NOTICES OF THE PRESS. No more delightful travels are printed in the English language than appear per-petually in HARPER'S MAGAZINE. They are read with equal interest and satisfaction by boys of every grade, from eighteen to eighty. Its scientific papers, while sufficiently profound to demand the attention of the learned, are yet admirably adapted to the popular understanding, and designed as much to diffuse correct information concerning current scientific discovery as it could be if it was the organ of the "Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge." The great design of Harper's is to give correct information and rational amusement to the great masses of the people. There are few intelligent American families in which Harper's Magazine would not be an appreciated and highly welcome quest.
