ED. B. SCULL, AUTORNAY-AT-LAW, No. 170 FORTH St., PHISBURG, Pa.

office opposite Court House.

J. A. BERKEY, ATTURNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset Pa.

Office above Fisher's Book Store. HARVEY M. BERKLEY,

Office in First National Bank, Somerset, Pa. A. C HOLBERT, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa.

ogaris to took a Beerits Block, up stairs. GEORGE R. SCULL,

FRED. W. BIESECKER, ATTOMNST-AT-LAW, Office in Printing House Row, opposite Court I R SCOTT, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

F. J. KOOSER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa.

J. G. OGLE W. H. KOUNTZ L'OUNTZ & OGLE, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. Somerset, Pa. unios. Unice in l'rist siouse Row, opposita Court House

A L G HAY INTINE HAY. HAY & HAY, ATTURNEYS-AT-LAW,

JOHN H. UHL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, will promptly attend to all bus less en-racted to him. sucy advance; on collec-tra, &c. Office in Manmooth Block.

JOHN O. KIMMEL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, sill attend to all business entrusted to his

JAMES L. PUGH, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW Some -i, Pa. Office in Mammoth Block, up 18. En-rance on Main Cross street, officetions ask estates willed, titles examined, and all calles ness attended to with promptness

L. C. COLBORN. A. J. CULBORN. COLBORN & COLBORN, ATTURNEYS-AT-LAW.

All bachess entrusted to our care will be promptly and faithfully attended to. Collections made in Somerset, itectiond and adjoing conties. Surveying and conveyancins toce on reasonable terms.

H. L. BAER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Will practice in Somerset and adjoining conties. All business entrusts

W. H. RUPPEL A. E. COFFROTH. COFFROTH & RUPPEL, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa. essentrusted to their care will be edily and punctually attended to. Office Main Cross servet, opposite Mammoth

H. I. MARSDEN, M. D., PHYSICIAN and SURGEON, Somerset, Pa. Special attention given to the care of the resaid to the treatment of chronic diseases. Night saits at office, Telephone.

J. W. CAROTHERS, M. D., Somerset, Pa. Office on Patrice Street, opposite U. B.

DR. P. F. SHAFFER, PHYSICIAN AND SUBGEON, Somerset, Pa. s professional services to the cit has of Sometest and Vicinity Main Cross and Patriot street.

DR J. M. LOUTHER, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Siles on Main street, rear of Drug store.

DR H. S. KIMMELL, hen of Somernet and vicinity. Unless pro-wionally engaged he can be found at his of fee on Main St., Past of Diamond. DR I S.McMILLEN, Graduate in Dentistry.)

Give special attention to the preservation of the railtral feeth. Artificial sets inserted. All equations cuarrenteed satisfactory. Office All optistic re guaranteed satisfactory. Officiality suchs over L. H. Davis & Co's storement Mait Cross and Patriot streets.

C. H. COFFROTH, Funeral Director. Office 5.6 Main Cross St. Residence, 340 Patriot St.

FRANK B. FLUCK. Land Surveyor AND MINING ENGINEER. Listic, Pa-

CO-OPERATIVE MUTUAL FIRE INS. CO., BERLIN, PA.

Get insurance at actual cost by insurog at home. We insure Town and Farm property. Write for information. JA . J. ZORN. Secretary.

A. H. HUSTON.

The Somerset Herald.

ESTABLISHED 1827.

VOL. XLVII. NO. 37.

医阿斯勒勒斯以阿斯勒拉斯勒克斯勒克斯勒斯斯勒勒

Delicate

Children

They do not complain of anything in particular. They pale. They appear fairly well, eat enough, but keep thin and but have no strength. You cannot say they are really delicate.

sick, and so you call them

What can be done for them?

Our answer is the same that the best physicians have been giving for a quarter of a cen-

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. It has most remarkable nourishing power.

It gives color to the blood. It brings strength to the muscles. It adds power to the nerves. It means robust health and vigor. Even delicate infants rapidly gain in flesh if given a small amount three or four times each day.

SOC and St. on; all druggists
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York,

THE-

Somerset, Penn'a.

Capital, $50,000.

Surplus, $37,000.

PROFITS $.3000.

DEPOSITS RECEIVE IN LARGE AND SMALL

AMOUNTS, PAYABLE ON DEMAND ACCOUNTS OF MERCHANTS, ARMERS, STOCK DEALERS, AND OTHERS SOLICITED

DISCOUNTS DAILY.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

HAS, O, SCULL, GEO, R. SCULL, AMES L. PUGH, W. H. MILLER, BOHN R. SCOTT. BOBT, S. SCULL,

FRED W. BIESECKER

EDWARD SCULL, : PRESIDENT.
VALENTINE HAY, : VICE PRESIDENT.
HARVEY M. BERKLEY, CASHIER.

The funds and securities of this bank are securely protected in a celebrated Commiss Bur-SLAR PROOF SAFE. The only safe made abso

Jacob D. Swank,

Watchmaker and Jeweler,

Somerset,

as the Cheapest.

J. D. SWANK

SHOES, OXFORDS and SLIPPERS.

.....CASH PRICES ....

corner of square,

Adjoining Mrs. A. E. Uhl, South-east

Illend most softly and of watch countries.

mellow glow or

y most effectively ever

The fight that lab like benat, 's clearer, thoug we the inisted touch to the drawing rand or during recur, is the

WAX CANDLES

to bur nosize with any interior

STANDARD OIL CO.

Get an Education

CENTRAL STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

ng faculty, varied courses, good lib orn apparatus to laboratory and gry handsome buildings, extensive grow test time, least expense, State aid to writing. Send for illustrated catalogue.

James Elmon, Pa.B., Printpul, Lock Haven, Pa.

50 YEARS

EXPERIENCE

leangines or decontions.

Soll in all coion and shairs

Lestive scene vilanthrown

SOMERSET, PA.

Black and Tan. Latest Styles and Shapes

SPECIALTY.

REPAIRING A

I Am Now

tury. Give them

SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY. FEBRUARY 22, 1899.

THE WHITE MAN'S BURDEN. BY BUDYARD KIPLING. Take up the White Man's burdencrowd of passengers had to wait while half-closed eyes. Send forth the best ye breedthis took place, and the cold wind, de- Then Mr. Large slipped from the The passengers came up from below, Go, bind your sons to exile termined to have some fun before the couch to the floor. To serve your captive's need; To wait, in heavy harness, be would take a private cabin.

that better than eigars."

See you again presently."

at pitch and toss.

what of it ?

declare, if it isn't Mr. Large."

"For pleasure, I presume."

Pembridge Square years ago."

"I shall never forget what a smart, resume wrong."

'em in those days."

when he married "

on board."

ly everything. There's a sister of mine the part of this steamer to suit me."

peet; her husband's with her."

"Likely as not," said the lady.

Midway in the channel the sea was more sanely. Mr. Large, muffled up the sallors, he roared an imperative ladies presented themselves, and shut the door."

thoroughly at home."

special you said you'd got ""

"Ladies first," said Mr. Large.

"What's he ?"

"Well," said Mr. Large, rising, "

"We're in the saloon, Mr. Large.

"Why, don't you remember me? I when you used to come there courting."

"We're sending you a basket of game

"It all comes in useful," replied the captain, "where you've got a family.

The captain went up on the bridge.

The last trunk slid down the wooden gangway and was caught by the sailors tled a mournful, regretful note to indi-this year," remarked Mr. Large casual-the firm ?"

Your new-caught suiten peoples, Half devil and half child. Take up the White Man's burden-In patience to ab'de, To veil the threat of terror And cheek the show of pride; By open speech and simple, An hundred times and plain,

On fluttered folk and wild-

To seek another's profit And work another's gain, Take up the White man's burden-The savage wars of peace-Fill full the mouth of Famine. And bid the sickness cease : And when your goal is nearest (The end for others sought) Watch sioth and heathen folly

Bring all your hope to nought Take up the White Man's burden-No iron rule of kings, But toll of serf and sweeper-The tale of common things, The ports ye shall not enter, The roads ye shall not tread,

Go, make them with your living And mark them with your dead. Take up the White Man's burden-And reap his old reward-The blame of those ye better The hate of those ye guard-The cry of bosts ye humor (Ab slowly!) toward the light ;-"Why brought ye us from bondage

Our loved Egyptian night?" Take up the White Man's burden-Ye dare not stoop for less-Nor call too loud on Freedom To cloak your weariness. By all ye will or whisper, By all ye leave or do, & The silent sullen peoples Shall weigh your God and you.

Take up the White Man's burden-Have done with childish days-The lightly proffered laurel, The easy ungrudged praise; Comes now, to search your manhood Through all the thankless years, Cold, edged with dear bought-wisdom, The judgment of your peers.

-McClure's Magazine. A NEAT JOB.

BY W. PETT RIDGE.

The barred and padlocked van came out of the courtyard of the bank into St. Swithin's Lane and was driven slowly and with great circumstance down to Cannon-st. station. Mr. Large, in his long frieze overcoat, sat on the box near the driver, for Mr. Large was one of the bank couriers, red-faced and whiskered and sufficient-Next Door West of Lutheran Church, ly rotund of figure, with a scafaring manner that not even a large silk hat could hide. Mr. Large told the driver that, this being the last day of the old year, he was making his final trip on behalf of the bank; on his return the prepared to supply the public bank proposed to superannuate him, with Clocks, Watches, and Jew- with a handsome allowance, and he elry of all descriptions, as Cheap did not know that he should not take a nice little hotel down at Hythe, on which he had had his eye for some considerable time, "This," added Mr. Large to the driver, with his usual caution, "this is confidence, mind." The driver answered that it should not go any further, and that he knew when to keep his mouth shut and when to open it.

"In our business," agreed Mr. Large, 'you have to."

At the station the padiocks were taken off the back of the van, and three large wooden cases, red taped and sealed with scarlet wax, were taken out by the rallway porters care fully and placed in a first-class compartment. It was all done with a fine MEN'S BOYS', WOMEN'S, GIRLS' and CHILDREN'S air of mystery, because to mention the name of Large's bank was to fill railway men, and even custom officials, with awe and reverence. Especially at about the end of the year, "Might those cases contain bonds, inspector?" asked an inquisitive pas-

"Well," said the inspector, shifting his lamp from one hand to the other, there's a little too much movement on 'they might contain anything." "But what do they contain ?"

"Ah!" replied the inspector, evasive-"Now you're asking me some-

There were not many pa-sengers by the night mail from Cannon-st., but pulled her long cloak around her, "he's among them there was a party of a commission agent, too." three, two well dressed, matronly women and a muffled-up man; the two Mr. Large. "I'd see 'em, only that women, when they had seen the mufft- I've got important business in hand ed-up man into a first-class compart- this journey. May meet again, perment and had warned him to keep his | haps." scarf over his chin, came back and watched the proceedings with studied

"Wish your poor husband was alive, Catherine," said one in an undertone. This would have been a job after his own heart."

"He was always planning something of the kind," said Catherine, feelingly; but he was never spared to carry it out. Seemed as though he wasn't to be. Poor George!" The lady shook her head sadly. "I don't believe, Margaret, there was ever anybody like

"Fortunately," said Margaret, there s somebody like this man Large," "Hush!" remarked the other reprovingly.

"And it's some consolation to think that your poor 'usband is looking down now and seeing us three helping the of great interest. foreign gentleman to manage a scheme

"Certainly," conceded Catherine, with emotion, "it is a mark of respect. And there's no doubt it was Providence sent me here this morning and let me listen to them making the arrangements. You sent the telegram to Dalafon all right?"

"If Edward can only leave off-yes, dear, I sent the telegram-leave off beought to pan out all right." "He's the only man for the job, and | across to Mr. Large.

here's been a rare job to get the likeness right." The other lady was not optimistic. years without finding out that Elward of it brings him all back to me." has his faults. How'd it be to take our sests before the train starts?" At Dover the usual commotion of ly, "and I don't want to begin at my the captain, "that you people don't rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. the ball, the theatre, instead of altendpassengers alighting at the low, narrow | time of life." platform and, draped with rugs and There was nothing for Mr. Large to tesse service, just as ordinary people do. expels poisons, helps digestion, builds is the great gala day of the week, disdecorated with portmanteaus, descend- do but to wipe his lips with the back of It would save all your expenses. But up the strength. Only 50 cents at J. tinguished by the added brilliancy of the famous women's club of London, while Mr. Large, with the imperial air to them all, and to take a long drink is done well and safely. Suppose I'd Berlin, Pa.

old year went out, blew their hats off "Now, Edward," said Catherine, from rugs and tarpaulins. Some who and fluttered ladies' cloaks impudent- with a prompt, decisive manner, "off had been ill were corking up their bot-came down, and Mr. Large, who had part." changed his silk hat for a tweed trav- Edward obeyed silently, in the man- they looked and whether their faces eling cap that had flaps to cover his ner of one accustomed to do as he is were very white. Edward dispensed ears, and was tied securely under the told without argument. This done, it his half-crowns as one accustomed to chin, nodded to the captain (who seem- could be seen that he bore an amazing that generous occupation, and the three ed pleased to see him), and demanded a resemblance to the stupefied man; his cases were carried up to the pier, on prophecy in regard to the Journey whiskers had been carefully trimmed which stood a line of men belonging across. The captain said that it might in a like manner; be had the same bur- to the customs and to the Chemin de perhaps be the least bit bolsterous, and ly appearance and the same fresh-col- fer du Nord; Edward followed close, Mr. Large answered he knew what ored type of face. When he had taken and the women, with an approving that meant. Let the cases be placed Mr. Large's frieze coat and tied the nod, remained on deck to come up in the strong room, where they would traveling cap under his chin he looked with the bulk of the passengers. A be secure from injury by sea water and rather more like Mr. Large than Mr. man with a long nose standing under Large himself; when with a pair of a lamppost coughed. A customs offi-"Right you are, Mr. Large," said seissors he cut off Mr. Large's whisk- cial spoke. the captain. "Not too early, I hope, to ers few could have correctly given the "Ah, Mister Larch! How do you do" wish you a happy New Year. How's identity of the two men.

"So far so good," said Catherine. ly. "Struck me your missis would like his face to the wall. He was breathing to such weaknesses in a general way.

man, and attend to what we say. Tell toms official lowered his voice reverhim, Margaret, ouce more, what he's ently, "how is the baron?"

on deck; a bell rang; the steamer whis- are you listening?"! were not made of cloth.

cate its regret at leaving, if only for a few hours, the land of its birth; the "You go upstairs and you say a word | the duty?" engines grunted and the steamer, mak- or two to the captain in a casual kind | Edward, in a state of great perturbaing a prodigious amount of white foam, of way. You speak about the three tion and dismay, protested. He always went out into the dark, blustering cases of bonds that we saw them put in understood that there was no duty in night. The lights of Dover town the strong-room. Very well, then. You France on bonds. fringing the shore winked; a railway give half a crown to several of the men. "Farceur!" laughed the custom offiengine, anxious to show off gave an and you keep close to them while they cer. "You are a horrible man for your dawn. Snow began to fall as the end name's Large, and don't forget to be bonds for New Year's presents to its matronly woman called Catherine, at the other end."

with great astonishment—passengers Edward said that it was in this same were moving about mistily on board, clearance through the customs that he and many were going downstairs-"I foresaw a chance of ructions. "Nonsense!" cried Catherine, sharp-

"Well," said Mr. Large with reserve, | iy. "Don't be so stupid." "Then," went on Margaret, enforcing was lady's maid at the place in Pem- the table, "then you have them taken | itime to the town of Calais. bridge Square years and years ago, into the train: they'll reserve a firstclass compartment for you, and you'll lessly, and with much bitterness to Ed-"That's a long time ago," said Mr. find Monsoor Delafon on the platform. ward, as they hastened in the dark Large, uneasily. "Let bygones be by- You remember Monsoor Delafon?"

memory, it seemed, by reason of the Black and White. "But isn't it marvellous we should run across each other like this after all length of M. Delafon's nose. Edward said he could pick him out of a thous-"I don't know about being marvel- and.

ous," replied Mr. Large curtly. "You won't have to pick him out at "Tisn't the first time I've been across all. He'll come up to the carriage win- much trouble with impudent servants the Channel, although it may be the dow, and you'll get one of the porters that she was on the verge of nervous to unlock the door and let him come in prostration, and she would certainly "Then," said Mr. Large, "you'd the way to Boulogne he'll know what Bride income been large enough. She to do with the contents of the cases, finally became desperate. and he'll know how to get them out of the carriage. He will leave at Bougood-looking, well-built young fellow logne and meet his friends." you were when you used to call at

Edward said gloomily that it was all very well, but he wished the job over "I s'pose," remarked Mr. Large, with less frigidity of manner, "I s'pose | and done with. "On the way to Paris you change

I could hold me own with the best of your appearance in every possible way, and the moment the train arrives you "How that girl used to rave about you, Mr. Large! I believe she wor. uip out and make yourself as scarce as shipped the very ground you walked you can. Now, repeat it all over to

Edward, like a reluctant schoolboy, "Was a bit gone on me, wasn't she?" repeated the instructions sulkily, rather said Mr. Large, chuckling. "Lord! the other. What was your husband writing, impaled the sheet of note-pa-"He was-er-a commission agent," had written: said the lady; "used to dabble in near-

"Do not wake me. Am returning to on the verge.

Then more injuctions were given to Edward by the two anxious women; shall be getting down to my cabin; him that he had only to get the three cases in the train and all his trouble would be over, and a moderate compe- I do, dear ?" My sister would like to see you, I extence assured to him for life.

"You'll be able to say good-by to work, Edward," said Catherine; cheer-

"Well, he"--the lady coughed and "Give 'em my kind regards," said this, said Edward, complainingly, told get dinner!"-Harper's Bazar. on a man's brain.

"If you don't do your best," said his wife, severely, "I'll never forgive you." less boisterous, and the steamer went The two women went into the saloon, and Edward ascended the gangway to portions are emphasized by wearing a in his thick frieze overcoat, had fallen the upper deck. The lights of Calais boa around her throat is not obliged to nearly asleep on the couch of his cabin were in sight, and the captain, meeting give it up even in deepest mourning. when he heard a tap at the door. He him at the top of the steps, said cheer- English crepe is pleated into a ruching did not answer, and the door opened ily that he had made a good journey. thick enough to form a boa, and this very gently. Assuming it to be one of How had Mr. Large managed? Fairly bia is provided with long scarf ends. well? That was right. Edward en- Great pains are now taken with the order to bring refreshments; the door deavored to evade the captain, but the | wardrobe of those "in mourning." It opened wider and the two matronly captain, before going up on the bridge is no longer thought necessary to look to superintend the entrance into Calais like a frump, by way of showing res-"It is the right cabin," said Cathharbor, seemed anxious to be genial to | pect to the memory of the departed. erine. "Come on, Edward; come in the representative of so important a Now the box of dresses sent to the bebank, and offered polite inquiries con- reaved ones are models of style and cerning the health of other couriers of costly simplicity. It is also a fact that Mr. Large sat upon the couch and stared at the three with undisguised the firm, inquiries to which Edward in the woman who finds difficulty in pura low voice returned diplomatic an- chasing a bonnet or hat ready made. astonishment. The muffled-up man kep! his head down and examined the floor of the cabin with an assumption "Well," said Mr. Large, satirically, started. "You've caught a cold. I can with the introduction of a little color the original American five-dollar gold-"I hope you're making yourselves tell it by your voice." "Margaret and her husband would pected on a night like this. Enough is apt to render these chapeaux becominsist on seeing you, and the only plan to give any one a cold. When would ing to the face which is not in its youth.

was for us all to come in here together.' the three cases be taken out of the "Pity there wasn't some other plan." strong room? "Edward, where's that bottle of "Won't have them out till the last

"I was always a strict Band of Hoper | ing amiss would happen to-night.

that a Viceroy tries to catch but can from the flat bottle. Having done better be getting up now. If I don't not, strode down, keeping a severe which, he replaced the flat bottle on see you again, Mr. Large, allow me to eye on the porters who were carrying the table unsteadily and looked around wish you a very happy period of retirethe three elaborately scaled cases. The for a few moments at the three with ment. You've earned it, and you ought to enjoy it. Good night !"

and on deck a few unrolled themselves ly. Then the ordinary passengers with your scarf and try to play your ties containing infallible preventives from seasiekness and wondering how

> We await you always previous to the day of the year." The customs official Mr. Large was placed in a restful po- smiled, and did it rather awkwardly, sition on the couch of the cabin with being a man who did not use himself "By there, if you please, Mr. Larch, "Now do listen, Edward, like a good follow me. How is"- here the custo do. Everything depends on him." Edward said that the baron was "You go up on deck," said Edward's among the middlings. He supposed it wife, in a dictatorial way, "and you- would not be necessary to open the Edward replied briefly that his ears "But yes! How else would it be possible to charge the droits de douane-imitation of a cock crowing at early earry them on shore. Don't forget your little joke. The bank does not send of the pier was passed, and the steamer very friendly with the customs officers friends in Paris. See 21 The officer showed premonitory signs of playing if they say anything to you. You'll had pried open the top of one of the clear them through the customs here, cases. "As ordinary! Boxes of cigars," having punched a fraction out of each ice and fluids from glass to glass, as if ville, Me., sixty years old, was turning "Why, I declare!" exclaimed the mind, so that there shall be no bother cases of bon bons, packages of-ah! the generous baron and his fortunate a batful of these small coins in the crystal like a pair of castanets, until all says the Lewistown evening Journal. friends.

begged to be excused for half a moment among them. Not only do the muti- of time, he flings the mixture through out everybody expects a Maine man of while he went out to speak to a couple lated pieces pass at their face value a strainer into the little glass, which only sixty to be able to turn double of lady friends. With these he held without question, but the islanders apmust be exactly even full; and then handsprings." anxious consultation, and presently the her points by tapping her forelinger on three hurried away from the Gare Mar-

"This," said the lady friends breathacross the uneven ground, "this now, M. Delafon remained in Edward's is what comes of trusting to a man."-

A Funny Finn.

Young Mrs. McBride had had so with you and the three cases. Then on have gone over the verge had the Mc-

"John," she said, one day, "I have hired a new servant. She isn't particularly competent, but of one thing I am certain-she will not be impadent." "She won't!" cried her astonished husband. "How do you know she not know it. She's a Finn, just over, of English."

to her?" he asked, laughing heartily.

"Let me discharge her, of course." "Discharge her!" echoed his wife. 'That's just about as sensible as the average man's suggestion. Discharge her! dollar), and stalked haughtily away, Edward answered that he didn't Discharge that Finn, who knows four know that he'd ever said how d'ye do | words of English!" she sobbed. "What to it as yet, but be that as it might, he good would that do? Why, John, I should not be sorry when he found have discharged her 17 times already, himself on the boulevards. A job like and she thinks I've been telling her to Becoming Mourning.

The girl whose slim and willowy pro which shall be becoming, often finds "I tell you what's wrong with you," something in the "second mourning" gold, and 20 per cent on Spanish gold said the captain, suddenly. Edward case which can be adapted to her wants as compared with silver. Thus, out of or a bunch of flowers. The ruching of piece I bought eight expensive drinks made, and that too, by a lady in this die unless a costly operation was per-Edward asked what else could be ex- soft mousselin on the edge of the brim

QUEER THINGS IN CUBA.

Everyday Life in the Isle of Tomorrow.

From the Philadelphia Record.

days of her reconstructing can bring no better financial prop than American greenbacks; they are so much easier to carry than gold, and the premium on them is the same. If he brings the through one of the island banks, he will find that the cashier's charges for the accommodation are quite in keeping with the Cuban Idea that everything American is lawful prey, to be made the most of. The hotel-keepers still require their pay on the basis of Spanish gold, but will readily allow 6 per cent. on American bills. The local merchants are glad to get our greenbacks at the same rate in exchange for their goods or the coin of the country. cause most of their business is done in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Baltimore on the credit system, and the notes are convenient for transportation without the expense of getting them changed into another form. But the cabmen, porters, servants and others of their class, accustomed to being cheated at every turn by their late rulers, will have nothing to do with any money they do not understand, and insist on the familiar 20 cent pieces of the island, American dimes and nickels, and coppers for small change, or the dirty, beggar-handled, discussnfested shinplasters. If you offer them an American half-dollar, fresh and > and ring it on the sidewalk, if they do not refuse it outright. . THE TRAIL OF PORMER SHARTERS. else why did somebody take the trouble | beats New-York "all hollow" and call to punch it? A great deal of paper for more. scrip, similar to that used in the United States before the resumption of specie payment, circulates in Cuba, but with became soiled or torn we could ex-

One dollar of our silver will purchase at least $2.45 of this scrip, often more, the handle, which is on top. One hole thermometer immediately under the according to the rate of exchange at is perhaps an inch in diameter, through date line of the register. This is the the moment. Though based upon which to pour the water into the jug, duty of the clerk who takes the early nothing, having been issued indiscrim- and the other, in a knob which marks morning watch. Years back, before inately by a bankrupt government, it | the place, is not larger than the hellow | Gotham's centre was a myriad of hoanswers all the local necessities of of a goose quill. It is the old story of tels, thermometers were not so plentitrade, and is always used for carfare the bung and spigot. Filled with water, ful, and nearly all the hotels adopted "I'm sure she won't," replied Mrs. and small transactions. It was ground the jug is hung on a peg or any con-McBride; "and even if she is, I shall out of the paper mill-nobody knows venient projection, in a spot that is condition of the atmosphere; but the to exactly what amount-in 5, 10, 20 and draughty. The currents of air cause Everett is the only one to continue the and she doesn't speak but four words 50 cent "plasters." One thing is well the thick, porous clay to perspire, like practice now. known, that every authorized issue of a patient recovering from "Santiago All the next day Mrs. McBride strug- a given sum was enormously exceeded. fever," and the result is that the water yied with the Finn. She talked herself Soven years ago an issue of bank bills the hearts I've broken one way and as though he were anxious to avoid a hoarse. She would fairly shout her di- of this small currency was entrusted Cuban fashion of drinking is not to caning, and Catherine, who had been rections, but shouts and whispers were to an establishment in the United touch the vessel with the lips, but to alike to the Finn. She simply could States, and $14,000,000 was printed in per on the table with a pin. On it she nos understand. When Mr. McBride addition to the authorized amount! came home at night his wife was again All was duly receipted for and signed trickles down the the throat, describby the corrupt Spanish officials, who- lng a six-inch curve and striking square "Why do you shout so when you talk so the quidnunes say-divided the extra on the root of the tongue. millions among themselves. It is as-"Why? Why, I simply can't make serted that the Captain-General under the fact was once more impressed upon her hear!" cried his wife. "I am so whose administration this financial hoarse I can hardly speak aloud, and I stroke was accomplished came to Cuba am completely worn out. What shall a poor man, and two years later returned to Spain with 3,000,000 pesos to his credit. So thrifty were the proud hidalgos who threw down a dollar when half of it was due (somebody else's sneering at the "Yankee pigs" who waited for their change ! rived countrymen. There were four of us, and each ordered a different beverage. I threw down a five-dollar American goldpiece in payment. The 'smiledispenser' studied long with knitted change, and then handed me back a without delay-unless, as is more com-Spanish five-dollar goldpiece and 49 monly the case, some sub-rosa lover cents in silver. This pleased the group announces himself, or a match, satisso well that I treated again, giving factory to paterfamilias, was arranged back to the saloon-keeper the Spanish for her with the son of a friend while five-dollar goldpiece. This was easier the pair were yet in their cradles. The for him to reckon, and my change for beauty and charm of the fair Cubans the second deal was five silver dollars are as evanement as irresistible while and four cents. Though the price of they last. Like the lovely wild flowers drinks is high in Cuba, it would seem of their island, they mature very early, that there is money to be made in tak- but fade as rapidly. The prettiest girl ing them ad libitum, and the more will be plain before she is thirty, and a liquor one buys the more money he handsome middle aged woman is not rets! To study the thing out it was to be found in Cuba-if anywhere outthis way: There was 2) per cent prem- side the temperate zone. lum on American gold over Spanish and still had $5 80 in silver-and dis-

HOLY DAYS GALORE.

send the things over by the Grande Vi- It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, ance on heavenly personages. Sunday processions, ten-fold activity in shope: | in the smoking-room."

saloons and theatres, and noisy perto a few of the larger cities and certain reunion.

WHOLE NO. 2482.

easons of the year. But the Cuban village must be poor indeed which has One who is visiting Cuba in these not its several cockpits in full blast at linst one day in seven, wherein crowds of men bet their but real on feverile. birds and go wild with excitement over the edifying spectacle of two miserusual letter of credit or draws on home able roostees clawing each other to is in requisition all day long and far operation of the plant is much more into the night on Sundays for gaming economical. cellent American authority for the ror for "filtration." shining from the mint, they will eye it doubtfully, try its edges in their teeth Some sharper of other days seems to ling of a cocktail. Then, with a swing quarters of the city. have flooded Cuba with American sil- ing movement which can be acquired o'The Pisentaquis Observer uses space ver in five and ten cent pieces, after only by long practice, he dashes the to report that 'Gus' Oakes, of Sangerfor his own profit. You may pick up his life depended on it, clicking the handsprings on the streets Saturday," urse of a day's transactions in any is thoroughly amalgamated in the big The amazed and perplexed Edward Cuban city and never find a whole one glass. Then, without losing a second it would have been worth mentioning, pear to place most confidence in the the recipient is expected to dash it coin that has the greatest number of down his threat with the same furious holes in it, as a proof that it is genuine- energy, to smack his lips and say it

> HOW A CUBAN DRINKS WATER. classes, become so loathsome that one it keeps the water cool in a compara- to be invited to participate in the cerewould rather forego his "change" than tively feeless country. There are jugs mony. is rendered cool and wholesome. The open the mouth wide, and, holding the jog up, to tilt it until a tiny stream

COURTING IN CUBA.

Apparently the highest social institution of Cienfuegos is the Sunday evening promenade in the plaza, and without it I really do not know how tertown, Md., was afterward used the young people of the aristocracy would manage to mate and marry. During all the week senoritas of the upper class are kept under rigid restriction, never permitted to walk abroad alone and constantly watched by pa rents and duennas, as if expected to The other day I went into the Cafe rush to the bad if allowed the smallest La Luz to treat some of my newly ar- opportunity. This system of eternal vigilance would doubtless become as irksome to the guardians as to the opening buds were it not so soon over. At the age of thirteen a Cuban girl is considered quite old enough to marry. brow over the knotty problem of and her parents hunt up a son in-law

Discovered by a Woman.

country, "Disease fastened its clutches covered afterward that the barkecper upon her and for seven years she with- boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the had swindled me out of 15 cents stood its severest tests, but her vital surest Pile curs on Earth, and the best In the Cuban calendar there are no she coughed incessantly, and could not Somerset, Pa., and G. W. Brallier's moment," said the captain. "How Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of fewer than 250 "holy days," Sundays sleep. She fluxly discovered a way Drug Store, Berlin, Pa. The silent Edward produced from many years have you been over on New Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four included, in which nobody can be led to recovery, by purchasing of us a boting a silly fool for a little while it the side pocket of his overcoat a large Year's Eve with a little consignment bottles of Electric Bitters has cured gally compelled to labor-neither the flat bottle, and uncorking it, passed it like this? Pretty good number, I know. Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had man servant, nor the maid servant, nor Consumption, and was so much reliev-They'd be disappointed in Paris, I ex- caused her great suffering for years. the ox, nor the ass, nor, perforce, the ed on taking first dose, that she slept The young man recalls divers dam-"I could no more touch spirits," said | Quit: looking forward to it, I expect." head and face, and the best doctors extraordinary deferences to the saints been absolutely cured. Her name is Christmas, then whispers tenderly: Catherine, making a wry face, "than I Edward, agreeing, said that nothing could give no help; but her cure is and angels this ought to be the most Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. wife," she said, "these two and twenty my poor husband, and the mere smell had been connected with the bank, and This shows what thousands have provhe hoped, please goodness, that noth- ed,-that Electric Bitters is the best the early morning the natives employ Drug Store, Som rest, Pa., and G. W. blood purifier known. It's the su- the remainder of their feast days in Brallier's Drog Store, Berlin, Pa. Regas a child," remarked Margaret prim- "Often wondered, Mr. Large," said preme remedy for eczema, tetter, sait bull-baiting, cock-fighting, the lottery, ular size 50c, and 51. Every bottle for a long time thereafter he is slient,-

A printed notice of the Pioneer Club,

Current Topica.

A Japanese paper says that a soldierof gigantic stature and enormous strength recently had the bonor of heing presented to the Emperor. He is private Yamshita, of the Third Regiment of Nagoya field artillery. He enlisted in December last, and is now twenty-two years of age. His muscufar strength is so great that be can carry a field-piece on his shoulders and climb up a mountain where horses are not available. Yamshita regularly receives two men's rations, and his uniforms are made to order.

A movement has been inaugurated to have the first annual reunion of the Rough Riders of the late war held at Et Paso, Texas, because that city furnished a great number of the Riders. Governor Roosevelt has notified exsistency of lottery venders. Bull-fight- Governor Prince, of New Mexico, that ing is as dear to the native heart as he will visit that territory this year, ever, though owing to hard times the and while down in the great Southwest expensive amusement is now confined the effort will be made to hold the

If Keely had had a good thing in the form of an invention he would probably have starved or sold it for a trifle, observes the Boston Traveler. It is deplorable but true that gold bricks find a readier market than genuine goods.

The English shipbuilding firm of Short Bros. has lately made a report on The inveterate gambling propensity the results of a seven years' experiof the people also finds vent in domi- ence of the eight-hour day. Formerly noes, chess, baccarat and a thousand the men began work at 6 o'clock in the other games of chance and skill, in morning, took half an hour for breakwhich women may also indulge in the fast at 8 o'clock, haif an hour at noon privacy of home-and seldom without for dinner, and quit work at 5 o'clock; stakes. The Cuban female goes into but it is said that the day was so long gambling with the same innocent zest that many employes lost much time which distinguishes her sister women from breaking down under the strain. of Northern villages, who find their They now go to work at 7 30 a. m., take highest ambition realized in the "lone- half an hour for dinner, and quit at 5 hand" prize of progressive cuchre. In p. m., and the firm maintains that on this part of the world every table in these shortened hours more work is hotels, barrooms, clubbouses and cases purposes. In these January days it An Oshkosh journal aunounces a leclooks odd enough to eyes fresh from ture "by Dr. Haidekopf, our able health the snowy north to see the marble officer, before the Sanitary Improvefloors of all the finest cafes sprinkled | ment Association, on The Beneficial with dampened sawdust, with a view Effect of Flirtation on the Public to coolness, like Bawery beer halfs in Health." It is reasonable to assume the thirsty days of August. I have ex- that "fliriation" is a typographical er-statement that the Cuban barkeepers A company organized in Montana out-Herod Herod in the matter of has written to the New York Board of manufacturing cocktails with energy | Health asking permission to sell horse and dispatch. The native compounder | meat in that city, promising that the seizes two glasses-one very large and animals to be slaughtered for the marbeaut, the other small and thin, ket would be horses that had never With frantic baste he fills the former been in harness young stock, as wellwith lumps of ice, the latter with the fed as Montana cattle, and "superior to liquors, bitters; sweets and whatever beef." It is believed that many purelse may be required in the compound- chasers would be found in the foreign

Preparations are being made in Northamptonshire, England, to participate in the celebration of the three undredth anniversary of the birth of Oliver Cromwell, which event will occur on Aprill 25 next. One of the ways The funniest thing in the line of in which it is proposed to honor the this important difference: when ours drinking is to see the Cubans imbibe day in Northamptonshire is by a pilwater from a "monkey-jug" or perone. grimage to Naseby battle field, the scena change it for new, while in Cuba there | The vessel, by the way, which is found of Cromwell's greatest triumph. This are no such facilities, and the filthy in every house and hotel bedroom, is a proposal has already been heartily apbi's of paper, handled by lepers and delight to the tereigner, not only by proved in the county town, and many carried about in the rags of the lowest reason of its artistic beanty, but because prominent London free churchmen are > and jugs, of varying shapes and sizes- In the Hotel Everett, one of New all of gray clay, moulded in quaint de- York's oldest hostelries, a custom adoptsign. The commonest are round and ad fifty years back is will in vogue. It slender, with two holes in each near is that of placing the reading of the

The American Packer says that more canning industry in the past four in the United States and Canada was 797,800 cases in 1808. In 1807 it was 4.149.441 cases. In 1808 the pack for the United States was 5,652,349 cases as compared with 3,964,355 for 1897. The total corn pack of the United States and Canada for 180s was 4,298,567 cases. as against 2,908,740 cases in 1897.

The timber of the scaffold on which four murderers were hanged at Chesin building a henhouse on ex Sheriff Plummer's farm. It is a significant fact that while other farmers in the neighborhood have suffered from the lepredations of chicken thieves, Plum-The American Agriculturist estimates hat there are 75,000,000 horses in the world. Of these 38,000,000 are in-Europe, 17,000,000 in North America and 9,000,000 in Asla. The nutles and asses in the world are said to number 3,000,000.0 Women's Ways.

"Penelope and I don't speak."

"What's the trouble " "I got on the street car, thinking I old borrow a nickel from her--' "Well 9" "She had got on, thinking she could borrow a nickel from me.' "Neither of us had any money, so we had to get off and walk."-Detroit Free

He Foeled The Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 Another great discovery has been months from Rectai Fistula, he would organs were undermined and death Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. seemed imminent. For three months Sold at J. N. Snyder's Drug Store,

At His Own Valuation.

pect, if they didn't turn up as usual. Terrible sores would break out on her stranger within the gates. With such all night; and with two bottles, has sels who have refused him since last "May, I am utterly unworthy of "I haven't been his lawful married could fly. I did have a sip when I lost had ever gone wrong all the time he complete and her health is excellent." religious country under the sun; but, C. Hammick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. you," and there is the sob of a lost sout

> "That's precisely what papand mamms think, George," she replies. And Harlem Life. Scald head is an eczema of the scalp

-very severe sometimes, but it can be ing the wooden steps to the Calais his hand, not to each of his visitors, there, your people don't mind spend. N. Snyder's Drug Store, Somerset, every street scene in the best clothes of reads curiously to American club we cared. Donn's Ointment, quick and steamer was stayed for a few moments say that here was a happy New Year ing a little money so long as the thing Pa., and G. W. Brallier's Drug Store, the populace, 'oisterous masquerade men. It is: "Geotlemen are not allow-permanent in its results. At any drug

