After the Holidays.

That's when you may revel in bargains. It is our custom immedistely after the holidays to mark down everything preparatory to incoming Spring Goods.

We are not going to tell you here, in fact we can't, of what these bargains are; but you can rest assured that if you are holding off to purchase a new dress, either of woolen or silk fabric, that you will realize a very great saving by writing to us at once and asking us for samples of our marked down A word of caption: In these sales the rush for bargains is tremendous, and as there is a buying public connected with our store by steam and street car lines of over eight hundred thousand neople, it will be necessary for you living at a distance to be quite smart in getting in your orders. We shall keep you posted on prices, but the difference in time between issues of this paper is considerable. Therefore write us a
