History of a Contest Decided by Judge rom the Johnstown Tribune, Sept. 7.

In the Tribune's court report Septem ber 6, brief reference was made to the Court's decision in the Pearson Fisher will case, which he acnounced Septembe 5, at the same time stating that the opinion would not be filed until to-morrow The case is one of unusual interest, not only to the legal profession, but to the general public, and we append a short distory of it, the facts therein contained being the same as presented to the Court in a case stated, upon which argumen was made some time since, and therefor the same upon which the Judge based his decision. These facts are as follows:

Pearson Fisher, of this city, died single and testate February 5, 1895, leaving to survive him one brother and three sisters, viz: Milton B. Fisher, Annie C. Fisher, Helen Jones, and Susan E. Byron, all of whom were married except Annie C., and three nephews and two nieces, viz: P. Fisher Jones, W. Hubert Jones, children of his sister Helen, and Edgar O. Fisher and Lewell Fisher, children of his mixed property.

To each of his nephews he made bereceived here, but Captain Kooser has and bequeathed, one half to his sister-Annie C. The testator appointed his sister-Annie C. Fisher-Executrix of his will, and letters testamentary were duly granted to her February 15, 1895, when she took upon herself the duties of said

The Executrix, in compliance with the provisions of the will, transferred and delivered to Milton B. Fisher the follow ing items of personal property viz: Jan-1896, cash $80; March 4, 1896, cash $300 is departure for the war should not be a April 2, 1886, cash, $67-aggregating $2,-297, which sum was deposited in the First National Bank of this city. During the period from January 18, 1896, to April 2 1896, Milton B. Fisher drew checks leaving a balance in the Bank to his eredit at his death of $1,333 50. Also on corps in the county will doubtless be the same date the Executrix transferred here, and the occasion should be made to Milton B. Fisher tue following bonds, Pennsylvania Railroad stock, value, $250; two shares First National Bank stock of Johnstown, value, $250, and one thousand States, value, $1,188; fifty-six shares $2,240; Chemical Works stock, value, $50; nine shares Johnstown Water Company stock, value, $1,035. At the date of Milton B. Fisher's decease, May 6, 1896, the increment, or dividends, was $6, and on the Penusylvania Railroad stock, $6 50. Immediately or the transfer of the said stocks, bonds, and securities, January 1896, to Milton B. Fisher, he placed them in the custody and keeping of his sister-Annie C. Fisher-since which time they have remained in her possession.

Milton B. Fisher died, intestate and without issue, May 5, 1896, leaving to survive him a widow-Mary E. Fisherand three sisters- Annie C. Fisher, Helen Jones, and Susan E. Byron-devisees named, and noted above, in Pearson Fisher's will.

Letters of administration were granted o Milton B. Fisher's widow-Mary E Fisher-May 25, 1806, who brought suit to recover possession of the several items and articles of personal property above enumerated. Her case was conducted by Attorneys W. Horace Rose, of this city and F. J. Kooser, of Somerset. The claim was that they belonged to the estate of Milton B. Fisher, and that they could not revert to the sisters of Pearson Fisher, as he had provided in his will when the bequest to Milton B. Fisher was made. The interests of the sisters of Pearson

Fisher were intrusted to H. H. Kuhn and R. S. Murphy, Esqs., of this city. Their were as follows:

First, That the items and articles of personal property, enumerated and described, and the title to which is in dispute, are identified by the case stated as part of the estate of Pearson Fisher, the testator

Second, That the provisions of the sev enth paragraph of the testator's will limits Milton B. Fisher's interest in the r al estate devised to a life estate; that, therefore, the personalty bequeathed und ir the same provisions, being blended with the realty, is subjected to the same conditions and limitations as that of the real estate, Taird, Therefore, the said bequest to Milton B.
