SEVEN GREAT SERIALS.

A New Life of Grant by Hamlin Garland. The first authoritative and adequate Life of Grant ever published. Lavishly illustrated. (Begins in December.) Rudyard Kipling's first American serial, "Captains Courageous." (Begun in Nov.) Robert Louis Stevenson's "St. Ives." The only novel of Stevenson's still un published. (Begins in May.)

Chas, A. Dana. "Recollections of Wartime." Mr. Dana was for three of the most critical years of the Civil War practically a member of Lincoin's Cabinet, and is probably better fitted than any other man living to give an authoritative history of this period from his recollections and correspondence.

Portraits of Great Americans. Many of them unpublished. In connection with this series of portraits it is intended to publish special biographical studjes under the general title of MAKERS OF THE UNION from Washington to Lincoln.

Pictures of Palestine. Specially taken under the editor's direction. Stories of Adventure. A series by CONAN DOYLE, in which he will use his extraordinary talent for mystery and ingenuity which have, in the "Sherlock Holmes" stories, given him a place beside Poe and Gaborian.

TEN FAMOUS WRITERS.

Ian Maclaren. All the fiction that he will write during the coming year, with the exception of two contributions to another publication which were engag ed from him long ago, will appear in MCCLURE'S MAGAZINE.

Joel Chandler Harris. A series of new animal stories in the same field as the "Brer Rabbit" and the "Little Mr. Thimblefinger" stories. Rudvard Kipling. Besides "Captains Courageous," Kipling will contribute to McCLURE's ail of the short stories he will write during the coming year. Octave Thanet is preparing for the Magazine a series of short stories in which the same characters will appear, although each will be complete in itself. Anthony Hope Bret Harte Robert Barr
