LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

-Mrs. J. W. Stroup is lying quite sick at present. She is having the best of care, and hopes are entertained that she may eventually recover.

-Rev. A. Virtue was unable to fill his appointment in this place, last Sabbath, on account of illness. As he was still sick when he wrote, he made no appointment.

-We notice that the Misses Hunter and Miss Sue May are at home for a short vacation from Beaver Seminary. They arrived on Satuday last, and will return in a week or two.

-C. U. Brett and wife hovored our sanctum with a call on Saturday last. They made but a short stay in our place, and promise to come again, and stay longer.
