

The members of the Republican County Committee of Forest County, are requested to meet at the Court House, (at Prothonotary's Office) on Tuesday evening, May 23d, 1871, at 7 o'clock P. M. J. B. AGNEW, Ch'm. S. D. IRWIN, Sec'y.

The delegates appointed from Erie and Crawford Counties met at Titusville recently, and after choosing Geo. K. Anderson of Titusville as delegate to the State Convention, instructed for Gen. McCreary, for Auditor General. The Meadville Republican comes down on this instruction like a thousand of bricks, denounces McCreary as a political slyster, and offers a resolution defaming him as such. As far as Gen. McCreary is concerned, we think that our candidate, Gen. H. Allen, will stand a good chance for the nomination. Our delegates will support him till the last gun is fired.

Decoration Day.

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T OF PA., G. A. R., 737 Sanson St., PHILADELPHIA, May 31, 1871. COMRADES:—The 30th of May has been set apart by the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, as the day in each year when the army of the living is to meet in their silent camping grounds the army of the dead. I know that in every spot in this department where a Union Soldier sleeps, a loyal heart will be found to do him honor, and with willing hands strew on the patriot's grave the first spring flowers of the land he died to save and regenerate.

The Grand Army of the Republic has taken on itself the duty of conducting, wherever there is a Post, the memorial services on Decoration Day. It is requested that every comrade attend on the 30th inst., and give one day to the comrades gone before. The militia and other organizations should be invited to participate, as well as the citizens, to whom as soldiers we owe so much. Ask that the Schools in your vicinity be closed for the day that the children may join with you and learn lessons of patriotism near the soldiers' graves.

Yours, in F. C. & L. A. R. CALHOUN, Official Commanding Depart'm't. ROBT B. BEATH, A. A. G.

This ceremony has been performed here ever since the custom was introduced. We presume this year will prove no exception. To those who fall, we who reap the benefits of their sacrifices should not be slow to pay this fitting tribute. Let us all, then, soldiers and citizens, assemble on this 30th day of May, and do honor to the brave hearts that sleep the sleep of death because our country called.

The Prize Fight.

The parties, Mace and Coburn, met at Long Point, Canada, on last Thursday for the purpose of conferring and receiving a head. Mace toed the scratch, and Coburn dodged around, as though he was afraid of getting hurt. This game was kept up an hour and a quarter, without a blow being struck, when one of Her Majesty's officers shied his castor into the ring, and followed in person, read the riot act, commanded a departure of the combatants and crowd, got his pockets picked, and broke up the fight. It was a fizzle. Contrary to the hopes of the public, neither of the combatants were killed, not even crippled. Their deaths had been looked forward to with anxiety. They met after the retreat, at the Reed House, in Erie, and made arrangements to meet for another trial, at Kansas City, on the 21 of June. This is supposed to be the virtual end of the affair, but there may possibly be a chance of their meeting, and dying for the good of their country.

Monday morning, John Stywalt and wife, who reside at Pioneer, appeared before Justice Reynolds, and requested that their son, Paul Stywalt, aged 12 years, be committed to the House of Refuge. The boy is charged with stealing, running away from home, and general incorrigibility, so much so that his parents had no control over him. It is but a short time since that this boy broke into the Post-office at Pioneer and stole considerable money and stamps. The boy was arrested by Constable Waters and bro't before the Justice, who made out the necessary commitment papers and he will be taken to the House of Refuge at Allegheny City immediately.—Pet. Con. Rec.

—We clip the following from the Corry Republican:

A colored youth, by the name of Williams, was arrested Friday for threatening to shoot another colored juvenile. He was brought before Justice D. M. K. Wilson, and fined three dollars for indulging in such pastime.

The person who took a pair of cloth boots off the rail at the door of Benson & Thompson's shoe store is known, and unless they are returned before Monday night he will be proceeded against for larceny.

Liquor on Election Days.

The following bill recently passed both branches of our Legislature and has been signed by the Governor:

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any person in this Commonwealth, whether licensed or not, to sell or to give away to be used as a drink, any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or cider, or any other substances containing alcohol, on any part of any day set apart or to be set apart for any general or special election by the citizens in or within any of the precincts, wards, townships, counties, or other election divisions in the Commonwealth.

Provided, "That the provisions of this bill shall not be enforced after the election polls are closed in the evening or the sale of liquor prohibited after that time."

SEC. 2. Any person violating the provisions of the first section of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to imprisonment in the proper jail of the proper county for a term of not less than ten days in the discretion of the court, and shall in addition to the above, be subject to a fine of not less than $20, and not more than $500 in the discretion of the court.

—The primary elections of Venango county took place on Monday last, and the return judges met at Franklin yesterday, and canvassed the votes, which were as follows:

Table with columns for Name, Position, and Votes. Includes D. D. McJunkin (1,416), S. B. Myers (1,122), R. S. McCormick (1,631), N. B. Riddle (1,452), F. D. Bishop (1,196), C. S. Marks (1,998), J. H. Smith (1,295), J. P. Riddle (1,203), W. R. Gilliland (836), J. S. Hooten (365).

—We clip the following items from Titusville Herald:

Edward Dean, a laboring man, who lives on Plum alley, was yesterday arrested by officer Miller, for brutally mistreating his infant child, a girl about three years of age. It appears that Dean was very drunk and assaulted the child. The women in the neighborhood screamed for help, and the officer happening to pass that way, forced the door open and arrested him. The child was saturated with blood. The prisoner was conveyed to the lock-up, and will have a hearing to-day.

A trial was made at the Driving Park yesterday, for the purpose of testing the speed of Castle Bros. bay colt. The animal is five years old, fourteen hands high, with long sweeping tail, and black points all round. He is an excellent stepper, but has never been trained. The half mile track was made in 1:20, and the last quarter in 28 seconds. He was named on the spot E. W. Ames. The animal bids fair to be a fast trotter, and it is predicted that some of his local competitors on the turf this season will have to take back seats.

About four o'clock yesterday afternoon two children, one about six years of age, and the other a year and a half old, were playing near the race, directly in the rear of the Franklin street mill. The oldest one, a little girl, fell into the water, and the younger immediately commenced to scream, which attracted the attention of a carpenter named Thomas Welch, working in the vicinity. He arrived there just in time to pull the child from the water before it sank. Both children belonged to Mr. Wm. McMullen, who resides in the same building occupied by Justice Strouse, on Franklin street. The race should be fenced in.

—We clip the following from the Oil City Times:

Joshua Weaver, of Cranberry township, Venango county, was on the point of being sold out by the Sheriff, when an hundred barrel well was struck near his farm. He has plenty of friends now.

Rev. N. McFetridge, of this city, will deliver the commencement poem before the Alumni association of Lafayette College, at Easton, Pa., on the 20th day of June, he having been the choice of the association. Mr. McFetridge is a graduate of the class of '64 and an A. M. of Lafayette college.

On Tuesday most of the old wooden awnings and signs projecting from the stores were removed, greatly improving the appearance of Centre street. The good work is to be continued until all are down, and the sidewalks cleared of boxes and given over to the use of pedestrians. Thanks to our efficient city officers.

We are informed by Mr. J. C. Shaw, Neshanock Falls, Pa., that the old Farmers and Mechanics well at Henry's Bend, which was bored in 1860, and which ceased to yield in 1865, has been re-opened and cleaned out by him, and after about forty hours steady pumping, produced oil at the rate of 40 barrels per day on the 10th inst. The well was not torpedoes. Mr. Shaw thinks that oil can be procured in paying quantities from the old well on Complanter island, with which nothing has been done since the flood in March '65, and he proposes to operate there soon.

—We take the following from the Greenville Argus:

There are eight newspapers published in Mercer county,—four more than the people can support, or the wants of the county demand. Six of these are home enterprises and legitimate establishments; the other two are "patent outside" concerns—newspaper bastards, born of New York cupidity and Mercer-co. stupidity, and sent out into the world to howl for pennies at the doors of the unsophisticated, or beg for crumbs at the tables of the rich. If there is a fool in the land that has failed to make a living at anything else, he sooner or later drifts into Mercer-co. and starts a newspaper.

We are again called upon to chronicle another death from the careless use of kerosene oil: At the Brookfield coal mine, a few days ago, a little girl, aged eight years, and daughter of a widow named Bren, attempted to make the fire burn by pouring oil on it from a can, which exploded and set her clothes on fire, and before the flames could be extinguished she was so badly burned that she has since died, after untold suffering. The mother of the child was absent at the time.

—An exchange has the following truthful remarks: The best way to build up a town is for every business man in the place to advertise his business in the columns of the local paper, and thus present an array of business houses on the street. It draws trade to town, draws produce to the town, draws money to the town. If a man wants to buy anything, he goes where he sees the most men trying to sell that article. If he wants to sell anything, he goes where the most men are buying. If a man wants to buy groceries or sell produce, he goes to the business man that advertises, for he knows where to find him and what he has to sell.

—The Fredonia Advertiser says: The Erie Railway, having purchased the Titusville and Union Railroad, propose to extend the same from Union, Pa., to Dunkirk. A surveying party is to be started forthwith for the laying out of the most feasible route. The length will be from forty to forty-five miles.
