the Post rooms at the stated hour. The school children and others are all cordially invited to bring or send flowers to the Post rooms on the morning of the 30th. Let us have an abundance of flowday or two when he saw the Sheriff in ers, so that all veteraus and children may that city. He then made up his mind be supplied. There are many graves to he strewn and many flowers are peeded. The Auditor. One year ago this country was involved in a war with a foreign nation, but in Conemangh township was not taken daughter, Anna Bell Schell. His sister, the returned to the United States in the into the real, and her more than three Mrs. Kantner, and her daughter, now of course of eight or nine weeks and visited tories such as the world never saw or tories, such as the world never saw or heard of; although many of our brave sons gave up their lives in the conflict and now lie buried on foreign shores, or William Weaver and Squire Scott Murentirely of the fact that Town Council phy were invited, and came up from Paint she was unable to hear him talk. But his securing employment. From Ohio they buttled for the right and won: it is they battled for the right and won; it is therefore eminently fitting that we should gather around the secred mounds raised above the departed heroes of past wars and strew them with spring's choicest flowers.
