

EDWARD SCULL, Editor and Proprietor. WEDNESDAY, January 21, 1903.

1,500 DEAD BRITISH SOLDIERS LEFT ON BLOODY BATTLEFIELD.

Capture 150 British Soldiers on Spion Kop. BORN HEAD LAMBS, Lady Smith Jan. 24, 6 p.m.—The British dead left on the battlefield yesterday numbered 1,500.

It was a great thing for Senator Quay who has contracted the habit of looking pleasant, whether the plum-tree blooms or not.

SENATOR PETTIGREW says he has no doubts of the success of the reports as to the success of the Spion Kop.

DEBATING societies that tackle the relative merits of expectation and realization have an interesting subject in the British experience with Spion K. P.

AN orator Bryan strikes an occasional front in the enemy's country. When he presents himself as a candidate next November he will run against another glacial epoch.

A DECISION by Judge Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, incidentally holds that the new century begins January 1 next. This exhausts the legal aspects of the case.

SOUTHERN expansion sentiment has grown to such an extent that Mr. Bryan thinks it advisable to begin trimming. But a Southerner who looks for a real expansive policy in that quarter is not familiar with the Bryan record on the Philippines.

BRIGHTON H. ROBERTS, the polygamist who was elected to Congress from Utah, was refused his seat by the House of Representatives on Thursday.

The matter was argued for several days, some twenty speeches having been made, and Mr. Roberts was allowed to plead in his own behalf in a talk of an hour and a half in length.

The final vote on the question of allowing him to take his seat resulted 238 against, and 99 in favor, and Mr. Roberts is again back in private life.

SOMERSET COUNTY can be depended upon to send two Republicans to the Legislature this year who will vote for the caucus nominee for United States Senator, whoever he may be.

They are firm believers in the principle of majority rule, and are determined to wipe out the blot placed upon their reputation in this respect by the individuals who so willfully misrepresented them in the last Legislature.

The insurgent cause was never popular in Somerset county, and it is certainly less so today than ever before.

"I HAVE not found a man yet who was for silver in 1896 who is not for it now," says Bryan. "What about Sibley, of Pennsylvania?"

Not strong for silver in 1896 that many persons at the time thought that he ought to have been on the ticket with Bryan.

Lots of other old time Bryanites are against him now. For a man who is, in the interest of his candidacy, continually on the wing, Bryan is very little that is going on in politics.

"We are checked at every point of the campaign. In fact, the campaign will begin to begin. We will see a good deal of the same old thing that we have seen before."

Now Congressman Sibley launches forth as a political prophet and predicts that Senator Quay will be seated and will have votes to spare.

He says he has personal knowledge of a number of Democratic Senators who will vote in favor of seating Quay, and that for every Republican who votes in the negative there will be a Democrat who will vote in the affirmative.

He also asserts that a number of Democrats will speak in favor of seating Quay when the question is debated.

Senator Quay and his friends express the utmost confidence in the outcome of this case, and are anxious that the question be submitted to a vote of the Senate.

That two to one vote by which the Pettigrew Philippine proposition was beaten in the Senate the other day has demoralized and disheartened the Agulnikists in that chamber.

An occasional speech is still made in Congress in favor of the Agulniks, but it is clear that their defeat will be overwhelming on any division in which the suppression of the insurrection and the retention of the islands by the United States are involved.

All this ought to have been foreseen by the enemies of the Government from the beginning. Cooperation is just as complete now as it was a third of a century ago. The flag-furlers will get a little quarter in 1903 as they did in 1894.

A FEW mischievous persons in Congress and in the Legislatures of several of the States are trying to get the United States to violate its neutrality and take sides in favor of the Boers.

It would be very interesting at this stage to know the nature of the help that the United States is going to give in favor of either combatant.

This country will keep its hands off in this conflict.

In a lengthy editorial under the caption of "Congressional Candidates," the Johnstown Democrat of a recent date predicts the re-nomination of Congressman Thropp and says, among other things, that "the Mr. Thropp" has made some kind of an arrangement by which the opposition to him in Somerset county will be perfunctory, despite the efforts of the "Quayites."

ROBERTS BUOYED.

The House Adopted the Majority Report. WASHINGTON, January 25.—The case of Brighton H. Roberts, the Mormon Representative from Utah, who has been expelled so much of the attention of the House since the assembling of Congress, was decided by the adoption of a resolution to exclude him by a vote of 275 to 150.

The exact language of the resolution is as follows: "That under the facts and circumstances of the case, Brighton H. Roberts, Representative-elect from the State of Utah, ought not to take a seat in the House of Representatives, and that the seat to which he was elected is hereby declared vacant."

The amendment to expel Mr. Roberts without sending him, offered by Mr. Lacey, was raised out on a point of order, and the House only voted upon the resolutions of the majority and minority of the committee. The latter, to seat and then expel Mr. Roberts—were defeated 81 to 24.

An analysis of this vote shows that 170 Republicans, 72 Democrats and 2 Populists voted for the majority report, and 71 Democrats, 2 Populists and 2 Silver Republicans for the minority.

The majority resolutions, to exclude Mr. Roberts and declare the seat vacant, were adopted by a score of speakers today, and the closing speeches on each side were particularly able. Mr. Lanham, of Texas, closed for the majority, and Mr. DeArmond, of Missouri, for the minority.

Mr. Roberts was present throughout the day and only left the hall after the result of the last vote had been announced. As he did so he gave out a statement justifying his retention of his private views on the ground that the moral obligation was upon him to stand by his conscience rather than technical obedience to statutory law, and saying that there was no excuse for the extraordinary efforts to crush a system already abandoned and practically dead.

He said he was "wary to a speech of prejudice." He would not, he said, attempt to run for Congress again, although he would go back home with a light heart, confident of the future.

Failed to Raise the Dead. POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 25.—A Seventh Day Adventist caused a sensation some at a funeral here yesterday by a determined attempt to raise the dead. A citizen of Pottsville, Augustus Chubbuck, died, and just as the funeral services were being held, a woman, Mrs. M. J. Adams, entered the house and without ceremony stalked toward the open coffin. Stretching forth his hands, she made an emphatic appeal, in a loud voice he commanded: "Young man, I say unto thee, arise and walk!"

The undertaker remonstrated with her, but she continued to exhort the dead. It was necessary to call help to eject him from the building.

Lane said afterward that he hit upon his horse and drove to the scene, not knowing where he was going. He did not know the man was dead, or that there was going to be a funeral, and was led there by an invisible power.

All Philippine Look Alike. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Acting Commissioner General Weston has received a general letter from Major George B. Davis, Commissioner of Subsidies, attached to General MacArthur's division in the Philippines, dated Bantua, December 14, 1899, in which he says: "We expect that in the near future, and to-day he was admitted into Manila as a prisoner. He was Aguinid's brains. He was the man that caused all this trouble. It is a great honor to the insurgents. It looks as though we might have Aguinid in a few days, but all the natives look alike, and if we were to dress as a laborer, we could not tell him if he were to come to us, and that causes the difficulty in capturing him."

"The officer in command of his escort was killed the other night and another was wounded, so you can see how close by his being present."

Oldest Twins in the State—39 Years. BELLEVILLE, Pa., January 24.—Among the most noted and prominent women in Centre county are Mrs. Sarah Rhoads, widow of Jacob Rhoads, and mother of Leonard Rhoads, ex-Master of the State, and her sister, Mrs. Young, widow of John Young. They are the oldest twin-sisters now living in Pennsylvania. Both are as active as most women are at 39. To-morrow they will celebrate the 39th anniversary of their birth.

Mrs. Rhoads and Mrs. Young were born at Coburn, this county, January 28, 1811. They are the daughters of Leonard Ketterer, a German, who was one of the pioneers of the coal region of this State, and one of the tallest and most powerful men of those days. Sarah and Lydia were members of a family of eleven children.

Judge Mitchell Stricken. WELLSBORO, Pa., Jan. 25.—Justice John L. Mitchell, of the Superior Court, suffered an attack of paralysis at his home to-day. His entire right side is affected and his condition is regarded as quite serious.

A Standard Among Newspapers. Reflecting in its widening circulation and increased advertising patronage the prospect that the Somerset Herald will be the best newspaper of the new year. The "Pittsburgh Times" has never impressed upon its readers the excellence of its high standard and the success of its efforts to make a model paper for the individual and for the family. The Times is a newspaper sparing no pains or expense to cover the world thoroughly every day, that its current page of history may be complete, and in its longer range of overlooking nothing that occurs at home. It is clean, dignified and reliable, certain that no lack of these features can be made up in offensive sensationalism. It can be taken day by day, and it is a pleasure to know that its columns are filled with whole-some instruction and entertainment. Wherever known, the Times is recognized as the best type of a concise, crisp and complete newspaper, and among newspaper men it is the publication which compares of excellence are made. While the Times is a Republican in politics, it realizes that others have a right to be heard, and that politics are not everything. When one cent a day will buy a morning paper it is foolish to buy without one. The Times is three dollars a year or six cents a week, and it is worth the money.

Trains Collide in a Saw-3tern. CINCINNATI, January 25.—Three men were injured, one fatally, in a collision on the West Virginia Central and Pittsburgh railroad, three miles south of this city, today. The collision occurred between the "Cincinnati" and the "Pittsburgh," and the latter was severely damaged, and many persons were injured. The "Cincinnati" was a passenger train, and the "Pittsburgh" was a freight train. The collision occurred at a crossing, and the "Cincinnati" was struck by the "Pittsburgh" from behind. The "Cincinnati" was derailed, and the "Pittsburgh" was damaged. Three men were injured, one fatally. The injured man was taken to the hospital, and is expected to die. The other two men were injured, but are not expected to die. The collision occurred at 10:30 a. m. The "Cincinnati" was a passenger train, and the "Pittsburgh" was a freight train. A BYRNITE ROOM FOR INSURGENTS.

Followers of Flinn and Martin Disheartened by the Work of Democratic Allies.

PENROSE SCORES A TRIUMPH. The Brilliant Young Senator Scored a Great Victory in Securing the Appropriation For the Immense Stone Coal For League Island.

Philadelphia, Jan. 20.—The action of the Democratic state committee on Thursday last in adopting a resolution to elect William Flinn as the choice of the Democracy of Pennsylvania for president was received like a bomb in the camp of the Republican insurgents of this state.

This decision, which was a party that follow the leadership of David Martin in this city and William Flinn in the western counties in opposition to the leaders of the regular Republican organization have been hopeful of carrying their alliance with Gaffey Democrats in the canvass. Members of the legislature this year, before Gaffey went to Harrisburg, the insurgents warned him against allowing the Democratic state committee taking up the Bryan movement. They stated that it became known that Gaffey's friends were committed to Bryan a large element of the Democratic vote would be lost.

This would defeat their scheme for fusion. The final result was that a certain number of Republicans, this number would be small as compared with the Democratic vote in any locality where the Democratic vote must be polled in order to defeat the regular Republican nominees.

It is known that Flinn appreciated the force of this argument from the Martin-Flinn combine, but he also realized that his personal following would be small. He therefore largely of the radical free silverites, who fairly worship Bryan. When he landed in Harrisburg, he was covered that the boys were determined to declare for Bryan for president regardless of the wishes of their Republican friends, and the Bryan resolution was presented at the state committee meeting, and it was adopted without a dissenting voice.

UNDER BRYAN'S STANDARD. The Bryan standard has been raised over the Democratic camp, and Flinn and Martin are to continue to array themselves against the Republican party and its regularly nominated candidates. They must fight with Gaffey under the Bryan standard, and they must go with them into the Bryan camp, and Gaffey cannot under any circumstances be expected to do otherwise.

It is a Democratic leader of Harrisburg that was allowed to tell Bryan the private opinion of the situation. He said that the Bryan resolution was presented at the state committee meeting, and it was adopted without a dissenting voice.
