"In March, 1802, I was taken with what I afterward learned was locometer attaxia, and was unable to walk, and I kept petting worse until I lost the use of my arms. I declored with two skillful doctors but received no benefit, and also used a galvanic bantery but kept getting worse and the doctors but received no benefit, and also used a galvanic bantery but kept getting worse and the doctors but received no benefit, and also used a galvanic bantery but kept getting worse and the doctors told me they could do no more. This was in May and June, 1802. I guve up all bope of ever having the use of my limbs grain, and did not expect to live very long. I was unable to dress or undress myself, and could not get around the house unless I was maved in a chair.

"I think it was in June that I read of the case of a man in Saratogn Co., N. Y. who was taken very much as myself. He had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People which contained, in a condenses form, all the elements necessary to give new hife and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves, and had been cured by their use.

Unfortunate Beginning.

Sir William Rowan Hamilton, professor of astronomy in the Dublin university, used to speak with the strongest reverence of Bishop Brinkley, his predecessor. His Only Love.

A Horton spinster has quite a romance connected with her life. In her younger days she had a sweetheart and he asked her to be his wife, but as she was too young to marry she refused him. They separated and the years fled by, bringing with them much sorrow for the giddy miss. Ten years afterward, on the very day of the month on which she refused him, came a letter from the sweetheart of her childhood asking again for her hand. She did not love him, but decided to never marry any one unless it be this man. She re-
