. COLBORN. Geo. S. Harrison, . Ass't Cashier.

--:0:--

DIRECTORS: Sam. B. Harrison, Wm. Endsley, Jonas M. Cook, Josiah Specht, John Stufft. John H. Snyder.

Noah S. Miller, Joseph B. Davis, Jerome Stufft. Harrison Snyder, Chas. W. Snyder.

Customers of this bank will receive the most Darties wishing to send money east or west an be accommodated by draft for any mount.

Money and valuables secured by one of Die-old's celebrated safes, with most improved ons made in all parts of the United

A. H. HUSTON. Undertaker and Embalmer. A GOOD HEARSE, and everything pertaining to funerals furn-

SOMERSET - - Pa

Jacob D. Swank,

Watchmaker and Jeweler, Next Door West of Lutheran Church.

with Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry of all descriptions, as Cheap

Somerset.

Gives Relief at once prepared to supply the public ays Pain and Inammation, Heals the Sores. Protects Additional Cold and it will cure. COLD IN HEAD

THE KEELEY CURE

PITTSBURG KEELEY INSTITUTE.

PITTSBURG KEELEY INSTITUTE,

No. 4246 Fifth Avence, restores to them all their powers, mental and physical, destroys the abnormal appetite, and restores them to the condition they were in before they induiged in stimulants. This has been done in more than 1400 cases treated here, and emong them some of your own neighbors, to whom we can refer with confidence as to the absolute safety and efficiency of the Keeley Cure.
The follest and most searching investigation is n vited. Send for pamphlet giving full information.

Prices Right. IMPORTANT TO ADVERTISIES. Sister Prue received a note From Silas Henry Brown. "Spec ter see yer, Prue," he wrote, "This eve' when Sun goes down." Foun' that note a-layin' roun', PINS.

Read it, don't yer know; Then I 'as 'termined, double, boun' Ter houx that city beau. Way back in our parlor sittin',

Was a great big oak settee, I knew just sure as flirtin' On it they'd sure to be. I ran to Mammies' cushin'

I kept a wishin', wishin', In him 'twould run-way in. So, I bent it, so, and so, The point was awful straight; Sneaked ter that settee so low,

I couldn't hardly wait. So 's 'twouldn't give in pushin' I fixed it tighter'n sin. An' all the time a wishin'

In him 'twould run-way in. I 'as just goin' ter vanish Where I could see the fun. When Prue-a dancin' Spanish, Came in 'fore I could run, Let's play you're Mister Brown." I thought I was goln' ter smother, She made me sit right down. I said I didn't want ter.

She said-"Come dearest Brother.

That she should lemme go, She said "You'll have to want ter, Now hug me close, there-so." My beart was failin' thin me, (That pin so close yer know;) She leant quite hard against me, I 'was on it-Oh! oh! oh! Then just while I 'as cryin', Why Brown hisself comes in,

Ter please him Prue was tryin',

But sot him on that pin. Fergot I was a cryin', Fergot I had a pain, Fer Brown jest went a flyin',

Like any hurrycane. I iaft an' laft an' giggled, I danced an' laft agin,; The way be squeaked an' wiggled, I tho't I bust my skin, Next thing I know'd was nuthin'. He grabbed me drefful tight, An' on that pin a cussin," He socked me all his might.

Mine burt, but so must hisin'; I'm O. K. agin an' trim; That parior's fairly sizzin With pins lay'n low fer him. Prue says he's a "Foreign Mission."

Them pins would run-way in. -Charles Gingrich. A MAIDEN'S CHOICE.

I don't care what he's been;

But, Oh, I do keep wishin',

The tide was rolling in rapidly. waves, so white, so fleecy in contrast with the deep hues of the water itself; and the sun was gilding, crimsoning and purpling the western sky. Away up in the heavens were soft, floating reflections lay on the ocean, tinting it with their many hues. and other goods now in stock The carriages were whirling up and down Ocean Avenue with gaily dressed women, gentlemen caracoled on horseback at their sides; laughter, jest, mer-

> Two young girls, with arms intertwined, slowly paced a garden walk. "Is it not delicious, Mary?" said one, "This bring breath of old ocean, the music, the summer night? Listen! There is that old waltz of Walter's. It

By and by I shall return to my practical self, and be thankful for work

"Both very nice selves, Mollie; one's friend's romantic follies; that must be to most young girls he was fauitlessly your romantic self; and the practical handsome, with charming manners. me an example of patient industry and ashamed of my own idly spent life." self upon your two last lovers, for I see the indolence which was habitual to five years older and wiser since this itself. it is almost time that you make a de- the other.

I am only interested in one." "I supposed so, and that is why I judgment. Albert Norris is very handsome, wealthy, a successful merchant.

in very moderate circumstances; a struggling young lawyer who has loved by the exterior advantages of one, bare necessities," Helen, and how little regard you give, apparently, to the quick, good sense, you, there is only one choice."

you, I very much admire Albert's ap- whom the very stones preach serpearance. I am somewhat of a cat, as mons." somebody says most women are. I his meals. Think of it Mary."

aration of a dainty dish if some one I fear I should cast myself into it." may not all dishes be daintily prepar- ing?" said Helen. "You who are the ily liniment.

one of the finest arts, if it was not al- sion." ways so considered. But let us return "Only talking, Helen, as people will to our subject. Confess, Helen, if the sometimes. But is it not time to re two were similarly situated as fortune, | turn ?"

"Now, that is what I want to talk about. I have an underneath, quiet tage home. sort of feeling that if a great calamity came to one, Edward Barnes could aid, speak the words Helen had evaded a console, be, perhaps, a strong rock of long time. refuge; but Albert comes and absorbs all my time and attention. We ride, and dance, and talk nonsense together, hope that I have not loved you in and all the girls are envying me, and I vain?" find myself drifting off upon a sort of sea with him, which I am not yet sure more time to know my own mind," I wish to voyage upon or to take him | she said.

as helmsman."

what would your decision be?"

"Helen, I do believe that is the way half the girls marry. Don't you, I beg as my wife." of you. Life is such a terrible thing of finding too late that you have made | what he desired? An impossibility of an awful mistake, and when calamity refusal? comes-as come it must in every lifeyou have no sure rock of refuge, only a broken staff to lean upon, and you are indeed alone. Poverty-I mean industrious poverty, (what you call poverty) -which generally earns enough for all the absolute necessities and many of the luxuries of life, is not the worst trial of life. But don't take either of your lovers if you can not resolve to share any reasonable lot with them, for you do not love unless you feel that you

"Mollie, were you ever in love?" "In love? No; but I thought I was. I will tell you the story to-night. Take your wrap, let us go to the beach. I want to feel the fresh breeze blow about me while I talk of that old time." They wended their way to the beach. The moon was just rising, silvering the | ready ?" noisy, turbulent, work-a-day world.

toil for myself and my poor mother, control, and the mother vainly strove pew sat down General Harrison stepyou know we were very well-to-do to reach him. ishly upon my education and for our Helen. daily comforts, and never dreamed that Her face was pallid-her beautiful for the enthusiastic cheering to subside, a sudden death would take him from eyes dilated with pity and fear. us in the full vigor of manly strength before he had provided for our com- own life," was the quiet, measured anforts. Henry Gray was a neighbor's swer of her lover. son, and your Albert reminds me But there was a prompt reply near somewhat of him. Pleasant to every her. one; soft, gentle manners and with an "Do not forget me, Nellie, if I am men might have a chance and that I this great metropolis as it does to-day.

trothal ring upon my finger and three and farther he is borne by the merci-check was cashed. or four sheets of paper filled with pro- less current. Will he never reach him? ually cooled in ardor. Helen, I am two lives so far away from shore. was broken, my life blighted, as I saw But Helen gave him no reply. he was drifting away from me. And Was this the man who claimed her then came our great affliction. And heart? For whom she wavered in inwhen I saw him again I was a wiser, decision; who had filled her thoughts older girl. Life had become very real, of late to the exclusion of old childish I tell you now. I could not realize that she knew who was the strong man in I had ever loved him, except for the times of calamity-he who could peril memory of the doleful hours I spent in his life for another. And all the quiet, not the sort of character I could have acter, which she had never fully apficial in results and healing. "One is very wise after all that, you another, who could not even pay due

"Not lightly, but very wisely, I am sure. But here come the subjects of our conversation, so no more discussion of them at present." And Helen turned gayly to greet the comers. Albert Norris was very handsome my weary work. But that is only now. as she had said. His figure was tall and graceful; his head finely formed; his features regular, with the usual which gives comfort to those I love. I fresh coloring of youth. A close physthink sometimes, do you know, that I | lognomist would have detected a lack of strength in the face. The mouth was not firm enough; the bright hazel a patient, kind sympatizer in your eyes glanced too frequently aside. But self gives me excellent advice and sets | Not so his companion, whose figure was built more for strength than for heart of one whom she might find a Democratic friends who are disposed and of values and they want silver. this state of slavery, and so instituted a perseverance which often makes me beauty. His face was firm, open, in- staff of support in time of need. telligent, genial. Clear, gray eyes "But, Helen," said Mary, mischiev-"But you had a special topic of con- looked clearly and penetratingly into ously, "what about those dreadful dinversation for to-night, you said. Do yours. His movements were quick, ners and possible calico dresses?" you need the judgment of my practical active, lithe, lacking entirely the gen-

"This is just the night for one of with Edward in a log cabin." your songs, Mr. Barnes," said Mary. I do not say I shall take your judg- And as they seated themselves he sang ment, however, but I want to talk with in a rich, full baritone, to the accompaniment of the waves rushing rhyth-"Let me avow, Helen, at the outset, mically upon the shore, the song of the Three Fishers. For a few moments after, none of the music suited the scene; the voice live forever. was sympathetic, and awakened many thoughts in the listeners. "It does not seem possible here, in this quiet, calm spot, that there can be a turbulent, noisy world, full of many to see how much you were influenced unhappy people, of 'women who weep, and men who risk life for life's

"No, indeed," was Edward's reply the persevering spirit, the solid, sub- "but to-morrow's sun will shine on this stantial qualities of the other. I say same spot, upon all sorts of inconsistapparently, for I can not but think ent human creatures, who make up down in the depths of your heart you this very world; women who think of do appreciate them. To my mind, un- life only as a show; men who strive to influenced by the incense of their admiration, which is only swung towards life's glare and glitter. More of these compose this crowd than the genuine "But you know how much I admire lovers of nature, who find conpanionbeauty, and, silly as it may sound to ship in the sea and the woods, and to

"Which do you prefer, Mary-the like to nestle on soft cushions in the sea or the mountains ?" asked Helen. sunshine. I do enjoy the luxurious "I can not tell here and now. I love things of this life. I am afraid I should the woods of my home dearly, and the not want to share poverty with Ed- mountains there are my old friends ward, wear calleo dresses, perhaps cook | from childhood. But if I were restless or unhappy, I think I should find "You are a little goose, and I do not more sympathy in the restlessness of suppose it would do you a great deal of the sea. I do not know, perhaps, after harm to cook the meals if there was all, its tossing and moaning might so some one to clean the pots and pans. intensify that of my restless spirit that

ed? Cooking, you know, is becoming personification of cheerful submis

An', half reluctantly, they turned from the moonlit sea toward their cot As they neared it, Albert lingered to "You must have known," he said, "how much you are to me. Can I not

"Oh! do not ask me now. Give me come to know if I may not claim you What was there in the tone that jarwhen one has chosen wrongly. Think red upon her? Was it an assurance of

> The morrow came-another day of were crowding the beach, for it was bathing time. Such a motley crowd!

encountered friends. Helen," said Mollie, "Some are so nymph of the waves." "And the bright little boy you were admiring so yesterday is her child. See, he is swimming near her."

"Here comes our party-are you waves. How far away seemed the But just as they were about entering Depew stepped to the front of the platthe waves, a shrill cry of terror rang form. When the hearty appliause had "Before my father's death," said through the air. The boy had appar- subsided Dr. Depew, as chairman, advery convincing one, and everybody prohibition of liquor, keeping all for-Mary, "which condemned me to daily ently been carried beyond his power of dressed the meeting. When Mr. De- was in the school-house when it was eigners out of the country and refusing

"No one without endangering his Harrison said :

attractive person, it was no wonder lost," and with quick, strong strokes might have a rest. But I am not a Men have been afraid to go away for a that a young, foolish girl like myself | Edward Barnes was beating the waves, | soured, or disappointed or bedridden Great white-topped, fleecy crowned very soon idolized him into a hero. and far away from the crowd of bath-citizen. My interest in my country "He went to college, leaving a be- ers strove to rescue the child. Farther did not cease when my last salary weeping over my broken idol. His unvarying love, the truth and tenderwas not a constant nature. He was ness of heart, the unselfishness of char> smiles, tears, blushes were all for him. but the quiet content of perfect trust: of entire reliance on the strong, true

"Don't speak of them. I have grown the Democratic party has disorganized use of those terms. morning, and I think I would live

No man is much of a hero to widow.

The woman who marries for spite usually gets it. Few men would marry if they could that love is not incurably blind.

that she is an uncrowned queen. The man who is good for nothing Never marry a man to reform him. Reform him first, and then don't marey him.

A good many men marry to get a home and then spend most of their time away from it .- New York Press.

The Ingenious Small Boy.

the small boy. A few afternoons ago to the Soldiers' Home. It was rather a handsome house, with a wide sweep of velvety lawn, windingly intersected by a cement driveway. He was mounted on a bicycle and as rode he pushed the lawn mower along beside him. Of course, it was much harder work than walking with the grass cutter would have been and a

HARRISON ON FINANCE.

Plain Talk on the Evils of the Free honor. Silver Project.

WOULD BRING DISHONOR AND DISASTER.

and Happiness of Our People.

MASTERLY DISCOURSE ON THE ISSUES.

> Harrison acted as the eastern proxy of the Republican candidate last night. and struck the key-note of the eastern campaign in a speech to 5,000 people. Half as many people as composed the audience were denied admittance because of lack of room.

the many points of the speech were received with hearty applause. The from the early hour when they cheered the band's interpretation of "America" "Is it possible this is you?" was displayed their patriotism in every posheard more than once, as those unacsible way. Indeed the vast audience arose and sang the national anthem with ardor.

The decorations of the Auditorium were entirely of the American colors. cold and blue, and all their lovely Frags were in many hands. Pictures of roundness of figure has become limp. the Republican national candidates Now, there is a lady I like to watch. adorned the sides of the proscenium She swims finely and has such a lovely arches, which were festooned with silk color after; she seems to me a veritable bunting. The lower tier of boxes was gay with beautifully dressed women and men in evening attire. Mrs. Harrison occupied one of the boxes with the family of Mr. Chauncey M. Depew. There was a vocal solo, "Marching Through Georgia," then Chauncey M. ped to the front. He was in even-

"Ladies and Gentlemen: I am on son of any age limit nor by the plen of when universal business fear and anx- out such stuff." - Washington Star. any convention, but that the younger licty and watchfulness characterized ed to think that I might in some way ashamed of my old self. I suffered "He has thrown away his own life advance the interests of those princitortures then and thought my heart uselessly," said Albert, "the madman." ples which are not less dear to me than this great city, a public address. I is the choice of a president? Do you importance of anything I could say, very hard. And I can almost laugh as friendship and love? Now full well to subordinate what others thought to dent of the United States to bring the be a public duty to my private convekey-note speech, but only to express my personal views, for which no one already. It is only because the presielse will be in any measure responsible, loved in after years. And what seem- preciated before, burst upon her like a for this speech has not been submitted had, and the one we have now, have ed a bitter draught then was a cup bit- revelation. She was the unworthy to the judgment of any until now. I regarded it under the law as his public ter indeed to the taste, but most bene- one. She had never deserved this love shall speak, my fellow citizens, as a duty to maintain the gold basis, mainif she could have been so attracted by Republican, but with perfect respect to taining that parity between our silver time it is since the Emperors of Russia. know, and I am not likely to give my homage to the heroism his eyes beheld. deed, I have never had so much respect for Democrats as I have now, or

> "That party has once more exhibited its capacity to be ruptured, and a party If anybody were to seek to give that as be looked at, and she who took the pothat can not be split is a public menace. a reason for wanting free silver he tentate's fancy was forthwith chosen. When the leaders of a party assembled would be very soon confounded by the The princesses were kept with the he fell senseless upon the shore, and in convention depart from its tradition - statement that free silver would put same strictness as Eastern princesses, al principles and advocate doctrines that more gold out of circulation than the and marriage only changed their places threaten the integrity of the govern- mints of the United States could pos- of residence, but gave them no more ment the social order of our communi- sibly put in in years of silver and that freedom. They were allowed occasionever, and skillful aid, and when even- ties and the security and soundness of instead of having more money we ally to be present when guests were our finance it ought to split, and it would have less.

> "A bolt from any party is now and No more doubt or indecision for her, then a most reassuring incident and standard of value that they are de rooms at the north side of the palace was never more reassuring and never manding. They say gold has gone up reserved especially for them. The first had better causes than now, but these until it has coased to be a proper stand- Czarina who emancipated herself from more or less directly to help the cause | But how do they want it? Now my | new and happier era for Russian womof sound finance in this campaign friends, there is a great deal of talk en, was the beautiful Nathalie Naryought not to expect that the Republi- about bimetallism, of the double stand- schki, the second wife of Alexis can party will organize itself because and and a great deal of confusion in the Michaelovitch, and the mother of > > "The Republican party, the Republican voter, if sound money triumphs, as used. By a double standard they mean carriage to the monastery of Troitsky. I believe it will, must in the nature of that we shall have a gold dollar and a a proceeding which at that time oceathe thing, constitute the body of the suc- silver dollar which shall be units of sioned a great scandal. Naturally, cessful army. We ought not, therefore, value by which all property and all when the Russian princes began to into be asked to do anything that will wages and everything are to be measure termarry with other European royal affect the solidity, the loyalty, the dis- ed. Now our fathers thought that families, they were obliged to treat cipline or the enthusiasm of the Re- when they used these two metals in their wives differently, but it was a publican party.

"The Republican party confronts the destructionist and trumpets its defiance to the enemies of sound money. It will fight, however, without covering any of the inscriptions that are upon its banners. When the house is on fire. our Democratic friends, who realize as has been nothing more amusing, and of the integrity of the supreme court come down to this fine point, the Reof the United States and of the presi- publicans say that we can not have this dent's power and duty to enforce all of good thing without the consent of Engthe laws of the United States without land, and we say we can have it ourthe call or consent of the governor of selves," and he has endeavored to pivot any state is an important and living this great campaign with its tremendissue in this campaign. "Tariff and coinage will be of little "I will tell you what this govern-in order to win a vote.

that the mail trains are not obstructed can not make that last declaration and that the interstate commerce has good. It is unquestionably fully withpunish law breakers, free trade and legal tender, but it can not say, and skin.

free silver will be appropriate accom- is the policy that should be our paniments of such an administration and can not add appreciably to the national distress or the national dis-

"The atmosphere of the Chicago convention was surcharged with the spirit of revolution. The platform was car- man to a Star reporter. "At Clay Cenried and its nominations made with ter the landlord said : accompanying incidents of frenzy that country. The courts and the president | There ought to be some way to stop were arraigned for enforcing the laws it. and government by the mob was given executive orders.

"In the platform they denounced intution of the United States and a crime one to have enough.' against free institutions. Mr. Tillman in his speech approved the declaration. It was intended to be in words a direct the power of the executive to brushout speaking-they have plenty of time." of the way every obstacle to the free passage of the mail trains of the United States and the interstate commerce. "Once we were told, and a grave question was raised whether the United | good crops. They were not responsible States could pass its troops through for crops failing, and the loss ought to Kentucky to meet a rebel army in Ten- fall on the men who loaned the monnessee. My friends, this constitutional execute it and this convention ar- "Do you believe in government raigns the president for doing what his ownership of railroads?" oath compelled him to do. "I do not intend to spend any time | benefited by Kansas grain and Kansas in the discussion of the tariff question. must get clothing from the East. Each That debate has been won and need section is interested in exchange goods, not be protracted. We needed an ex- and there ought not to be any freight perience of our own, and we have had to pay for transportation. It's for community. I do not believe there and we will never have peace until the has ever been a time except, perhaps, government appoints men to read the Republican retired list not by rea- in the very heat of some active panic, everything before it is printed and keep

> "So eager were our Democratic friends pecially about one man, over whose to relieve their embarrassment and to put directly upon our people according

"In connection with the financial they are to you by making here, in | matter do we all realize how important thought they greatly magnified the know that as the law is now, without the passage of any free coinage of silver but I could not quite content myself | law at all it is in the power of the presibusiness of this country to a silver basis? All he has to do is to let the gold reserve go, to pay out silver when men ask for gold, and we are there dents of the United States that we have "The silver question-what is it? Do coinage they must determine the in- long time before the court of Russia trinsic relative values of the two so became as civilized as the rest of Euthat a comparison of the marke's of rope. the world would show just what relation one ounce of silver bore to one

"Now what do these people propose and many of our Democratic friends to do; to take any account of thoubelieve that to be the present domestic sandths? No. When the markets of situation, the tenant on the top the world fix the relative value of silver floor ought not to ask the tenant in the or gold at thirty-one ounces of silver sement to bury any of his opinions to one onnee of gold they propose to before he joins the fire brigade, and say sixteen. Well, my friends, there we realize the gravity, the far reaching yet I fear that with the thoughtless it reorganize itself to put aside any of the of Mr. Bryan that everybody admitted ous issues upon that pin-hole, noment if our constitutional govern- ment can do alone. It can fix its monment is overthrown. When we have ey unit. It can declare by law what enforce its decree if you should call out the regular army and navy and muster all our great modern ships and add the militis and put William J.

Bryan in command of them.

"My friends, these men surely do not contemplate the irretrievable and extensive character of the disaster and disturbance and disruption which they are proposing for all of us in all our business affairs, great and simple, Take the laboring man, how full of sympathy they are for him. My countrymen, I never spoke a false word to the laboring man in my life. I have believed, and I believe to-day, that any system that maintains the prices of labor in this country, that brings hope into the life of the laboring man, that enables him to put by, that gives him a share in the property of the country

No Cranks in Kansas.

"I have just returned from a trip through Kansas," remarked a traveling American policy."

"The newspapers are hurting Kanstartled the onlookers and amazed the sas by calling it a State of cranks.

"It may be on account of the silver preference over government by the law question,' I suggested.

enforced by the court decrees and by "Well, of course, we are all for having plenty of money-we don't care particularly about silver. The best terference by federal authorities in the | way would be for the government just local affairs as a violation of the consti- to print enough greenbacks for every

"'How about women in politics?" "Women have tongues, and they ought to go into politics. Men have condemnation of Mr. Cleveland, as their business to attend to, and the president of the United States, for using women ought to attend to the stump-

"How about repudiating mortgages?" "'Of course, the farmers ought not to pay the mortgages. When they borrowed money they expected to have ey : they can stand it.' "'As to the sub-Treasury scheme?" "'We favor that. The government "'Certainly. The East would be it. It has been a hard lesson, but a the public welfare. I believe in the to allow any Catholics to own any "A panic in 1893 of most extraordi- property; but as to cranks-I have livcountry people. My father spent lav- "Can no one save him?" inquired ing dress in contrast to Dr. Depew, who nary character has been succeeded by ed in Kansas twenty years and never was in a frock cont, and as he waited a gradual drying up, less and less, and met a crank who was a resident of the less, until universal business distrac- State, and this criticism should be stoplooked in very good health. General tion and anxiety prevail all over our ped. Newspapers are too free, anyway,

Justice and Generosity. They were talking about their neigh. borhood-as neighbors will-and escase they couldn't agree. "He's a mean man," declared Fusus, who is always "broke" and rather prides himself on the fact.

"Not mean," protested the other. "Not mean, but just." "Just mean, you mean." "No. I mean he's just before he's generous."

up his meanness. What's the matter with being both just and generous?"5 "But who is both ?" "Well, perhaps nobody. But the fact is, and you might as well admit it, that there is nothing so odioosas the sterner virtues."

The other was silent .- New York

way as they are now treated in Turkey. It is true that in those days the subjects, and she was never considered I haven't heard anybody say so. Mr. his equal. On a certain day the no-Bryan is not urging it upon that basis. bles brought their young daughters to received, to whom they would hand a cup of wine, and then retire to their dollars that are wanted. It is a lower apartments, there being a suite of Peter the Great, and her first triumph "Bimetallism is the use of the two was when she obtained her husband's metals as money where they are both consent to drive with him in an open

Mountain to the stranger who was surveying the scenery, "a great battle was fought on the spot where we stand."

"Indeed!"

"Yes, sir. The Federal and Confederate troops had a terrific engagement here, and at one time during the action the entire mountain was in a and wounded and the trees were shattered and stripped by the shells." Awful! "You may well say so. By the by,

"I was in the battle that you were speaking of," replied the stranger serenely.-Chicago Times-Herald.

porcelain or zinc lined, pour a little

One application of Dr. Thomas' Ec- its free way irrespective of state lines in the power of this government to in everyday use, rub them with a damp

COOK & BEERITS and FREASE & KOOSER.

-IN THE-

Plazesa to made from Penroleum. We chad one comparison with every known

R SCOTT. ALTOHNEY-AT-LAW,

LIZONNE H.S Somerset, Pa. extention to business cu-

JOHN H. UHL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

iles. Surveying and conveyancing Somerset, Pa. Will practice in Somerset and adjoining specify and punctually attended to. Office so Halo Cross street, opposite Mammoti

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Beaders his professional services to the cit

DE H. S. KIMMELL.

Land Surveyor AND RINGING ENGINEER. Listle, Pa.

BEST IN THE MARKET.

Jarecki Phosphate, Raisin's Phosphate, Lime, Crushed Coke, set & Cambria R. R. Station.

Hard Coal,

Salisbury Soft Coal,

At the Old Stand near the Some

I foun' the biggest pin,

المساول والمساول والمساول

NEW

FALL GOODS

New Style Fall and Winter

Dress Goods

now in stock. They are pretty and cheap.

A complete line of all kinds of

Flannels,

Flannelettes.

Ladies' and Children's

WRAPS

Now coming in. Call and see them.

CREAM BALM CATARRH Is quickly absor b ed. Cleanses the Nasal Passages, Al

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, N. Y.

Is a special boon to business men who, having drifted unconsciously into the drink habit and awaken to find the disease of alcoholism fastened upon them, rendering them unfit to manage affairs requiring a clear brain. A four weeks course of treatment at the riment everywhere. Then, as the twilight deepened, soft, sweet music floated out from the brightly lighted rooms, and the piazzas were crowded with promenaders, loungers and all the pleasure loving crowd of a gay watering place.

The cream of the country papers is found in Remington's County Seat Lists. Shrewd advertisers avail themselves of these lists, a copy of which can be had of Remington Bros. of New York & Pittsburg.

just accords with my mood." "Delicious, indeed, Helen; and if so to you, what do you think it is to me? heart lightly again." Pent up as I am through weary days, it is heavenly. I can never express to you how I enjoy it all. It is my first week at the seashore. The music, moonlight, freedom, intoxicates me. I feel as if I could float off upon those flowing waves, rather than go back to "You have guessed rightly, Mollie.

An only son-" "Yes; and Edward Barnes is plain.

say I am not prepared to accept your them spoke. The night was heavenly;

I am vulgar enough to enjoy the prep- I might find myself fleeing from it for

Sound Money Essential to the Welfare

New York, Aug. 28.-Ex-President "To-morrow then, to-morrow I shall

The enthusiasm was tremendous and clear, bright sunshine, and gay parties audience was a distinguished one, and customed to their bathing costumes "How few look well who bathe,

How she endured the moments which seemed ages she never knew. But at last a glad hurrah! rent the air. and she scarcely saw-she felt he must I have now. have saved the boy. But exhausted, faint with the long distance he had swam, the heavy waves with which be had struggled and the borden he bore, needed all the kind ministrations-the care so ready to greet him. Helpful hands were there in abundance, howing came he was amply repaid, as reclining in the cottage parior, Helen's dignifies itself when it does split.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Matrimony has established the fact About every third woman imagine else sometimes makes a good husband.

I was passing a house out on the road considerations as those have weight with him.-Washington Post.

question, this division between the general and local authorities is a plain and and easy one. When a law of the ought to loan money to the farmers. It United States is invaded and broken it | would increase production and benefit is the sworn duty of the president to the country."

vacation. "I hoped to add to the relief from to the English system a tax to support testations of undying affection came And lips unused to prayer murmured official duties retirement from the arena our government that they passed an once a week to me. After a while the appeals to Heaven's mercy, and all of political debate. But the gentlemen unconstitutional act in order to levy inclouds of all bright colors, and their letters were not quite so long and grad- hearts beat with apprehension for the having in charge this campaign seems ternal taxes and help out a tariff bill which had reduced the duties upon im-

> those who hold differing opinions. In- and gold coins which the law declares treated their womankind in the same perhaps I should say I never had so we want silver because we want more Czar chose his wife from among his much respect for so many Democrats as money, a larger circulating medium?

> > "It is not more dollars, but cheaper ounce of gold.

consequences of this campaign, ought | may have been in some measure misnot to ask the Republican party to leading, than the repeated declaration being impressed with the ingenuity of great principles that it has advocated that bimetallism was a good thing-"The defense of the constitution and that the debate of the campaign has where were you at that time?"

deat slower in the doing; but no feat a president who believes that it is shall be the relative value of an ounce vinegar on a clean cloth and wipe it neither his right nor his duty to see of gold and an ounce of silver, but it well one or twice a week.

lectric Oil takes away the pain of the and courts who fear to use our ancient bring this country to a silver basis by eloth dipped in baking soda, then poicare for will help to eat it; and why "Mary, Mary! What are you say- most severe burn. It is an ideal fam- and familiar power to restrain and coining silver dollars and making them ish them with a little piece of chamole armieu to his care will be at-C. W. WALKER.

B. Stillida No. 110 Fourth St., Pitteburg, Pa.

HARVEY M. BERKLEY, ALLUMNET-AL-WAW.

EUROE R. SCULL,

"Yes, a long time before. That's what a mean man always says to cover

Empress Nathalie. It is curious to think what a short

They Never Met Again.

"Fact, sir. The banks of the river below there were lined with the dead

Kitchen Brevities. To purify the water cooler, either

To clean the silver spoons and forks,