THROWING DUST.

Insurgent Orators Chastised at Paines, Reunions, and Social Gatherings.

SIGNIFICANT POLITICAL MOVES.

The unknown agitator who, after spending a season in this place, wrote, "Somerset has more politics to the square inch than any other county in Pennsylvania," had perhaps a nice discernment that many local statesmen are willing to admit.

It is not impossible that the keen-sighted observer had noticed that the smoke of political battle rarely rises above our fertile and productive hills, and that the opposing forces hardly complete one campaign until bullets are being molded for the next one.

The insurgents, aping the example set by their brethren in Philadelphia before the outbreak in Luzon, have been masquerading as "amateurs," friends of the Republican party, ever since the last primary, when they were given such a stinging rebuke as rarely has been administered to men claiming to represent the honest sentiments of a constituency such as Somerset county.

A GARRETT COUNTERFEITER.

Pleaded Guilty and Asked to be Punished at Once.

Cyrus F. Miller, who was arrested on Monday last week by federal officers on a charge of counterfeiting, was brought to court yesterday.

THE HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH.

The secret dossier between the Insurgents and the Democrats will never be made known.

THE ELECTION WILL BE HELD THIS YEAR.

On Tuesday, November 7, the law requires that all citizens should be registered sixty days before the date in order to make them eligible to vote.

ALL THE SUMMARIES OF THE WORLD'S CROP CONDITIONS.

made by foreign experts show that Europe's grain yield will be below the average, and that of the United States above the average.

GENERAL BECKNER IS PROBABLY CORRECT.

In his declaration that the honest money Democrats will never consent to be merged with the corrupt money Democrats, he is probably correct.

LINCOLN CLUB MEETS.

And Elects Officers and Delegates to the State League Convention.

At a meeting of the Lincoln Republican Club Saturday evening the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: President, Geo. R. Sull; Vice President, J. C. Lowry; Secretary, L. C. Colburn; Treasurer, H. M. Beckley.

The following delegates and alternates were selected to represent the Club at the State Convention to be held in Harrisburg this month: Delegates, John C. Miller, J. P. McAllister, John S. Shaffer, Alternates, James Seeliger, James L. Winters, L. C. Colburn.

Resolutions were adopted endorsing the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention and requesting the State Convention to take up the question of the county ticket and pledging both the earnest and active support of the members of the club.

On motion the president was authorized to appoint a committee to arrange for a grand mass-meeting of the Republicans of the county, and to invite Col. James E. Barnett, candidate for State Treasurer, and Hon. John P. Ekin, Attorney General of the State, to address the meeting, the time to be fixed to suit the convenience of the distinguished speakers.

After the transaction of some other routine business the meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

Members of the club desiring to attend the State Convention at Harrisburg are requested to communicate with Secretary L. C. Colburn, at the State League Convention in regard to railroad fares, hotel rates, etc.

POLITICIANS MUST GO TO THE REAR.

So Say the Enthusiastic Young Soldiers Who Want to Run Barnett's Campaign.

THEY PLAN A NOVEL GANNAWS.

Want Pennsylvania to Give the Lieutenant Colonel of the "Fighting Tenth" as Great a Greeting as New York Gave the Roosevelt's Campaigners.

(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, Sept. 5.—If the enthusiastic young soldiers of the Spanish-American war and the Filipino insurrection are to have their way the policy must be to stop the reins and let them run the Republican campaign in Pennsylvania this fall. The nomination of Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett, of the "fighting Tenth Pennsylvania regiment, seems to be the most judicious and successful course ever captured.

Since he was incarcerated in Riverside eight years ago, most of his time was spent in the penitentiary, and sometimes treacherous condition. There is much uncertainty about Wilson being insane.

Wilson, although 65 years of age, has the appearance of a man 20 years his junior. Since he was incarcerated in Riverside eight years ago, most of his time was spent in the penitentiary, and sometimes treacherous condition.

Wilson, unlike the rest of crooks, had the operation single-handed, this being the reason why he was so successful and so difficult to capture.

Money for the New Navy.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 31.—Estimates submitted to the Secretary of the Navy for the requirements of the naval service for the fiscal year 1899-1900, amounting to $18,000,000, were approved by the President.

BARNETT CORDIALLY RECEIVED.

Throughout the various receptions tendered the "Fighting Tenth" in the town of western Pennsylvania Barnett was an object of special interest.

NEW ITEMS.

York County is one hundred and fifty years old and preparations are being made to celebrate the sesqui-centennial by a jubilee beginning Sunday, September 10.

SOLDIERS TAKE A HAND.

Modest as he is, brave, Barnett has made many friends in the county, and when he is called upon to visit county after county in the coming canvass he will be assured of generous receptions.
