THE TYRONE POSTMASTERSHIP.

Wanamaker's Charges of Corruption in Connection With Appointment Denied by Representative Hicks. A dispatch Friday night from Washingon says: Representative J. D. Hicks, of Altoons, is much stirred over the charge nade by John Wanamaker that there was erruption in connection with the recent ppointegent of a postmaster at Tyrone, 'a., which appointment was made on Mr. Hicks' indorsament, Saturday Repescentitive Hicks besned the following To Hon, John Wanamaker Philadelphia, Pa.

DEAR SIR: The statement made by you oncorning the sale, or offering for sale, of the appointment of the postmastership at Tyrone, and my acceptance, or agreeuent to accept, $3,000 or any other sum of oney for said office, as published in the Philadelphia Press and Somerset Standard, is absolutely and unqualifiedly false. It has no foundation in truth or in fact.

I respectfully demand that you give this lenial the same publicity that you have given your statement; and I request the name of your authority that I may give opportunity to answer in court. Respect-J. D. HICKS. The Philadelphia Press of Sunday says editorially: Coppressman Hicks wants an explana-Ion from Mr. Wanamaker of the charge For United States Senator, that the post office at Tyrone was offered for sale for $3,000. Mr. Wanamaker did not make such a charge. In his speech at West Chester he read a letter from a gentleman, whose name was not given, about a post office, which was not named being held for $3,000 by the Congressman from the district, and neither the name of the Congressman nor the number of the district was given. FISHER'S

DICTIONARY.

Is a good thing to have and we have lots of them at low prices, but the best of them will not inform you where is the best place to fish nor how to catch them.

But we can show you the largest stock of Hooks, Snoods, Files, Trout and Bass Leaters, Lines, Rods, Baskets, Minnie Nets, Corks, Sinkers and Poles, to be found in 14 counties. Here's a pointer:

Last winter was an open one and favora-ble to fish. The streams are full of big fat suckers, catfish, carp, chubs, sun fish, trout and bass. The early fisher man catches the worms and the fish.

HIS is the busy season, when every Dry Goods House is thronged with busy buyers. Some studying the latest styles, others seek an unsurpassed value, irrespective of style. Our aim from the day we opened our doors was to make our store second to none in our county, by adding Value upon Value in Quality, and a magnetism in styles which drills harmoniously with the tastes of those who are rapidly being added to the list of our customers.
