

The Somerset Herald.

EDWARD SCHELL, Editor and Proprietor.

WEDNESDAY, November 8, 1900.

Did you hear anything drop? THE MAN with a hard row to hoe—"Farmer" Cressy.

The battle of 1900 is on. Push the fighting, Republicans.

SOMERSET COUNTY Republicans were on the firing-line yesterday.

The character assassins will now go behind the bush and kick themselves for having been so contemptible fools.

All the talk about Barnett's feet being "cold" didn't prevent his "getting there" with both of them.

Was the Republican meeting Congressional Throop called to address called off on account of "frost?"

The "McKinley League" should rally. Their platform has been adopted. "A State Treasurer who owns himself" has been elected.

AGUINALDO and his dark-skinned followers will derive poor consolation from a perusal of the returns of yesterday's elections throughout the county.

BEY FRANKLIN left $5,000 to Bason in 1790 to be compounded for a century, and the money now amounts to $366,000 cash in hand. This form of benevolence is worth more attention.

EMPHATIC hostilities opposed General White wrote to friends that he had troops enough not only to hold Natal, but to end the war. The extent to which he underrated the task before him is surprising.

IN THE last fiscal year 311,715 emigrants arrived in this country and carried to the immigration officers $5,414,462 in cash. About 20 per cent were illiterate, an improvement over some former years.

WHEN all the truth comes out in regard to the despotic methods used to defeat some of the candidates for Republican county ticket at yesterday's election, an ugly chapter will be added to the history of party dissoluty.

IT is stated that Sir Redvers Buller, the British commander in South Africa, on leaving England, announced his intention of taking his Christmas dinner in Pretoria.

THE "well-to-do" who were prompted by generous impulses to visit various points in the county at the invitation of the Republican county ticket at yesterday's election, an ugly chapter will be added to the history of party dissoluty.

IN THE States where elections were held yesterday the Republicans were successful in Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Massachusetts, Iowa, New Jersey and Kentucky. The Democrats elected a Governor in Maryland, defeating Governor Lowrads for reelection, and carried Mississippi and Virginia. In Nebraska, Mr. Bryan's State, the fastidists repeated their victory of last year. The elections passed off quietly everywhere except in Kentucky, where the Governor was forced to call out the militia in order to insure a fair count.

ANUALLY, in his proclamation, is content in saying that Congress will meet in a few weeks, but is wrong in his intimation that Congress will veto what he and his Democratic friends call the "imperialist" policy. Aguinaldo's mistake is natural. Some one of his allies has probably told him the Republican plurality in the House will be only fourteen or fifteen, and this has given him hope that Congress will order the withdrawal of the American troops, so as to allow him to massacre all the American civilians whom he would find in Manila and other parts of the islands. Before Congress is in session many days, however, the rebel chief will learn that his allies are powerless to help him.

DAFTARDLY TRICK. Malicious and Untruthful Circular Sent Out for the Purpose of "Killing" Republican Ticket.

If anything further was needed to satisfy the honest Republican voters of the county that traitors were at work in the party ranks during the campaign just closed, we think they found it in the following circular, which was sent out from this town last Friday:

DEAR SIR: It is now apparent that the Quay-Scull ring in this county is acting in open antagonism to the Republican party and its organization. This county is anti-Quay as well as anti-Scull. The anti-Quay members of the State Legislature.

Now that we have the organization, State Chairman Redner refuses to recognize our Chairman and the Scull renegade refuses to pay to Chairman Berkeley their campaign assessments.

In order, therefore, to prevent Quay again occupying a State Treasurer, and keeping the Sculls out of the county offices for three years, thus depriving the people of the county printing, and defeating men who will not, upon nomination, pay their election expenses, we have decided to ask our friends to take the following action:

Do not vote in the circle above the Republican column, but place a X behind the names of Mitchell, Brown, Barnard, Moser, Schrock and Liverpool, as well as any other names of the commissioners, in order to defeat Scull's nomination on the ticket.

By so doing you will show yourself to be a patriotic friend of a partisan.

It will be impossible for us to reach all our friends in your district. Will you acquaint them of our views?

Very truly yours,

INDEPENDENT COMMITTEE.

We may have occasion to comment on this nefarious piece of work in a future issue.

Winter Excursion Tickets on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

On November 1 the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will place on sale at its principal ticket excursion tickets to all prominent winter resorts in New Jersey, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Cuba. The tickets will be sold at the usual low rates, with the usual liberal return limits.

The magnificent facilities of the Pennsylvania Railroad, with its many connections and through train services, make this the favorite line for winter travel.

An illustrated book, descriptive of winter resorts, and giving routes of travel and rates for tickets, will be furnished free upon request. Write for it before November 15 on application to ticket agents.

ADMINISTRATION ENDORSED.

Sweeping Republican Victories.

THE "OLD MAN" GOES FISHING.

AND THE YOUNG MEN GO TO THE VOTE.

THE HEAD OF THE TICKET RECEIVED THE NEWS IN PITTSBURG, WITH ATTORNEY GENERAL ELLIOTT-LATTER CLAIMED A PLURALITY OF 125,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Estimates from all of the counties in the State indicate Barnett's (Rep.) plurality over Cressy (Dem.) to be 125,000. In some counties the estimates were necessarily based on meagre information and complete returns may change the result.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Returns from about one-half of the 67 counties in the State indicate that the vote was the lightest poll in years. Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett, the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, was elected by a margin of 125,000.

In the State the following ticket was elected: State Treasurer, James E. Barnett, Rep.; Supreme Court Judges, J. Hay Brown, Rep.; Leslie M. Mastrean, Dem.; Superior Court Judge, John L. Mitchell, Rep. There were 200,000 votes cast in the supreme court and each party elects one judge.

Complete returns from the 40 wards in this city give Barnett, Republican, as county treasurer, a plurality over Cressy, Democrat, of 60,000. The Republican candidate in 1895, and a plurality of 70,000 for Benson, Republican, in 1897. The total vote cast was 158,585 in 1895 and 145,947 in 1897.

Republican State Chairman Redner said: "Colonel Barnett's majority in the State will be 140,000. The majority in Allegheny will be about 20,000 and in the State, exclusive of Philadelphia and Allegheny, about 50,000. The other counties will vote about 100,000 for Barnett, as the opposition within our own party has been concentrated upon Colonel Barnett."

In an interview Senator Penrose said: "It seems to be a staunch Republican endorsement of the national administration. We are all gratified at the splendid endorsement of Colonel Barnett."

In a number of places the inspectors were refused recognition and Governor Bradley's order for troops and for the election of the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket appeared and demanded admittance to watch the count.

This was done under a mandatory injunction issued by Judge Toney of the circuit court, shortly before the election of the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

In a number of places the inspectors were refused recognition and Governor Bradley's order for troops and for the election of the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket appeared and demanded admittance to watch the count.

The men were ready, and within a few minutes began to form about the army. Belts were loaded up with cartridges and every man had his bayonet fixed.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET WON BY OVER 100,000.

THE "OLD MAN" GOES FISHING.

AND THE YOUNG MEN GO TO THE VOTE.

THE HEAD OF THE TICKET RECEIVED THE NEWS IN PITTSBURG, WITH ATTORNEY GENERAL ELLIOTT-LATTER CLAIMED A PLURALITY OF 125,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Estimates from all of the counties in the State indicate Barnett's (Rep.) plurality over Cressy (Dem.) to be 125,000. In some counties the estimates were necessarily based on meagre information and complete returns may change the result.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Returns from about one-half of the 67 counties in the State indicate that the vote was the lightest poll in years. Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett, the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, was elected by a margin of 125,000.

In the State the following ticket was elected: State Treasurer, James E. Barnett, Rep.; Supreme Court Judges, J. Hay Brown, Rep.; Leslie M. Mastrean, Dem.; Superior Court Judge, John L. Mitchell, Rep. There were 200,000 votes cast in the supreme court and each party elects one judge.

Complete returns from the 40 wards in this city give Barnett, Republican, as county treasurer, a plurality over Cressy, Democrat, of 60,000. The Republican candidate in 1895, and a plurality of 70,000 for Benson, Republican, in 1897. The total vote cast was 158,585 in 1895 and 145,947 in 1897.

Republican State Chairman Redner said: "Colonel Barnett's majority in the State will be 140,000. The majority in Allegheny will be about 20,000 and in the State, exclusive of Philadelphia and Allegheny, about 50,000. The other counties will vote about 100,000 for Barnett, as the opposition within our own party has been concentrated upon Colonel Barnett."

In an interview Senator Penrose said: "It seems to be a staunch Republican endorsement of the national administration. We are all gratified at the splendid endorsement of Colonel Barnett."

In a number of places the inspectors were refused recognition and Governor Bradley's order for troops and for the election of the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket appeared and demanded admittance to watch the count.

This was done under a mandatory injunction issued by Judge Toney of the circuit court, shortly before the election of the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

In a number of places the inspectors were refused recognition and Governor Bradley's order for troops and for the election of the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket appeared and demanded admittance to watch the count.

The men were ready, and within a few minutes began to form about the army. Belts were loaded up with cartridges and every man had his bayonet fixed.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

Colonel Mengel, who was in uniform for the first time since he was elected, was in readiness for a call, as assumed command. As soon as the order became known Sheriff Bell hastened to the armory and armed a squad of men calling out of the troops on the ground that there had been no disorder and no trouble of any kind.

Judge Toney had not made any representations to the city authorities and officers of election from interfering with the Brown ticket. About the middle of the afternoon the inspectors secured a similar order for their inspectors on representations that they were entitled to the same protection.

MAJORITY IN OHIO.

Elected Governor by Over 37,000 Plurality.

JONES HAD ABOUT 100,000 VOTES.

IT SEEMS TO HAVE COME LARGELY FROM THE DEMOCRATIC RANKS—REPUBLICANS ALSO HAVE A MAJORITY OF THE LEGISLATURE—MILL SUCCEEDS DANFORD.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The returns showed that the Democratic gain in Ohio, Cleveland and Toledo was a net gain of 37,000 votes. Jones had about 100,000 votes. It seems to have come largely from the Democratic ranks—Republicans also have a majority of the legislature—Mill succeeds Danford.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The returns showed that the Democratic gain in Ohio, Cleveland and Toledo was a net gain of 37,000 votes. Jones had about 100,000 votes. It seems to have come largely from the Democratic ranks—Republicans also have a majority of the legislature—Mill succeeds Danford.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The returns showed that the Democratic gain in Ohio, Cleveland and Toledo was a net gain of 37,000 votes. Jones had about 100,000 votes. It seems to have come largely from the Democratic ranks—Republicans also have a majority of the legislature—Mill succeeds Danford.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The returns showed that the Democratic gain in Ohio, Cleveland and Toledo was a net gain of 37,000 votes. Jones had about 100,000 votes. It seems to have come largely from the Democratic ranks—Republicans also have a majority of the legislature—Mill succeeds Danford.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The returns showed that the Democratic gain in Ohio, Cleveland and Toledo was a net gain of 37,000 votes. Jones had about 100,000 votes. It seems to have come largely from the Democratic ranks—Republicans also have a majority of the legislature—Mill succeeds Danford.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The returns showed that the Democratic gain in Ohio, Cleveland and Toledo was a net gain of 37,000 votes. Jones had about 100,000 votes. It seems to have come largely from the Democratic ranks—Republicans also have a majority of the legislature—Mill succeeds Danford.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The returns showed that the Democratic gain in Ohio, Cleveland and Toledo was a net gain of 37,000 votes. Jones had about 100,000 votes. It seems to have come largely from the Democratic ranks—Republicans also have a majority of the legislature—Mill succeeds Danford.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The returns showed that the Democratic gain in Ohio, Cleveland and Toledo was a net gain of 37,000 votes. Jones had about 100,000 votes. It seems to have come largely from the Democratic ranks—Republicans also have a majority of the legislature—Mill succeeds Danford.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The returns showed that the Democratic gain in