LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. A. Virtue, of Emulation, will preach in the Presbyterian Church on next Sabbath, and every third Sabbath thereafter during the year.

W. P. Neill has duly entered upon his duties as Postmaster of this place. We hope he won't get proud just because he holds a government office and gets a big salary.

—John W. Stroup and Quill. McChitlock caught 50 trout of good size in Hunter's Run one day last week. We have no practical knowledge of how these particular trout tasted.

—The Grove & Wolcott well is still going down, but we can learn very little about it; as all hands and cooks are busy at the well, and we have not had time this week to pay them a visit.

—In the absence of other exciting amusements, foot-racing has been cultivated to some extent around here. One or two nerve trials take place every day.

—The Warren Ledger comes to us enlarged to an eight-column paper, and otherwise improved. There is yet, however, a vast chance for improvement in its politics.

—Jas. M. Bunn, Special D. G. W. T., organized a Temple of Honor at Youngsville, Warren Co., on the evening of the 9th inst. Rev. F. Delo was elected W. C. T., and G. W. Kinneer W. R.

—Mrs. P. O. Conner paid a short visit to our town on Tuesday last leaving on Wednesday morning. Her father is very sick, and requires her presence at home, is the reason she has not yet come to stay.

—The Corry Republican says "Local items are extremely scarce." We notice a dearth of local items in nearly all of our exchanges, and this place is no exception to the general rule. Just wait until we get a flood.

—Ballou's Magazine for June has been received and contains its usual amount of entertaining reading matter, illustrations, etc. The price is $1.50 a year, or 15 cts. per single copy. Address: Thomas and Talbot, 63 Congress street, Boston.

—Somebody poisoned a calf belonging to J. G. Dale, one night recently. Of course no one could point out the offender. We have some inhabitants, just as other towns have, who reflect no credit on either our morality or respectability, but they are mighty hard to bring to justice.

—The woods on the hills across the river were on fire on last week, and in the evenings presented a grand sight to those who had no property there to be destroyed. We have an idea that the sight did not look so nice to those whose fences and buildings were in danger. We have yet heard of no serious damages resulting from it.

—We learn from the Warren Ledger that Archie Little, formerly a conductor on the O. C. & A. R. R., held a birth-day reception on Monday evening, 8th inst. A glorious time was had by host and guests, the latter passing resolutions of great respect to the former. Archie is a popular man, and has hosts of friends who like to see his name in print.

—Lyman Cook speared a salmon weighing ten pounds, on Thursday night last, and out with a fishing party. The fish was impaled at the "Blue Narrows" about four miles up the creek. This is the largest salmon we have heard of as being caught in the Tionesta. Lyme measures two inches more in stature since Thursday night.

BIG WELL ON DALE ISLAND.

Pumping 25 bbls. and increasing.

A well which has for some time been going down on Dale Island, six miles up the river, owned by Judge Dale, Sheriff Davis, and two other parties, commenced pumping on Saturday, at the rate of 25 bbls. per day, strict measure, and no prospect of a decrease. We congratulate our townsmen on their good luck, and hope they, and all others of our citizens who are after this slippery article will find several other good wells close by us. We are bound to be an oil town if it takes years.

—Coupling up, at the mouth of the creek, and prayerfully waiting for a flood.

—Next Monday opens Court week, and then the quiet of our village will be dispelled, and business be lively.

—Mrs. Rogers has established a Milinery Store in the second story of the Acomb Building, Tionesta, Pa. She has all the latest styles, fresh from New York. Give her a call.

—T. B. Cobb and John D. Hunt were in town on Sunday. Barrett came in to look for a "rise," and John to hear the latest in regard to the prize fight between Mace and Coburn.

—We wish to call attention to the essay, "Who is at Fault?" on our first page. The author, Rev. Burton, is not at all backward in identifying himself with the temperance cause here, and will do his utmost to drive alcohol from our midst.

—One day last week, one of our "up the creek" fellows was on the train presided over by Conductor Gleason, and also upon a "train" of his own, got to poking his fist through the car windows. He was remonstrated with, but continued breaking glass, when Mr. Gleason concluded it was necessary to eject him from the train. This was accomplished after a great deal of trouble, and the discoloration of the window-smasher's eyes.

—The fire at Fagundus City, which we noticed last week, broke out in a private dwelling at the upper end of the street, on Sunday afternoon, 7th inst. Forty-five packages of business were destroyed in two hours. These buildings included the entire business portion of the town. There was a small insurance on some of the property, but the most of it is a dead loss. A large number of families were turned out of their houses by the fire. The place will probably be rebuilt in better shape than when it was burned. Lumber is being hauled there rapidly, and building has been commenced. The loss is variously estimated from $50,000 to $90,000.

—We notice our democratic exchanges quoting articles from the N. Y. Sun derogatory to President Grant, and they always preface the extracts with something like this: "Dana, editor of the N. Y. Sun, (Radical,) says." Now this small game has been going on for some time, and may, perhaps deceive some one who is without the light of either intelligence, or the Sun, but at the same time these democratic editors know that the Sun is a neutral paper, and that the editor, Dana, has always been a violent defamer of the President. And by such small dodges as these, they hope to prejudice some honest voters to their support and to the voter's shame. Get up something legitimate, gentlemen, and we won't throw the lie in your teeth, but will meet you square, but don't hope by such possumous practices as these to make capital for the approaching presidential campaign.

—Once in a while a little dog becomes so troublesome, with its snapping, snarling, and howling, as to attract the attention of some big gun, and then, not because there is any honor to be gained by it, but because it costs the gun very little powder, and protects the public from such annoyances in future, it lets go a light charge, and annihilates the canine. We clip the following from the Pittsburgh Commercial:

A Mercer county Democratic Journal, which is only kept from becoming malignant by being hopelessly idiotic, declares that "the loyal city of Pittsburgh can furnish a larger list of murderers and outrages than any similar population in Dixie," basing its impertinence on the statement that:

"A few days since a portion of the citizens of that place expelled from their neighborhood an obnoxious character by opening a broadside of brick-bats and rotten eggs against him."

Well, it is the first time we have heard of it. When was the editor down here, and what had he been doing? The people of Pittsburgh are utterly opposed to mob law, even under the most grievous provocations, and we feel certain that the next time he comes they will restrain their indignation within bounds, and simply hand him over to municipal guardianship—his offensiveness being forgotten in pity for his infirmity.

Oil City Correspondence.

OIL CITY, May 13, 1871.

DEAR REPUBLICAN:—The past week has been almost too quiet to furnish items for a correspondent to make any capital of; no fight has disgraced anybody's countenance, neither has any fire startled us out of our composure either by night or by day. In fact, the only circumstances which in any way marked the last week were the rise in the price of oil (which gladdened the hearts of all producers and of many dealers) and the pulling down of wood-oven awnings and projecting signs, which have heretofore disfigured the streets of the city. Our city fathers having an eye for the beautiful "ordained" that they should come down and thereupon they immediately came, much to the improvement of the looks of things.

The United Petroleum Farms Association have generously donated between three and four acres of land for the site of the Collegiate Institute that I mentioned two weeks ago. The land is situated on Cottage Hill and has a front of three hundred feet; it commands a fine view of the surrounding country and is as healthful a spot as can be found. If the citizens devise as liberal things in regard to the institution as the Association has, the project will be a grand success. The school is to be under the control of the Presbyterians.

We were gladdened the other day with a sight of the genial face of our friends Charley Breit and his amiable spouse, formerly of Tionesta, now of Titusville; the cares of married life don't seem to set hard on either of them.

Oil City is improving very rapidly, both in number and in the character of its buildings. Handsome brick blocks will be built during the coming summer which will give it a much more substantial air than it has formerly possessed, and the fine wellings now being erected, impart a look of comfort which will make us all feel more at home. Our city is bound to be the city of the oil regions; the indications all point in this direction. It is not only the railroad centre of oil-edom, but also the centre of oil production. Our population is receiving additions from all the towns about us showing that the tide is setting heavily in this direction, and nothing but a complete failure in the production of oil, or a marvellously low price for what is produced can prevent the improvement or hinder the growth of our prosperous young city.

Newspaper Laws.

We would call the special attention of Post Masters and subscribers to the FOREST REPUBLICAN to the following synopsis of the Newspaper laws:

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice by letter, (returning a paper does not answer the law), when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reason for its not being taken.—Neglecting to do so makes the Postmaster responsible to the publisher for the payment.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the Post office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect for it.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the Post Office. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

To Nebraska, California, and Kansas, and the B. & M. R. R. Landa.

The "Burlington Route," so called, lies, right in the path of the Star of Empire. It runs almost immediately in the center of the great westward movement of emigration. Crossing Illinois and Iowa, it strikes the Missouri river at three points.

These three points are the gateways into three great sections of the trans-Missouri region.

The Northern gate is Omaha, where the great Pacific road will take you to the land of gold and grapes, sunny mountains, and perpetual summer.

The middle gate is Plattsmouth, which opens upon the south half of Nebraska, south of the Platte river, a region unsurpassed on the continent for agriculture and grazing. Just here are the B. & M. Railroad lands, concerning which Geo. S. Harris, the land officer at Burlington, Iowa, can give you all information, and in the heart of them is Lincoln, the State Capital and present terminus of the road.

The Southern gate leads to Kansas, by connections with the St. Joe Road at Hamburg, running direct to St. Joe and Kansas City.

The trains of the Burlington run smoothly and safely, and make all connections. It runs the best of coaches, Pullman Palace and Pullman Dining cars, and should you take the journey for the journey's sake alone, you will be repaid; or take it to find a home or a farm, and you cannot find either better than among the B. & M. lands, where you can buy on ten years' credit, and at a low price.

ADDRESS

To the NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED.

WHOSE sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable:

If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce on your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or floccy, or is itropy on setting? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, mooping, tired of company, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, giving to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, or nervousness, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. Those will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to produce almost every other disease—dyspepsia, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected and have doctored for but the right one.

Disorders of these organs require the use of a Diuretic, HELMOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the greatest Diuretic
