Tammany Wants a New Candidate for

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.-The withdrawa of Van Wyck as Tammany's candidate Straus and Richard Croker went to Great Barrington, Mass., yesterday, where they met Judge William J. Gaynor, of Brooklyn, and Col. William A. Brown, publisher of the Daily News. Out of this conference, it was declared last night, will come a readjustment of the Democratic city ticket, with Judge Gaynor's same in the place of Robert A. Van Wyck's.

The tiger bears a smile of confidenand a bale of bank notes. The latter are being stacked on Van Wyck. Odds offered are 10 to 7, Van Wyck against the field. There are few takers. David Gideon says he will saunter into the Hoffman house every night this week with $100,000 to bet against $80,000, in bulk or in small lots, on Van Wyck. Betting on the other candidates is 3 to 1 against Tracy, 4 to 1 against Low, and 8 to 1

Tammany has contributed a picturesque feature to the campaign. It is the omination of a McKinley Democrat for president of the municipal council. Ranlolph Guggenheimer was chosen. In the er of 1896 he said, over his own signature, that he proposed to vote for Medown at the request of rival brewers, and because of the fear that organized workmen would oppose him. In case of the mayor's death, the president of the council succeeds to the office. Prospects of Republican success grow
