The Chime of Bells.

Rev. Dr. Adams, in his beautiful book on "Thanksgiving Memories," gives us the following incident: "In the Cathedral of Limerick there hangs a chime of bells which was cast in Italy by an enthusiast in his trade, who fixed his home near the monastery where they were first hung, that he might daily enjoy their sweet and solemn music.

Why Workmen Leave England.

Morris Phillips, Esq., of the Home Journal, writing from England, mentions the following: "In the railroad station at Holyhead, on the Welsh coast, I was witness to a scene painful to any one who believes all men are born free and equal.

What was his Other Name.

As Artemus Ward was once traveling in the cars, dreading to be bored, and feeling miserable, a man approached him, sat down and said: "Did you hear the last thing on Horace Greeley?"

Garters.

Some New England lady—Mrs. Daniels, we believe—another of the Daniels come to judgment—has invented a new-fangled apparatus for keeping ladies' stockings up, which is to supersede the time honored and knightly garter.
