

THE KOOZTS and Kendall Republicans. See this week's Somerset County Democrat.

PERSONAL spite and malice can not destroy the Republican party in Somerset county.

THE call for the Republican Primary Election is not published in the HERALD at the request of County Chairman J. A. Berkey.

A POINTER to Messrs. Koozts, Koozts and Kendall: Money will not do everything. You must have the people with you to win. Vide Bedford county.

KOOZTS and Kendall are largely responsible for the fact that the great industrial State of Pennsylvania has only one Senator to attend to her important interests at Washington.

ASSEMBLYMAN Koozts's action on the school bill was very much like that of the fellow who says: "I'll vote for you, but I'll not say anything to encourage others to do so."

HATS OFF to the honest Republican voters of old "Mother Bedford," who on Saturday last achieved the most notable victory for honest and decent politics ever won in this congressional district.

THE older voters of the county will be amused when they learn that party wreckers Koozts and Kendall are repeating the disastrous and treacherous course they pursued towards the Republican party in 1882.

WHEN Chairman J. A. Berkey says the immense Republican mass-meeting held in Somerset last fall was held "in direct violation of the Republican party rules" he utters a falsehood and displays an ignorance of the party rules that is astonishing.

WHEN Chairman J. A. Berkey says that he furnished the HERALD "a copy of all the announcements of candidates at the Republican Primary Election to be held April 21st," he simply adds another to the long list of falsehoods that he will be called upon to answer for.

A VOTE for F. J. Koozts for Congress means a vote for Joseph E. Thropp and a continuance of the humiliation and disgrace of having the great Twentieth Pennsylvania District represented in Congress by a person who is not of us, but is a resident of another district, and a stranger to our wants and needs.

THE HERALD believes that the Republican voters of the county are true to the principles and traditions of their party. They have always been in the past, and they will not swerve in their allegiance to the party nor sacrifice their cherished principles at the dictation of a few men who are influenced entirely by personal hate and spite.

ASSEMBLYMAN Koozts is traveling up and down the county, avoiding all the big towns, where his record is known, exhibiting a certified copy of the legislative vote on the seven months' school bill. "The wicked lie who no man can punish," Koozts voted against the bill, but he did not utter a word against it. He was too busy trying to "lick old man Quay" to attend to the interests of his constituents.

MESSRS. W. H. KOOZTS and F. J. KOOZTS, who are at present engaged in holding alleged Republican meetings throughout the county, are the same gentlemen who engaged in a similar campaign in 1882, when the one-legged veteran, James A. Beaver, was the Republican nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania. At that time they were able to muster only 600 votes for the cause of the piratical crew who were endeavoring to wreck the Republican party, and we do not believe they will have as many followers on April 21, 1900, as they had in November, '82.

THE party policy of Assemblymen Koozts and Kendall is well illustrated by their securing the services of Inston Gray, Populist and Democratic newspaper, to disseminate the news, at the latter delivered a schoolboy declamation against the passage of the seven months' school bill. No intelligent or honest citizen of the county will be deceived by such chaff as this. Why didn't Assemblyman Koozts rise to the same point of eloquence when the obnoxious measure was under consideration as he did on the occasion of presenting a "loving cup" to "Bill" Flinn, the millionaire "boss" and city contractor.

SUBJECT indications all lead to the conclusion that the large "wad" contributed by the Business Men's League for the purpose of corrupting the honest Republican voters of Somerset county has not been entrusted to the keeping of Chairman Berkey. This must be humiliating to the prospective president of a national bank. It is said that Chairman Berkey is ill-satisfied with "O. K." drafts on the corruption fund, while the Vice Chairman handles the cash. Pretty hard on Berkey, to be thus deceived by his political associates. But, "there'll come a time, one day" and it's not far off, when the "compare notes" bosses will be pulling each other's hair.

IN their foolish attempt to ignore the HERALD Chairman Berkey and the "compare notes" candidates—Koozts, Koozts and Kendall—are having great difficulty in disseminating such information as they desire to give to the public. The two "official organs" were found to be full of accounts; "Pop" Marshall's Berlin "Record" was fired up; the "Windsor" Journal" was bought, and now a large amount of space in the Somerset "Democrat" has been purchased—and all combined they do not have a circulation equal to that of the Herald, and their combined political influence is nil. The people read and believe a paper whose political opinions can not be bought; that speaks the truth no matter whom it hurts, and despise and abhor a purchasable and subsidized press.

IF anything more was needed to establish what the HERALD has frequently asserted, that Messrs. Koozts and Kendall are not in harmony with the Republicans of the county, but are merely assistant Democrats, it is furnished by this week's Somerset County Democrat, whose columns have been called into use to aid them in procuring a renomination. Colonel Guiley is the Democratic candidate for United States Senator. The HERALD firmly believes that should Koozts and Kendall be re-elected, they, in company with other Insurgent Assemblymen will vote for Colonel Guiley for United States Senator in preference to the gentleman who will be named as the nominee by the caucus of a large majority of the Republican members of the next Legislature.

ANTICIPATING that their legislative records would be looked into by their constituents, Assemblymen Koozts and Kendall, who violated the confidence reposed in them by the Republicans of the county, have raised the cry of "stump thief," declaring that their opponents are charging them with having voted for the bill increasing the common school term from six to seven months, so such charge was ever made, and when Assemblyman Koozts's personal organ declares that it is guilty of absolute and unqualified falsehood.

The charge has been and is made, however, that Assemblyman Koozts did not raise his voice in protest against the adoption of the measure, which was literally opposed by ninety-nine out of every one hundred of his constituents, and it is therefore presumed that he was in full sympathy with the friends of the bill.

In view of the fact that Assemblyman Koozts has gained wide notoriety as an orator, that his ability to plead the cause of a client is undisputed, that it is claimed for him that he has been known to exercise, by the magic of his logic, such an influence and power over jurors as to compel them to decide in favor of his client, it is somewhat remarkable that he would sit quietly in his seat in the halls of legislation listening to the discussion of a bill in which his constituents were vitally concerned, and whose interests he was supposed to defend, the interests of his clients, without offering a single word of protest. There can be no defense for his action in this matter. The fact that the enemies of the bill were able to muster only forty-one votes against it does not speak well for the silver-tongued orator, who, at the command of "Bill" Flinn, the millionaire Pittsburg contractor and politician, and "Dave" Martin, the deposed millionaire of Philadelphia, neglected the interests of the people he was sent to Harrisburg to represent and protect, and traveled up and down the State delivering appeals to the people to help them destroy the Republican party in Pennsylvania.

We misjudge the people of Somerset county if they do not retire party-wreckers Koozts and Kendall and elect W. H. Sanner and Fred Rowe to represent them in Harrisburg. Sanner and Rowe will do so with fidelity and ability, and will not bring discredit upon their constituents. It was largely through the efforts of Mr. Koozts, the present method of distributing the State appropriation to the public schools, whereby the schools of Somerset county receive $5,000 more annually than ever before, was made law.

REPUBLICANS of Somerset county, Harvey M. Berkey is one of your own people. He is one of your bone and flesh of your flesh. His name is a synonym of every manly virtue. He is a gentleman of education, and is the peer of any of the candidates in the several counties for the congressional nomination. He comes of honest Pennsylvania Dutch stock, and bears himself with the same absolute honesty and integrity in his political as he does in his business life. He is not a candidate for the purpose of handing the nomination over to a candidate from another county. Give him the endorsement of Somerset county and he will go into the district conference with every prospect of success and will exert every honorable effort to secure the nomination.

And what can be said of his opponent, F. J. Koozts, Esq.? Conceding everything that his most ardent admirers can claim for him, the cold fact remains that he is not a candidate for the purpose of securing the nomination. He is not acting fairly or candidly with the Republicans of the county who have frequently honored him. He does not expect, nor does he desire to go to Congress. He is, and for years past has been, an open and avowed candidate to succeed Judge Longenecker as President Judge. He is a candidate for the congressional nomination at this time, and we can but judge him from what he has done in the past, for the cause of the piratical crew who were endeavoring to wreck the Republican party, and we do not believe they will have as many followers on April 21, 1900, as they had in November, '82.

The crushing defeat of the insurgents and party wreckers at the primary on April 21st is certain as doom. Nothing can prevent their being ousted from the ranks of the party. Their ranks are torn and distracted, threats of retaliation and revenge fill the air. Business connections and business associations of long standing are strained to the point of breaking and will snap in any case where the interests of the party are concerned.
