

The Somerset Herald.

EDWARD SCULL, Editor and Proprietor. WEDNESDAY, February 1, 1899.

ANOTHER Daniel has come to judgment.

GENERAL PROSPERITY is one of the line officers who will not be mistreated out this year.

The Quay cases are to be tried before the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia on February 23rd.

JUDGE LUCAS W. DAVIS, of Westmoreland county, announced that he will be a candidate for Supreme Court Judge.

IN VIEW of the sea of troubles, the defeat of the treaty would entail, the ratification might well be made unanimous.

THERE is no mistaking Governor Stone's position on the United States Senatorship. The Governor is always with the regular.

It will be a shame if the Chicago men who sold the doctored beef to the government get off without some kind of punishment.

THE senatorial deadlock in West Virginia was broken last Wednesday by the election of N. B. Scott, the Republican caucus nominee.

GENERALS EAGAN and Miles ought to harmonize, fraternize, harmonize and otherwise patch up their little differences before the war ends.

LAST year the farms of the United States sent ahead products that sold for $500,000,000. Beyond question, farming pays. Looked by American brains.

ACCORDING to the records at Madrid 80,000 Spanish soldiers died in Cuba, chiefly from disease products that sold for $500,000,000.

So, there is to be a vote on the peace treaty February 9. It might just as well be taken this week, but we will not complain. The fact that the end is in sight is gratification enough.

WHEN the Republicans of Pennsylvania are ready to issue an edict that minority shall rule, then the time will have come for the party to take down its shingle and go out of business in disgrace.

REPRESENTATIVES KOONTZ and Kephall continue to disobey the instructions voted them by their constituents and to defy the expressed will of the Republican voters of the county by voting against Senator Quay.

THE caucus receipts at Havana are reported to be about $15,000 a day, which is much better than the case under Spanish rule. And this, too, before things are really in working order. There is hope that even the Cubans will be satisfied after a while.

ALTHOUGH he has been signing bills for nearly two years President McKinley has sent in only two vetoes. It is probable that he finds it necessary to economize on account of the fact that the stock on hand was nearly exhausted before Mr. Cleveland retired from the office.

UNDER the law, certificates of nomination must be filed in the office of the County Commissioners 18 days before election and nomination papers 15 days before. As the February election comes this year on the 21st, February 21 will be the last day for filing certificates of nomination.

An election for State Senator to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of General Gobin will be held in Lebanon county Saturday. There are two candidates in the field and the battle is being fought squarely on the Quay and anti-Quay issue. Both sides claim to be confident of winning.

SENATOR STEWART has succeeded in his ambition to get a third term to silver, except in his private contracts, which stipulate that payment must be made in gold.

THE senatorial deadlock is still on at Harrisburg, with no indications of its being broken in the near future, although the unexpected is liable to happen at any time. There was no material change on any of the ballots taken since our last issue. On Saturday and Monday there were not enough members present to constitute a quorum, the bolting Republicans, having agreed to absent themselves from in these two sessions.

REPRESENTATIVE KOONTZ still continues to cast his ballot for John Stewart for United States Senator. He resembles the Berks county Democrat who votes for Andrew Jackson at each regular biennial election, and has been keeping it up ever since. A poll of the Republican vote of the county would likely disclose that about one in every one thousand favors the election of John Stewart to the United States Senate, yet Mr. Koontz professes to be representing the sentiments of his constituents.

IN accordance with Governor Roosevelt's suggestion that women be given a more active voice in educational matters, a bill is to be introduced in the Albany Legislature that at least one woman shall be appointed on every school board in the cities and towns of the State. This reform is bound to come, and the sooner it is a fact the better it will be for the cause of education. Women are as vitally interested in the question of education as men, and they are much better informed as to the needs of children. Furthermore, they would be a check in the control of the schools by politics—one reason why their employment on school boards has been persistently opposed by the political element.

THE man nominated by the next Democratic State Convention for Supreme Judge will be elected to that high office for a term of 21 years at a salary of $8,000 a year. The convention will name the man that J. M. Guffey wants, he being now the absolute master of the Pennsylvania Democratic Party. Democratic aspirants for the high position will therefore lose no time in trying to secure Guffey's smiles, says the Uniontown News.

SENIOR AGONCILLO.

Representing Aguinaldo's Power and Influence in the Philippines.

WANTS RECOGNITION AT WASHINGTON.

Senor Agoncillo, the representative of Aguinaldo in Washington, sent a communication to Secretary Hay Tuesday of last week urging the necessity of his recognition. He says that the Philippines have brought the two countries to the edge of war, and that a disclaimer on the part of the American government of any intention to attack the liberties and independence of the Philippine islands would have a quieting, reassuring effect upon the minds of his countrymen.

In his communication, Senor Don Felipe Agoncillo calls attention to the fact that on January 11 he addressed a letter to him upon the question of recognition, forwarding with it a memorandum demonstrating that according to all American precedents the Philippine republic was entitled to recognition as a sovereign nation. He also invited the attention of the secretary to the present strained conditions at Manila, where overzealous either side might create a condition of anarchy, and that the necessity of an early and frank communication between the representatives of the two countries. He further calls attention to the fact that the letter was written under circumstances which he feared have brought the two countries to the verge of war, and says that the language used by him was so prophetic that subsequent events have amply justified his prediction.

AMERICA'S WARLIKE PREPARATIONS. He now desires to call the attention of the secretary to certain conditions which, in his opinion, require immediate alleviation. There are, he says, at the present time 20,000 American troops at Manila, entailing a population of about 300,000. "A number of war vessels are stationed in the harbor, and many other American troops are on the coast of Luzon. He also points out that the actual possession of the American troops extends not to exceed one hundred and forty-three square miles out of the total area of the island. Despite the enormous force now in the island, he says, "we are informed through the public prints that other vessels of war have been ordered to the Philippines, and that the American troops are being increased in number. He says that he is naturally of the opinion that the United States is preparing to use force against the Philippine republic, and that he is naturally of the opinion that the United States is preparing to use force against the Philippine republic, and that he is naturally of the opinion that the United States is preparing to use force against the Philippine republic.

THE DEADLOCK. From the Harrisburg Telegraph.

Through the perseverance of half a hundred members—a bare fifth of the entire number in both branches—there is a deadlock over the election of a United States Senator to succeed Senator Quay. The Republican caucus has elected Senator Quay, but the fifty per cent Republicans, knowing that he is the caucus nominee, refuse to obey the will of the majority and elect him. What a spectacle for the Republican party in the State, the party that has done more to set the Republicans of other States. Because these fifty per cent Republicans cannot have their choice in caucus they threaten to disregard the Republican party in the State, the party that has done more to set the Republicans of other States. Because these fifty per cent Republicans cannot have their choice in caucus they threaten to disregard the Republican party in the State, the party that has done more to set the Republicans of other States.

Justice Williams Dead.

Justice Henry W. Williams, of the State Supreme Court, died at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning in Philadelphia, at the Continental Hotel.

Justice Williams was from Wellbore, Toga county, and his term would have expired in January, 1900. Justice Williams had been ill more or less seriously since July last, when he suffered a stroke of paralysis at his home at Wellbore. The stroke was considered an abnormal growth of the heart, and this latter affection caused him much suffering lately. Since November he had been under the care of a specialist of Philadelphia, but the physician had no hope of his recovery. Justice Williams finished the oath of office to Gov. Stone.

DEFENSE OF SECESSION.

Populist Senator Butler's Sensational Speech.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 26.—As the Senate adjourned it was almost to conclude consideration of the Pension Appropriation bill late this afternoon, Mr. Butler (Pop., N. C.) offered his amendment, announced some time ago, providing for the postponing of the Confederate soldiers. Upon this he took the floor and delivered a speech which, as he proceeded, developed into a most unexpected oration.

His colleagues on both sides of the chamber listened with interest. Mr. Butler defended the position taken by the South during the great civil conflict of a third of a century ago. He declared that the South was right, and that history would so record, and that every soldier by a Southern soldier was fired in defense of the rights conferred by the Constitution, in its history, and in defense of the home and fireside.

Mr. Bates, (Dem., Tenn.) himself a distinguished Confederate officer, declared that, while the South believed it was right, it was not entitled to recognition as a sovereign nation. He said that the proposition which Mr. Butler had made, and that the Southern soldiers as a body did not desire pensions from the General Government, and he expressed his confidence that Mr. Butler had withdrawn his amendment.

Escaped Down a Rope of Neckties.

LARAMIE, Wyo., January 22.—"Dankie Ted," who has been known as the "Dankie Ted" in the Sweetwater country by reason of his partiality for neckties of various kinds and hues, is credited with an escape from the coal jail of Sweetwater in a remarkable and curious manner.

On a Case of Drunkenness.

There was a case tried at the Blair county court last week that attracted considerable attention. It was a damage suit brought by Bessie A. Edward and Harry Kocher against Snyder township. November 14th, 1897, the plaintiffs were driving in a buggy along a narrow road near Tyrone, on one side of which is a steep embankment, with the Junonia river at the bottom. The horse took fright and backed the buggy to the edge of the embankment into the river. The buggy was completely demolished and Miss Kocher drifted out into the current. She was rescued in an unconscious condition and has since that time been suffering with rheumatism. In addition to this both her lower limbs have been injured from the effects of which she has never recovered. She claims damages in the sum of $2,000. The other plaintiff sought to recover damages for their wrecked buggy. The prosecution set up the claim that the township was negligent in not properly protecting this dangerous place by the erection of a stone wall. The jury returned a verdict for Miss Kocher for $2,000 and for the other plaintiff for $30.

Cigars at $3.50 for McKinley.

HAVANA, Jan. 27.—The proprietor of one of the largest tobacco plantations on this island, after several weeks' effort, has collected from various plantations some of the finest brands of tobacco to be had in the world. The proprietor has over two of his most experienced workmen, with instructions to make these into cigars for the Chief Executive of the United States. He showed one of the cigars, which was of great beauty, and as long almost as the average leaf pencil. A general in the army asked the planter, who is a Spaniard, how much the cigars are worth and he replied, "Well, more than $121 apiece."

100,000 for the State College.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 25.—Andrew Carnegie has offered to donate $100,000 for a library building for the State College, at Bellefonte, providing the State will appropriate $100,000 for the maintenance of the library and museum to be connected with the college.

Railroad Workmen Killed.

ALTOONA, Pa., January 25.—A gang of twenty six men, all of whom were working on the railroad at the west end of the Altoona tunnel this afternoon, when they heard the approach of a locomotive which was running west through the tunnel. The workmen all stepped out from the north track, when the westbound train came, to the south track. The smoke in the tunnel prevented them from seeing the approaching locomotive, which struck and killed one of the men and injured several others.

Ex Attorney General Garfield Stricken Down.

WASHINGTON, January 25.—Former Attorney General Garfield was stricken with apoplexy while addressing the United States Supreme Court at 12:15 o'clock this afternoon, and died within ten minutes. It occurred some while standing and while unexpected, changing the usual calm and dignity of the court into temporary confusion, while the dying man was carried to the hospital, following the usual procedure.

Political Notes.

The Legislature should either break the senatorial deadlock without further fooling or pass the senatorial contest to the people. The members of the Legislature should not be so much interested in their own interests as in the interests of the State. The members of the Legislature should not be so much interested in their own interests as in the interests of the State.

QUAY'S FRIENDS ARE CONFIDENT.

The Senior Senator's Supporters Satisfied They Will Break the Deadlock.

WANAMAKERISM RAMPANT.

His News Bureau Controls the Reports That Go to Many Newspapers From the Seat of the Senatorial Contest.

(Special Correspondence.)

HARRISBURG, Jan. 21.—The developments of the last week have not materially altered conditions in the senatorial contest. The fact that despite the expenditure of money on the part of the opposition and the resorting to the most disgraceful tactics by the Wanamaker Senator Quay's forces has remained intact is most gratifying to his friends. The senior senator has not been here to give personal attention to the direction of his campaign. He has been in Harrisburg, Maryland, and his friends are doing the best they can for him.

The tactics of the Wanamaker agents are arousing a feeling of disgust among all fair minded citizens in the State. The newspapers that are controlled by the Wanamaker advertisement men are being boycotted by the most shocking misstatements affecting Senator Quay and his friends are printed daily. Some of these papers have been in the hands of the senior senator for some time past. It is estimated that the Wanamaker agents have received from the senior senator over $100,000 for the purpose of carrying on their campaign. The senior senator has been in Harrisburg, Maryland, and his friends are doing the best they can for him.
