and I am afraid I have inherited it. I do not feel well; I have a cough; my lungs are sore; am losing flesh. What shall I do?

Your doctor says take care of yourself and take plain cod-liver oil, but you can't take it. Only the strong, healthy person can take it, and it can't take it. It is so rich it upsets the stomach. But you can take

SCOTT'S EMULSION

It is very palatable and easily digested. If you will take plenty of fresh air, and exercise, and SCOTT'S EMULSION steadily, there is very little doubt about your recovery.

There are hypophosphites in it; they give strength and tone up the nervous system while the cod-liver oil feeds and nourishes.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

The family circle, in this modern age, is no longer confined to the immediate neighborhood. The wireless telegraph has opened up a new world of communication.

STORY OF A CORK LEG.

The love of sport is ingrained in him; it has been the same with all my kith and kin for generations past. So when I received from my old school chum, Tom Mital, an invitation to shoot with him on the 1st of September, I lost no time in dropping him a line of acceptance.

Great Age of Birds.

It is only possible to present to collect data from the duration of lives of birds in captivity; evidence otherwise must be very unreliable, and it is purely a matter of theory as to whether the natural possible life is greater than that under the unnatural condition of captivity.

Her Papa First.

Only a year old is pretty Helen Syl via Gordon, but still she did what all heroes have done—thought more of others in time of danger than of herself. Her father's ship was wrecked several weeks ago, and for nine days floated about helpless upon the sea.

The Pop and His Beard.

A torpor college in Kansas has been closed by a sheriff to satisfy a claim against the president for $200. The president probably thought that, with the present title of 'prosperity,' all the Populists in the State would be shaved and that the barber business would boom.

A Frigid Bladder.

Will often cause a horrible Bore, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood, strengthen nerves and build up your health.

From West Point Student to Chief of Indian Tribe.

"Bison" McLean was one of the most remarkable cadets of the class of '46 at West Point, if one of the dullest. The name "Bison" was bestowed upon him by no less a personage than George R. McCallan.

Harmony in the Family.

Harmony in the married state is the first thing to be striven for. Nothing can preserve the affection unimpaired but firm resolution never to differ in will and a determination in each to consider the love of the other of more value than any object whatever on which the wish had been fixed.

Richest Nation in the World.

Those who remember the vigorous demands made by numerous speakers in the last presidential campaign in favor of increasing the amount of money in circulation will be interested in the official statement that during the last twenty years the amount of circulating medium in the United States has more than doubled.

Pointed Paragraphs.

No man ever lived who improved half of his opportunities.

Stalled by Flies.

On the Lehigh Valley road in May a heavily loaded freight train was stalled near Homets Ferry, Pa., by swarms of shad flies which alighted upon the rails.

Scared by a Big Bear.

The spectacle of a 300-pound bear walking nonchalantly down No. 1 track at Allentown tower nearly scared Operator John McGrall and Switchman Frank Harkins to death one evening last week.

Two Turkeys from One Egg.

Several weeks ago Mr. Joseph Griffin, of Munster township, placed five turkey eggs under setting pen. One day last week when it was about time for the appearance of some young turkeys he examined the nest and found three turkeys and two eggs, one of the latter being picked and the young bird about ready to make its appearance.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mr. R. P. O'Leary, of Barcelona, Spain, sends his waters at Alken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain soon left him.

A Narrow Escape.

The thankful words written by Mrs. Aden Hart, Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones there. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took it in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. N. Snyder's Drug Store, Somerset, Pa., and G. W. Brallier's Drug Store, Berlin, Pa.

FARM NEWS AND VIEWS.

Thick Seeding of Corn for Fodder.

The thick seeding of corn grown for corn fodder gives more fiber, or rather protein, than when corn is thin in the rows. According to experiments, the smaller the ears on corn fodder drilled for the purpose of growing a crop for fodder the richer the fodder in protein. A Minnesota experimenter found that with corn drilled so thickly as to prevent formation of large ears he obtained 215 pounds of protein, while from corn not so thickly he obtained 175 pounds. More dry matter and less water, with a corresponding increase in protein, is obtained by having the corn thick in the drills. It was found that corn planted in hills gave 23,800 pounds of green fodder per acre, 5300 pounds of dry matter and 382 pounds of protein. The amount of dry matter and protein was increased by single and double drilling and broadcasting. Southern corn, drilled with one seed every two inches in rows 44 inches apart, in June, produced 38,000 pounds of fodder per acre, which contained 841 pounds of dry matter, the protein being 647 pounds. The growing of a crop of fodder corn when the seed is sown thickly is not out of place even when the hay crop is good, as such fodder can be produced at as little cost as any, and it is always highly relished by all classes of stock. It may also be grown late in the season, as it can be cut at any time necessary.

It is estimated that 50 cents should cover the cost of a barrel of apples from tree to market. If this estimate is correct, it is given by an experienced grower—there is a profit in apples if proper selection of varieties is made. The trees should be picked over and the fruit thinned out when the trees are overladen, and when marketing the fruit only the best should be shipped.

The farm appears to be the opening for laborers and workmen in the cities are sometimes advised to seek work in the country. The fact is that good farm hands are not numerous, and the man from the city would be entirely out of place, causing more loss by mistakes than his services would be worth. Intelligent, capable farm help is what is required. Ordinary laborers can be easily secured without looking to the cities for such.

Pie Crust Without Butter.

To make a tender but not too rich a crust take one cup of flour and one heaping tablespoon of lard. Chop the lard into the flour with a thin-bladed knife, add a pinch of salt and enough cold water to make a smooth paste. Handle lightly, mixing the ingredients with the knife and not the fingers. One and one-half cups of flour, other ingredients in proportion, will make the crust for a pie. Handle lightly, mix the ingredients with the knife and not the fingers. A Big Rattler.

Mrs. Morris Lewis, aged 70 years, was visiting her sister, Mrs. A. C. Goodwin, in Rich Valley, on Monday last, and hearing an unusual noise under the window at the west side of the house, began to investigate, and discovered a big snake with nine rattles, which he was making sign for all they were worth. A spring calf stood within four feet of the reptile, apparently unconscious of its danger, but it had undoubtedly annoyed the snake, as there was quite a trail of mucus on the ground nearby, and his snakishness no doubt was longing to make a meal on one or two of them. But Mrs. Lewis, who seems to be possessed of more nerve than her younger sister, Mrs. Goodwin, soon dispatched his snakishness, and Mayor W. H. Howard was hauling it to town when it was last seen by the writer, presumably to give it a suitable burial.—East Emporium Independent.

Clergy and Cremation.

Many prominent British clergymen are considering an addition to the Episcopal Prayer Book, providing for cremation. Other clergymen oppose any such recognition of cremation by fire, and advocate interment in dry earth in a wicker basket, or without any coffin, awaiting that under the sky any evil effect to the living, and without any of the offensive accompaniments on which the cremationists rely for their strongest support.
