rnor Stone-W. W. Griest of Lancaster a he secretary of the commonwealth and J. P. Elkin of Indiana to be atmended. By the nomination of Will lam W. Griest Governor Stone has not only conferred a deserved honor upon inent Republican leaders the state, but in an especi manner has he recognized th the Republicans of Lancaster county the Old Guard. In season and agt o season the Republicans of Lancaste unty have remained firm in their faith, seldom, with recognition, and then only of a minor character. The rewards have invariably gone to other sections of the state whose services to the party could in no wice compare with those rendered by the Republ one of Lencaster county. Mr. Griest in the first citizen of Lancaster county to hold a position in the embinet of a overnor elected by the Republican party of Pennsylvania. John P. Elkin was the most important factor in the state campaign which ended at the November election. He made the most notable speeches of the campaign. No other Republican is Pennsylvania worked harder or morthrewdly for Republican success. Gov ernor Stone did exactly right when he named Mr. Elkin for attorney general. The Republicans of Pennsylvania-the men who stood by the regular ticketecognize the value of Mr. Elkin's serdices and are glad that Governor Stonias shown himself not unmindful a those survices. Mr. Elkin is an honest man and a good lawyer, and will serve

Applied to Present Conditions, Inter- it. esting to Our Readers. It's a singuar thing how trifling an incident will often change the world's history.

If the country gentleman living in Cheshite, England, had not by accident been thrown from his coach into the lap of a young lady, the pair might never have married, or mi grated to the American colonies, and thus the world would never have known of George Washington as the father of our is in the duily life everyone, "little things" occur which af-fect the future. Rev. Daniel Ely, or 496 East Washington street, Chambersburg, Pa., it important-15c, 35c, 50c. knows well how fortune smiles at times the afflicted, in showing how relief is near at band. His experience and advice is given in the following words. The reverend gen-tleman says: "If doll aching in the small of my back and slight urinary trregularities are an indication of aidney complaint, I had it for several years. Although never so virpent as to lay me up, it was so persistent the freatment. It cured me. One fact is worth mentioning: That remedy area directly upon the kidneys and auxiliary organs and while taking it has no effect on any other part of the body.
