NO REPUBLICAN PRIMARY.

There Being Only One Candidate for Each Position to be Filled the Necessity for Holding a Primary is Obviated.

To the Republican Voters of Somerset Co. : There being no competition for the several nominations to be made at the regular June Primary Election, only one candidate for each position to be filled having complied with the party rules relative to announcing candidates, the necessity for holding such election this year is obviated, and none will therefore be held.

The several candidates regularly announced will be duly declared the party nominees.

Not only is the union of the Hawaiian territory to the United States no new scheme, but it is an inevitable consequence of the relation steadfastly maintained with that mid-Pacific domain for three-quarters of a century. Its accomplishments, despite successive denials and postponements, has been merely a question of time. While its failure in 1893 may not be a cause of congratulation, it is certainly a proof of the disinterestedness of the United States, the delay of four years having abundantly sufliam Cooke fifteen years ago. The sudden rise to wealth of Barney Barnato is one of the romances of the nineteenth century. He began life as a very poor boy in London and after varius shifts he became an employe at a very small salary in a circus. While there he met the woman who afterwards became his wife. She it is said, was a bareback rider. He drifted finally to South Africa and after hard work and some lucky investments he laid the foundation of a collossal fortune. For several years he practically ruled the Kaffir or diamond mine stock market in conjunction with Cecil Rhoades, the De Beers people and a few others. His fortune was at one time estimated to be from £20,000,000 to £30,000,000, but a recent slump in his holdings and some unlucky speculations are said to have wiped it al-
