...Edward E. Cromwell, a member of the ...Flying Tents, and on Company D's ...roster will as one of the wounded at ...Manila, was in town Saturday. Cromwell is taking life easy in Somerset county. ...Last fall he was a candidate there on ...the Democratic ticket for County Treasurer, but too many of the Frosty Sons of ...Thunder proved to be Republicans to ...make him a winner. ...An unknown man either jumped or ...fell into a coke oven, at white heat, at ...the Foundry plant of the H. C. Frick ...Coke Co., Morgan station, Fayette county, a few evenings since. His leap to an ...awful death was observed at a distance ...by several coke workers, who rushed to ...the place, battered in the door of the ...oven, and, with a scraper, dragged out ...the charred remains. They were so badly ...disfigured as to be beyond identification. Whether he accidentally fell into the ...seething furnace or leaped in with ...suicidal intent will probably never be ...known.

...A party of four or five young men rode ...on wheels from this place to the big ...mine in Jefferson township Sunday morning, where they made a thorough personal ...inspection of the great underground ...mines, at times being compelled to climb ...on their hands and knees in order to pass ...from one chamber to another. They declare that several of the chambers are ...from 30 to 100 feet square in area, the ...roofs of which are from 20 to 60 feet ...above the floor, and that a stream of ...water can be heard trickling its way unseen through the floor. The various members of the party were smeared with mud ...when they returned to town, but this was ...counted for on the score that the entrance to the cave is only large enough ...for a man to crawl through.

...The Windber Journal has a rather ...thrilling account of the recent murderous ...duel in that part of Somerset county ...wherein five men were killed and seven others injured by three bad Italians ...with guns and stilettos. The editor says, ...it is reported that Shives heard the noise ...and rushed down to see what had happened and came back a corpse." It is ...not recorded whether the corpse rushed ...back or came at a less impetuous gait, ...but we are further informed that "Every ...person in town was instantly on the ...ground, and all did their utmost for the ...wounded dying." What they did for the ...latter do not appear, but we hope they ...did not usurp the functions of the undertaker. "English as she is spoke" at ...Windber seems to be almost as loose as ...the morals of the place.—Connellsville ...Courier.

...Many of our readers will be grieved to ...learn of the death of Anna Ruby, wife of ...John H. W. W. PICKING PROMOTED.

Appointed General Agent of the B. & O. Passenger Department at Chicago.

Somerset friends—and all are his friends—will be pleased to learn of the advancement of Mr. William W. Picking, who, on April 24th, was appointed General Agent of the Passenger Department at Chicago of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, as per official circular bearing the signature of General Passenger Agent Austin and approved by D. B. Martin, Manager Passenger Traffic. The promotion carries an increase of salary with it.

In a personal note apprising Mr. Picking of his advancement General Passenger Agent Austin says: "Please accept this as a slight recognition of my appreciation of your ability and devotion to duty. The manner in which you have handled the business in Chicago during my administration has been most satisfactory, and it affords me the greatest pleasure to offer you a practical demonstration of my appreciation."

Mr. Picking is the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Picking, and a brother of Rear Admiral Picking, who died several months ago while in charge of the Boston navy yard. He has been in the service of the B. & O. for the past twelve years, having first served in the capacity of Traveling Passenger Agent, with headquarters at Somerset. Four or five years afterwards he was transferred to Chicago, where he served as City Passenger Agent with marked ability. A short time ago Mr. Picking was elected president of an association of traveling and city passenger agents of all the railroads entering Chicago, a high testimonial of his popularity among those who are his rivals in business. The HERALD takes this occasion to renew its assurances of distinguished consideration to "Willie P." and to wish him still "more power."

Political Notes.

The result of the Republican primary election in Somerset county is characteristic of the insurgents. If they can't rule they always try to ruin.-Mt. Pleasant Journal.

The Frosty Sons of Thunder had a hot old time this week and the end is not yet. Somerset county is in a continual state of ferment over politics and this is no doubt from the fact that there is invariably an over-production in the crop of statesmen.—Connellsville Courier.

In the matter of snap judgment and high handed tricks Chairman Berkey of Somerset county can give pointers to the wicked machine Republicans.—Uniontown-News-Standard.

Census Enumerators.

The first enumerator appointed in the 13th Pennsylvania Census District was William P. Hurst, who, on Monday afternoon, was handed his commission by Supervisor Scull, appointing him enumerator for the borough of Somerset. The commission is handsomely prepared and reads:

The United States of America.

To all who shall see these Presents, Greeting:

Be it known that by the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for taking the Twelfth and subsequent censuses," approved March 3, 1899, and reposing full confidence in the ability, discretion and integrity of William P. Hurst, of Somerset, County of Somerset, State of Pennsylvania, I do hereby, with the consent of the Director of the Census, employ him as Enumerator for the enumeration district comprising Somerset Borough.

And I do authorize and empower him to execute and fulfill the duties of an Enumerator, in accordance with law. This appointment shall terminate, unless sooner revoked, on the completion of the duty for which it is made.

Given under my hand at Somerset on this 30th day of April, A. D. 1900.

GEO. R. SCULL,
Supervisor of Census
for 13th District of Pennsylvania.

Approved:
WM. R. MERRIAM,
Director of Census.

The utterly untruthful statement circulated during the recent primary contest by Congressman Thropp and a few of his followers, to the effect that all appointments of enumerators had been made weeks ago, caused many applicants for appointment to refrain from returning the test blanks sent them and deterred others from applying, thus retarding and increasing the labors of the Supervisor. In several enumeration districts no applications for appointment have yet been received, and in others, notably in Cambria county, the Supervisor has experienced great difficulty in procuring efficient applicants.

To such applicants as are to be appointed Supervisor Scull and his clerk are mailing commissions, blanks, etc., as rapidly as it can be done. So greatly has the labor of the postoffice officials at this place been increased by the census business that the Supervisor has been authorized to name a special postoffice clerk to attend to the registered mail connected with the census business.

Town Council Proceedings.

At the last regular meeting of town council the purchasing committee was authorized to purchase 200 feet of hose for the use of the fire companies. Several 50 foot sections of hose were ruined at recent fires.

An ordinance granting the Lincoln Mutual Telephone Company a franchise of the streets and alleys was adopted. The Lincoln Mutual is composed of business men and farmers living between Somerset and Sipesville who want 'phone connection with the county seat. Work on the new line is already underway and it will likely be pushed forward to completion at an early day.

The ordinance introduced four weeks ago imposing a tax of $1.00 on telegraph, telephone and electric light poles, and $1.50 on every mile of wire utilized by such companies in the borough, went over for two weeks, when it will again be brought up for final action. Representatives of the Bell and Somerset County Telephone Companies, the Somerset Electric Light, Heat and Power Company, and the Western Union Telegraph Company, were present. Objection was offered to the proposed tax on wires, and it was also urged that $1.00 tax per pole was excessive.

A resolution instructing the superintendent of the water department to cut off the water service at the Highland Inn until the proprietors of said institution had arranged with council for the payment of water tolls was defeated, but an amendment requiring the lessees of the Inn to put up a cash forfeit in order to secure the borough from loss was adopted.

Bids for the proposed new municipal building were opened, when it was found that the bid of Mr. Frank Granger, $6,475, was the lowest. Five bids in all were received. As the authorized appropriation for the building is only $4,000 no contract was awarded.

The president of council was instructed to make arrangement with the county authorities for the use of cells in the county jail, where drunks and disorderlies may be temporarily confined, until a municipal building and lockup is erected.

A Conundrum.

Stalwart to Insurgent.—The nomination certificate of Sanner and Rowe was filed with Secretary Griest in person 10 minutes after the arrival of the Pennsylvania train in Harrisburg, at 2:18 Wednesday morning. The certificate of Koontz and Kendall was not filed for some six hours later. Which was filed first? Do you give it up?

Insurgent.—That's dead easy. Koontz's and Kendall's, of course. I'm on to my job of "faking."

Terrible plagues, those itching, pestering diseases of the skin. Put an end to misery. Doan's Ointment cures. At any drug store.

LAW, EQUITY AND FAIRNESS ARE AGAINST THE THREE K'S.

It is a harsh and perhaps unwarranted reflection on the intelligence and legal knowledge of Messrs. Koontz, Kendall and Kooser to say that any of them have for a single moment believed that they are the nominees of the Republican party of Somerset county for the offices of Assemblymen and Congress, respectively, by virtue of the primary election held April 21st, but since the names of the two gentlemen first mentioned appear upon a certificate filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, attested by the officers of an illegally conducted convention, we presume that they mean to make an effort to prevent the names of their successful competitors—W. H. Sanner and Fred. Rowe—from appearing in the Republican column on the official ballots to be voted at the general election.

Mr. Koontz's legal knowledge and sense of fair play must tell him—as a sense of honesty and fairness tells every man conversant with the facts—that he and his colleague received a minority of the votes cast at the primary election, and they are therefore not, and have no right to claim to be, the nominees of the party. It is presumed, also, that they, before announcing their names as candidates and paying the usual announcement fees, attached their signatures to a pledge presented them by the Chairman of the County Committee, whereby they agreed to abide by the result of the primary election and support the nominees. Sanner and Rowe, their opponents, subscribed to such a pledge, and they mean to abide by it.

Mr. Koontz's knowledge of the law and his sense of fairness must tell him—as the honest dictates of conscience has told every fair-minded man in the county—that the Chairman of the County Committee was powerless to remove the Committeemen of Jefferson and Larimer townships, the former on the night preceding the election and the latter on the night of the election after the polls had been closed and the vote counted, without giving them an opportunity to be heard, and that the votes cast at the polls conducted by Messrs. Schlag and Smith must be counted, while the votes cast at the voting places illegally established by Chairman Berkey must be thrown out. Schlag and Smith were elected Committeemen by the voters of their respective precincts, were recognized as such, and both performed their duties under the law and the rules of the party, and Chairman Berkey or no other authority had the right to depose either of them without fair notice and an opportunity to be heard, merely that he might retain control of a committee, a majority of which was unilaterally opposed to him.

Mr. Koontz's legal knowledge and sense of fairness must tell him—as the dictates of honest conscience has told every fair-minded man in the county—that the Chairman of the County Committee and his unscrupulous agents had no legal or moral right to procure by fraud and direct purchase the resignations of Committemen who were hostile to the re-election of the Chairman or his brother-in-law, and that the honest voters, who saw that their confidence was about to be betrayed and their rights sacrificed, acted clearly within their rights and within the rules of the party when on the morning of the election they proceeded to elect judges to conduct their elections. The mockery of decency and justice in the case of New Baltimore borough, where a non-resident is alleged in a sworn affidavit to have, by deception and unlawful means, procured the resignation of the duly elected Committeeman, must appeal to General Koontz's knowledge of the law as well as to his sense of fairness, as it has already appealed to the sense of fairness of every man conversant with the facts. This agent of Berkey's, after securing the resignation of the Committeeman by the methods and means alleged—himself a non-resident of the district—on the morning of the election set up an illegal poll, of which he was the only officer and at which his was the only vote cast. This same bogus and illegally-appointed Committeeman, a non-resident of New Baltimore, had the brazen effrontery to present himself as a member of the body of return judges and to nominate brother-in-law Barron for Chairman of the County Committee.

Mr. Koontz's knowledge of the law and his sense of fairness must tell him—as the conscience of every honest man has already disclosed—that the vote of Ogle township, which Chairman Berkey and his illegally-assembled committee chose to ignore, in order that Berkey might figure out a majority for a part of the insurgent ticket, should have been counted, as it will be counted when the matter comes before the courts, where it will be finally decided solely on its merits. Mr. Berkey or no other power on earth has the power to disfranchise the voters of Ogle township, simply because the judge of election, illegally appointed by the Chairman, failed to obey the Chairman's illegal orders. Under such circumstances the rules provide that the electors shall proceed to elect a judge of election. This was done and the election was held in strict conformity with law and the votes were lawfully counted. The fact that an illegally appointed Committeeman attended the illegally-conducted convention and cast a vote for Brother-in-law Barron will not vitiate the returns from Ogle, which give a majority of 58 votes in favor of the Stalwart ticket.

Mr. Koontz's legal knowledge and sense of fairness must tell him, what has already been made manifest to every layman and fairminded man in the county that the vote of Garrett borough, where the electors denied the right of the Chairman of the County Committee to transcend his powers and name a judge to hold their election, but elected a judge of their own choice, must be counted. Sixty-eight honest and intelligent voters who cast their ballots in strict conformity with law and party rules cannot be disfranchised at the whim of a County Chairman because they refused to recognize his unlawful assumption of power in order that he or his brother-in-law might be elected Chairman of the County Committee.

Mr. Koontz's knowledge of the law and his sense of fairness must have told him long ere this, as the facts have impressed every honest and fair-minded man in the county, that if it is in the power of the Chairman of the Committee to remove members of the Committee at his pleasure, that nothing stands in the way of a designing and unscrupulous officer keeping himself in power indefinitely, making up a committee of persons absolutely subject to his commands, throwing out the votes of such districts as he may deem necessary in order to declare candidates of his own choice the nominees of the party; in fact, ignoring the God-given right of every freeborn American citizen to cast his vote and to have it honestly counted.

Mr. Koontz's knowledge of the law, parliamentary rules and sense of fairness must tell him, what is already clear to the layman and casual observer, that no authorized body can legally enter upon its duties until the roll of membership has been made up and announced, and that all of its proceedings, unless so legally constituted, must come to naught when presented in court.

No two men in the county know better than Messrs. Koontz and Kooser that they were fairly and honestly defeated for nomination to the offices to which they aspired at the Republican primary election, held April 21st, by a pronounced majority of the votes, including the votes illegally cast and counted in their favor, and the HERALD will view with profound regret any efforts that may be put forward in their behalf to defeat the will of the people, even by technicalities, feeling as we do, that both of the gentlemen named have a higher regard for law, for equity, justice and fairness, than they have for the applause of a few hot headed malcontents, who being utterly devoid of all sense of honesty of purpose and fairness, of the legal rights of others, have undertaken to ruin the Republican party in this county so far as it lies within their power to do so.

It is not thought possible that the defeated candidates have cast aside all ambition to attain prominence in the Republican party, but unless they decide to abide by law and order and by the great principle of majority rule they will forfeit all claims they have or heretofore have made of being Republicans.

A Rich Man's Project.

A rich man's statement that he intends to devote almost his entire fortune to charitable works has aroused much discussion. This is because it will accomplish much good. It is a praiseworthy endeavor, but there are many other agencies which accomplish as much good. Take Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for instance—the great American remedy. For fifty years it has cured constipation, dyspepsia and all the ills which arise from weak digestion. This medicine will keep the stomach in good shape and the bowels regular. It is a wonderful restorative tonic and health builder. It is also a preventive for malaria, fever and ague. Ask for it, and insist upon having it.
