LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Presbyterian Services will be held in this place next Sabbath, morning and evening. Photograph Pictures and Frames at the Superior Lumber Co. Store. Quarterly meeting will be held next Saturday and Sunday at Asbury Chapel. Rev. O. L. Mead, P. E., will conduct the services. Hard to beat—that new lot of Gents' Paper Collars, just received at Superior Lumber Co. Store. The flowing well at Cash-up City one day last week produced 900 barrels, and is now producing 300 steady. The other wells hold out first-rate, and new ones will be tested soon. A full line and superior quality of Silk Ribbons, received and for sale at Superior Lumber Co. Store. We publish the Jury List and Court Proclamation this week. The first murder trial ever held in Forest County will be held at this court. We will have a full report of the trial in our paper. Just received—a new lot of Cypriates and Cassimeres, at the Superior Lumber Co. Store. Wm. Haggerty, of Emlenton, advertised his lost cattle in our paper last week, and as a consequence, found them. If there is anything you want everybody to know, advertise in the REPUBLICAN. The newest styles of Ladies' Corsets at the Superior Lumber Co. Store. We were sorry to observe, last week, a number of men about our streets who had been "lubricating" to such an extent that they walked, talked and acted very loose. One or two fights, two or three slapped mouths, and a wrestle resulted from this cause. Lace and Linen Collars in great variety, at the Superior Lumber Co. Store. We have several "occasional" correspondents, but they haven't appeared to appreciate the occasion for some weeks past, and we mourn much for their timely assistance in making our paper a medium of general county intelligence. Give us a line now and then, if only to let us know that you are well. Good styles of Paper Collars for 10 cents a box, at the Superior Lumber Co. Store. We observe that the side-walks are getting seedy in some places, and were forcibly reminded of the fact one very dark evening of last week by peeling our shins by stepping through a hole in the walk in front of A. H. Steele's house. Let the walks be repaired. Table Linen, Toweling, Linen Napkins, Plain Irish Linen, Bird's Eye and all kinds of Linen and Linen Goods at Superior Lumber Co. Store. The Dale vs. Wilkins case, which involves some land at Fugandus, on which a great deal of oil has been produced, comes off in the District Court, at Pittsburgh this week. Messrs. Dale and Henry left for Pittsburgh yesterday, to look after their side of the question. A full line of Ladies' and Gents' fall and winter Silk, Silk Lisle and Fleeced Lined Gloves at Superior Lumber Co. Store. Many swine have fallen beneath the fatal epidemic which always overtakes them at about this time of the year, and fresh pork is as plenty as any one except a hog could wish. Speaking of the poet-venelist-writer, that Jas. G. Clark, the recent-visit-writer, has written a piece to the Titusville Courier descriptive of "The Hogs of Oil City." Mr. Weber has inaugurated weekly meetings of his pupils, the object of which meetings are to encourage them, the pupils, to greater exertions. Each scholar is required play a piece which shall be given them a day or two before the meeting. We believe the next meeting takes place at the house of T. B. Cobb, on Thursday evening next.

The flood has been, and gone. The long wished for water came and busy was the creek and river for several days of last week. On Tuesday night the rain continued to fall all night, notwithstanding the numerous prophecies against it. On Wednesday the creek and river were up to a good rafting stage, and the trains both ways brought in numbers of men who had timber in the creek, pilots and hands for all the various positions of a raft. Several rafts went off on Tuesday night without pilots, and Wednesday some few went out with full crews. A jam above the bridge, caused by some barges and rafts getting crosswise of the channel against the piers, prevented a great deal of lumber from being run. A channel was at length opened on the north side of the bridge by cutting into creek pieces an Allegheny timber raft, which could never have gone through coupled up. Altogether a good deal of business has been done, but not as much as might have been had not the jam occurred. Lumbermen still expect more water, and, as we write, on Monday, the indications are favorable. However everybody is thankful for even a small flood, and will wait patiently now for the next rise. May it come soon. Silk Gimp, Silk Frin, Silk Velvet Ribbons, Glimp Laces, Hk and Velvet Buttons, and all kinds of Dress Trimmings for sale at Superior Lumber Co. Store. Thus F. Simmons has been visiting our place for a few days past. He is talking of moving to Tionesta to set up a brick yard. We think it would pay. A full line of All Wool Long and Square, Imitation Paisley, and Black Merino Shawls for sale at Superior Lumber Co. Store. Jas. Hulings cut himself on the left knee with an ax, one day last week. He is now hobbling around with a couple of canes, and will soon be fit for active duty again. Gents' Hats and Caps, Fall and Winter Styles, Men and Boys' Boots, also a full variety of Ladies' Lace Boots, Shoes, Gaiters and Overshoes at Superior Lumber Co. Store. Z. Bonney, of Buffalo, N. Y., an old subscriber of ours, called in last week, and straightened up and told us to send on the paper, because he couldn't keep house without it. Among other things he said that Buffalo was larger than Tionesta. Now it is currently reported and generally believed that the Chicago fire was a judgement on that city for glorying because they were a little ahead of Tionesta in point of population and buildings, if not in point of influence. However, notwithstanding Mr. Bonney's boast, we hope no calamity will overtake Buffalo. We may want to annex it to Tionesta some day. A full line of Underwear, knit and Woolen Goods to be received soon at the Superior Lumber Co. Store. On Saturday evening last a man named Timothy Donovan, met with an accident at the mouth of Stewart's Run, on the O. C. & A. R. Ry. He with some other men were riding on a hand-car; Donovan's legs were hanging over the end of the car, when, by some means which we could not learn, the end of the car on which Donovan was riding, struck against some ties, breaking one of his legs between the ankle and knee. Drs. Hunter and Winans reduced the fracture, which was a compound one, and the patient will get along nicely. Extracts, Perfumery, Hair Oils, Tooth Brushes, Combs and all kinds of Toilet Articles at the Superior Lumber Co. Store. We wish to call attention to a communication headed "A Pertinent Query," in another column. It calls the attention of the lumbermen to the necessity of an organization to protect their interests, and especially as far as the rafting in the Tionesta creek is concerned. We agree with our correspondent, that such an organization would prove wise, and save much lumber and money which are now lost because "what is everybody's business is nobody's business." There will be probably, in the course of human events, another flood. Let the lumbermen be prepared for it. BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR DECEMBER.—The December number of this popular magazine is out and for sale at all the depots in the country. It is a capital issue, and has more reading of real value and interest than any publication of its class in the country. No one can fail to be interested in "Ballou's Magazine," for the simple reason that the publishers cater to the tastes of all, and not to one class alone, as many serials do. Old and young can find amusement in "Ballou's," and it is not of an expensive kind either, for $1.50 secures it for a year, and it is only 15 cents a number. Now is the time to start clubs for the new year. Address Thomas & Talbot, 63 Congress Street, Boston.

S. G. Sullivan, who has been in our place since last spring attending to Slater Bros' lumber, left during the flood for his home, Cincinnati. Leaving the East and arriving at Chicago or Indianapolis, how shall we reach the West? The best line is acknowledged to be the C. B. & Q., joined together with the B. & M. Railroad by the Iron Bridge at Burlington, and called the BURLINGTON ROUTE. The main line of the Route running to Omaha, connects with the great Pacific Roads, and forms to-day the leading route to California. The Middle Branch, entering Nebraska at Plattsmouth, passes through Lincoln, the State Capital, and will this year be finished to Fort Kearney, forming the shortest route across the Continent by over 100 miles. Another branch of the B. M., diverging at Red Oak, falls into a line running down the Missouri through St. Joe to Kansas City, and all Kansas. Passengers by this route to Kansas, see Illinois, Southern Iowa, and Missouri, and by a slight divergence, can see Nebraska also. Lovers of fine views should remember the Burlington Route, for its towns "high-gleaming from afar"—its tree-freighted steams—its rough bluffs and quarries—its corn-oceans stretching over the prairies further than eye can reach. Land-buyers will be sure to remember it, for they have friends among the two thousand who have already bought farms from Geo. S. Harris, the Land Commissioner of the B. & M. R. R. at Burlington, Iowa, and among the four thousand home-steaders and pre-emptors who last year filed claims in the Lincoln land office, where "Uncle Sam is rich enough to give us all a farm." NATURE'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. WHOSE sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce on your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or floccy, or is itropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint? Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any uneasiness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. Those will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for. Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.
