Compared with one of these "hog hunts" a cattle "round up" is a quiet and commouplace affair. On the morn-Ing appointed the dogs are turned loose and started out on a bog trail, and the men ride after them just as on a wolf chase. As the pigs cannot hold out very long one of them is soon caught, and his squeals bring back the rest of the bunch to his aid. As soon as the pig is free the sows form a circle around the pigs, from which they now and then dash out at their termentors and all the while grunting like the rattling of a hundred old wagons. By the time the uproar has reached its full height the hunters ride up and hiss the dors on to seize the sows. When one is caught, two men go to the assistance of the dog, one with a club to best off the other hogs, the other with a bit of rope to tie the one seized. When all of them have thus been put out of the way of fighting, the pigs are caught and marked. Then the sows are given their liberty, and the dogs start out on a new trail. When it happens that there are hogs belonging to several different men, the pigs are sim-

It will be remean bered that half a dozen or more Eskimos came to New York from the arctic zone with one of Lieutemant Penry's homing parties. Most of them died presently of pneumonia, to the distress and somewhat to the ladignation of the public. Of several of them careful autopsies were made and, not a little to the excitement of our medical world, it was discovered that the Eaklmo intestine was about four feet shorter than ours is, and that his liver was not sloped like what we have been used to call a human liver, but was more like that of a dog. The Estimo, apparently, is so constructed that he can live and thrive under such conditions and on such a diet as he can command at home.- Harper's Weekly.

That Con! Senttle. In these days when so many evens are used to obtain entrance to dwelling nouses and burgiars carry off every thing possible it is as well to be eare fut. Therefore when a servant recently informed her mistress that a strange man had called and said that he had come to "measure for a coal | reuttle" the mistress was naturally slarmed. The man came again, however, bringing with him three others. and then it appeared that he had come to put in an electric wire and hox for messenger service. What he feally meant to sell the servant in the first Express.—Johnstown 1:50 p. m., Hooversville 235, Stovestown 2:67, Somerset 2:15, Bookplace was that he had come to measure for the "call box." He had apparently broadened it into "coal box," and the servant had repeated it as "coal scuttle."-New York Mall and Express.
