The Confinence & Oakland road, at present extending from Conducace to | c Manor Lands, a distance of 23 miles, was | 1 finished by Philadelphia capitalists, Register's Office; JACOB's, MILLER, Register housed by J. hayard Henry, in the fall of 1864, and under a long lease was turned over to the Baltimore & Ohio to operate. It penetrates a timber, lumber and bark district probably the largest now intact in the States of Maryland and Pennsylvania. An abundance of coal and other minerals lies within easy access of the line. Years ago the old national road was built through this "neck of woods," but the only result was to give andience by long details of Halltown; election he will be very justly turned the stage coach parangers an intimation of its resources. The abandonment of traffic on the pike set back the hopes of the owners another half century.
