

Somerset Herald. PUBLISHED WEEKLY. TERMS OF PUBLICATION. VOL. XLVI. NO. 46. SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1898. WHOLE NO. 2439.

What Shall Be Done FOR THE DELICATE GIRL. You have tried iron and other tonics. But she sleeps pale and thin. Her school complexion worries you. Perhaps she has a little hacking cough also. Her head aches and she cannot study. Give her Scott's Emulsion. The oil will feed her wasting body; the glycerine will soothe her cough, and the hypophosphites will give new power and vigor to her nerves and brain. Never say you "cannot take cod-liver oil" until you have tried Scott's Emulsion. You will be obliged to change your opinion at once. Children especially become very fond of it; and infants do not know when it is added to their food.

In Considering Life Assurance. It isn't so much what others are receiving to-day as what you will receive twenty years from now. A Surplus—over Fifty Million Dollars speaks for the future of a policy in the Equitable Life Assurance Society—Tells of security as well as future dividends.

THE First National Bank Somerset, Penn'a. Capital, $50,000. Surplus, $30,000. UNDIVIDED PROFITS, $4,000.

A. H. HUSTON, Undertaker and Embalmer. A GOOD HEARSE, and everything pertaining to funerals furnished.

HAD NOTHING TO SAY. You want to be a soldier, Jim? Well, I don't blame you, lad. The favor that has hit you now once mortally of with your dad. I know you're now you're a sergeant for a term. An' you want to go to the front? You're a sergeant for a term. When I was young you'd serve in eighteen states.

CLAPHAM MYSTERY. "It is all arranged for to-morrow," said young Mrs. Latymer-Wynne, as she and her husband took their seats at the dinner table.

EDWARD A. WOODS, Manager, PITTSBURGH. L. FOSDICK, General Agent, Somerset.

MEN WHO MUST GO TO WAR. About 200,000 Soldiers May Be Put Into Service. Plans now being formulated in Congress provide for the raising of about 200,000 soldiers, in round numbers, at the disposal of the Government within a very short time after the Cuban rebellion are approved by the President.

WID CONSTITUTE THE NATIONAL FORCES. Following are the provisions of the bill in full: "That to provide for temporarily increasing the military establishment of the United States in time of war, and for other purposes.

Up a Song Ladder. A very interesting feature of our bird songs is the wing songs, or songs of ecstasy. It is not the gift of many of our birds. Indeed, less than a dozen species are known to us as singing on the wing.

The Sure Lax Gripe Cure. There is no suffering from this dreadful malady, if you will only get the right remedy. You are having pain all through your body, your bowels are out of order, have no appetite, and life or ambition, have had a bad cold, in fact are completely used up.

and the militia of the States, when called into the service of the United States, shall be organized under, and shall be subject to the laws, orders and regulations governing the regular army; provided, that each regiment of the volunteer army shall have one adjutant and one assistant surgeon, and that all the regimental and company officers shall be appointed by the President, upon the recommendation of the Governors of the States in which their respective organizations are raised, subject to such an examination as to fitness and capacity as the President may prescribe.

President McKinley. Two years ago, when Mr. McKinley was a candidate for the Republican nomination for President, many observers thought him a weak and rather timid man. Called upon to support this opinion, he exhibited a series of extracts from his speeches on the currency, and invited attention to language which indicated either that the speaker had not made up his mind, or else that he wished to keep his conclusions a secret.
