

The Somerset Herald.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
TERMS OF PUBLICATION.
Published every Wednesday morning at Somerset, Pa. in advance, otherwise the subscription will be discontinued until the arrears are paid. Postmasters are notified to notify us when subscribers do not send their paper will be held responsible for the amount of the subscription.
Advertising notices of the same of the form-and price will be given in the office. Address
SOMERSET HERALD,
SOMERSET, PA.

The Somerset Herald.

ESTABLISHED 1827.
VOL. XLVI. NO. 41. SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 1898. WHOLE NO. 2434.

Modern Treatment of Consumption

The latest work on the treatment of diseases, written by forty eminent American physicians, says: "Cod-liver oil has done more for the consumptive than all other remedies put together." It also says: "The hypophosphites of lime and soda are regarded by many English observers as specifics for consumption."

Scott's Emulsion

contains the best cod-liver oil in a partially digested form, combined with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. This remedy, a standard for a quarter of a century, is in exact accord with the latest views of the medical profession. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.

Strongest in the World.

Use Business Judgment

In buying life insurance - don't "guess" what company is going to pay the most money. Look at the surplus.

The $50,000.00 Surplus

Of the Equitable Life Assurance Society is the measure not only of its strength, but of its ability to pay dividends.

THE First National Bank

Somerset, Penn.
Capital, $50,000.
Surplus, $30,000.
Net Earnings, $4,000.

A. H. HUSTON, Undertaker and Embalmer.

A GOOD HEARSE, and everything pertaining to funerals furnished.

Jacob D. Swank, Watchmaker and Jeweler.

Next Door West of Lutheran Church, Somerset, Pa.

REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.

All work guaranteed. Look at my stock before making your purchases.

CATARRH

Affection of the Urinary Organs. A local disease. Affected persons should use Ely's Cream Balm.

Ely's Cream Balm

Relieves the Pain of Coughs, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all other ailments of the throat and lungs.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE PATENTS

Trade Marks, Copyrights, etc. A. B. Holsinger, Patent Attorney.

Scientific American.

A weekly illustrated journal of science, invention, and industry. Published by Scientific American, Inc., New York.

AN OLD MAID.

Her eyes, like quiet pools, are clear;
Her placid face is sweet and fair,
The look of many a vanished year
Lies on her hair.

THE STORY OF PRINCESS MARVEL.

Retold From the Romantic Folk-Lore of Russia.
BY EDWARD COURTESY.

Every country has its Wonder Book, and its Twice Told Tales, but who ever heard of the story of the Princess Marvel? This story of the Princess Marvel is Russian origin, and may not be old to some of you, but it has delighted the heart of many a Russian boy and girl.

So here she dwelt with twelve maidens, each one lovelier than the last, and the island they lived upon was rich and verdant, and blossomed and bloomed luxuriantly.

With this fine equipment the prince soon reached the dark forests where dwelt the Yaga. There he saw a pair of fowls' legs, which kept turning round and round.

So here she dwelt with twelve maidens, each one lovelier than the last, and the island they lived upon was rich and verdant, and blossomed and bloomed luxuriantly.

Cameron's Announcement.

From the Washington Standard.
Colonel John O. Winship, of Cleveland, was in town the fore part of the week. He called upon his old friend and former chief, Speaker Reed, and they together related many incidents of their early life in Maine.

Name of Texas.

Montley S. Stokely, of DuQuoin, Ill., some time ago wrote Governor Culbertson, asking why Texas is called the "Lone Star State."

Washington's Wooing.

George Washington was a colonel when he first met Mrs. Custis. He was on his way to Williamsburg to see the Governor when he met by a Mr. Chamberlayne, who owned a plantation along the way, and was asked to stop and dine with him.

The Dangers of Spring.

Which arise from impurities in the blood and a depleted condition of this vital fluid may be entirely averted by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sayings of Miss Willard.

Where not here to seek a large following, but to do what we think right. If I had appointed a committee the Ark would still be on the stocks.

President Adams' Trees.

Thousands of Americans travel far to visit the White House and walk through its grounds, yet few of them know the most interesting fact connected with the place, that is, that John Quincy Adams, when he was President, planted most of his fine trees.

Beats the Klondike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike.

Fled to the Swamp.

From Youth's Companion.
During the first year of the revolutionary war the most conflicting and alarming reports spread to the remote country towns.

Getting Ready in Earnest.

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
Now that congress has seriously begun the work of war preparation a proper settlement of the Cuban troubles becomes a possibility.

Color of Sin.

From the Chicago Chronicle.
At a recent meeting of the Methodist Ministerial Association, held in the parlors of the Methodist Church.

Rural Free Delivery.

The fact that the postal appropriation bill contains an item of $130,000 for rural free delivery during the next fiscal year, which is $100,000 more than has been available for the purpose during the present fiscal year.

A Useful Mule.

"Tom, that old swaybacked mule of yours ain't no good under a saddle, is he?"
"No; too slow an klumsey."
"Ner in th' buggy or waggin?"
"Ner too slow and fat."
"Ner at pullin' or plowin?"
"Ner; wants to graze too much."
"What you kep' him fer, then?"
"Wal, you see, we ain't got no clock at our houses, an' that ole mule brags right at dinner time; jest as shure as the yearth turns over, Yasser, I've been called to dinner by that mule's bray for the past five years, an' I ain't all right plump on time." - Atlanta Journal.

No Christian Need Apply.

This advertisement from the Indiana Pioneer tells its own story: "Wanted - An experienced Butler for a bachelor. Must understand the care of uniform and accoutrements. Must be clean and active, and of possible honest. Must be equal to camp life. No native of Belgium need apply. No Christian need apply. Wage Rs. 15. Address Captain Tyler, Royal Artillery, Belgium."

In a Bad Fix.

"Now" said the lawyer, who was conducting the cross-examination, "you will please state how and where you first met this man?"
"I think," said the lady with the sharp nose, "that it was -"
"Never mind what you think," interrupted the lawyer. "We want facts here. We don't care what you think, and we haven't any time to listen to what you think. Now please - tell us when and where it was that you first met this man?"
The witness made no reply.
"Come, come," urged the lawyer, "I demand an answer to the question I have put."
"The witness will please answer the question," said the Court in impressive tones.
"Can't," said the lady.
"Why not?"
"The Court don't care to hear what I think, does it?"
"No."
"Then there's no use a questioning me any further, I am not a lawyer. I can't talk without thinking." - Cleveland Leader.