

HN H. UHL	:0:	BIELICAL RESEARCH,
ATTOLXET-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa.	Chas. J. Harrison, - President.	MISSIONS, LITERATURE BOOK REVIE
a promptly attend to all have seen en-		FINANCIAL,
ar. Cancella Manimuretta Montha,		COMMERCIAL INSURANCE,
EX O. KIMMEL,	sectors of sectory	OLD and YOUNG,
ATDUANDA-AI-LAW, Sometsel, Pa.	Geo. S. Harrison, - Ass't Cashier.	STORIES, PEBBLES and PUZZLES, stated in all business cutrusted to his in business and informing could tes, with		WORK IN DOORS AND OU
in Somered and the second states of the second seco	DIRECTORS ,	PERSONALS.
and all off	Wm. Endsley, Chas. W. Snyder	Subscription $3.00 a year, or at t
ANES L. PUGH, ATTULNET-AT-LAW,	Josiah Specht, H. C. Beerits, John H. Snyder, John Stufft,	rate for any part of a year.
Somerset, Pa.		SPECIMEN COPIES FREE.
he in Rammoth Brock, up stairs. En- ne at X-m Cross street. Collections a main scient lites examined, and all idenses attenned to with promptness inequ.	Sam. B. Harrison.	A SOFCIAL OFFER
taenty.		A SPECIAL OFFER.
COLBORN. L. C. COLBORN.	liberal treatment consistent with safe anking. Parties wishing to send money cast or west can be accommodated by draft for any	The Independent, one year $3 The Century Magazine, one year 4
OLBORN & COLBORN, ATTORNETS-A1-Law, Somerset, Pa.	amount. Money and valuables secured by one of Die-	The "Century Gallery of 100 Portraits" these entroisies to our care will be	bold's celebrated safes, with most improved time lock. Collections made in all parts of the United pay and faithing internet to. Collec- matrix Sometres, bounded and adjoin- mains. Surveying and conveyancing	States, Charges moderale.	All of the above for $7.50, a say
r in passenable berints.		of $7.00.
L BAER,	A. H. HUSTON, Undertaker and Embalmer.	The "Century Gallery, of 100 I traits" includes the best likenesses
Somerset, Pa.	Undertaker and Empainer.	100 of the most prominent persons in parties in Somerset and adjoining the Allousiness entrinsted to him will repromptution the second	A GOOD HEARSE,	world which have appeared in Century Magazine. Size 9[x13];
	and everything pertaining to funerals furn-	up in a handsome box delivered by express. Each portrait ready
2.087FROTH. W. H. RUPPEL. 07FROTH & RUPPEL,	ished.	framing, and very desirable for H
AITOENEYS-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa.		day gifts.
thus entrosted to their care will be	SOMERSET Pa	A remittance of $7.50 to the In pendent will secure a year's sub-c
shyam postually attended to. Office And thes street, opposite Mammoth 6.	Jacob D. Swank,	tion, one year to both the Independ
W. CAROTHERS, M. D.,	Jacob D. Swallk,	and Century Magazine, and the "C tury Gallery of 100 Portraits," deli-
PHISICIAN AND SURGEON, Somerset, Pa.	Watchmaker and Jeweler,	'ed free by evpress.
the of Patrice Street, opposite U. B.	Next Door West of Lutheran Church,	Write for other special offers.
in all all office.	Somerset, - Pa.	THE INDEPENDENT,
E P. F. SHAFFER,		130 Fulton Street, New Yo
PETSICIAN AND SUBGEON, Somerset, Pa.	I Am Now	NEW YORK TRIBUN
identic professional services to the citi- t of Summer and vocanty. Office conter	prepared to supply the public a tree and Patriot sizeet.	with Clocks, Watches, and Jew-	Staunch in Support of Republi
A J. M. LOUTHER, HETSECIAN AND SUBGEON,	elry of all descriptions, as Cheap	Principle, Even When Others Fail-
are Main street, rear of Drug store.	as the Cheapest.
E H & KIMMELL	REPAIRING A	WROLESOME, BREEZY, INSPIRING A ENTERTAINING.
the inprofesional services to the citi-	SPECIALTY.
trange tranged he can be found at his of- or limits, mast of Diamourd.	Ail work guaranteed. Look at my	Its Contents Absolutely Free from W ever is Unfit for the Family.
P.J. S.McMILLEN,	stock before making your	The New York Tribune offers, to Rep.
manufal and the Deutsery.)	purchases.	cans and patriotic man of every para supply attention to the preservation starts faith Artificial sets inserted. Manual guarantics salidatory, different	J. D. SWANK.	is absolutely representative of the dominal spirit, the aims and amistions of the Re
Busing parameters satisfactory. Office a network L. H. Davis & Co's store, at Man Crow and Pairiet streets.	J. D. SWAR	stable and true, it is learness in support
H. COFFROTH,		perity and public morals, and is never sa ed from its devotion to the party platform aniserviency to improper influence. It
	News and Opinions	subserviency to improper influence. It an ardent advocate of the election of Me- ley and Hobart, and is unfailingly loyal is
Funeral Director.	OF	conscience and principle of the party, in all circumstances and on all occasions, reader will find in its columns a trustwo
In 66 Main Cross SL. Residence, 340 Patriot St.	National Importance	exposition of Republican doctrine. The I Tribume, $10 a year. The Werkty Tribune will be handso-
		The weekly fridance is a printed during 1808. This edition is is every Wednesday, and presents an exce- compendium of the contents of the Daily
LIXE B. FLUCK,	The Sun	compendium of the contents of the Daily adds special information for farmers and home. Its weekly visits bring to the fire
Land Surveyor	ALONE	a fund of sound information, which e
ANSIG ENGINEER. Listle, Pa.		good, which he needs for his family. Pric a year. Resders can sometimes obtain Weekly Tribune at a lower price, in comb
	CONTAINS BOTH.	tion with a local weekly paper. Strephe on 51.0		bune are invited to make up clubs for paper in their localities. The Semi-Weekly Tribune is issued of "Store Na on the market Store for one-! and be convinc	Daily, by mail $6 a year	adition is being enriched by the addition
e se	Daily and Sunday, by mail, $8 a year
100 100 100		each triang's paper of a matching per supplement of 20 pages, in which are per a profission of "half-tone" and other piet of great beauty and article merit. Tails picturent is dignified and able, and not
rk on on		al upon the minds and tastes of the fan
Va e-l	THE CALL CALL	cates public approval of this feature of Tribune. Sample copies of Friday's pa

÷

.

Ho

Somerset,

cent

round her and wrap her away from all "Come, come?" he said. "You ber trouble into a very heaven. The musn't take it to heart. I shall come it. WS soug went on. 'Tilda's white lips back and sing to you again, you know, parted in a smile of positive ecstasy, and you must be a brave little soul riediy, "Carol-singing pays, you est doctor lived. She had no intention and she scarcely breathed. Her great and keep up your heart. See?" the eyes shone. She had heard no 'Tilda nodded. The conditions of He did not come the next day, and up her mind to knock at the nearest taken out and this tube restored to its pay required. It is guaranteed to give music such as this in all her life. It her life had stunned all idea of lamen- 'Tilda tried bravely to possess her soul door and ask directions when a woman seemed to her something too beautiful tation or appeal in her, and she made in patience. Neither did the day fol- pushed open the front door. To her to belong to this world. no protest now. But she sat down lowing bring him. And on the third Tilda put her question. The song drew to "its end; the last suddenly on a doorstep, and with one day 'Tilda could bear herself no longer. The woman was a tousled, dirty, un-

7.50

ican

ving ed and longed. Would the singer come

Por. again? Seven days had gone by, and the Billy Gilkes, the baby, in her arms.

put when she started so violently as almost free to drop her burden, and a wave of Toli- behind her at the end of the street the voice was rising again.

"You like that?" he said.

"Tilda wiped her eyes on Billy' torn

"I don't know," she said falteringly.

"Haven't you anything real to ery for" he said, scanning her attentively.

eyes and on her quivering lips.

"The Devout Lover."

'Tilda's answer was written in her

"Poor little giri!" he muttered under his breath. "Poor devils, all of us!"

And with an indescribably bitter twist of his thin lips he suddenly broke into

A little crowd had collected by the time he had finished, and sundry half-that for?"

frock.

back? Should she ever hear the song long lingering notes died away; and glance at her he began to sing. When The recollection of his thin, white face, comfortably stout person, but she hapthen, for 'Tilda, silence fell upon the he had finished he turned to her. world. She did not hear the noises of George Street as they reasserted them- bye for the present, Hule thing. He he was lonely, she felt sure; what if he Christmas dole. She made 'Tilda exselves. She had forgotten her work, hesitated a moment. Then he held were lying all alone this Christmas- plain the situation at some length, and She knelt on, motionless, gazing away out his hand, and she said her small time, with no one to take care of him? eyed her cariously. tingers in it. into space and seeing nothing.

"You'll mind your cough?" she said never see him again? Such proceedings were not to be infaintly and appealingly. And he went dulged in with impunity in the house 3.00 of Gilkes, and a torrent of language away.

4 00 and a box on the ears roused 'Tilda In the unbroken discord and ugliness of the days and weeks that folfrom her dream. But she fell asleep that night with the voice ringing in lowed, the misery of her life closed round 'Tilda like a dense fog of despair. she moved from the corner at the top first 'ouse, an' see if 'e'll come." 14 50 her ears. All the next day she listen-

Whether matters had really grown of the street where she had waited for again, she did not try to decide. But stopped and spoke to a pollecman. as the winter drew on there is no doubt "Please, where's Marmaduke's Buildwhatever that all her troubles were ings ?" she said. for burning color flooded her face. Away weather came early, with bitter rain jously. very definitely accentuated. The cold The policeman looked at her curand piercing winds. Summer in George "Don't know the name about here," he said. "There's a Marmaduke's Street had been bad enough, but there The dirty, sun-parched street disap- had at least been an outlet in the sumpeared from before her eyes. Billy was mer time. The whole Gilkes family Buildings at Notting Hill," no longer heavy. She was no longer had seldom assembled under the roof, Cen- tired. She turned involuntarily and except to sleep. 'Tilda herself could iver- moved, drawn by those long sweet escape from the vigorous tongue-and notes, up the street toward the singer. hand-of her step-mother, if it were

He was a tail man, gaunt and thin. only to overtax herself by carrying Billy His face was pale, and there were hard about. But now no such escape was and bitter lines about it; lines of de- possible, unless accompanied by acute the immediate vicinity of George Street, gradation, too. His features were well physical discomfort. Even the wet it was a journey fraught with difficulty and strongly cut; he had grey eyes weather, however, was not so bad as and danger indeed. The streets, fall which even sullenness and cynicism that which succeeded it-bir k, biting and bustling with Christmas traffic, could not wholly mar; and his rough frost-hair fell over the true musician's fore- The cold was such as had not been darkness alike confused her, and the head. 'Tilda, standing close beside known for years, and George Street noise made her giddy. Again and him, with Billy clasped to her, and her suffered acutely. Everyone was out again she lost her way, and had to reeyes fixed rapturously on his face, saw of work. There was very little food, trace her steps. Again and again she nothing of this. Every sense but that very little fire.

of hearing was in a trance. When the November gave place to December, song ended, a sigh of exquisite regret and still the frost held. Of the singer and satisfaction came from her, and he there came no sign. For many a long turned and saw her. He looked at her day and week 'Tilda had hoped and for a moment in silence, and when he believed that he would come back, and spoke it seemed to 'Tilda inevitable that the lips from which such sounds heart was sick with longing, to hear issued should smile kindly. There was his voice again. But as Christmas something in his eyes, too, which drew nearer, bringing no touch of the struck her vaguely as being just right. Christmas spirit into her life, leaving her outside all hope and happiness, 'Tilda nodded. He looked at her for an instant longer, and then he began There was no help for her anywhere in she sank into something like apathy. to sing again. 'Tilda was crying, when the world, she felt, dumbly; the singer he stopped, tears of pure happiness. would never come back; and even This time he spoke to her roughly. Christmas held nothing for her. "You little fool!" he said. "What's

She had been sent one afternoon by Mrs. Gilkes to see if she could get a loaf that there was nobody about at this end of bread on credit from any of the neighboring shops. She was returning empty-handed, with dragging, reluctant steps, dreading the blows which assuredly awaited her failure even more a door close to her. than she dreaded the piercing cold. Her head was swimming a little; it often did so in these days. And her is it ?" ears were ringing with one of the carols she had sung so often and so happily-the first verse over and over again: "Hark, the herald angels sing,

Glory to the new-born King : Peace on earth and mercy mild, his pocket and closed her fingers over She went out of the room and down the stairs, and at the bottom she paus-"Don't make a fuss!" he said hur- ed. She did not know where the nearknow." And then he was gone.

of wasting time, and she had just made his cough, his feeble voice, haunted her pened to be in a high good humor, hav-"Now I must go," he said. "Good- day and night. He was ill, she knew; ing just come in for a substantial What if he should die, and she should

"What! 'im up stairs?" she said. "E keeps hisself to hisself, he does, It was with these two thoughts drag- and that's wot comes on it, yer see.

ging at her heart-strings until she hard- "'E's been a lyin' there these three iy knew herself that 'Tilda's resolution days, like 'nough. An' you're a friend The method of washing the face daily was taken. When all chance of his of 'is? Lor! Well, you run along to is of great importance, as even if one coming on that third day was gone by, Dr. Mason, third turning on your left, only washes it twice a day the operation has to be gone through 700 times in the 'Tilda was gone in an instant. She genre of a year, and this would naturworse during that fortnight, or wheth- him heedless of the icy cold, and turn- never stopped to take breath until she ally affect it for good or evil. Highly er the temporary lightening of her ed her back on George Street, with her found herself at her destination-con- scented or highly colored soaps should wretchedness made it seem worse now face white and set. She went out into fronted with a gentleman who was in be avoided, and one which gives a soft as of she was dragging wearily up and down that the darkness had settled down a main thoroughfare, and there she the act of opening the door with a lather and does not cause any feeling of a main thoroughfare, and there she the last of opening the door with a lather and does not cause any feeling of latchkey. Irritation is the best. The soap should "Please, are you the doctor ?" gasped be well rubbed into the face with a Tilda. clean piece of flannel, and then bathed off in a businful of absolutely clean wat-

"I don't know how you think you're | er, so that every particle of soap may be going to get your fees, let alone other removed. After thoroughly bathing, the face should be dried with a Turkish

The speaker was the singer, and the towel, and then, if the skin be coarse day was Christmas Eve, a fortnight and thick, it may be rubbed with a later. The singer, gaunt and pale, but | rough towel, but if the skin is at all sen with retarning strength in his voice, sitive a very soft towel should be used, iny in his bed. By his side stood the and the face finally well rabbed over doctor, and at the foot of the bed was with a piece of chamois leather. Gentle 'Tilda, a surprisingly neat and trim | friction of the face with soft leather, or, ed to London except as represented by little 'Tilda, though pale and thin, for better still, with the finger tips, when she had tidled her hair and her dress clean, tends to remove lines and to preon the day when the singer recovered vent the formation of wrinkles. If lines consciousness, and she had kept up the have formed the skin should be rubbed in a direction contrary to their length. The doctor was a young man with a as, for example, if there are vertical lines strong and kindly face. He laughed at between the two eyebrows, they should be rubbed from side to side; if there are the somewhat grim observation. "It wasn't my fault that you didn't straight lines across the forehead they asked for directions, only to think des- go into the hospital, you know," he should be rubbed down from the hair said. "But we've pulled you through to the root of the nose and back again. -that's the main point-thanks to

> He glanced at 'Tilda as he spoke, and Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chila rosy flush of delight spread over her homie, Via, certifies that he had coaface. But the singer moved uneasily. sumption, was given up to die, sought "Tilda," he said, "do you mind go- all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he thing to say to Dr. Mason." could hear of, but got no relief; spent But when the door was shut upon many nights sitting up in a chair; was her the singer did not speak. The Doc- induced to try Dr. King's New Discovtor walked away to the window, and ery, and was cured by use of two bot. you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidthere was a long silence. It was bro- tles. For past three years has been at- neys be affected, you have a pinched ken at last by Dr. Mason. He turned tending to business and says Dr. King's kind of story. Will you take another anteed forCoughs, Colds, and Consump- ples, blotches and boils, and gives a good want to know."

the wall, and he did not turn round. "Yes," he said.

"Then I'll see that you have it. It won't be much, you know-not the bolled cabbage, sour cream, and ferright thing-but it will keep you." "And 'Tilda?" said the singer stretching out his hand, still without turning huge roast pig served with boiled buckhis head.

The doctor was gone when 'Tilda ed with butter, shear and raisins and Syrup in the house saves doctors' bills, tachian Tube. When this tube is in-Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fedamed you have a rumbling sound or ver Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, imperfect hearing, and when it is en-Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptirely closed. Deafness is the result. tions, and positively cures Piles, or no and unless the inflammation can be perfect satisfaction or money refunded. normal condition, hearing will be de-Price 25 cents per box. For sale at J. stroyed forever; nine cases out of ten N. Snyder's Drug Store, Somerset, Pa., are caused by catarrh, which is nothor G. W. Brallier's Drug Store, Bering but an inflamed condition of the in, Pa. aucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars Wanted to Do His Duty. for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's The lawyers had badgered the juror Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. nearly to death with questions when F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

the judge finally took him in hand. per Sold by Druggists, 75c. "You say you never heard of this use," said the judge. Washing the Face.

"Nary a word of it, jedge, till I came nto the courtroom," was the reply.

"And you don't know either the daintiff or the defendant?"

"Never see either of 'em aftre to-

"Do you know either of the attor-"Thank heaven, no."

"Then I should thick you ought to e able to give a fair and Impartial nearing to the evidence and render a verdict in accordance with it without fear or favor."

"Jedge, as things stand now I kin do hat very same thing, but I'm afeard of what may happen."

"What can happen that will affect our Judgment?"

"Well, jedge," explained the juror, arning to the court somewhet confidntially, "if the lawyers behave themselves, I'll be a crackerjack juror, but it's my experience in these here cases hat one or the other of 'em usually works in some smart tricks that makes me so hoppin mad all the way through that it warps my jedgment, an then it est becomes natural for me to watch. out for a good chance to give him the worst of it, an I ain't no kind of a juror to sit in that case. If you'll jest see that he lawyers don't work in any blamed collishness to rile me. I reckon you'll find I'm about as good a juror as you'll thad anywheres in this county; otherwise I ain't fit to pass jedgment on who deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a billous look; if your stomach he disordered. look. Secure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alterative and Tonic, kidneys. Purifies the blood, cures pim-Sold at J. N. Snyder's Drug Store, Somerset, Pa., and G. W. Brallier's Drug Store, Beriln, Pa. 50 cents per

In Switzerland also the goose is the leading dish and there will likewise be found on the table confectionery, cakes, fruits, nut pudding, Geneva frittersthe national dish-a paste made of fruits, marmalade, spices and eggs.

A bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine saves trouble, and very often saves prcstrong as ever, but it had suddenly occurred to her that she did not know his abruptly to his patient: name. It was late in the evening now, nearly nine o'clock, and it happened of the court, though away in the distance two or three men were standing about. But at this moment a little child with a jug in his hand ran out of

'Tilda, as he passed her. "Which house

"Him as goes round the streets?" he said. "On your left there. Top back." Then, being in too great a hurry to in-

The door of the house he had pointed | his hand in the thin fingers.

He gave her some directions, and told her to ask again, and 'Tilda thanked him and set out. It was a long way. To 'Tilda, unusbewildered her. The lights and the pairingly that her destination was as and faint with weariness when at last

"Which is the way ?" said 'Tilda.

her tremulous question was answered by the words: "There y'are. Right oppersite." It was a wretched - looking place, a dirty, tumble-down court. But this ing downstairs for a bit? I've somewas a matter of course to 'Tilda. She had always known that he was very poor. She crossed the road to the entrance to the court, and then she hesitated a moment. Her purpose held as

The child stared at her for a moment.

dulge his evident curiosity, he ran on.

habit.

far off as ever. She was stiff with cold

"There's a singer lives here," said

your little nurse."

"Look here," he said; "there's no ever made, as it has done so much for need to tell me anything. You've been him and also for others in his commun- Acts directly on the stomach, liver and delirious you know, and-1 know the ity. Dr. King's New Discovery is guar-

"And "Tilda," said the doctor laying of the pag, is the prost of the sector a cheese cream-chance if it's offered you? That's all I tion. It don't fail. Trial bottles free complexion. Every bottle gnaranteed. at J. N. Snyder's Drug Store, Somerset, The singer was lying with his face to Pa., and G. W. Brallier's Drug Store, Berlin, Pa.

Russia serves its national soup of beef, mented best juice, and it is ready to be eaten at any time during the day. A wheat, cooked with liver and the heart

New Discovery is the grandest remedy

Consumption Positively Cured.

owns a slice of apple pie."-Exchange. How to Look Good. Good looks are really more than skin

