

The following from the Oil City Times:

THE COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE—A meeting called for the purpose of taking some definite action in regard to the establishment of an educational institution in this city...

On motion a committee of twenty-one incorporators was elected, consisting of the following gentlemen: Capt. J. Mumhall, chairman; Dr. C. A. Cooper, Dr. Wm. Parker, George V. Foreman, Dr. B. Colbert, J. J. Vandergriff, Charles Thumlin, A. W. Say, John W. Fisher, Dr. J. D. Baldwin, G. W. Parker, R. D. McCarty, Dr. M. M. Knox, Andrew Cane, R. M. James, W. M. Williams, H. L. McCance, J. T. Jones, Daniel Fisher, W. J. Brundred, and J. J. Broadhead.

On motion the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions: Rev. N. McPetridge, John Mumhall, A. W. Say, Dr. B. Colbert, and J. T. Johnson, after which the meeting adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening June 7th in the same place.

F. W. HAYS, Sec'y. Delevan Temple No. 114, T. of H., was instituted in this city last week by James M. Bunn. The following officers were duly elected and installed into office: W. C. T., Andrew Cone; W. V. T., James R. Robertson; W. R. J. B. Smithman; W. A. R. O. W. Fletcher; W. F. R., Chas. B. Grant; W. T. S. D. Kellogg; W. M. Chas. M. Morse, Jr.; W. D. U. M. D. Lane; W. G. C. M. Morse; W. S. D. M. Zook; P. W. C. T., J. C. Boyce.

Monday evening, a carbonic acid gas generator exploded in the soda water factory of L. L. Weil, Titusville, breaking Henry Miller's left leg and saturating his eyes with carbonate of lime and sulphuric acid.

On Saturday night, the grocery store of Newmarker Bros., Pleasanton, was destroyed by fire, together with a portion of its contents. The loss on building and stock is estimated at $1,000; partially covered by insurance.

We clip the following from the Venango Spectator:

On Monday afternoon a shoemaker named Schoop was killed by the cars at Parker's Landing. He was walking on the track and neglected to jump off, when he was struck by the locomotive, thrown up in the air, and his skull crushed in the descent. He was forty years of age.

Twenty-eight trains pass this point daily on the Jamestown and Franklin railroad. The business of this road is increasing daily. Under the able superintendence of Geo. H. McIntire, Esq., who is an untiring worker, the J. & F. is one of the best managed roads in the country.

David Atkinson lived in Oil City until last Monday morning when the Mayor up there sent him to the county jail to reside in default of $1,000 bail. Mrs. Atkinson, David's wife, takes in washing and supported David; and Mrs. A. mistakenly gave out the wrong shirt which enraged her liege lord so much that he wanted to stick a big knife into her anatomy; and that's what the Mayor sent him down to Sheriff Herpst for.

John S. Jacobs, of Lycoming county, a baggage master on the A. V. R. R., was killed on Tuesday afternoon at Mahoning. He had his head out of the baggage car watching a man attempting to get aboard of his train, coming north, after it left Mahoning, when he was struck by the timbers of a coal breaker, knocked out of the car, his right arm run over, and injured internally. He was carried to Brady's Bend, where he died. J. P. Croll, mail agent was looking out of the car at the same time and was struck down by the car. He was knocked insensible, but while his injuries are severe they are not fatal. The conductor had just stepped in from the same dangerous position a moment before.

By referring to our list of deaths it will be seen that the Hon. William Connelly is dead. Mr. Connelly was the oldest citizen in the county, and a man of remarkable memory and varied experience.

INCENDIARISM AT SHAMBURG.—At 3 o'clock on Saturday morning, at Shamburg, an attempt was made to burn a large business portion of the town, and had it not been for Mr. C. Leffingwell, an engineer on the Talman farm, it would, perhaps, have proved successful, because at that hour there are but few in or about the streets. One of the wells from the big boiler, at that Leffingwell is tending, had stopped pumping, and he was returning from it, when he noticed an extra light "from the usual gas lights about town which are burning at night," which proved to be from the kitchen of Mr. E. L. Stilwell's Restaurant. The alarm was promptly given, and a few pails of water extinguished the flames, which were kindled by throwing refuse oil against the house and upon the roof of a shingled cave adjoining.

The Savings Bank, Allegheny Trans. Co., and W. U. Telegraph Co. office are on one side, and the Post Office building on the other, all of which have been burned, and perhaps other property on the opposite side of the street. The authorities are working up the matter, and it is hoped the guilty party will meet his or their just deserts.—Herald.

Boy Killed—His Brother Badly Hurt.

Two sons of J. G. Lewis, employed in Grill's coal bank, east of town, were very unfortunate on Tuesday last. In letting an empty car down the slope, in some way it became detached from the chain, and running down very swiftly struck the younger brother, who was unexpectedly in the way, injuring him so much that he died the following night. The elder brother, as soon as possible after the accident, started on horse-back for town for medical assistance; and in galloping past the residence of Mr. Crill, where the house belonged and was in the habit of stopping, it made such a sudden turn toward the barn as to throw the rider off, who fell on his head, and for a time was entirely senseless. We understand that a fatal result is not apprehended from this latter accident, although the boy is very seriously hurt.—Mercer Press.

The following from the Clearfield Journal:

A colored man named John Moulton had one of his legs so badly crushed, on Monday the 7th inst., as to make amputation necessary. He jumped from the train, while it was in motion, at Stiners, a station in this county on the Tyrone and Clearfield railroad, and striking an embankment, one of his legs was thrown on the track and the cars passed over it, crushing it as above stated.

The two fellows—one named Jilison, and the other Lovejoy—who robbed Jere Brady of $200, and gold watch, at the Smith House on Tuesday night of last week, were traced to within three miles of Gettysburg, Indiana county, by Constable Mack, and there arrested by him on Friday, and lodged in jail at this place on Saturday. The watch and money both being found upon the persons of the parties makes their conviction certain, and their chance very good for a couple of years in the Western Penitentiary. There was also found upon the person of one of them a "slung-shot" of cast-iron, weighing three pounds, and attached to a heavy strip of leather. They are boarding at Sheriff P.'s while awaiting their trial.

We clip the following items from the Oil City Argus:

The residence of George Lowery at Clarksville, was entirely destroyed by fire on Saturday last. A part of the building on the first floor was saved. The exact cause is not known, but is supposed to have caught from a defective flue, or from sparks falling on the roof.

Eli McCoy, of this place, accidentally broke his leg while assisting some stone-masons at Transfer. The bone was broken in two places. The patient is doing well under the circumstances. On the 12th inst., the roof of the Cleveland Shaft, near Sharon, fell, striking John Reed, who was at work in the mines and injured him so severely that he died next morning.

A man named John Flick, living near Hickory Corners, this county, shot himself through the head on Friday last, while carelessly handling a pistol.

We clip the following items from the Elk Advocate:

Last Saturday, 21st inst., there was some difficulty between two men, at St. Mary's, this county, named respectively Frank Paides and John Hoffman, during which Paides stabbed Hoffman in the arm with a dirk-knife, inflicting a severe wound.

Harry Swartz while engaged sawing wood at Hyde Honk & Whitmore's mill, this place, last Monday, had his right hand badly mutilated by its coming in contact with the saw; the forefinger was sawed entirely, and the thumb partly, off.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.—The week has been prolific in accidents. First, the horrible explosion of glycerine published in our last. Second, Mr. Cozzena, who is employed in the Tidouthe Mills, was caught in a shaft by his vest, and had the fleshy portion of the left arm terribly lacerated. Third, on Sunday last as Mr. F. Dunn was going to Titusville, his horses started from the drinking trough at the Pine Grove House, on a run, colliding with a tree a short distance beyond, squeezing Mr. Dunn against the tree, and very seriously injuring him, so much so that it was feared it would result fatally, but we are happy to say that he is out of danger and recovering fast, and will soon show his genial face upon the street. Fourth, Mr. DeRoche's horse ran away, spilling the boy who was driving, and knocking the wagon into smithereens.—Tidouthe Journal.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Edward Wainwright, son of C. W. Wainwright, of Benecette, was killed at Northumberland last Saturday. The bank of the river at that point is very steep, and while the young man was walking along the edge of the bank, he fell, striking his head against the rocks, and was precipitated into the river. Assistance was promptly at hand, but when taken out he was dead. The deceased was aged 18 years—a young of much promise. His remains were taken to his home for interment.—Cameron Press.

—Frank Richards, a son of T. B. Richards, of this place, a lad some 13 years of age, came near drowning last Saturday, while bathing in the Clarion river, near the Toby bridge. He got in over head, and was on the point of drowning, when Mr. A. W. Corbett, who happened to be near, plunged in and rescued him.—Clarion Democrat.

—We take the following from the Clarion Republican:

Carlos Corbett, a son of W. L. Corbett, Esq., of this place, on Friday last was leading a cow to the field, with a rope, when by some means he fell and was kicked in the face by the cow, breaking off his front teeth and splitting his upper lip.

On Tuesday afternoon the 16th inst., the dwelling house of William White in Porter township, was struck by lightning, setting fire to the building, which was soon wrapped in flames. The house was just new, having been occupied by Mr. White but a short time. Nothing in the upper part of the building was saved. The loss is estimated at $2,200, which falls heavily on Mr. White as he had no insurance.

—A gentleman who arrived from West Hickory this forenoon, informs us that nearly the entire burnt district at Fagnodus City is built over, and with a superior class of buildings. It is surprising how rapidly these old towns build up, in the very face of the fire. The business men of the oil region are of that active energetic class that will not be put down by either fire or flood. If visited by disaster they are sure to rise and flourish again. No section of country exhibits a more energetic lot of live men than the oil region. Beat it, who can!—Pet. Cen. Rec.

—At Oleopolis, on Saturday, a lady with a little child in her arms got aboard, the Oil Creek train, and in so doing, dropped her parasol in the aisle. A polite doctor from Petroleum Centre supposing it to have been dropped by a lady that had just left the car, made a rush for it and passed it through the car window to the crowd on the platform. By this time the train had got under motion and when the owner claimed it in a loud voice it had passed beyond reach. The doctor looked as if he would sell out on "reasonable terms."—Cor. Erie Dispatch.
