I have no doubt that he has been able to fool some very cor scientious and deserving people with his suggestions, but those of us who are familiar with the methods of hi campaign managers are fully convinc arena has done more to commercializ the politics of Pennsylvania than al instance of the higher plane to which Mr. Wanamaker is going to elevate the politics of our state, it will be in teresting to note the controversy tween the Galeton Dispatch and the Potter Enterprise, two papers which bowed to the peculiar influence with which its managers conduct a cam paign, and is a pretty good evidence of the high plane to which Mr. Wanamaker is going to elevate the politics of this great commonweath. Here is the story as told by the papers above referred to:

The Galeton Dispatch calls up a "po-litical acrobat." FLAGS AND PATRIOTISM.

Mr. Wanamaker, for some reason not entirely apparent, says "the Quay mabooks wrapped up in flags and pictures of our honored president. A man might carry a thousand flags and not be a patriot." It is very true that the carrying of a flag does not make a patriot but the American flag is the symbol of patriotism, and no party has a greater right to use that emblem of a united The Republican party saved the Union intact. The Republican party made it possible to unfurl the flag today "withor polluted," and all this was accom plished by our party without the aid of Mr. Wanamaker. So far as history gives us any account he took no part n defending the flag when the life of a nation was threatened. The only patriotic service performed by him, so far as we have any knowledge, is that recorner of Sixth and Market streets in 1961 and watched the boys In blue as they marched by on their way to the front in defense of their country and its flag. I do not know whether Mr. Wans maker is in the habit of carrying a flag or not, but I am prepared to agree with him that he "might carry a thousand flags and not be a patriot."

THE PAYROLL I note the malice of his remarks payroll. While he has said much about a padded payroll so far as I know he has not made any satisfactory explanathere was no padded payroll in the sense he seeks to establish. There were some extra employes in the last session of the legislature, just as there have been during the past 25 years. That the legislature had the right to appoint ex tra +moloves was recognized by the members, senators, the governor, the state treasurer, the auditor general and other state officials. The members and senators friendly to Mr. Wanamake recognizzed this practice as well as all stated, there were nine extra employes agreed upon. Five of these extra appointments were given to senators who upported Mr. Wahamaker in his can didacy for the United States senate. His most enthusiastic admirer and almost constant companion in his tour had one of these extra places, name of the extra employe on the list credited to Senator Kauffman was B. eaver, as I am II I am also informed by the chief clerk of the senate that Senator Kauffman did not object to this arrangement,

It would seem as though, if Senator Kauffman was willing to have his one appointee on the extra list and the state of bondage, and while Moses army. receipted for part of the money due him on his salary, that there could not have been anything particularly wrong in that transaction, else such an ardent reformer would not have received and Moses, the man that brought us up out receipted for part of the money advanced by the state treasurer.
