GREAT PREACHER GONE.

The HERALD is indebted to Mr. E. E. Heiple, of Washington, Ill., for a newspaper account of the memorial services held at Chicago Lawn, September 17th. in honor of the late Rev. Uriah Eberhart, a native of Westmoreland county, and one of the pioneer preachers of the Methodist Church. This ploneer preacher was like John Wesley in his intense carnestness, eloquence and command over his audiences, and in West Virginia and Pennsylvania forty years ago the country hear him. He preached frequently in this county, and there are some people still living here who recall the wonderful influence he exerted. Among other things said by Dr. H. W. Thomas, a na-

the following: "The vast crowds waited expectantly, and when he arose all was slience and at tention. He announced his text; his opening words were slow, and in a low, pure tone, but far reaching. The sermon was orderly, logical, instructive, both in thought and emotion-inspirational, it should be called, the interest and feelings of the audience rising with those of the preacher until in the great climaxes, outbursts of eloquence, thousands were melted into tears or carried into raptures of joy, and so completely under his power as to be awayed by the motion of his hand. The strong, melodious voice and the free flow of thoughts and words had much to do in producing these wonderful offects, but the real power was in the deep sincerity and earnestness of the man; his great soul, heart of love, baptized, filled with the love and power of God, was poured out upon the people.
