FOR SALE.—At this office, a scholarship in the Iron City Commercial College.

J. N. Teltzworth had a stick run into his eye last week, and as a consequence has a very dark optic.

Rev. S. S. Burton preached a sermon to a fair congregation on Thanksgiving evening, which was well appreciated by his hearers.

A Tidouite lady has adopted the child which was left at the Duncan House in OR' City a few weeks ago, of which we made notice.

A dance was held on Thanksgiving evening in Forest Hall. We hear that there was rather a small attendance, but that it was an enjoyable affair.

M. C. M. was now connected with the Soldiers' Orphans' School, of Titusville, was in town on a visit to her friends. She returned yesterday.

“Brick” Pomeroy, the noted Democratic editor is to lecture in Meadville on the 6th of December, before the Ancient Order of United Workmen of that place. Subject—“Success.”

Two men were buried alive by the caving in of a sand bank, in which they were working, yesterday, one mile from Titusville. We have not time for particulars.

The Oil City Times of Saturday contains an “aching void” of five columns, with a line in each one announcing that advertisements are wanted for this column. We hope it may get ‘em.

A social gathering was held at the residence of A. H. Partridge, on Friday evening of last week. All present seemed to enjoy themselves hugely. This sort of thing is not as frequent in Tionesta as we wish it were.

A wagon load of dead deer passed through town yesterday. They were outwardly calm, and expressed no emotion. As hunting deer with hounds is against the law, we presume these were shot on the sly.

FOR SALE.—The house and lands known as the “Christie Property,” located at Irivinton, Warren County Pa., are for sale. Terms cash or approved security. Apply to

JOHN A. DALE, President Tionesta Savings Bank, Tionesta, Pa.

We neglected last week to notice, editorially, the advertisement of P. Hall's Cough Remedy, which will be found in another column. It is for sale by D. S. Knox & Co. It is recommended by a large number of citizens of Erie and vicinity, and we have no doubt that it is an excellent remedy. At this time of the year, nearly everybody is troubled more or less with coughs, colds, &c., and a sure remedy is desirable. Let our readers try it.

The Valley Eagle, published at Middlesex, Mercer County, has handed in its Checks, owing to a want of patronage. It launches a farewell shot at its “supporters,” calls the village “old stick-in-the-mud,” and wants to write a few obituary notices before leaving. It should be accommodated. It was a paper well gotten up, and the citizens of that vicinity are blameable for letting it die. The material of the office is now offered for sale.

Conductor O. E. Gleason has purchased a fine brick residence on Washington street, Corry, of R. M. Johnson, Esq., and has taken possession. So says the Corry Republican.

RAILROAD MEETING.—At a meeting of the purchasers of the Oil City & Pit Hole Branch Railway, held at the McHenry House on Tuesday, a new company was organized under the name of the “Pit Hole Valley Railway Company,” and the following persons were duly elected Directors:

S. L. M. Barlow, New York; C. Day, New York; David Jones, Ravenna, Ohio; Joseph G. Dale, Tionesta, Pa.; Samuel Rea, Pittsburgh, Pa.; J. McQueen Woods, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Directors elected the following officers: A. H. Steele, President; C. Day, Secretary; J. A. Dale, Treasurer; Jas. T. Blair, Superintendent; S. Newton Pettis, Attorney.

The general offices of the Company are at Pit Hole City Pa.

A couple of sports from Rouseville had a naval engagement on the ferry boat, on Friday evening last. They had been hunting, and were on the boat crossing the river to take the six o'clock train. It appears that one of them had borrowed the other's overcoat, and had lost it. When asked where it was, he replied that he did not know. Words, such as are never used in first-class society, arose, and at length the irresponsible borrower shed his coat and delivered his right bower square on the other's jaw. The recipient replied by rapping the other chap on the cocoon-nut, whereupon he assumed a horizontal position upon the starboard deck. He arose with dignified bravery, and departed on the train, a sadder and sorer man. The champion came back to look for his overcoat. Whether he found it or not we are not in a condition to say. Both had on a cargo of benzine.

At Waterford, on Friday last, died Col. James M. McKay, aged eighty-two. He was born in Northumberland County, this State, on the 12th day of October, 1788, and came to Waterford in 1810, where he resided up to the time of his death. He was one of the veterans of the war of 1812, distinguishing himself in that memorable campaign. Politically, he was a Democrat, until the breaking out of the rebellion, when he turned about to go supporters of our government; after was an advocate of carrying on the war. He was universally respected, and his remains were followed to the grave by a very large number of neighbors and acquaintances. Peace to his ashes.—Erie Dispatch.

The deceased was the father of Jas. McKay of this place.

A verdict for damages was awarded to Wm. Stitt against A. & F. Huidekoper, of Meadville, in the U. S. Supreme Court at Pittsburgh, last Wednesday morning. The case had been on trial since the 15th inst. The case, as we get it, is as follows: Stitt had the refusal of certain oil land of Huidekopers, for a certain number of days. Time ran out; Huidekopers leased land to other parties. Stitt afterward leased it to operators; found it had been leased by Huidekopers, and sued for damages. Upon the opening of the Court, on Wednesday morning, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant for the sum of nine thousand dollars. The last time the case was tried, the jury awarded the plaintiff eighteen thousand dollars. A motion for a new trial and reasons were filed by plaintiff's counsel.

We learn from the Titusville Herald, that a well on the Hill tract, owned by T. C. Joy and others, of Enterprise, which had been pumping about six barrels per day for ten days previous, was torpedoed on Wednesday since which time we are reliably informed, it produced at the rate of 150 barrels per day. This well is about three miles from Enterprise, on the line of the proposed Titusville and Tidouite Railroad, and opens up a new and valuable territory.

The Little Corporal Magazine for December closes the eleventh volume of that brilliant juvenile. The magazine has now been published five years and a half, and has attained an unprecedented popularity and circulation. It is now enlarged, improved, and beautifully illustrated. The November and December numbers of 1870 are offered free to all who subscribe now for the next year. Don't fail to give your children this sterling juvenile magazine. It is published in Chicago, Illinois, by Sewell & Miller, at one dollar and a half a year, 15 cents for a single copy. Beautiful and generous premiums are given for clubs.

The following notices of the Atlantic Monthly and Harper's Magazine we clip from the Meadville Journal. They express our sentiments, and save us the labor of writing them:

The Atlantic for December has made its welcome appearance. It contains a number of excellent articles, first among which, to our thinking, is Henry I. Tinkerman's “Plea for Science.” Since a man's wit is popularly gauged by his volubility, it is pleasant to see a man of Mr. Tinkerman's culture come to the aid of the silent ones. The number opens with an article entitled, “Confessions of a Patent Medicine Man,” by Ralph Keeler. “Joseph and his Friend” is concluded, as is also “Travelling Companions,” by Henry James Jr. The other articles are: The Prayer Secker, by John G. Whittier; Old-time Fireside Stories, by Harriet Beecher Stowe; Resemblances between the Buddhist and Roman Catholic Religions, by L. Maria Child; A Strip of Blue, by Lucy Larcom; Black Christmas, at Dix Cove; Afoot on Colorado Desert, by Stephen Powers; Father Blumhardt's Prayerful Hotel; Rudolph, a Monograph, by Barnet Phillips; Indian Summer, by Frances Lee Pratt; The Miracle Play of 1870, in Bethlehem, New Hampshire, by H. H.; Flitting, by W. D. Howells; A Virginian in New England Thirty-five Years ago; John Bull at Feed, by W. J. Stillman, and Reviews and Literary Notices. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston.

With the December number Harper's Magazine commences its forty-second volume, and we can truly say that like wine, it improves with age. One would have to go far to find a better magazine for popular reading, and popularity is, after all, the one thing most sought after. The list of contents is as follows: The Brooklyn Navy Yard; Pio Nono and his Councilors; Kite in Brittany; A Vigil; Frederick the Great; The Book of the Legion of Honor; The Statue; Bombay and the Parsus; Song of Fire; Inveigling Nature into a Disclosure of her Secrets; Anteros; The Sacred Flora; Under the Rose; Collected by a Valetudinarian; Blockade Running; What did Miss Darrington See? Matches; Orange Blossoms and Night Shade; Anne Furness and the Easy Chair, etc. Published by Harper & Brothers, N. Y.

Pittsburgh Female College. This item is so widely and favorably known that it is almost superfluous to call attention to it. As many are preparing, however, to send their daughters to school during the winter, and as the selection of a suitable school is one of the most difficult and important questions challenging the attention of parents, we take this opportunity to direct their attention to the Pittsburgh Female College. It has almost everything that is desirable in a school of this kind. The buildings are models of good taste, and are fitted up in good style, and with special reference to the comfort of the pupils. Better even than its excellent accommodations, are the ample arrangements for the education of the pupils. No one department is sacrificed to another. The large number of teachers employed—twenty-three—enables the trustees not only to have full departments in the literary course, but special departments for all the ornamental branches. As an illustration we may state the fact that there are four teachers who devote their entire time to Music. Added to all this the charges are not intended to dazzle dunces, and make them believe that the school is good because they pay treble rates, but such as commend themselves to right-thinking men. All who have daughters to educate are most earnestly urged to call and make themselves acquainted with the facilities and advantages afforded. The winter term will open December 12th. Send to Rev. I. C. Pershing, D. D., Pittsburgh, Pa., for a catalogue.

DENTISTRY.—A. J. Stiles, Dentist, Tidouite, Pa., has the reputation of being one of the most expert Dentists in this section. He uses all the modern appliances for extracting teeth without pain, such as Chloroform, Ether Nitrous Gas, or the new method of Freezing the Gums with Spray. The most delicate and difficult operations of filling the teeth with gold skillfully performed. He also uses a new preparation, “Os Artificial,” which supplies the bone lost by decay, and is applied without pain. A long experience in the business, and the large patronage given Mr. Stiles, is sufficient evidence that his work gives satisfaction. Office over Acomb's Drug Store, Tidouite. 17 ly.

ADDRESS

To the Nervous AND DEBILITATED.

WHOSE sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable;

If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce on your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or foamy, or is itropy on settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, or list? Do you wish to be left alone, away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being unable to succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs indited by running to excess. Those will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excess, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to produce almost every other disease—idiotcy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 19 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist, 694 Broadway, New York, and 104 South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Price—$1.25 per bottle or 6 bottles for $6.50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere.
