Democratic and Insurgent Combine Working Against Quay.

EYES ARE ON WASHINGTON.

The National Democratic Committee Seeking to Prevent the Seating of the Beaver Statesman Upon Gover-

nent Pennsylvanians who were in Washington last week are in this city and have intersting stories about the Quay case before the United States Developments in the political situa-

has been entered into between the Flinn-Martin Republican insurgents leader. The hour of victory will be the and the Guffey Democracy of Pennsylvania upon the issue of the election a United States senator. It is quite lifest that rather than see Colonel Quay in the United States senate the Flinn-Martins would help elect a Bry anite of the type of Colonel Guffey from this stalwart Republican comawealth. So vindictive are these men that they do not hesitate to hold conferences with the Democratic leaders and have it heralded to the world that they are working in harmony. As they did here during the fight in the legislature over the election of a United States senator, these men are cooperating to have the United States senate reject the appointment of Colo

> HIGH PRICED LAWYERSENGAGED The Flinn-Martin-Wanamaker combine, with unlimited money at their command, have retained a corps of lawyers to appear before the senate committee and argue against the seating of Colonel Quay. Among these high priced lawyers is a former mem ber of the United States senate, Edmunds, of Vermont, who has been livwho has not hestiated to take a fee from any side of any controversy a fighting Quay. What the size of his retaining fee was has not been made public, but he has the reputation of not working for nothing. It is possibly quite as well that the money goes to > him, rather than be used to further de bauch the elections in this state. Now the queer part of Edmunds' paripation in this case is the fact that he is on record as arguing and voting in favor of seating appointees of governors when state legislatures failed to elect or when a vacancy occurred during a recess of a legislature. The journal of congress has column after olumn of his speeches advocating the recognition of appointees of gover He now accepts the fee of the Flinn-Martin-Wanamaker Insurgent and is booked to make the effort of his life in contradicting everything he said before upon this subject.

But this is lawyer like, and Edmunds is not to blame. And then he ought to make enough out of the game to put coal in his celas well help to burn it as anybody

At least that's what Edmunds no doubt thinks. Ex-Senator Edmunds has been sub jected to a broadside a raillery since he has been in Washington. One sen ator suggested that Edmunds' speech in favor of the seating of Henry W. Blair, of New Hampshire, who was appointed by the governor, under exactly similar circumstances as exist in the Quay case, be printed in parallel columns with any speech Edmunds may now make against Quay. "My only connection with this case, admitted Edmunds to a friend, "is that of counsel for the opposition to Colo-nel Quay, and I propose to reserve my remarks until I shall appear before the committee." GUFFEY CHIPS IN, TOO. Along with the monied men of the insurgent outfit, Guffey, who is several times a millionaire, has been spend ing cash freely during the last year to defeat Quay and have himself elect ed as United States senator. Guffey spent thousands of dollars trying to elect Jenks governor and many thousands more is help elect Democratic members of the legislature and to keep them in line when they were elected. He is now at work to get the Democratic United States senators from voting for the seating of Quay. He has enlisted the active co-operation of Senator Jones, of Arkansas, who is chairman of the Democratic national committee, to line up the Democratic senators. He is using the argument that party in Pennsylvania to keep Quay out of the senate, as it will encouthe Democratic voters to make an effort to elect a Democratic legislature in Pennsylvania next fall which would send Guffey to Washington to join the other wealthy men in the senate, as some years ago. It is said that Guffey was always envious of Brice, and he long ago declared that it was the ambition of his life to occupy a seat in the senate chamber at Washington. The argument is advanced that if Quay shall be seated the Pennsylvania insurgents will be greatly discouraged and they will be unable to carry out the deals in contemplation with the Democrats for fusion tickets to defeat regularly nominated Republican candidates for the legislature next fall This is the situation as presented to the Democratic United States senators who are being urged in the cause of Democracy to vote against the seating of Quay. Through Chairman Jones the influence of the Democratic national committee is working against Quay.

PENROSE GETTING READY. Senator Penrose had little to say or publication as to his plans, but h. is known that he has in mind a speech which will fully disclose the inside workings of the political conspiracy which inspired and has continued the fight against both himself and Colonel Quay. The startling bribers scandals which followed the attempts to influence members of the legislature to violate their pledges to vote for Penrose for United States senator when he and Wanamaker were the consoleuous aspirants for that honor, and the despicable methods resorted to in the campaign against Colonel Quay's reelection, show the inside history of the famous conspiracy which resulted in the arrest of Colonel Quay, and his subsequent acquittal after the tria had been prolonged until after the adjournment of the legislature, the attempt at intimidation of supporters of Colonel Quay at the recent session of the legislature, and the misrepresentations and abuse of Republicans who stood by the caucus nominee by a subsidized and virulent press, and othe things that will throw some light upon the character and the methods of the men who are in the conspiracy to drive Colonel Quay out of politics, will all come in for a share of attention from the brilliant young Pennsylvania senator, if he carries out what is at pres-

There is likely to be some fur fly fore this issue shall be decided. The law in the case has been carefully reviewed by Attorney General John P. We all know there are many persons cround us who are insured, but the exent of that insurance few realize. There s to-day $12,000,000,000 insurance in force broughout the whole United States, which is more than twelve times the amount of the interest bearing debt of the United States, and more than $300,000,000 tre annually paid out to beneficiaries.

According to the state ments of several of the ship's officers and erew, Logan had a big brindle buildog, and one day it attacked the masont of Company A. This dog was highly prized as he had been all through the Spanist American war with the regiment, and had been dubbed "San Aptone Sam" The masent's good luck stuck to him for he succeeded in whipping Logan's dog. The fight is said to have occurre on the forward part of the upper deck in the presence of a large crowd of soldier and saffors. So incensed did Major Lo gan become that he ordered a sentry t throw Sam overboard and the order was executed. From that time the animosity which had been felt toward Major Logar whose manner was thought by some to have been overbearing, grew into the bitterest resentment. A New York Physician Advises His Patient to Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

" DEAR MRS. PINGHAM-I have three children and suffered with falling of the womb and flooding. My physician scraped the womb, still the flooding continued and I was no better. At last he advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Then I thought I would write to Mrs. Pinkham for she could advise me better than any one if I was to take her remedies. I received her reply and followed all her directions and I am very glad to send you this testimonial, for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is just what it is recommended to be. I advise all women who suffer from these complaints to try it."-MARIE LEMP, 108 2D AVE., NEW YORK CITY.

"A year ago I was a great sufferer from painful menstruction. I could not lie down or sit down for the dreadful pain each month. I wrote to you and took twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has helped me so I cannot find words to express my gratitude toward Mrs. Pinkham. I am to-day well and hearty."-Miss Joie Saul, Dover, CLARE CO., MICH.
