The American war vessels will remain well out of range of the guns of Morro Castle and the shore batteries so that there is no likelihood of a gun being fired for an indefinite period. Captain Sampson will have it all his

Our State Conventions.

From the Lancaster Inquirer. The Republican State convention which meets in June promises to be a most interesting body. The point of interest is the selection of a candidate for Governor, and several eminent gentlemen are contending for that honor. Among the most prominent are Wm. A. Stone, Charles W. Stone and John Wanamaker. It is within the truth to say that either of these gentlemen would make a creditable candidate dashed into colored lights acknowledge whom the Republicans of the State could consistently support.

The purpose of having a nominating onvention is to determine who shall be the candidate of the party. This is done by vote, and whoever the majority selects is, according to all party rules, the chosen candidate. To him the whole party, if its members act in good faith, gives its united support. Otherwise there would be no use in holding a convention at all.

This of course presupposes that the nomination is fairly made-that the nominee is the choice of a majority of the convention.

There is a well-founded belief that a number of would-be political leaders in this State, claiming to be Republicans, do not intend to obey this rule the present year. According to their own declarations their purpose is, if the nomination does not suit them, to start an independent movement for the purpose of throwing the State into the hands of the Democrats

In order to justify this movement these party wreckers claim that Col. Wm. A. Stone, who seems thus far to be the strongest candidate, is the favorite of Senator Quay. Well, if this be true, what of it? Has Senator Quay no right to favor any candidate? This is a new doctrine and a most pestilent one, and is but a miserable subterfuge of a set of party wreckers who are determined to ruin the party they can

What we acquire easily, we generall, part with readily; what costs us a physical or mental effort we, as a rule, hang authority on this question than our public school teachers. Many a time it must have puzzied them what to do with a great many of their pupils, how to get knowledge into their heads is the difficulty, but once in, if they examine the thick-skulled receptacles of their pupils, they will find solid and substantial reasons why the knowledge cannot get out. It is the same with Doan's Kisiney Pills; how to account for the work they do is a puzzier, but every man who uses them always can give solid and substantial reasons for his estimate of their merit. Mr. C. L. Lather, or Luthersburg Road and Weber ave., DuBois, Pa., principal Mr. C. L.
