-The Republican County Commit-tee appointed the Primary meetings in July. Full particulars next week.

-Knox & Co. have just received a prime lot of cigars which are going cheap.

-School opened here yesterday, with Miss Ladds and Mrs. Cook as teachers. It is right hot weather, but we believe the attendance is fair.

J. Reck has leased the property at the mouth of Little Tionesta, and is away after a steam saw mill. We believe Frank Reck will have charge of the mill.

-Last week a man from up the creek was pretty badly hurt in a row, the nature of which we could not learn, by Mr. Goodmin. He is yet under the doctor's care.

-Our Young Folks and the Atlantic Monthly are on our table. We have not hid time to examine either of them, but can recommend them both to our readers. Jas. R. Osgood & Co., publishers, Boston, Mass.

-Geo. G. Sickles Esq., of New York, who is an extensive owner of town lots in this place, made us a short call on Tuesday last. He was and was reported phonographically by once a printer and now he's wealthy. Mr. Martin. -We wish to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. C. Hull, with the big piano in it. Mr. Hull has an agent, Mr. Minton looking over this part of his territory, and will probably pick up a good trade here. Mr. Minton will be in town until to-morrow morning, and will probably visit us frequently.

-Spearing fish by torchlight is the latest and best sport indulged in by our young men and boys. Quite a number of large ones have been speared recently. The water is low and clear, and the fish are plenty. Mr. Porter, of Clarington, also tells us that there are more fish caught in the Clarion River this year than any previous season for some years.

-Licences have been granted to all who applied in our county, remonstrances, containing the names of many of our best citizens having been set aside, and no more attention paid them, than if they had been so much blank paper. Oh! for the Local Option law. We can then know whether or not this liquor traffic is approved by the majority of our voters. We are willing to leave the result to them. -T. J. Vangeesen has purchased the wagon and blacksmith shop of W. W. Dimond, and also his residence on Race street. Mr. Vangeesen does capital good work, is accommodating, and will do a good business here. Mr. Dimond and family will soon depart for the West to take up some land under the Homestead Law as amended for the benefit of soldiers. They will be missed here very much. -We are under obligations to A. M. Martin, Esq., of the Corry Republican for a copy of the "Proceedings of the Semi-Annual Convention, I. O. G. T., of the North-Western District of Pennsylvania, held at Mendville, April 12th and 13th, 1871." It is a neatly printed pamphlet of 54 pages, and Guthrie for defts. Non suit.

ADDRESS To the Nerveous AND DEBILITATED.

WHOSE sufferings have been protraci-ed from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable :

If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce on your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your! urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the top ? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of frainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impared? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? De The Oil Regions to Pittsburgh. you enjoy yourself in society as well?
