

The Somerset Herald.

EDWARD SCULL, Editor and Proprietor.

WEDNESDAY July 14, 1897.

The grateful rain, so often promised by the weather man, came at last.

QUAY never thought of retiring from politics. He is a shy old fellow and merely wanted to hear from the "boys."

SILVER has fallen 2c an ounce during the last three months, and gold in Mexico is at a premium of 113. This is the Bryan prosperity rainbox.

The pleasure shown over the large hay crop proves that our friend, the horse, has not yet been retired from active service by the wheel.

When rebellion, political or otherwise, is successful it is called revolution; when unsuccessful, treason. The late rebellion, led by Mr. Kosser, was unsuccessful.

The Eastern Endavorers will return from the great San Francisco convention with increased interest in their noble work, and with a better conception of the boundless resources of their great country.

THREE men in Lowell, Mass., who were caught giving bribes to a city official for a municipal franchise will pay a fine of $500 each and pass one year in prison. The peculiarity in the case is that they were caught.

PRESIDENT McKINLEY's strong endorsement of the American school system is in keeping with the thorough American policy that marks his administration. The present chief magistrate of this nation is an American all the way through.

JUST on the heels of Mark Twain's refusal to accept a benefit fund comes the announcement that he has written another book. The famous humorist knows that an unflinching fund lies in the ability to touch the American sense of humor.

THE Democratic contingent must have voted early and often at the late "fake" primary in Berlin and Lincoln as they were the only two precincts in the county that polled a vote in excess of one-half of the vote polled at the last regular Republican primary.

SINCE the dismal failure of his "fake" primary, at which only 180 votes were polled, consisting largely of boys, demagogues and non-residents, Mr. Kosser has remained so quiet that fears are entertained that he is at work on a labor day speech in the interest of harmony.

IT is the misfortune of few men to be placed in a more humiliating position than that in which the local leaders of the Comline find themselves. The only comfort they can find is that of the fly on the car wheel, who blissfully observed: "What a dust we have kicked up."

EXCEPTIONS to the certificate of nomination of Manasse Sheenaker for Director of the Poor and Ephraim Coleman for Jury Commissioner were filed in the court of Common Pleas Monday by attorneys (just who does not appear of record) for Adam S. Miller and John H. Shaffer. In the new school play.

WHAT the matter will be called another "fake" primary to accommodate the 1800 voters whom the "personal organ" says didn't vote at the "fake" primary, but would do so if given another chance. We opine if another opportunity was given them at least 500 of those who did participate would refrain from doing so.

THE "personal organ" editor was more discreet in his last issue than he was in his "fake" convention speech. In the latter he said the vote polled at the "fake" primary—exactly 1800—was in 1900, while in the former he placed the figures at "nearly 2000." On the day of the "fake" primary, however, he got "way off" and said that over 4000 votes would be polled.

THE feelings of the gentlemen who for years past, and even up until three weeks ago when the receipts and expenditures of the last Republican primary election were published in these columns, have been irritating and retreating false reports in regard to how these funds had been expended can be better imagined than described. However, it is a rule of law that a man whose word carries no weight with his neighbors can not be believed on oath.

THE self-constituted guardians of the political destiny of Somerset county, dating from last spring, when Mr. Francis J. Kosser was endorsed for Congress at a Republican primary, are now diligently practicing on the following pathetic ballad:

"No, pity, pity, pity,
But we Shaffer-Kosser will have it,
Cosser and party and save it,
And only ask to have it for our pains, pains, pains."

Mr. Kosser said that he had no hand word to say of any Republican. A handful were simply struggling, in violation of rule and antagonism to party good, to retain power; that the party before today had announced should not be there.—From F. J. Kosser's address of the "fake" convention.

Is it possible that "92" Johnny Kosser, the characteristics of Jekyll and Hyde, and does his feverish tongue respond so promptly to a dose of "The General's" specie resumption tonic? None will have the tenacity to dispute his ownership of the "fake" primary, but the "fake" convention appears to have belonged first to "The General."

"Let us put our faith in the people, for when they fairly understand the situation their answer is always right."—From Mr. Kosser's address of the "fake" convention.

This is wholesome advice. As an opener we would suggest that Mr. Kosser give the people a frank statement of his interviews with Messrs. E. D. Miller and James M. Cover, and be urged them to withdraw as candidates for delegates to the State Convention. Perhaps when the people fairly understand his motives they will accord him the coveted honor of casting three votes in the next State Convention.

Messrs. Miller, Cover and Mosler and James M. Cover, and to be dictated to by the self-constituted owner of the Republican party.

If a doubt was ever entertained as to Senator Quay's intention of being a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate, it was put at rest Saturday when the Senator, while in Harrisburg on business with Governor Hastings, gave out the following statement; a bugle-call to his friends:

"It has been announced from Washington that I would be a candidate for the proper time comes. The fiery cross will once more be carried across the state, and the men in blouses will be asked to rally to my support."

Senator Harris Dead.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Senator Isham G. Harris, of Tennessee, died at his home in this city this afternoon. He was seventy years of age and had completed his twenty-ninth year. He became a member of congress in 1858. His congressional career antedated Senator Morrell and Sherman by seven years and Hon. Galusha A. Grow, now a member of the house from Pennsylvania, by one year.

He represented the 9th Tennessee district in congress for two terms, ending in 1863, when he declined a re-nomination. He then moved to Memphis, where he engaged in the practice of law until 1867. He was three times in succession elected governor of his state, and was serving in that capacity when the war broke out.

He took a pronounced stand for the southern confederacy and was often with the army in the field. After Lee's surrender he returned to Memphis, where he was one of a small party of political refugees who escaped to Mexico, going across the country on horseback. He remained there for several months, going thence to England, where he resided until 1867, when he returned to Memphis and resumed his practice of law.

In 1877 he was elected to the United States Senate. He has remained a member of the senate ever since.

Adorned With Tar and Feathers.—BEATRICE, Neb., July 11.—One hundred masked men made an assault on the city jail at an early hour this morning, broke in a rear window and took out the prisoners. They carried them to the Rock Island railroad grounds, where they stripped him of his clothing, horsewhipped him, covered him with tar and feathers, and ordered him to return to jail. The mob was the meantime quickly dispersed.

Whitener Pleaded for Mercy, and during his castigation cried, "murder!" He was gagged, and the work was hastily completed.

A. N. Whitener was arrested charged with horsewhipping his 17-year-old stepdaughter, Julia L. Barton. He stood the other side of a bar, and was placed behind the bars after a struggle. He claimed that it was on account of her bad influence on his own children.

The girl was taken in charge by friends and sent to an aunt in Denver. Those who saw her state that she was punished in a brutal manner, her back being literally cut to pieces.

Whitener is 54 years old. He was at one time a clerk in the War Department at Washington, and is the son of John Whitener, of Harrisburg, the founder of the Church of God.

A Deadbeat Round the World.—NEW YORK, July 8.—Eighteen months ago Frank Barton left the City Hall on a trip around the world. He has just returned as a result of a wager made by two prominent sporting men in this city. One, who was an admirer of Barton, declared that he would go around the world in 18 months, and he would receive aid, and besides had shipped some of them back to the United States.

Baron's July 10.—The mysterious disease which has recently afflicted residents of Somerville, and which lately has been reported from other parts of the country, seems to have been afflicted with ivy poisoning, the hands and arms reddening and swelling, but as a rule they could not be touched.

Baron's July 11.—The ruins of the old Capitol have been removed and the available brick and stone piled up in the park for use in the construction of another building to take the place of that burned February 2. The contract for the demolition of the walls of the Capitol and the removal of all the material constituting them except the work to be completed within 35 days, of which there remain six days.

It was stipulated in the proposals that when the contract was awarded the contents should be opened in the presence of the Board of Commissioners of Public Buildings and Grounds, and diligent search failed to reveal them. It is probable that the cornerstone will ever be found, and what has become of it is a great mystery.

On the 21st inst., the six architects who are to be paid $1,000 each for plans of the proposed new building are expected to have them submitted, and on the 12th of August will submit them to the Commissioners of Public Buildings and Grounds, who are to select from among them the plan deemed the most satisfactory. Several weeks will doubtless elapse before they will have completed the work required of them. The building will be about one-third completed, and will cost, and shall not cost more than $500,000.

The Pennsylvania Railroad's Popular Excursions to the Seashore.—No other summer outing appeals so strongly to the people of western Pennsylvania as the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's popular excursions to the seashore of New Jersey. For many years they have been looked for as the highlight of every summer.

The secret of their great popularity is the phenomenal low rate and the high character of the service. The time of twelve days just fits the time set apart for the average vacation, and the dates of the excursion are most conveniently adjusted. There is also the widest field for choice in the selection of a resort.

Atlantic City, Ocean City, and Ocean City, Md., are the choicest of the Atlantic coast resorts, and any one of them may be visited on the same arrangements. The list this year includes also Rehoboth, Del., and Ocean City, Md.

The dates of the excursions are July 15, 20, and August 12 and 21. A special train of Pullman parlor cars and day coaches will leave Pittsburgh on above-mentioned dates at 8.55 a. m., arriving at Altoona 12.15 p. m., where stop for dinner will be made, reaching Philadelphia 6.25 p. m., and arriving Atlantic City, via the Delaware River Bridge route, at 8.30 p. m., making the run from Pittsburgh to the seashore via the forty-eight miles in eleven hours and forty-five minutes.

Coaches will also be good on regular tickets leaving Pittsburgh at 4.30 and 8.10 p. m., both of which will carry sleeping cars through to Atlantic City.

For detailed information in regard to the excursions and times apply to ticket agents, or Mr. Thomas E. Watt, District Passenger Agent, Pittsburgh.

Russia's Population.—WASHINGTON, July 1.—For the first time in history a general census has been taken of the population of the Russian Empire, which is admitted to be enormous, but they are in a very undesirable state of discipline. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will soon remedy this want in a disorderly liver or bowels. Bilelessness manifests itself in yellowness of the skin and eyeballs, sour breath, furrowed tongue, morning nausea, discomfort in the vicinity of the liver, vertigo and sick-headache. Hosts of people suffer thus.

These signs of indigestion to the governance of health, together with an irregular condition of the bowels, are soon regulated by the Bitters, which also overcome malaria, dyspepsia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness and kidney trouble. As a means of checking premature decay, hastening convalescence, and mitigating the infirmities of age, the great tonic is without a parallel.

Personally-Conducted Tour via Pennsylvania Railroad.

That the public have come to recognize the fact that the best and most convenient method of pleasure travel is that presented by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's personally-conducted tours, is evidenced by the increasing popularity of these tours. Under this system the lowest rates are obtained, for both transportation and hotel accommodations. An experienced tourist agent and chaperon accompany each tour to look after the comfort of the passenger.

The following tours have been arranged for the season of 1897: To the north (including Watkins Glen, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Montreal, Quebec, Au Sable Chasm, Lakes Champlain and George, Saratoga, and daylight ride down through the highlands of the Hudson), July 27 and August 17. Rate, $100 for the round trip from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, covering all expenses of a round trip. Proportionate rates from other points.

To Yellowstone Park on a special train of Pullman sleeping, compartment, and observation cars and dining car, allowed by the Government. "Wonderland" September 2. Rate, $25 from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington, covering all expenses of a round trip. Proportionate rates from other points.

Graves Give Up Their Dead.

RICHMOND, Va., July 9.—Bones of soldiers buried nearly 35 years ago near the battlefield of Malvern Hill and Ft. Harrison are, by some unexplained phenomenon, being forced from the shallow earth in which they were buried. Robert P. Bennett, of Malvern Hill, came here today to tell about them and the strange occurrence.

He says in one field bones are sticking up through the ground like growing plants. At the same place this field was the scene of some hot fighting and both Union and Confederate were buried there.

Mr. Bennett says there are sufficient bones to make 60 skeletons. The keeper of Washington's old headquarters here a few days ago went to the battlefield and secured a bag of human bones to be exhibited as war relics.

Willed His All To a Dog.—CHICAGO, July 9.—Rover, a big Newfoundland dog, has been made heir to $2,700 by his master, A. H. Spear. The latter is a sailor and eccentric. The grantor is dead and the Company will act as trustee.

"People will think you are crazy," exclaimed the attorney. "How can so much money be used upon your dog?" "It cannot," readily assented the old sailor, "but I mean that when I am gone my dog shall not be kicked and snuffed about the world as I have been. If you like, you may draw the will in such a way that the income of the property may be used in the dog's support, and the property itself, and the owner's death, with whatever remains of the income go to my sisters in England."

League Convention.—For the Epworth League International Convention, to be held at Toronto, Canada, on the 18th of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell special tickets from all points on its line to Toronto and return at rate of single fare for the round trip. These tickets will be sold and good until July 14 and 15; good to return, leaving Toronto not earlier than July 19 nor later than July 23, 1897, and will be good only for continuous passage from Toronto on date stamped.

Notice to All.—We have opened a new furniture store in the commodious west room of the B. & B. Building, No. 101, where we carry a complete line of household furniture such as Parlor and Bedroom Suites, Couches, Bed Lounges, Chairs, Tables, China Closets, Children's Desks, Hair-cases, Mattresses, Springs and Canoes. We also do all kinds of repair work, upholstering, etc.

Our goods are all new and up-to-date. Give us a call and examine our stock and get our prices.

Watson Says Bryan is a Briber.—ATLANTA, Ga., July 1.—Thomas E. Watson, in a signed editorial in to-day's issue of the People's Party newspaper, charges that the fanatics have entered into a compact to deliver the Populist vote to the Democrats in 1900 and that the Populist party by Bryan, out of the proceeds of his book sales, is the first installment of the purchase money.

Mr. Watson has also caused a great stir among the Catholics by an editorial entitled "A Good Catholic," in which he defends the position of the A. P. A. Society. His announcement indicates that the future of his wing of the Populist party will be cast with the A. P. A.

From Blindness to Active Business in Twenty-Eight Days.—One year ago Mr. A. M. Cunningham, Ottawa, Kansas, found himself blind in one eye from catarrh and the other failing rapidly. He had the one operated upon by an oculist in St. Joe, Mo., resulting in a painful confinement and a totally blind eye. The other was now blind to daylight.

Mr. C. never having had any pain either with the operation or after it. In three weeks he could read the newspaper, print, and in four weeks was out on the prairies of Kansas selling reapers. The doctor has lost but three cents out of the total $100 of his eyes. He is now a healthy man of 40 years of age, and is now a member of the year more favorable than now.

The New Libel Law.—The text of the Libel Law, as signed by the Governor, reads as follows: "Section 1. That in all criminal prosecutions or indictments for libel, it is the matter charged as libelous is, in the opinion of the court, proper for public information, the truth may be given in evidence to the jury."

Section 2. In no case can the defendant in any prosecution for libel be convicted for the printing or publication of the same libel, in any case individual in nature, that the case arose from a bona fide belief in the truth of the same.

Section 3. In any civil action for libel, the plea of justification shall be accepted as adequate when it is pleaded by the defendant and the publication is substantially true, and the defendant is and is proper for public information, and if such a plea shall be established to the satisfaction of the court and jury, there shall be no recovery. In no civil action for libel shall damages be awarded beyond just reparation for injury actually sustained.

Section 4. All laws or parts of laws inconsistent with this act and the same are hereby repealed.

To which would you prefer to belong? The regular, undoubtedly. The irregular are, admittedly, the most numerous, but they are in a very undesirable state of discipline.
