Andler Sipe Was Afraid of Making the Auditor's Report.

Sworn statements filed. Immediately following the adjournment of the Board of County Auditors and the filing of their report of the receipts and expenditures of the county for the year 1897, Peter Sipe, auditor, published a petition which was published in the "fake" organ with the caption which reads this article, and which was read in open court on Monday, February 22nd.

He declares that he did not agree to certain surcharges made by the auditors, and that A. J. Hileman, auditor's clerk, agreed to prepare the report showing that he disagreed to the report.

TURN ON THE LIGHT.

Commissioners Withdraw Their Objections to the Auditor's Report.

Objections permitted to stand. During the session of court held Friday afternoon, F. W. Biesecker, Esq., called upon the petition of the County Auditors asking that they be granted permission to correct the clerical errors contained in their report of the receipts and expenditures of Somerset county for the year 1897.

More or less disappointment was expressed that Commissioner Geo. E. Kimmel, through his private counsel, did not resist the petition, since he alone appears to have been responsible for the libelous attack on the auditors, contained in the Commissioners' published report for 1897.
