

MR. BEVAN did not remain for the inauguration.

The Cleveland administration will be chiefly famous for the failures it has made.

SPRING politics is taking an upward shoot. Candidates are watching the curves.

It is proposed to increase the internal revenue by putting a considerable tax upon cigarettes.

Good weather of last March 4, 1897, will be a red-letter day in the history of the United States.

MARCH 4th, when Senators Hanna and Foraker take their seats, for the first time in some thirty years Ohio will have two Republican senators.

PENNSYLVANIA has twenty-two candidates for Governor on the list. They are all Republicans, however, as the role in the Keystone state is, none other need apply.

Business continues to improve. Business is better, and it will increase in activity and volume every day. The incoming of a business administration is the cause of it all.

The Pennsylvania legislature thinks that high hats have a right to be worn in the theatres. The legislators defeated the bill to prohibit the wearing of headgear which obstructs the view.

GLAISTONE has a way of making himself understood. In speaking of the eastern situation he said: "I detest the whole idea of using force on behalf of the Turk, who, I think, has become an outlaw."

A LONDON newspaper man, who has written a book on this country, describes a visit to some of the war ships, and says that the United States seem to acquire the command of the sea against the whole world.

NEW JERSEY, which has better roads than any other state in the Union, proposes to spend $1,000,000 during the coming year to make her roads still better. This is the kind of enterprise that makes other states envious.

THERE have been in my funny laws proposed in the various state legislatures this winter, and measures of this kind will never cease until the people stop electing that funny kind of men to membership in such bodies.

The Railway Age foresees that this is to be a great year for railroad building, as well as re-building. This alone ought to give lives a lift, without reference to the other elements of betterment at work on the commercial situation.

If so many spread-eagle speeches had not been made last week, the senate would have had time enough to transact its business without having a session on Sunday. The temptation was strong, however, with some members. It was their last chance to talk in the senate.

It is reported that Senator Cameron will be appointed Minister to Russia. It is also reported that he does not intend to retire from politics, but will take an active part in it hereafter. So far as the former statement is concerned, it is not improbable. The elder Cameron was Minister to Russia under Lincoln.

GREENE has but little more than the area of Pennsylvania, but at present is making much more noise in the world. The country is more sparsely settled than the Keystone State. With an area of 45,235 square miles, Pennsylvania has 4,250,000 people. Greece has a population of 2,187,288 on 29,641 square miles.

The Supreme Court of Missouri has decided that women are eligible to any elective office in that state from which they are not specifically barred by statute. The right to hold office not being dependent on the right to vote, the Missouri women may be able to pick up the plums without doing any unliking at the trees.

Some of the legions that Mr. Cleveland will have behind for his success will not be in the nature of nonfeudal legions; but it is safe to say that all the problems left unsettled by the present administration will be handled by the one that follows in such a way as to meet with the approval of the whole American people.

AT LEAST 30,000 people in the Monongahela, Allegheny and Upper Ohio Valleys are out of employment at present, owing to the floods which have recently prevailed. A conservative estimate of ten days' lost time before work could be resumed will make a loss in excess of $200,000, to say nothing of the great loss to property.

The secretary to the President is a title of dignity and importance. Certainly, the position is, in its actual usefulness, next to the presidency itself, for it is a very large part of the president's work. It is fitting that the word "private" should be dropped from the office. In this place Daniel Lamont was a far greater and more celebrated man than has been as a member of the Cabinet.

THERE is a disposition among people to get the two farwell addresses of Washington mixed. The first was the one by his troops, delivered on December 4th, 1783, and the other was the more important act, when he surrendered his commission to Congress at Annapolis, on the 23d of the same month, by an address which will forever be an immortal part of the nation's literature.

ONE source of strength of the insurance industry in Cuba is the women. They hate Spain, and they want Cuba for free. Mr. W. E. Curtis writes in the Chicago Record, from Havana, under date of February 14: "Among all the people I have met in Havana, only two have been loyal enough and charitable enough to defend General Weyler and his policy. The most of them have assured me that he is a humane butcher and thief; that he is murdering Cubans and robbing Spain." He finds the women particularly bitter. It is a hard and long fight, but Cuba will win, and will be free.

THE monthly statement of collections of internal revenue shows that during January the aggregate receipts were $11,142,442, a decrease of $245,072 from the collections of January, 1896.

LAST SUNDAY IN CANTON.

The President-Elect Attracted a Large Crowd at Church.

CANTON, O., Feb. 28.—The church of St. Anthony's in Canton before setting out for Washington to be inaugurated President was marked by no unusual happenings. He went to the Methodist church, of which he has been a member since he was 17 years old. The church has a seating capacity exceeding 1,000, and it was crowded. Maj. McKinley drove to the church and was accompanied by Capt. H. O. Heistand and George E. Morse, of San Francisco, who married one of the President-elect's sisters. The crowd almost obscured Maj. McKinley's figure as he walked from the carriage to the church. Maj. McKinley joined with evident relish in the singing of the opening hymn, "Jesus Hears."

Rev. Dr. C. E. Manchester, the pastor, who was a member of Maj. McKinley's regiment in the war, said that the peace and righteousness may prevail. We pray that they blessing may be on the President of the United States in the days of his administration and that everything may be done as pleasing to the servant who has been chosen to be the chief executive of the nation. We pray that you will go with him, give him great faith in them, may be his blessing may carry out Thy will. We pray that they manifest Thyself to him and to all of us.

Rev. Dr. Manchester first in his text in the third verse of the 21st chapter of Matthew: "The Lord has need." His theme was the higher life. In speaking of home training, he paid in a delicate, indirect way a beautiful tribute to Mother McKinley. In conclusion Dr. Manchester said: "The peace and righteousness may prevail. What are we to do for this great land of ours? There is one in all of our minds this morning, as our dear brother and friend goes out to take up the duties that he before him, we pray that he go right to the work set before him."

Mother McKinley's Portrait.

Saturday evening a portrait in oil of Mother McKinley was presented to the president-elect by a number of his friends. This self-explaining note accompanied the gift:

"Will Major McKinley please accept from a reorganization of the Senate. Senator Pettigrew is chairman of the committee on Indian affairs, a member of the committee on appropriations and also a member of the committee on public lands. These are excellent positions, and Senator Kyle excels them all. It happens, however, that Senator Kyle's vote will not give the Republicans a majority. They need 42 votes. Senator Pettigrew, who has joined the Republican ranks, has concluded to vote with the Republicans for a reorganization of the Senate in order to retain his important committee positions. This it seems that by the squabble between the Republican Senator Kyle and the Republican-Populist Senator Pettigrew, both of South Dakota, the regular Republican of the Senate will secure the two votes which will pass a tariff bill."

Kyle and Pettigrew.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Senator Kyle of South Dakota, who has been elected by Republican votes, wants the committee positions now held by Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota, and expects to get them by voting with the Republicans for a reorganization of the Senate. Senator Pettigrew is chairman of the committee on Indian affairs, a member of the committee on appropriations and also a member of the committee on public lands. These are excellent positions, and Senator Kyle excels them all. It happens, however, that Senator Kyle's vote will not give the Republicans a majority. They need 42 votes. Senator Pettigrew, who has joined the Republican ranks, has concluded to vote with the Republicans for a reorganization of the Senate in order to retain his important committee positions. This it seems that by the squabble between the Republican Senator Kyle and the Republican-Populist Senator Pettigrew, both of South Dakota, the regular Republican of the Senate will secure the two votes which will pass a tariff bill.

Five Hundred Women at Prayer.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Five hundred women held a service of humiliation and prayer to-day in the Calvary Baptist Church. Toward the end of the women all became so interested that they all went to speak, and there were three or three to their feet at once, waiting for a chance to offer testimony or prayer. Young and old, rich and poor, white and black, followed each other in short, earnest remarks. One woman suddenly stood up and exclaimed: "I never saw a word 'I never spoke before—"

He voice broke, and she paused for a moment, then managed to articulate "and said now," and sat down.

Skin and blood diseases, causing all sorts of disfigurements to human happiness are easily and quickly cured by Burdock Blood Purifier, from a common plant to the most serofulous sore.

Three Days in a Tree.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Feb. 28.—Patrick McElroy, a lumberman at Parsons, W. Va., had an experience during the flood that may cost him his life. He attempted to cross Fry Fork river in a boat, when he lost control of the boat and was swept down the current, and finally landed on an island, which was soon flooded with water, and he was compelled to climb a sycamore tree for safety. He had to remain in the tree for three days before he could venture down to the island. At 10 o'clock of the third day he was rescued, and was in such a weak condition that he will need some weeks of rest.

Battle With Thieves.

KITTSANING, Feb. 28.—The loss of some meat from a spring house of a farmer resulted in a battle last night in Kittanning between a number of farmers and the thieves.

On Wednesday night the spring house of Daniel Schreengost, who lives five miles from here, was broken into and the farmer's supply of meat was taken away. Baiting to the weight of the meat, the robbers did not carry it far, but placed it under a rail pile nearby, intending to return the meat at night and carry the meat away. But their plans were rudely spoiled.

The farmers saw the meat and imagined that the thieves would return. So they procured revolvers, shotguns, and muskets and scouted themselves near the rail pile. Last night the thieves came again and were met by a broadside. One of the men was shot, but managed to escape. The other was wounded and taken to the hospital. The weight of the shotgun bullets, shots were returned by the robbers, but on account of the darkness and not waiting to see the whites of their enemies' eyes, the farmer brigades escaped injury. The horse and buggy brought by the thieves to carry away the booty came thundering down the road. The farmers all look after the horse and caught him, minus the driver. Neither the horse nor buggy was identified, but it is believed that the robbers are well-known local sneak thieves.

Potato Patches.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—Mayor Pingree's plan of raising potatoes and other vegetables in vacant lots throughout the city of Detroit may be put into effect in Chicago.

General Booth Tucker and Colonel Brewer of the Salvation Army have become interested in the scheme and are now making arrangements to have the city authorities, with them, in the philanthropic work. They want the authorities to donate the use of all city vacant property in and around the city and establish farms.

The produce raised on these farms and trucked will be distributed to the needy poor of the city by officers of the Salvation Army. The army agrees to furnish men to cultivate the farms and attend to the transportation of the supplies. Luther Latta Mills and other prominent citizens have become interested in the project and have agreed to aid the movement in every way possible. To-day Mr. Mills, General Booth Tucker and Colonel Brewer had a long conference with the mayor in regard to the plan, and it is probable that the matter will be brought to the attention of the council Monday night.

Rope-walker Blinded Dead.

LONDON, February 28.—Blindfold, the celebrated rope-walker, died in this city. He was born in 1824 and was a member of the greatest of the rope-walkers of the world. His real name was Jean Francois de Gravelot. He commenced rope-walking when only 4 years old, and continued his wonderful exhibitions up to a few days ago. On November 28, 1896, he married Catherine James at the Trentford Registry office, in England. The bride was many years the junior of her husband. Blondin crossed Niagara Falls on June 20, 1859, in the presence of fully 50,000 people. It was the first time this feat had been attempted.

Breaking Up the Schools.

OKLAHOMA, O. T., Feb. 28.—The Oklahoma Legislature has passed a bill which makes it a crime for white and colored children to attend the same school. This will put school facilities entirely out of reach of many children, for in many rural districts in Oklahoma more than one colored family live in a school district. This will necessitate the preparation of a building and teacher for from one to four pupils, or colored children will be compelled to go many miles to attend school. The bill is already in effect in the schools in one half of the Oklahoma towns and bloodshed will be the result.

Despair Drove Him to Death.

READING, Pa., Feb. 28.—Benjamin Alfred Metzler, aged 48 years, of Allentown, Lehigh county, was unable to support his family and support his wife and four children, he committed suicide this afternoon by hanging himself in the attic of his residence. His wife had gone to the hospital, taking the children along. When she returned she missed her husband and subsequently found his lifeless body.

Wolcott Did Not Fail.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—L. J. Maxse, editor of the National Review, says that Senator Wolcott's mission to Europe in the interest of bimetallism was conducted with great ability, and he is convinced that if the incoming administration follows Senator Wolcott's inquiries with proper regard to the international money question, it will make McKinley's administration not less famous than any of its predecessors.

New Lincoln in Revenge.

Frankfort, Ky., February 28.—Father Thomas Major, a Catholic priest, lectured here on the subject "From the Army to the Altar." In telling his experiences in the Confederate service he said he saw Booth killed before the execution, and for not saving the life of Father Major said, Booth killed Lincoln.

A Judge in Quarantine.

LEXINGTON, Pa., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Rebecca Ehrig, mother of Judge A. W. Ehrig, is in with diphtheria, and the judge's home is quarantined. Judge Ehrig has accordingly given notice that next week's court will be postponed indefinitely, as he cannot leave his home.

Over Thirty Years Without Sickness.

Mr. H. WETZSTEIN, a well-known, enterprising citizen of Byron, Ill., writes: "Before I paid much attention to regulating the bowels, I hardly knew a well day; but since I learned the evil results of constipation, and the effects of AYER'S PILLS, I have not had one day's sickness for over thirty years—not one attack that did not readily yield to this remedy. My wife had been, previous to her marriage, an invalid for years. She had a prejudice against cathartics, but as soon as she began to use Ayer's Pills her health was restored."

Two Men Blows to Atoms.

STEVENSVILLE, O., Feb. 28.—A vast quantity of nitre glycerine, stored on the Pan Handle railroad in the Goddard field, exploded this afternoon, killing two men named Dreyer and Rolston and injuring a number of others.

Head man we blown to atoms, only a few legs left. Home was torn up by the roots and trees were torn up by the roots.

The Old Investigation.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 28.—President Pro Tem, McCall of the senate this afternoon announced his appointments on the committee to investigate the dairy and food frauds in Pittsburg. The senate members of this committee are Senators Critchfield of Somerset, Merriek of Tioga, and Cople of Schuylkill. The house portion of this committee will be appointed until next Monday night, as Speaker Boyer has not yet prepared his list of names. It is the program of the members that just as soon as the committee is nominated, it will meet here and arrange for an early session in Pittsburg. Senator Merriek said to-day that he was anxious to have the matter taken up and an investigation begun just as soon as possible. The house members will include Representatives Hosack, of an hour of the charges; Baldwin of Delaware, a prominent farmer; Martin of Lawrence, a politician of the agricultural committee of the house, and probably a member of the house, and probably a member of the house.

Throat Coughs

Is there a tickling in the throat? Do you cough a great deal, especially when lying down? Are you hoarse at times? Does nearly every cold you take settle in your throat? These "throat coughs" are very deceptive. Don't neglect them. Friction, or coughing, will not touch the spot. You must take remedies that will enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and heal the inflamed membranes.

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites contains such remedial it has wonderful nourishing and healing power. The cause of the cough is removed; the whole system is given new life and vigor; and the danger from threatening lung trouble is swept away.

Dr. Saylor in Florida Until March 6th.

The doctor takes his signation in that he considers the worst season of the year, and consequently the least unpropitious to his patients. He will put in his time at Mt. Dora, Fla., where he has some 45 family reside most of the year on account of the much better health Mrs. Saylor enjoys there. He will be in the highest of the State, very willing, timorous with long leaf pine, interspersed with palmetto and deciduous trees in ravines and along creeks and around springs and lakes. Lakes with clear, spring bottom and pure water, and so likely to be represented as to give the name "Florida Water" to the doctor, could be living there would not be "so healthy" for his business. When you wish to visit him, please write to him at Mt. Dora, Fla., or to his residence at 1000 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., or to his residence at 1000 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.
