SPAIN'S ANSWER.

Received in Washington Monday Afternoon.

McKINLEY'S TERMS WILL NOT BE ALTERED.

The reply of the Spanish government to the peace conditions laid down by the United States was received at Washington shortly before 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. The reply came in sections and in cipher and was not translated until late in the night, and was then presented to President McKinley and the cabinet until Tuesday afternoon. From the forecast of the reply which has been printed it seems likely that while Spain has made plain its intention to accept the principal demands of the United States, questions are raised which may lead to some delay in the cessation of hostilities. All vital points are covered by the proposal—namely, the return of Cuba and Porto Rico and the Ladrones, and the establishment of a commission to pass upon the questions relating to the Philippines. Late Monday afternoon the President received an indirect intimation that the Spanish reply had come to the French embassy. A cabinet officer who was with him at this time said as follows: "The information that has come from Madrid about the action of the Spanish cabinet indicates that the Spanish have accepted our terms in a general way, but in several important questions they do not include in the terms submitted. The communication offering those terms was specifically stating such points as would be open to further negotiations. The administration has not yet given serious consideration to the personnel of the peace commission, but it can be stated that the Spanish are willing to discuss the present views as to the disposition of the Philippines will be appointed, and Mr. McKinley favors keeping at least Manila harbor and bay and sufficient territory around and for its support and protection, if not the whole of Luzon island.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT REVIEWS.

For Spain the Rough Riders are Three Times as Good as State Troops.

The following correspondence has passed between Colonel Roosevelt and Secretary Alger: BANTLEIGH, July 21, 1898.

My Dear Mr. Secretary:

I am writing with the knowledge and approval of General Wheeler.

We earnestly hope that you will send us, most of the regulars, and, at any rate, the cavalry division, including the Rough Riders, who are as good as any regulars, and three times as good as any state troops, to Porto Rico. There are 1,800 effective men in this division, if those who were left behind were joined to them, we could land at Porto Rico in this cavalry division close to 4,000 men, who would be very early in 1900 national guards armed with black powder Springfield or other arctic weapons.

Very respectfully,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The following reply was called to Colonel Roosevelt's attention:

Your letter of 23d received. The regular army, the volunteer army and the Rough Riders have done well, but I suggest that unless you can find a way to get to the Philippines, you make no invidious comparisons. The Rough Riders are no better than other volunteers. They had an advantage in their arms, for which they ought to be very grateful. R. A. ALGER, Secretary of War.

ARMY MUST BE MOVED.

Five Tenth's Walked by Malaria Fever in Such a Rapid Manner as to Be Epidemic of Yellow Fever.

WOULD PRACTICALLY DESTROY IT.

Eight major and brigadier generals of the army at Santiago have signed the following letter to General Shafter, and the General has determined to insist that the army be withdrawn from the island.

"The undersigned officers commanding the various brigades, divisions, etc., of the army of occupation in Cuba are of the unanimous opinion that this island should be evacuated, if it is not epidemic of yellow fever, which is sure to come in the near future.

"We know from the reports of competent officers and from personal observation that the island is unable to move into the interior, and that there are no facilities for such a move if attempted, and that it could not be attempted until late in the season, for the tropical climate of the island is such that with our present equipment we could not live in the interior during the rainy season without losses from malarial fever, which is almost as deadly as yellow fever.

"This army must be removed at once or perish. As the army can be safely moved now, the persons responsible for preventing such a move will be responsible for the unnecessary loss of many thousands of lives.

"Our opinions are the result of careful personal observation, and they are also based on the unanimous opinion of our medical officers of the army, who understand the situation absolutely."

IT HAS COST US $140,500,000.

The greatest event of the century as regards the future power of the United States among the nations of the world has taken place in the past 100 days—the beginning of the American-Spanish war. One of the oldest nations of the world, the great Continental power in discovery and the nation that gave the great Western Continent to the Eastern, the nation that swept aside the geographical teachings of centuries, and demonstrated the rotundity of the earth, the nation whose coast has claimed sovereignty over a greater territory than any other potentate, has been humbled and bent double-hearted to the young child of its creation, and to day bids farewell to its once magnificent Occidental empire. The cost of the war to the United States is estimated at $140,500,000, of which $20,000,000 was expended to increase the navy. The army has increased to 275,000 men, including 200,000 men in the volunteer regiments. Twenty-five Spanish war ships, valued at $30,000,000, have been destroyed without the loss of an American ship.

"For many years I have been a great sufferer with various kinds of sores on my feet and limbs which had caused me so much suffering, began to heal. I used a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time I was completely healed and the sores gave me no more pain. I cannot be too thankful for the wonderful work Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me." Mrs. A. E. Gillett, Hartland, Vermont.

THE AMERICAN terms of peace have evidently struck Europe as moderate and reasonable. Even Spain was pleasantly surprised, but will conceal the fact for the present.

R. J. YOUTHERS, who was defeated for the nomination for Assembly at the recent Cambria county Republican primaries, has announced that he will be an independent candidate.

WHAT DR. MCCOOK SAYS.

An Awful Condition of Affairs in Santiago.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 4.—The Rev. Dr. Henry C. McCook and Joseph Krauskopf arrived yesterday morning in New York on the transport Inos, and in the afternoon returned to their homes in this city. Since leaving Philadelphia for Santiago as commissioners of the National Relief Commission they have had excellent opportunities to judge of the great hardships through which the army of the United States has passed, and last night Dr. McCook, looking at the scene of what he saw in Cuba.
