

First National The lightnings of God's hand. His purpose will not tarry, His messengers are strong, And they who fight against that might Wage not the battle long. -OF-A., in New York Times Somerset, Penn'a.

COLLISTER.

THE MAN WHO WORKED FOR ------Capital, $50.000. Perhaps the loneliest spot in all the

Surplus, $26,000. -0-DEPOSITS RECEIVE IN LARGE AND SMALL

AMOUNTS, PAYABLE ON DEMAND. CCOUNTS OF MERCHANTS, FARMERS. STOCK DEALERS, AND OTHERS SOLICITED -DISCOUNTS DAILY. -

Somerset, Pa.

Somersel, Pa.

Sommer, Pa.

Sourceset, Pa.

romersel, Pa.

had to hustness (9

more now, opposite

J. G. OGLE

MR. W. BESEUKER, ADDRALINI LAW,

A SOUTH ALTONNED AT LAW,

I LOOSER, ALTOINET-AT-LAW,

DESERVATION,

E DONTZ.

MINTZ & OGLE.

BERING House How, opposite Court

pinewoods was the big Collister farm. Its buildings were not huddled in the "Dressy," he said; "bout like mine." center of it, where they could keep one The girl gave him a look which dar- me." another in countenance, but each stood ed to say, "I don't believe it." by itself, facing the desolate stretches of gray sand and pine stumps in its own way. Near each a few uncut pine-trees kept guard, presumably for shade, but really sending their strag- you?" Not to assent would have seemed as gling shadows far beyond the mark. if she were daunted, and yet the girl peated. Many a Northern heart had ached from watching them, they were so tall BOARD OF DIRECTORS. and issolate: for, having been forestsuppose if you don't call him, he'll be bred, they had a sad and detached excoming for you. They say he works pression when they stood alone or in you mighty hard." groups, just like the look on Northern faces when they met the still distances as something entirely subject to anoth- yours." of the South er person's will, A slow flush spread In Collister's day he and the man who worked for him were the only strangers who had need to watch the pines. A land-improvement company had opened up the farm, but after sinking all its money in the insatiable depths of sandy soil where the Lord, who knew best, had planted pine-trees, the great bustling company made an assignment of its stumpy fields, and somewhat later the farm passed into the hands of Collister. Who Collister was, and where he came from, were variously related far and wide through he piny woods; for he was one of those cople who lives are an odd blending of reclusion and notoriety. He kept up the little store on the farm; and though it was usually his man who came up from the fields when any one heap of him," she added wistfully. stood at the closed store and shouted, its trade was largely augmented by the hope of seeing Collister. The sunken money of the land company must have enriched the soil, for don't hold me any grudge." 300.00000 the farm prospered as well as the store, "Wouldn't he mind if he knew you yielding unprecedentedly in such patches as the two-men chose to cultiing to me?" she asked. vate. In midsummer the schoonercaptains in their loose red shirts, came The man shook his head. "No," he panting up two suppurned miles from answered cheerfully; "he wouldn't care the bayou to chaffer with Collister or -uot for me. There isn't anybody else his man over the price of watermelons; he would favor like that, but he makes and when their schooners were loaded, it a point to accommodate me." the land breeze which carried the cool The girl gave her head a little turn. green freight through bayou and bay "Do you think he would accommodate ment she asked. out to the long reaches of the sound, He looked her over as critically as where the sea wind took the burden on, sent abroad not only schooner and she had first looked at him. "It's a cargo and men, but countless strange dangerous business answering for Colreports of the ways and doings of Col- lister," he ventured; "but maybe if I lister. At least one of these bulletins asked him to he would." never changed. Year after year, when Well, you are bigoty," she asserted. fall came, and he had added the sea-' I cain't noways see what there is b:son's proceeds to his accumulating twixt you. Why, they say that whilst wealth-when even the peanuts had you're working he comes out in the been dug, and the scent of their roastfield, an' bosses you under a' umbrelly; ing spread through the piny woods on an'-" a laugh carried her words along the fresh air of the winter evenings, like leaves on dancing water-"an' making an appetizing advertisement that he keeps a stool strapped to his that Collister said he would marry any A great mirth shook Collister's man girl who could make good bread-light from head to foot. "Such a figurebread. That settled at least one quessuch a figure as the old boy cuts!" he tion. Collister came from the North. The man who worked for him was keep his stool strapped on when he thought to have come from the same goes a-courting; and he says maybe so -it'll be so handy to hitch along closer girl that could." place; but though he did the cooking, his skill must have left something to to the young lady." Without thinkbe desired, and after current gossip had ing, he illustrated with the crackerrisked all surmises on the likelihood of box as he spoke. "And as for the um-Collister's finding a wife under the con- brella, I certainly ain't the one to obdition imposed, it usually added that, ject to that; for, you see, when the sun's if Collister married, the man who workright hot he holds it over me." ed for him would take it as a slight, He leaned half forward as he spoke, smiling at her. It is hard to tell exand leave. An old county road led through the actly when a new acquaintance ceases big farm, and along it the country peo- to be a stranger; but as the girl on the lark." ple passed in surprising numbers and door-step smiled in answer, she was unfrequency for so sparsely settled a re- expectedly aware that the shrewd. gion. They took their way leisurely, kindly, furrowed face of this young and if they could not afford a five-cent | man who worked for Collister was not." purchase at the store, gave plenty of something which she had known for a "I jus' said it was," she answered, forehead. She seemed to be settling time that it was a mean thing to do, the girl answered, "an I learned my We have all seen such households. down for a comfortable inquisition. but he said he simply couldn't help talk from her before she died; an' then Hurry to breakfast, hurry to lunch, "What kind of clothes does Mr. Collis- himself; young ones kept running there my stepmother is American, to." She hurry to dinner. Hurry to bed so you tes wear?" she began. The man drew the cracker-box up worth of baking-soda and ask for a smile again. "What do you think?" nace, that you may hurry to fill the near the doorway, and sat down. stick of candy. But take some; he she asked. "My stepmother don't like tubs that you may hurry to wash the She drew back her hand. "No," "Honest truth," the man nodded. she said, pouting: "I'm goin' to come "Would you like to have me call him in some time when he's hyar, an' see if up from the field, and show him to he'll give some lagnappe to me."

"I'll ask him to," the man said.

The girl sank to the door-step instead,

taking off her bonnet. Its slots folded ed.

"Well, you are bigoty?" the girl re-

had many more questions to ask about "If I was to tell him to," the man made him believe all and more than and tense nerves, from bustling morn-Collister, "Pretty soon," she said "I persisted "who should I say would the girl had told him. "Poor child." ing to bustling evening. ask for it?" She looked at him defiantly. "I'll yet what's your first name." do the telling," she said; "but while It is never pleasant to be spoken of we're talking about names, what's "Well," he answered, "if you're not she's young an' han'some; but I allow he could have just as well avoided it. over the man's face, but he answered naming any names, I don't believe I she's sending me off because I'm right loyally, "Collister may be mean to some am. You know considerably more smart and the best favored of the two, folks, but he's always been mighty about me already than I do about you." She wants to get married again, an' good to me." He smiled as he looked "On, just as you please, she said." To thar ain't but one bachelor up our way, tion. We have just so much time; off from stump to stump across the be brought blankly against the fact so she's skeered he'd take first pick of scheme to do what will fill it-no cal influence upon the vocal organs. clearing to the far rim of the forest. that neither knew the other's name me." The stumps seemed to be running after caused a sense of constraint between "My kingdom!" said the man who one another and gathering in groups them. She picked up her bonnet, and worked for Collister. "If there's someto whisper secrets. "You've got to re- put it on as if she might be about to go: body up your way that you know, and member that this is a God-forsaken and though she did not rise, she turnthat likes you, why didn't you go and hole for anybody to be stuck in," he ed her face out of doors so that the take your chances with him?" said; "t ain't in humanity for him to bonnet hid it from him-and it was A hot flush rushed over the girl's keep his soul as white as natural, more such a pretty face! face. "Does you-all think I'd be talk-'in his skin; but there's this to be said "Say, now," he began, after one of in' like this to a man I knowed?" she for Collister; he's always good to me." those pauses in which lives sometimes demanded. She stared angrily until "I'm right glad of that," the girl sway restlessly to and fro in the bal- her lips began to quiver. "An' besaid. She too was looking out at the ances of fate, "I didn't mean to make sides. I hate him?" she cried. "He's loneliness, and a little of it was reflect- you mad. I'll tell you my name if not a fittin' man for such as me." ed on her face. "You-all must think a you want to know." "You poor child?" he said again. "I'm not so anxions," she said. One She caught the compassion of his "You can just bet on that," he de- of her brown hands went up officiously eyes, "What had I ought to have a's of marriage. The first time a young clared. "I've done him a heap of mean and pulled the bonnet still farther for- done?" she asked. "What had any man pays a visit as avowed lover he turns, too; but they was always done | ward. "Is it true," she asked, that girl ought to do out hyar in the pineys 'cause I didn't know any better, so he Mr. Collister says he will marry any if she was lef' like me? I've hearn o' girl that can make good light bread?" places whar girls could find work, an' The man formed his lips as if to my stepmother she allowed I could go were a losing time by sitting here talk- whistle, and then stopped. "Yes," he to the oyster-factories in Potosi; but said, eying the sunbonnet; "it's true." | whar would I stay? Au' then I went | She turned round and surprised him. to the factories onct with my paw, an' "I can make good light bread," she the air round 'em made me sick. announced. "You!" he said. they has a different smell." "Yes," she answered sharply; "why He shook his head, though kindly, not? It ain' so great a trick.' at so slight a reason, and the sharp "Bat-" he paused, meeting the pain of his disapproval crossed her challenge of her face uneasily-"but face. "Oh, you don't know anything did you come here to say that?" about it," she eried desperately; "thar "You've heard me say it," she reain't no man that can tell how it feels torted. for a girl that's had a father that's made He rose, and stood beside her, look- of her like mine did to be turned right ing neither at her, nor at the fields, out to face a townful that she never nor at the encircling forest, but far over saw. Can't you see how, if you was and beyond them all, at the first touch- skered, it would be a heap easier jus' es of rose-color on the soft clouds in the to face one man? An' then I'd hearn west. He seemed very tall as she look- no end about Mr. Collister, an' some ed up to him, and his face was very of it was funny, an' thar wa'nt none of grave. She had forgotten long ago to it very bad; so I jus' made up my notice his bare feet and tattered cloth- mind to come around hyar an' see for ing. "So that means," he said slow- mys'f what like he was. You see," for the store, -- it was whispered through back, ready to set down on whenever iy, "that you came here to offer to she went on, with a lift of the head, the country, and far out on the gulf, he pleases. It is true-'hones' truth?" marry a man that you never saw." "it was for the money, but it was for She did not answer for a moment, the honorableness, too; an' I'd cross and when she did her voice was stub- my heart an' swear to you on the Biborn. "No," she said; "I came hyar ble that when I come hyar I hadn't gasped. "Sometimes I ask him if he'll to say that I know how to make light no thought that anybody could think bread. You needn't be faultin' me for it was onder-reachin' Mr. Collister. his saying that he would marry any I thought he be right proud, an' before we got to talking I never sensed that it would be a hard thing to name to him; "But you would marry him?" but now-" her voice trembled and "I allow if he was to ask me broke. "Oh," she cried, "I wished I'd would." The man looked down squarely to never come!" meet her eyes, but he found only the The man looked away from her. "Don't wish it," he said huskily. sunbonnet. "Collister ought to be proud if he can "What would you do it for," he askhave you for his wife; and he would ed-"a lark?" give you a good home and everything "A lark!" she echoed; "oh, yes; your heart could ask for." Tears sprang into her eves, and she He stooped toward her and put his dropped her head upon her knees to hand on her shoulder. "Look up here," he said; "I want to see if it's a lark or hide them, "Oh, I know, I know,"

man. All her light words pleaded "Well, did he onderstan"" she ask- with him for tenderness now that he and she gave a sigh of relief, loosening had learned in the South. "To be ole," he added, "and you are not."

some crushed tresses of hair from her sure," he said. "I told him at the "My own mother was an American." mean as that?"

could recall a cruel story he had once per. So the the fretful household hur- sailor.

The hurry fever is rife in homes where they try to do too many things knew she had said them with an ach- without thought or plan, and especialhave found, after careful examination burn it, as this contains the eggs. Then together as she dropped it into her lap, He lifted his shoulders in a way he ing heart. "But Seymour was a cre- ly without stopping to consider how and comparison, that one child in ten cover the earth with ashes. This is many of these thing are not worth do- is entirely color blind, and at least beneficial to the plant in other ways. ing at all.

into our elementary schools. from miles around to get five cents' stopped just long enough to try to may be up early. Hurry to fix the furwon't mind, for he's always good to me. She isn't going to let me stay at dress, that you may hurry to go to the home any more. Could you be so party. Hurry up that we may hurry yellow for purple, and vice versa. This by that time they will have been entire-

He put his hand on her shoulder. hurry to go out. Hurry to finish this examination, and I have at the pres- about the last of May, a second light "You poor child!" he said; for gossip game, that we may have time for one ent time under my tuition several boys crop will sprout, which may be cut a came in sometimes in return for all more. Hurry to have the walk, for who I trust will not in after life follow month later. that radiated from the farm, and he you must hurry off to church after sup- the occupation of engine driver or Lack of ventilation and keeping the heard of Noel Seymour's wife. It ries, with knit brows, compressed lips The sight greatly depends upon the the cause of plants dying off than is he said again; "you haven't told me It would be a fruitful experience and a better conception of color than those a shrewd test for almost any one to see whose optic pupils are of a gray or blue "Ginevra," she answered. "My own by actual count just how many times tint. mother liked it; my stepmother says in a day he uses this fretful word, A great many children have imper- By contining the plants too closely it's the name of a fool. She thinks "hurry," and how many of these times feet vocal organs, and many pass out they are mult tall and spin-fling, thus of board and other schools in agricult-Nothing is gained by hurry. The ural districts who can not speak propattitude of mind it implies is prejudi- ly owing to physical causes. There is no doubt that culture and cial to wise planning or proper executraining have a very beneficial physi-When admitting a new scholar, I inmore, but, indeed, much less, leaving variably make inquiries about the many half-hours for the unexpected. mother. Children are a great deal The shrewd workman will understand more indebted to their mothers, so far the paradox, "Do not do too much. as brain is concerned, than is generaland you can do no more." Banish the hurry fever with the cooling diet of ly supposed. Napoleon was quite right when he peace and forethought and 'jollity.' said that France wanted mothers. Then your home will be a rare abode. America at the present time would be only one remove from heaven .- The none the poorer for an extra number of Home Oueen. good brainy mothers.

ed varied occupations were introduced oats and peas mixed and sown at the rate of two and a half to three bushels The particular branch taught in the per acre. They will not yield so much writer's school is colored crayon work. | weight as fodder corn, but that cannot The results of the first lesson were be grown large enough to cut before staggering. For green, red was used; well into August. As for peas and oats, down. Hurry in because we are in a led to my establishing a quarterly sight ly used up. From the earliest cutting.

As the earliest crop to be used for soiling there is nothing better than common than is generally supposed. I attend. Scrape off the surface soil and twenty per cent. partially so.

A couple of years ago what are term-hotbed too warm is much more often children with brown eyes, I find, have weather the sash should be raised a portion of the day to give the plants air. This will make them hardy and fit to grow when set in the open air; destroying their value for future growth and productiveness. Philoxera, which has been the pest of French vineyards for many years, is about to be exterminated by the efforts of the Government. That country is striving hard to regain her place as the first vice-growing country of the world. Her commissioners report that over 5,000,000 acres are now in vineyards, a greater number than ever before. Professor Shutt, of the Canadian Department of Agriculture, says that very little is known as to the precise manner in which the decomposition of carbonic acid is effected within the The child shows the man. This is best seen when punishment has from plant. It is known, indeed, that the decomposition is in someway intimately connected with the green chlorophyl It very often happens that a little undersized boy will bear with the great- grain to which the color of the leaves est fortitude an amount of physical is due, and it is known that light is necessary in order that the decomposition may be brought about.

time to staring right and left behind long, long time. It seemed as familiar so low that he had to bend a little the stumps in a cheerf il determination as the scent of pine-needles and myrtle, eloser to be certain that he heard. to see something worth remembrance. or as the shafts of blue, smoke-stained "That won't do," he said firmly; with Clocks, Watches, and Jew- One day, when the store chanced to be sunlight between the brown trunks of "you must look up into my face."

vou!"

Tyrolese Customs.

any cause to be administered. There is an old custom prevailing among the Tyrolese regarding propospanishment which, when administerbrings with him a bottle of wine, of ed to a boy built in a bigger mould, which he pours out a glass and prewill make the latter yell from the pain sents it to the object of his desires.

and apprehension. If she accepts it the whole affair is settled. Very often the girl has not yet made up her mind, and then she will take refuge in excuses, so as not to drink the wine, and yet not refuse it who, if rather slow, do their best to owner of numerous greenhouses, for creditably perform their task -. You see, I was raised in the pinevs, an' point blank, for that is considered a $100 Reward $100.

gross insult, proving that she has been merely trifling with the affections of her lover.

She will for instance, maintain that pleased to learn that there is at least the crop was very large. He had homethe wine "looks sour," or that wine one dreaded disease that science has grown potatoes as early as they could be disagrees with her, or that she is afraid been able to cure in all its stages, and brought from the South, and made a of getting tipsy, or that the priest has that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure fair profit by seding at the same price forbidden her to take any-in fact, she is the only positive cure known to the per peek as new potates brought per makes use of any subterfuge that pre- medical fraternity. Catarrh being a bushel a few weeks later.

the wine offering is premature. This strange custom, dating very far the system, thereby destroying the the New York Tribune, shows how back-according to one account it was foundation of the disease, and giving this knowledge saved his potato erop known as early as the ninth century- the patient strength by building up from destruction, though planted on is called "bringing the wine," and is the constitution and assisting nature hand where the year before the notato synonymous with the act of proposing. in doing its work. The proprietors seab had entrely destroyed it. He first Shy lovers, loath to make sure of have so much faith in its curative pow- cut the potatoes, and while in the pail their case beforehand, find it a very ers, that they offer One Hundred Dol- with the cut surface fresh he put a pint happy institution. Not a word need lars for any case that it fails to cure. of sulphur on top of the heap, allowing be spoken and the girl is spared the Send for list of testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., To-If any of the wine is spilled, or the ledo, O. glass or bottle broken, it is considered 100 Sold by Druggists, 75c. a most unhappy omen-in fact, there Had Him There. "They say your father used to drive a mule."

"Who told you?"

"One of my ancestors."

"Just what I expected. I always told father that mule was smart enough A curious business has recently de veloped in those countries where rattle to talk "-Cleveland Plain Dealer. snakes abound, as a big price is being There is Nothing so Good. paid for the oil obtained from the eggs of rattle snakes. This oil is used for rheumatism and neuralgia, and an King's New Discovery for consumpounce of the article is worth from $25 to $30. The outfit of the rattlesnake she sobbed; "but I'd rathe marry hunter is very simple. He carries a hunter is very simple. He carries a short lance, at the point of which there is a short lance, at the point of which there claim there is anything better, but in have persons struck down dead for tel-"O oh?" breathed the man who worked for Collister; "I'd so much rather that you did." And with a laugh of pure delight he caught her up into his arms.

The decreased cost of constructing and managing greenhouses is leading The boys who succeed in life are not to a great multiplication of the number. the brilliant though erratic workers, and, as another result of the uses to but the plain, steady, daily plodders, which they are put. A Philadelphia which he could not find profitable use, devoted several to the growing of potatoes. Of course, in rich soil and The readers of this paper will be with abundant warmth and moisture constitutional, disease requires a con- It has long been known that subher ly on the blood and mucous surfaces of farmer, as told by Horace F. Wilcox in it to sift down, so that all got some of the sulphur. The crop was entirely free from scab, and many of the cut pieces, used for seed, were yet yellow with sulphur in the hills when the crop was dug.

There was a written examination on the Book of the Acts the other day in a London Sunday school, and one scholar turned in the following: "When they saw Stephen they were in such a temper that they knashed him with their teeth, and charged him to be taken out of the city and stoned. Stephen said: 'Ye stiff-necked things, There is nothing just as good as Dr. why speak ye so?" The second supernatural event was the striking down tion, coughs and colds, so demand it dead of Anauias and Sapphira his wife and do not permit the dealer to sell for telling lies to Peter. This was super-is a peasant's saying for an unhappy marriage. "They have spilled the wine between them."-Philadelphia Times. Rattlesnake Oil.

painful "No" of civilization.

sents itself at that moment.

The purport of these excuses is that stitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh applied to any thing was a good germshe has not come to a decision and that | Cure is taken internally, acting direct- cide. The experience of a practial

UIS:		standing open one of these passers the pine-th	rees in the fall, or as the "	'I-won't !" she declared.		hunter to cut off its head with the	liable, and guaranteed to do good or	ht. have been to be and the set of the set
	elry of all descriptions, as Cheap	standing open, one of these passers the pine-tr walked up to the thresh-old and stood feathery or	utline of green nine-tons I	He stood gazing at her downcast	When they left the store a red blaze			his norse he was carried up to heaven."
	as the Cheapest.	for a while looking in. The room was against the	dramm intensity of a South how	d There was comothing that shone	of sunset shone between the trunks of	enske is a female it is out open the	money refunded. For coughs, colds,
-0	as the Cheapest.	for a while looking in. The room was against the small and dingy, lighted only by the ern sky; and	ureatily intensity of a South- I hea	ad. There was sometung that shoke	the nine trees. The man festened the	are an extended and anaked for some	consumption and for all affections of	The First Step.
Setting .	REPAIRING A	small and dingy, lighted only by the ern sky; an	d when all this has been in	his eyes, and his tongue was ready	and lack habind them and then started	eggs are extracted and cooked for some	the throat, chest and lungs, there is	Ane First Step.
Denny P. Co., Pittsburg Depart-	BEFAIRING A	opening of the door, and crammed said of a gir	rl who lives in the "pineys," to	say, "You must." He closed his	padioek benind them, and they started	time in hot water. An oily mass	nothing so good as is Dr. King's New	and the second faturing for the Descalty of	SPECIALTY.	with boxes, leaky barrels, farm pro-	necessity for saying more. lips	s and straightened himself again.	in a lovers' silence along the road.	rises to the surface of the water. It is	Discourse maint house of T N	"What's the first step toward the sale the finest brands of		Juge and side most One corner had She gave a	little nervous langh. Th	e girl sat perfectly still, except that i	The big farm was as empty and meress	skimmed off with a spoon and placed	Conducto dana stara Companyat an at ()	digestion of the food?" asked the all a second		been arranged with calicoes and rib- The man	beran talking again. "It one	ce in a while there was a catch in	as ever, except for the lonesome neigh-	In a distilling apparatus The ail re-		teacher. Up went the hand of a black-ating & Lubricating Oils	stock before making your	bons and threads; but though the in- ain't such f	halery as you would think has	breath He bent looking off into	ing of a horse in the barnvard and for	maining is filtered through muslin and		haired little fellow, who exclaimed, o contracting one	stock before making your	spector was a young and pretty girl in his wearing	objery as you would think, her	oreant. He kept sooking on mo	a straight blue thread of smoke which	and in owners bottles. It looks like		with eagerness: "Bite it off, bite it purchases.	spector was a young and pretty girl in his wearing	the stoor and carrying the the	empty, signing reaches of pine-	ross from one of the little houses The	solu in onlice bottles. It looks like		off"-American Kitchen Magazine.
		the most dingy of cotton gowns, she umbrell,"	he said. "This is the way cou	intry, which could make people do	and extended at it and emiled	vasonne, and placed upon the skin		onAmerican Anchen Magazine, tha & Gasoline,	J. D. SWANK.	had scarcely a thought for that corner; he reasons i	it out, he says. In the first stra	ange things. "We haven't known	giri pointed at it, and sinned.	without being diluted it will draw	"Higgins has gone to the southwest
- Gasonne,		to man staring at a man who was so place then	e's the sun that's a pretty eac	ch other very long." he said at last:	"He's having to get his own supper	blisters and cause a painful inflamma-	with the idea that he will make	Times Improving.
andefrom Pecioleum. We chal-		hand at work rearranging the boxes good reason	. But what started it was "bu	ut a few minutes ago I thought we	to-night," she said "but I'll make it	tion. When prescribed it is therefore	millions," "How"
angathan with every known		and barrels that he did not notice her a blazing di	ay up North, when he was know	ew each other pretty well, and per-	up to him; I'll make his light bread	used in mixtures with other oils. Since	"He claims to have invented a	"Don't you think that you can raise 16 TO 1 1	shadow at his elbow. Finally he hustling fou	r deals at once: a man would have	ns you don't have any better friend	jus' the same."	the oil is very scarce, rattlesnakes are	device that can be used as a cyclone duct of Petroleum	16 TO 1.	shadow at his clow. Finally he hashing be	the size of a harmal to keen the	an I am in this desolate hole. Won't	"Yes," he said, "you'd better; for,		cellar when it blows and as a houseboat	"I've had a mighty hard time raising
	SILVER GOLD	glanced up of his own accord. need a head "Helio," he said, coming forward; that sort of	the size of a carrier to keep that	a toll ma mhy it is that you mant to			centar when it blows and as a houseboat
We water the	In the money question means that in	"Hello," he said, coming forward; that sort of	thing going for long, and you	a ten me why it is that you want to	whatever he's deen to other torks, he's	the second se	when the floods rage." -Detroit Free	it lately," replied the employer,"but wat the most uniformly		"do you want to buy something? Why Collister ha	is just an ordinary head no ma		always been reighty good to me; an',			I rather think I can have it ready for sfooto ou	summative for either one Silver or Gold	didn't you sing out?" bigger than	mine. Well, the upshot of "	'For his money," the girl answered	please God, he's going to be mighty	A Good Name.		you every pay-day hereafter."-Detroit olactory Oils	dollar to give you the purestand most	For a little while longer the girl star- it was that	he had a sunstroke, and was sho	ortly.	goed to you."		Wise Advise.	Free Press.
5 0110	time and look at these prices:	ad at him as steadily as if he had not laid up a m	onth; and then he reckon- H	His face darkened as if he was curs-	A breath of land breeze had started	Asker (to fisher who is returning		the second s
-IN THE-	2 Year Old Somerset $200 per gal 8 to 4 Yr.Old Pure Rye2 25 102 50	moved. Most of the people who live in ed up the d	ay's business, and what he'd ing	Collister's money under his breath;	in the pine-woods, and was going out	empty-handed from a fishing trip)-	"If you cannot make a frien1 of a	A Gool Recommendation
	- 10 H H H H T Saturd 50  	the pine-woods come to have a raggeded gained on o	me deal he'd lost on anoth- but	t she did not look up, and he said	bearing a tribute of sweet odors to the	What do you call your dog?	man in any other way," said the eld-
intion a t	1855 Hand-made Sour Mash 5.50 " "	look, but this was the raggest person er, so that l	he come out even to a cont not	thing until he could most ouldthe	and The disk of the ann sank helow	Fisher-Fish.	erly gentleman, "buy him."	"I have an aching void the world
erican Market.	J. S. Dougherty Pure Ryc_5.50 " " Andriessen Best Pure Ryc.5.59 " "	look, but this was the raggest person er, so that i	te came out even to a cent- not	that will file to () little off	the black line of earth but the twee	Asker-Why, that's a funny name		I have an acting vote the world
	Special price list on Wines, etc., on	she had ever seen. He was as ragged queer, was	"t it?-with just the exps- ["Is	s that quite fair to Comster?" ne	the black line of earth, but the trees	Asker-why, that's a fully hame	by fending and money." asked the	can never fill," sighed Mr. Perkasie, a watering the	application. No extra charge for jugs	as a bunch of pineneedles; yet he had rience of a s	sunstroke to add to his stock- ask	ked. "He did talk about marrying	were stul etched against a crimson	for a dog. What made you give it to	younger,	after Miss Munn had rejected him.
OOOR & REERITS and	TELEPHONE A. ANDRIESSEN,	the same clean and wholesome look, in-trade. I	Then he bought himself an any	y girl that could make good light	sky. Softly and faintly in the far dis-	him?	"Certainly not. By borrowing of	"Have you tried a deutist?" asked ALASE & KOOSER,		and his face was pleasant, umbrella as	nd a stool, and began to take bre	ead, but I don't suppose he wanted	tance some passing creole hailed an-	Fisher-Because he won't bite.	him."-Indianapolis Joarnal.	Mr. Chingstone, -New York World.
tomatect, In	000000000000000000000000000000000000000
		SALE AND A STREET AND AND A STREET AND A STREET				STATISTICS FOR STATISTICS

Sphtha