Delaware's Representative Says Sentiment Has Changed in Quay's Favor.

Evidence Multiplies That Many Who Failed to Support the Caucus Nominee For United States Senator Are Now Ready to Do Sc.

Philadelphia, July 18 .- A bomb was thrown into the camp of the Republi-can insurgents of Pennsylvania during the past week, and its explosion has commonwealth. Representative Ward R. Bliss, of Delaware, in an authorized public statement, declared that the legslature should be reconvened, and hat Colonel Quay would then be reelected to the United States senate. Bliss was admittedly the most adroit and aggressive fighter on the insurgent house, once to denounce General Gobin, the presiding officer of the joint assembly, and the other to arraign Speaker Farr. These spectacular demonstrations, if they accomplished nothing more, helped to add fuel to the fires of factional politics, which the insurgent leaders sought to build up in the hope of bringing about a withdrawal of the regular Republican caucus nominee for United States senator "in the interest of party harmony,"

BLISS SHOCKS THE BOLTERS. "It is my opinion," said Representa tive Bliss, "that if the governor calls special session of the legislature for the purpose of electing a United States senator Colonel Quay would be reelected. His trial and acquittal entitles him to such a vindication, and it s my opinion that he will receive at. I opposed Senator Quay because my constituents, the people of Delaware county, did not want me to vote for an indicted candidate for United States It was not a question of Quayism, but one of political propriety. Quay has now been vindicated, and in Delaware county there has been a strong revulsion of opinion. The peo-ple now desire that he he returned to the United States senate by the legislature of his state."

"Would you vote for Quay if a special session was called?" Mr. Bliss was

"It would not be a question of personal preference, but one of the wil of my constituents; they want Quay and I would vote as they direct." "Do you think that, in the event of special session. Still of the July Clearance.

It is a little short of marvelous how trade is keeping up lu July, generally recognized as a duli month. In all our fifty years experience we have never had such an unprecedentedly large July trade such an unprecedentedly large July tra as we are now enjoying.

There are two prime factors the can of this—every family has plenty of mo ey and we are naming lower prices if the high class goods that this store ways carries than in any former seas knew how, in reducing prices, merely take off a few cents here and there on some goods that they have had for a long while, commonly known as "stickers," and then londly announce a grand reluction, with the accent on the grand.

Here prices are but mere shadows of ormer prices. In many cases they are nere shadows of the first cost of the ar goods must be closed outquickly without regard to price.

Write us for anything you may want and the chances are you will get it for half and less of fermer prices.
Samples will be sent, but it is not desirable to ask for them because you run the risk of finding the lines closed when your order comes back.
Prices in this July Clean-Up something like the following: ke the following: $4.50 and $5.00 Pancy Taffeta Parasols, some chiffon trimmed, at $1.50 each. $2.50 and $15.00 black, blue and tan Cloth Jackets at $5.00 each. $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 Black Silk Grena-dines at $1.00 a yard.
