Justices of the Peace—W. P. Merrelliott,

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

President Judge—JAMES CAMPBELL.
Associate Judges—J. A. PROPER, AN-DREW COOK.
Sheriff—E. L. DAVIS.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—We are not able to give our usual amount of reading matter this week, on account of a press of advertising.
We will make it up hereafter.

—A. H. Steele started for the West yesterday, to bring his family home.
They have been visiting in Boone, Iowa, for about two months or more.

—J. J. Fisher has sold out his stock of goods to other merchants in town, and, we believe, contemplates going out of business altogether.

—Judge Proper is pulling down the old barn below his store, on Elm St., and the change promises to be an improvement to the property.

—"Cooning" is in vogue about here.
Several 'coons have been captured, and much corn roasted by the cooners.
We have not tried our hand yet.

—Dr. Worthington, of West Chester, Inspector of Prisons, was in town last week, and inspected our county jail. He pronounced it in good order.

—D. S. Knox & Co. have bought out the Hardware and Tinware department of J. J. Fisher's establishment, and offer the same at reduced rates to all who wish to purchase.

—Prof. Porter was in town on Saturday, looking as though Cooksburgh grub agreed with him. He was dusting around getting ready for the Cooksburgh exhibition.

—When we went to press last week, the weather looked favorable for a flood. Only enough water fell, however, to make the mills run easy for a while.

—Jos. Grove cut his foot pretty severely one day last week, at Sandy.
He is now at home, on crutches, but hopes soon to be in a condition to run footraces.

—Rev. Burton was ambitious to beat Capt. Knox on a bee-line. So he went at and got one of his eyes closed by the stern stroke of a bee. He is still one eye and a nose behind the Cap. Try it again, Elder; you may come out ahead yet.

—Judging from present indications, chestnuts will be an abundant crop in this section. We believe they are too far along now to be liable to harm from frosts, so we can smack our chops in anticipation of a nice time eating chestnuts this fall and winter.

ATTENTION.—There will be a special meeting of Tionesta Temple of Honor No. 108, on Friday evening next, 8th inst. Business of importance will be transacted, and all members are particularly requested to be present.

M. W. TATE, W. C. T.

—We were the recipient of a friendly call from Col. McCoy, Ass't Auditor General of Pa., on Saturday last. He is a very agreeable gentleman, and we only regret that business was so brisk that we could not properly entertain him. He was here looking after some lands which he owns in the county.

—Judge Dale is mending rapidly, and is now able to be out occasionally.
He received a bad cut under his chin, about three-fourths of an inch from the jugular vein, and considers himself fortunate in coming off as well as he did.
Mr. Steele is all right, not having been hurt very much.

—We desire to call attention to the programme of an exhibition, to be given by the Cooksburgh Literary Society, which will be found on the second page. Prof. Porter will manage the affair, and his reputation is established in that line. We have no doubt that it will be a complete success, and hope to see a large delegation from this place go out there to see how it is themselves. If job work comes in until then, as it has for a couple of months past, we despair of getting there ourselves; but if it is a possible thing we will see the exhibition.

—On Thursday morning M. E. Porter, constable from Barnett, arrested a man in this place, on a warrant from Clarion county, renewed before Esq.
Merrelliott, on suspicion of having stolen a suit of clothes out of the boarding house at Payne's saw mill.
It seems that the above transaction is considerably mixed. On the morning above alluded to a gentleman from Clarion presented a warrant to Esq.
Merrelliott for renewal, for the arrest of one Austin. This man Austin the day before sent a satchel to this place by the Clarion stage, and in the evening was seen coming into town carrying another. He staid at the Tionesta House that night, but had no baggage. The gentleman that had the warrant renewed, showed it to constable Porter, but did not give it to him, with instructions not to arrest Austin until he had discovered the satchel that Austin brought into town with him the evening previous, supposed to contain the stolen goods. Mr. Porter arrested the man Austin on sight and took him before Esq. Merrelliott, who told him to hold him until the parties from Clarion came and took him, or else take him before Esquire Alt, where the warrant was sworn out. For some reason Porter let the man Austin go. After he had left, the constable from Clarion found the satchel in I. Hilbrunner & Co.'s store, where Austin had left it the evening previous, with the clothing in it that had been stolen, and also some letters, books, notes, &c. There were several notes of large amounts payable to the order of William H. Austin. The constable from Clarion immediately started in pursuit of Austin, but up to this time we have not heard of his recapture.

—We have received a private letter from W. W. Dimond, dated at Cauer City, Kansas, Aug. 26. He says he has almost come to a stop; so we suppose he will settle somewhere near there.
Seven buffaloes paid the town a visit a few days before his arrival, and there are droves of them only twelve miles from the city. He proposed to pay them a visit on the day he wrote. We suppose we shall hear of a great slaughter of the buffaloes, as soon as Will. draws a bead on them. He has passed through some of the prettiest country during the past two weeks, that he has ever seen. Crops are good as ever were raised in the country. There is much more land taken up than he expected. From the city of Solomon to Cauer City, the distance is eighty miles. Wm., in company with three others, hired a team to take them to the latter place. It took them two days to make the journey, and cost them thirty dollars beside their board.
If he concludes to stay there he hopes he will not have many such trips to make. He promises us another letter soon.

—The micreant that visited Mr.
Tate's house, Saturday night, and returned Sunday night, and eat up a lot of pies and cakes, and destroyed the flowers in the porch, and then, to cap all, committed a nuisance in the porch, had better keep scarce, for one of our hardware stores sold a Smith & Wesson revolver, on Monday with a good lot of cartridges. Law will not reach such fellows as these, and the only just way to deal with them is to pepper them on the spot.

—Frank Mabie had a runaway accident on Saturday, which resulted in the buggy being knocked into a cocked hat, and giving Frank a pair of dis-colored optics, and, in fact, putting a regular head on Frank. This is the second accident with a smashed buggy that has happened Mr. Mabie during the last month, and we suppose the expense will be pretty heavy.

—There is to be a re-union of the members of the 83d Pa. Regiment, at Meadville, on the 12th inst. One good strong company of that Regiment went out from here, and we suppose this section will be well represented. These re-unions of regiments are very pleasant, and we will be on hand like a thousand of brick, if ever our regiment takes a notion to re-une.

—Have you ever tried Nature's Hair Restorative? You will be delighted with it. Clean, safe, and efficient. It is driving all the poisonous compounds out of the market. It is as clear as crystal. See advertisement.

—The Superior Lumber Co. Store having bought the School Book trade of J. J. Fisher, are now prepared to furnish the public with all kinds of school and miscellaneous books. Will keep constantly on hand a full assortment of school books and general literature.

Fort Pitt Correspondence.

SEPT. 4, 1871.

ED. REPUBLICAN!—Matters and things in general have been very dull at this place for the past week. Could not persuade any one to hurt himself, so as to get up an item, until Thursday last, when James Carl finally consented and in skidding a log, slipped on a piece of bark, the log rolling upon his right leg, dislocating the ankle joint.

We are having fine pigeon shooting. Your correspondent, accompanied by M. Donovan, on Thursday last, in one hour, bagged twenty-five of the finest he has seen this season.

A very amusing incident took place on Friday last, near the tram road.
Two of our friends were out hunting a bee-tree. Thinking they had discovered the desired object in a fallen tree, they made preparations to secure the honey. Having, as they supposed, killed all the bees, they cut into the log for the honey. After cutting a few moments, and making a small hole, they came to a yellow jacket's nest out of which came several hundred of the enraged insects. Axes were dropped, search immediately abandoned, and a hasty, but orderly retreat followed. By request we omit the names of the gentlemen concerned, but think the joke too good to keep. More anon.

Urs &c., Doc.

Burlington.

Leaving the East and arriving at Chicago or Indianapolis, how shall we reach the West? The best line is acknowledged to be the C., B. & Q., joined together with the B. & M. Railroad by the Iron Bridge at Burlington, and called the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

The main line of the Route running to Omaha, connects with the great Pacific Roads, and forms to-day the leading route to California. The Middle Branch, entering Nebraska at Platte-mouth, passes through Lincoln, the State Capital, and will this year be finished to Fort Kearney, forming the shortest route across the Continent by over 100 miles.

Another branch of the B. M., diverging at Red Oak, falls into a line running down the Missouri through St.
Joe to Kansas City, and all Kansas.
Passengers by this route to Kansas, see Illinois, Southern Iowa, and Missouri, and, by a slight divergence, can see Nebraska also.

Lovers of fine views should remember the Burlington Route, for its towns "high-gleaming from afar"—its tree-fringed steams—its rough bluffs and quarries—its corn-oceans stretching over the prairies further than eye can reach.

Land-buyers will be sure to remember it, for they have friends among the two thousand who have already bought farms from Geo. S. Harris, the Land Commissioner of the B. & M.
R. R. at Burlington, Iowa, or among the four thousand home-steaders and preemptors who last year filed claims in the Lincoln land office, where "Uncle Sam is rich enough to give us all a farm."
